His Excellency, Governor Stephen Merrill, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Edward G. Horstmann.

Draw us together, O God, around the energy of Your life and the compassion of Your dreams. Hear our prayers for the friends and family of Richard Barberia and Cal Warburton as we give thanks for their service to us and the land and people of New Hampshire. COMMUNICATIONS

Hon. Harold W. Burns, Speaker

It is with regret I must resign my seat in the Legislature. I have purchased a new home in another Ward of Manchester and will no longer reside in House District 48. My resignation is effective on July 17.

I have enjoyed the Legislative session in which I have participated. You are to be commended for your success as Speaker. I would also like to thank you for the committee, Science Energy and Technology, to which I was assigned. The work of this committee has been very difficult, but the members and leadership worked hard and very well together to accomplish it. Jeb Bradley is an excellent chairman who has proven his intent to serve the people with good legislation which is well thought out.

I have learned a lot in my brief term. My hat is off to all members of the House. New Hampshire is justly proud of you.

Bernard J. Luebkert

The Speaker accepted the resignation with regret.

July 12, 1995

Hon. Harold W. Burns, Speaker

It is with sadness, but affection, that I tender my resignation as Representative of Strafford County, District 7, effective July 15th. My husband's job has moved to Michigan, and the kids and I have grown rather fond of him (and of eating), so I guess we will follow.

I will treasure the memories of my five years in the House and the many friendships here. My best to all of you as you continue this most important work for the people of New Hampshire.

Patricia A. Hambrick

The Speaker accepted the resignation with regret.

August 17, 1995

Hon. Harold W. Burns, Speaker

It is with my deepest regret that I must resign my seat in the House of Representatives for the 9th Rockingham District.

After a 17 year residency in Sandown, I have moved to Epsom, New Hampshire so I can no longer represent the good people in Sandown and Danville.

Changing my residency was an agonizing decision for me not only because of the many, many friends and fine acquaintances I made over the years in Sandown, but because I truly enjoyed the responsibility of representing them at the State House.

I want to thank you personally, Mister Speaker, for making me feel welcome, important and respected as a member of the House. During my all too brief stay, I learned to have only the highest respect and admiration for you and all my former colleagues in the General Court. Should the opportunity arise in my new District, I would certainly consider running once again for a seat in the Hampshire House of Representatives.

Jefferson Cornell

The Speaker accepted the resignation with regret.

NOTICE OF INTRODUCTION

The Speaker notified the members that pursuant to Chapter 81, Laws of 1995 (House Bill 55) and House Rule 40 (a), HB 32-FN-A-L, relative to the reorganization of and budget reductions within the department of health and human services and making changes in appropriations to the department in fiscal years 1996 and 1997, was introduced and referred to the Committee on Finance on October 10, 1995.

COMMITTEE REPORT

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 32-FN-A-L, relative to the reorganization of and budget reductions within the department of health and human services and making changes in appropriations to the department in fiscal years 1996 and 1997. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Channing T. Brown for Finance: This bill will enable the reorganization of the Department of Health and Human Services. It also will make changes in appropriations to reduce the budget by 32 million. An employment program and family assistance program to replace the aid to families with dependent children program is also contained in this bill. Vote 12-9.

COMMUNICATION

October 31, 1995

Rep. Channing T. Brown, Chairman, House Finance
Sen. David P. Currier, Chairman, Senate Finance

A typographical error has been found in the amendment to HB 32, dealing with the nursing facility bonus incentive pilot program. In section 201 of the amendment, paragraph II(c)(1) refers to a "1-month period" when it should actually refer to a 12-month period. The backup material used in the preparation of this amendment clearly refers to a 12-month period for this provision. The remainder of section 201 uses a 12-month period as the time frame for certain determinations.

This error is clearly a technical mistake and can be corrected administratively. If this proposed amendment (documents 4029L and 4030L), is adopted and HB 32 is passed by both the House and Senate, then a corrected version of the appropriate page will be incorporated into the bill as amended, prior to sending it to the Governor.

Donald R. Hunter, Director, Legislative Services

STATEMENT OF INTENT

Rep. Channing Brown read the following statement.

The intent of the nursing facility rate cap in section 45 of the amended version of HB 32 is to exclude the incentive payments to facilities that were included in the rate that was in effect on September 30, 1995. The testimony of the representatives from the Department of Health and Human Services and the new bonus program that was negotiated by the Department with the nursing facility providers were both based on the elimination of the current incentive program. The reduction of the incentive program is included in the savings projected in section 188 of the amended bill on page 132, line 90 under Nursing Services.

Amendment (4029L & 4030L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Department Reorganized. RSA 126-A is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

126-A:1 Declaration of Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide an integrated, administrative structure for the design and delivery of a comprehensive and coordinated system of health and human services which is family-centered and community-based for the citizens of New Hampshire.

126-A:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the department of health and human services.

II. "Department" means the department of health and human services.

126-A:3 General Provisions.

I. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the commissioner is hereby authorized to:

(a) Make such transfer among any and all accounts and program appropriation units of the department as the commissioner shall deem necessary and appropriate to effect a reorganization of the department, address present or projected budget deficits, or respond to changes in federal laws, regulations or programs and otherwise as necessary for the efficient management of the department. At least 10 days prior to executing such transfer, the commissioner shall notify the legislative fiscal committee of such transfer and of the impact of such transfer on programs and services of the department. Within 10 days of the commissioner's notification to the legislative fiscal committee, the committee shall determine whether the transfer will eliminate or substantially reduce a departmental program or service. If the committee determines that the transfer eliminates or substantially reduces a departmental program or service, the committee shall inform the commissioner of its determination before the 10-day period lapses, and the commissioner shall not execute the transfer without obtaining the approval of the legislative fiscal committee and the governor. If the legislative fiscal committee makes a determination that the transfer does not eliminate or substantially reduce a departmental program or service, the committee shall notify the commissioner that the commissioner may execute the transfer. If the legislative fiscal committee does not make a determination on the transfer within the 10-day period, the commissioner may execute the transfer without the approval of the legislative fiscal committee and the governor.

(b) Transfer or reassign personnel within and between any division, office, unit, or other component of the department.

(c) Delegate, transfer or assign the authority to administer and operate any program or service of the department to any employee, division, office, bureau, or other component of the department. Such delegation, transfer or assignment shall include the authority to conduct or perform any act necessary to administer the program or service so assigned.

II. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the department shall have no obligation to pay and no cause of action for payment shall be maintained against the department for payment for any product or service, sold, furnished or leased to the department or any other person on behalf of the department unless an invoice for such product or service has been submitted to the department for payment within 12 months of the date of delivery or provision of the product or service.

III.(a) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, and notwithstanding any fee, rate or payment schedule established under the medical assistance program pursuant to RSA 161 and RSA 167 or any other fee, rate or payment schedule for any other program of the department, no provider shall bill or charge the department more than the provider's usual and customary charge, as defined in this paragraph.

(b) Except as specified in subparagraph III(c), the term "usual and customary" means the lowest charge, fee or rate charged by a provider for any product or service at the time such product or service was provided. For the purpose of determining the lowest charge, fee or rate:

(1) If the provider offers discounts or rebates, then the amount after applying discounts or rebates shall be utilized.

(2) If the provider offers a sale for a limited period of time on any good or service, then the sale price shall be utilized during the sale period.

(3) If the provider regularly accepts less than its full charge from any customer, then the amount accepted shall be utilized.

(4) If any good or service is offered free of charge by the provider, then no charge shall be made to the department for the provision of the product or service to the department or a client of the department who satisfies the terms of the offer.

(5) If any good or service is covered under any warranty or guarantee offered by the provider, then the amount charged to the department shall not exceed the amount which would otherwise be payable solely by the customer; and

(6) If a provider structures or packages its goods or services in a manner which is exclusively or primarily used for medicaid, medicare or other third party payors, then the charge for the most similar good or service offered to any other consumer shall be utilized.

(c) The following items shall not be utilized in determining the "usual and customary" or lowest charge, fee or rate:

(1) Discounts offered solely to bona fide employees or family members of employees;

(2) Discounts offered solely on the basis of age shall be utilized in determining the usual and customary charge only when the client of the department satisfies the age requirement;

(3) Free goods or services or discounts provided to a limited number of persons on the basis of financial hardship;

(4) Charges by an organization on a sliding fee scale for a good or service where the organization's charge is based on ability to pay;

(5) Charges not collected as a result of bad debts incurred by the provider. A bad debt exists where sound business judgment indicates that there is no reasonable likelihood of recovery of the amount owed; and

(6) Charges for educational-related services governed by 42 U.S.C. 1396b(c).

(d) The commissioner may waive the application of RSA 126-A:3, III if the commissioner determines such action is necessary to ensure a continuum of care and service to persons served by community mental health centers, or to avert serious economic hardships to mental health centers.

IV. If the commissioner determines that the department has been charged more than the usual or customary fee, charge or rate as set forth in this section, the commissioner may levy a penalty against the provider of the good or service in the amount of 10 percent of the overcharge or $100, whichever is greater. Moneys received under this paragraph shall be deposited into the general fund.

V. Pharmacists shall substitute generically equivalent drug products for all legend and non-legend prescriptions paid for by the department of health and human services, including the medicaid program, unless the prescribing practitioner specifies that the brand name drug product is medically necessary. Such notification shall be in the practitioner's own handwriting and shall be retained in the pharmacist's file. The commissioner may waive the application of RSA 126-A:3, III if the commissioner determines such action is necessary to ensure the availability of prescription and other pharmaceutical services to persons served by the department or to avert serious economic hardship in the provision of prescriptions and other pharmaceutical services. The commissioner shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A relative to a waiver of the application. The commissioner, in consultation with pharmacy providers, may develop a new methodology for medical assistance reimbursement for legend and non-legend drugs.

126-A:4 Department Established.

I. There shall be a department of health and human services under the executive direction of a commissioner of health and human services, which department shall be organized to provide a comprehensive and coordinated system of health and human services as needed to promote and protect the health, safety and well-being of the citizens of New Hampshire. Such services shall be directed at supporting families, strengthening communities, and developing the independence and self-sufficiency of New Hampshire citizens to the extent possible.

II. The commissioner shall have authority to establish, reorganize or abolish such divisions, offices, bureaus, or other components of the department as may from time to time be necessary to carry out the mission and duties of the department. The commissioner shall make a quarterly report on the progress of the reorganization to the governor and the fiscal committee beginning with the quarter ending March 31, 1996.

III. The department shall establish an office of the ombudsman to provide assistance to clients and employees of the department by investigating and resolving complaints regarding any matter within the jurisdiction of the department including services or assistance provided by the department or its contractors. The ombudsman's office may provide mediation or other means for informally resolving complaints. The records of the ombudsman's office shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the client or employee on whose behalf the complaint is made, except as may be necessary to assist the service provider or the employee's supervisor to resolve the complaint, or as required by law.

IV. The department may establish a quality assurance program.

(b) Records of the department's quality assurance program including records of interviews, internal reviews or investigations, reports, statements, minutes, and other documentation except for individual client medical records, shall be confidential and privileged and shall be protected from direct or indirect discovery, subpoena, or admission into evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding, except as provided in subparagraph IV(c) or (d).

(c) In a case of legal action brought by the department against a contract service provider or in a proceeding alleging repetitive malicious action and personal injury brought against a contract service provider, the quality assurance program's records may be discoverable.

(d) The department may refer any evidence of fraudulent or other criminal behavior gathered by the quality assurance program to the appropriate law enforcement authority.

(e) No employees of the department or employees of a contract service provider or vendor shall be held liable in any action for damages or other relief arising from the providing of information to a quality assurance program or in any judicial or administrative procedure relating to the department's quality assurance program.

126-A:5 Commissioner of Health and Human Services.

I. Administrative and executive direction of the department of health and human services shall be under the direction of a commissioner of health and human services who shall be appointed by the governor and council. The commissioner shall hold office for a term of 4 years from the date of the appointment and until a successor is appointed and qualified. RSA 21:33-a shall not apply to appointments made under this section.

II. The commissioner may enter into such contracts as the commissioner deems necessary for the provision of services to clients of the department and for the operation of facilities of the department, subject to the approval of the governor and council. The commissioner further may receive, expend, control, convey, hold in trust, or invest any funds or real or personal property given or devised to or owned by any facility as the commissioner deems appropriate or expedient. At the discretion of the commissioner, the department may directly operate and administer any program or facility which provides, or which may be established to provide, services to clients of the department, or the commissioner may contract with any individual, partnership, association, agency or corporation, either public or private, profit or nonprofit, as, in the discretion of the commissioner, may be necessary and appropriate for the operation and administration of any program or facility which provides services to clients of the department.

III. The commissioner may designate any member of the department to act on behalf of the commissioner or the department. The commissioner further may delegate any duty or authority of the commissioner or the department to any member of the department or to any sub-unit or component of the department.

IV. Pursuant to RSA 541-A, the commissioner shall have the authority to establish fees, co-payments or any other charges for services or assistance provided by or on behalf of the department.

V. The commissioner shall have the authority to direct an autopsy be made upon the death of any person admitted to, a resident of, or receiving care from New Hampshire hospital, Glencliff home for the elderly or any other residential facility operated by the department or a contract service provider, if the commissioner deems it necessary for the purpose of determining the existence of infection or disease, cause of death, or for other good reason. The findings of any such autopsy shall be treated by the department in accordance with the quality assurance program under RSA 126-A:4, IV and by the medical examiner in accordance with the provisions of RSA 611-A:8.

VI. The commissioner shall have the authority to make arrangements for the funeral and burial of any person who has not made other arrangements and dies while admitted to, a resident of, or receiving care from New Hampshire hospital, Glencliff home for the elderly, or any other residential facility operated by the department or a contract service provider. If an autopsy is ordered pursuant to RSA 126-A:5, V, then following the autopsy, the medical examiner shall deliver the body to any person authorized pursuant to RSA 611:24. In the event that a dead body is unclaimed for a period of not less than 48 hours following completion of any autopsy ordered pursuant to this section, then the medical examiner shall deliver the body to a funeral home as directed by the commissioner, who shall decently bury or cremate the body at department expense, or, with consent of the commissioner, it may be sent at department expense to the medical department of a medical school or university, to be used for the advancement of the science of anatomy or surgery, as provided for by law.

VII. The commissioner shall establish advisory groups or other mechanisms to solicit input from clients and providers of the department and their families regarding the services provided by the department and its contract providers.

VIII. The commissioner shall establish an appeals process for any individual applying for or receiving services from the department or its contract service providers, any providers, programs, services, or facilities which are licensed or certified by the department, or with regard to actions related to employees of the department or any other matter within the jurisdiction of the department. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the appeals process shall include:

(a) That the appellant may elect either an administrative hearing or an independent review to determine the facts of the matter on appeal.

(b) If the appellant elects an independent review the hearing officer shall conduct a review in accordance with rules established by the commissioner and shall submit a proposed decision to the commissioner. The commissioner shall then review the proposed decision and issue a final order on the appeal, subject to RSA 126-A:5, VIII(e).

(c) If the appellant elects an administrative hearing, the hearing officer shall conduct a hearing in accordance with the rules established by the commissioner.

(d) Unless the commissioner has delegated to the hearing officer authority to issue a decision on behalf of the department, following the hearing, the hearing officer shall submit to the commissioner a proposed decision which shall include:

(1) A statement of the issues presented in the appeal;

(2) A summary of the evidence received;

(3) Proposed findings of fact and rulings of law; and

(4) A proposed order.

(e) If following a hearing or review the proposed decision is adverse to the individual applying for or receiving services, facility or employee who made the appeal, or if the commissioner proposes to make an adverse finding, ruling or order which the hearing officer has not recommended, the commissioner shall provide the appealing party with a copy of the commissioner's proposed decision and offer an opportunity to submit a brief and make an oral argument regarding the contested findings of fact, rulings of law or proposed order.

(f) Following a review of a proposed decision after a hearing or review and of a brief and argument in a contested case, if any, the commissioner shall issue a final decision on the appeal.

IX. The commissioner shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A relative to the compensation of the members of the drug use review board.

X. The commissioner may assess and collect reasonable fees for the duplication of materials made pursuant to RSA 91-A:4 and for material generally available to the public upon request. Such fees shall be based on an amount necessary to recover the cost of producing such documents, regardless of the type of medium used. Fees paid to the department of health and human services shall be continually appropriated to the department. Local, state and federal agencies shall be exempted from these fees.

126-A:6 Department Administrator of Title XX Social Security. 126-A:7 Deputy Commissioner of Health and Human Services. Subject to the approval of the governor and council, the commissioner of health and human services shall appoint a deputy commissioner who shall serve for a term of 4 years. The deputy commissioner shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the commissioner, which may include, but not be limited to, the authority and power with approval of the commissioner to direct and supervise the operation and administration of any division of the department. The annual salary of the deputy commissioner shall be as prescribed in RSA 94:1-a.

126-A:8 Acting Commissioner; Appointment. 126-A:12 Small Claims.

I. The commissioner may use funds accruing to the department of health and human services for the payment of small claims of $100 or less occasioned by non-insured personal loss or accidents due to the activities of the department. Any person claiming loss or damage due to the activities of the department in an amount of $100 or less may make application to the commissioner for payment. (1) That insufficient shelter facilities exist in the area; and

(2) That the proposal will increase the supply of such facilities.

Except as limited in RSA 126-A:39, expenses incurred by anyone in the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34, or, at the direction of the commissioner of health and human services, in any public or private institution, or elsewhere, may be recovered in any action in the name of the state from the estate of the person, or the person's spouse, or mother or father, whose estate is more than sufficient to pay priorities in paragraphs I, II, III, IV, and V of RSA 554:19. The spouse and the father and mother are declared jointly and severally liable for expenses, unless otherwise ordered by the court, except that recovery of expenses against a mother or father shall be limited:

I. To the expenses incurred before their child reached the age of majority.

II. As provided for in RSA 126-A:42.

III. To the share the patient or resident is entitled to if the father or mother died intestate.

IV. To the greater of the share the patient or resident is entitled to under the will or the share the patient or resident would have been entitled to if the father or mother had died intestate.

126-A:39 Educational Expenses.

I. Educational expenses of any resident or patient, who is capable of being benefited by instruction and who is between 3 and 21 years of age, as required under statute and incurred in the institutions named in or at the direction of the commissioner of health and human services, in any public or private institution or elsewhere, shall be recovered from the school district in which the patient's or resident's parents or legal guardian reside on the January 1 preceding the recovery up to the state average elementary cost per pupil, as determined by the state board of education for the preceding school year. The liability of the school district for such expenses shall precede that of the persons or estates named in RSA 126-A:36 and RSA 126-A:37, which are hereby relieved of liability for such expenses to the extent of the school district's liability.

II. Rates for private providers of special education services shall be set as provided in RSA 186-C:7, III, by the departments of health and human services, education, and administrative services.

126-A:40 Liability for Expenses and Hearing on Liability.

I.(a) Whenever the court issues an order for evaluation, care, or treatment of a child at the Philbrook center pursuant to RSA 169-B, 169-C, or 169-D, the expenses of such evaluation, care, or treatment shall be borne by the department, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(b) Subparagraph (a) shall not apply to expenses incurred for special education and educationally related services.

(c) The state shall have a right of action over for such expenses against the parents or the people chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities. The court shall require the individual chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities to assign to the state any insurance coverage that may be available to pay for all or a portion of the services provided and to submit a financial statement to the court upon which the court may make an order as to reimbursement to the state as may be reasonable and just, based on the person's ability to pay. Such financial statement shall include, but not be limited to, any benefits received from the Social Security Administration or insurance coverage available to the individual. The court shall include disposition of these benefits in its order as to reimbursement. Such reimbursement shall be established on a per month or per week basis and shall continue for a duration of time equal to the duration of time in which expenses are incurred on behalf of the minor by the state. The court's jurisdiction to order reimbursement shall continue until the obligation to reimburse has been fulfilled.

II. Upon the issuance of an order under paragraph I, the court shall send notice to the state and relevant county. The state and relevant county may, within 30 days from the receipt of notice, request a hearing on the issues of the cost or appropriateness of services, or recovery. At such hearing, the court shall provide all financial information, including names and addresses of persons chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities, to the state and relevant county.

III. The office of reimbursements, acting on behalf of the New Hampshire hospital, is authorized to compromise or reduce any expense to be charged to the state.

IV. Notwithstanding paragraph I, the county in which the court is located which exercised jurisdiction over the child shall be responsible for reimbursing the state for up to 25 percent of the costs incurred under RSA 169-B, 169-C, or 169-D. If the court's jurisdiction crosses county lines, then the county from which the child was referred to the court shall be responsible for such reimbursement. When determining the amount of reimbursement, all services for which the county would be liable if it were the legally liable unit shall be included, except services which are already the responsibility of the appropriate school district under RSA 186-C.

V. The county which is responsible for reimbursing the state under paragraph IV is authorized to collect, on behalf of the department, payments from persons or entities which are ordered to reimburse the department under paragraph I, or which are chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities. Any amounts collected by the county pursuant to this paragraph shall be forwarded to the department, which, in turn, shall apply 25 percent of the amounts collected to reduce the county's liability under paragraph IV. The county may deduct reasonable administrative expenses directly associated with collections under this paragraph, subject to the approval of the commissioner. The commissioner may adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to this paragraph.

VI. Notwithstanding any subsequent acts of delinquency or other acts committed by a minor which bring the minor to the attention of a district court, the county having liability for the minor pursuant to paragraph IV shall remain the county liable for the minor until the person reaches 18 years of age in the case of a person subject to RSA 169-C or RSA 169-D or 19 years of age in the case of a person subject to RSA 169-B or until the court's jurisdiction is ended, whichever occurs first.

VII. If the person responsible for paying reimbursements to the county under paragraph V is financially able to pay such reimbursements but fails to make such payments, the county may apply to the superior court for a lien on such person's real or personal property for the amount of reimbursements due.

126-A:41 Support Order. Upon petition for support in the name of the state, the superior court may enter an order requiring any patient or resident or persons legally chargeable for the support of a patient or resident to contribute to the support of such patient or resident. Anyone against whom an order is entered requiring a person to contribute to the support of such relative who fails to comply therewith shall be deemed to be in contempt of court and may be imprisoned not less than 60 nor more than 90 days.

126-A:42 Recovery of Expenses.

I. Subject to the provisions of RSA 126-A:43, II, the state is entitled to recover the expense of care, treatment and maintenance of any patient or resident at any of the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34 or at a public or private institution or otherwise at the direction of the commissioner of health and human services from the patient or resident, if of sufficient ability to pay, or the person's estate, or from persons legally chargeable with such person's support as defined in RSA 126-A:36 or from the estates provided in RSA 126-A:37.

II. Recovery of the past due expense of care, treatment and maintenance of a patient or resident in any of the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34 is limited in amount as follows:

(a) If such person is living and is a resident of the institution, recovery is limited to the expense incurred within the last 5 years of residence at the institution.

(1) If such person is living and is a resident of the institution, and if the person legally chargeable for such person's support dies, subject to the provisions of RSA 126-A:43, II, recovery from an estate legally chargeable for expenses as provided in RSA 126-A:37 is limited to the expenses incurred within the 5 years immediately preceding the death of the person chargeable.

(b) If such person dies while a resident of the institution, subject to provisions of RSA 126-A:43, II, recovery is limited to the expense incurred within the 5 years immediately preceding death.

(c) If such person is discharged from the institution, subject to the provisions of RSA 126-A:43, II, recovery is limited to the expense incurred within the 5 years immediately preceding discharge.

(d) If such person dies after discharged from the institution, subject to the provisions of RSA 126-A:43, II, recovery is limited to the expense incurred within the 5 years immediately preceding discharge.

(e) Expenses incurred by the institution during the time such person is on parole from the institution shall not be included in the total charges for expenses.

III. In an action by the state for recovery of the expenses of a patient or resident at any of the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34 who is discharged from the institution, or is dead, the action shall be brought within 6 years after the person's discharge or death. An action by the state against the estate of a patient or resident or against an estate legally chargeable for expenses as provided in RSA 126-A:37 may not be brought unless the action is commenced within the time allowed for an action against an administrator by RSA 556:5.

126-A:43 Regular Rate.

I. The commissioner shall establish for any patient or resident of an institution named in RSA 126-A:34, a uniform rate to cover the expenses of the several categories of service provided to patients or residents such as but not necessarily limited to the following: intensive medical care, treatment and maintenance; intensive psychiatric care, treatment and maintenance; and custodial care, treatment and maintenance. The commissioner is not required to establish such rate by rules adopted under RSA 541-A. The categories or classifications of service provided may be modified by the commissioner.

II. After any person has been a resident or patient in any of the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34 for 10 years or has reached the age of majority, the liability of persons other than the patient or resident or such patient's or resident's spouse to provide payments to cover the expenses of care, treatment and maintenance shall cease, except for recoveries from the estates of such persons which shall be limited as provided in RSA 126-A:42, II. The liability of a spouse under RSA 126-A:36 shall cease after the person has been a patient or resident of any of the institutions named in RSA 126-A:34 for 10 years. The liability of the patient or resident under this paragraph shall continue unless it is determined by the office of reimbursements, in consultation with the commissioner of health and human services, that the patient or resident lacks sufficient income from any source including, but not limited to, social security, retirement, civil service or veterans administration income, trust fund or other income to pay a full rate or a higher partial rate.

III. The office of reimbursements shall, upon request, furnish to each estate from which or to each person chargeable from whom a recovery of expenses is sought pursuant to RSA 126-A:42 a record of the accumulated charges against said estate or said person.

126-A:44 Partial Charges. The commissioner of health and human services may charge less than the uniform rate when the commissioner finds a patient or any relative chargeable therewith is able to bear only a portion of the expense incident to his care, treatment and maintenance at such institution, or care, treatment and maintenance furnished at the direction of the commissioner. In establishing such charge, the commissioner of health and human services shall consider the report, investigation and recommended charge of the office of reimbursements. The established charge shall be billed by the superintendent of such institution. The office of reimbursements shall make further recommendations as provided in this section where conditions affecting the ability to pay of persons legally chargeable for the support of the patient or resident have changed. The establishment of a partial rate as provided herein shall not preclude the collection of the balance between the partial rate and the full rate from an estate of the patient or resident or the estate of those legally chargeable as provided in RSA 126-A:37.

126-A:45 Support by the State.

I. Any person transferred to the New Hampshire hospital under RSA 135:17 for observations as to sanity under court order shall be at state expense for the observation period only.

II. Any patient or resident of such institutions defined in RSA 126-A:34 or patient receiving care, treatment or maintenance at the direction of the commissioner of health and human services who has no means of support and no person chargeable for his support shall be supported by the state.

126-A:46 Special Services. The commissioner shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to rates for special services rendered to patients or residents of institutions named in RSA 126-A:34.

126-A:47 Reports. The superintendent of such institutions shall forward forthwith to the commissioner any change in population at such institutions, any change affecting the rates charged patients or residents, and any other changes affecting expenses incurred by a patient or resident.

126-A:48 Nature of Payment. All payments, except for educational payments made pursuant to RSA 126-A:39, made by or with respect to a patient at any institution named in RSA 126-A:34, which furnished medical services shall conclusively be deemed to be made on account of medical services.

Poison Information and Control Center commissioner shall be responsible for establishment or designation of a poison information and treatment center which shall make available to New Hampshire residents information and medical consultation on a daily, 24-hour basis.

New Hampshire Employment Program and Family Assistance Program

167:77 Statement of Purpose.

I. The purpose of this subdivision is to reform welfare through the vehicle made available by the federal government, whether through block grants or by a federal waiver. If a waiver is necessary it is the intent of the general court that the commissioner of the department of health and human services request such a waiver so that this subdivision may be implemented. To the extent permitted by federal law, it is the intent of the general court to replace the aid to families with dependent children program with:

(a) The New Hampshire employment program which shall provide financial assistance for families with dependent children when the children are cared for by a parent or relative who is receiving assistance and is considered to be able bodied for employment.

(b) The family assistance program which shall provide financial assistance for families with dependent children when the parent or other relative is considered unable to work due to a physical or mental disability or the children are cared for by a relative other than a parent who is not receiving assistance.

II. Such replacement establishes the New Hampshire employment program and the family assistance program as the cash assistance programs upon which Medicaid and Food Stamps are automatically granted in the same relationship as under the AFDC program.

III. A waiver or a block grant may be phased in, at the discretion of the commissioner. If there is a phasing in then the existing AFDC/JOBS program may be maintained in all or part of the state at the discretion of the commissioner. To the extent that some portions of the state are covered by the AFDC/JOBS program the statutes and rules governing that program shall apply and be in effect. Notwithstanding any other laws to the contrary, the New Hampshire employment program and family assistance program shall be covered by this subdivision and the rules adopted under the authority of this section. All statutory provisions within RSA 161 and 167 which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this subdivision shall remain in full force and effect and shall apply to the New Hampshire employment program and the family assistance program.

IV. The New Hampshire employment program shall promote economic independence and help maintain and strengthen family life by enabling able-bodied persons with dependent children to assume responsibility for their families through the dignity of work. Work shall be promoted by:

(a) Offering employment services, support services and transitional financial assistance with the expectation that participants move quickly towards employment.

(b) Developing long term employment skills that lead to self-sufficiency.

(c) Recognizing the equal responsibility of both parents to provide economic support for their children.

V. The goals of the New Hampshire employment program shall be to:

(a) Eliminate or reduce the harmful effects of poverty on families and children by fostering employment and opportunity as a means to economic independence.

(b) Assist participants to gain employment as rapidly as possible given due consideration to individual circumstances, labor market conditions, the needs of the dependent children for continuing care and protection, and the ultimate goal of long term economic independence.

(c) Eliminate the stigma of welfare by promoting a philosophy and perception that the purpose of welfare is to eliminate or reduce the harmful effects of poverty on families and children by promoting work opportunities for all New Hampshire residents.

(d) Support and coordinate with activities that promote self-sufficiency and strengthen family life.

(e) Provide a comprehensive support service package that includes: medical assistance, food stamps, child care, transportation, child support, and other support services necessary to promote economic independence.

(f) Promote successful transition from public assistance through the provision of job readiness activities, training, and education activities concurrently with employment or seeking employment, family support skills, and follow-up services for problem resolution and job advancement.

(g) Develop partnerships with employers to create job opportunities and meet the needs of both employers and participants.

(h) Provide a program where it is more advantageous to work than not to work by rewarding self sufficiency.

(i) Implement a program that is clear, focused and simple to administer.

VI. The goals of the family assistance program shall be to:

(a) Eliminate or reduce the harmful effects of poverty on families and children by providing financial assistance and medical assistance only to families with children in a manner compatible with decency and health.

(b) Promote employment opportunities on a voluntary basis.

REMARKS

Rep. Trombly moved that the question by Rep. Wendelboe and the reply by Rep. Klemm be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Klemm: Thank you Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to the proposed amendment. This action is necessary to save a total of $448,000 over the biennum. This saving will occur without reducing client services. The proposal that is in the bill already bills on an already-successful contract. New Hampshire Hospital has engaged the services of Sedexho USA to manage food services since January 1, 1989 through a competively procurred Governor and Council approved contract. New Hampshire Hospital has engaged Sedexho USA for housekeeping and environmental management since January 1, 1995 through a competitively procurred Governor-and-Council-approved contract. The budget proposal presented to you in HB 32 will expand these services with Sedexho to include food services, housekeeping, environmental management (primarily in energy), laundry and facilities management. The initial energy audit and resulting improved engineering will produce savings in heating and lighting costs. Governor and Council approval of this contract will be required. Sedexho USA is a US subsidiary of a company that is based in Waltham (Mass). Privitization on this section deals primarily with 35 employees at New Hampshire Hospital. The Committee was concerned about this. We have had discussions with Commissioner Morton and I talked with Commissioner Morton again this morning and we have been assured that these 35 employees will be given priority for hiring if Sedexho is the successful contract bidder, and if an employee is not able to go with Sedexho and is transferred and there are other positions available within the department and there are funds within HB 32 for training in the event they have to go to a different job. Thank you very much.

Rep. Wendelboe: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Representative, would you believe that this has been the most difficult portion of HB 32 that I have faced. And after numerous conversations with the people at New Hampshire Hospital, Commissioner Morton and Senate Finance as far as the training money, would you believe that I have been assured that those 36 employees will be given options? And would you believe that I expect to hold their feet to the fire; that these 36 employees will have the opportunity, if the Sedexho contract is not in their favor to still have the capability to use that training money and to go into other parts of Health and Human Services? Would you believe that is the intent and that is what will happen?

Rep. Klemm: Yes, Representative, because I received the same assurances.

Rep. Bergeron offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (4045L)

Amend RSA 126-A:13 as inserted by section 1 by replacing it with the following:

126-A:13 Oversight Committee; Establishment.

I. There shall be an oversight committee on health and human services consisting of 13 members as follows:

(a) 3 members of the senate, at least one of whom shall be a member of the senate public institutions/health and human services committee, appointed by the president of the senate;

(b) 10 members of the house, 2 from each governor's councilor's district, appointed by the speaker of the house.

II. The membership on the oversight committee shall be for the biennium and shall be coterminous with membership in the general court.

Reps. Bergeron and Hemon spoke in favor.

Rep. Schotanus spoke against.

SENATE MESSAGE

RECESS

JOINT CONVENTION

(Speaker presiding)

The Speaker introduced Governor Stephen Merrill who addressed the Joint Convention.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. Senate President, members of the General Court and the Executive Council:

This is a good old-fashioned New Hampshire winter and on this snowy morning it gives us an opportunity to reflect on our environment and how much it means to us; and to reflect on tourism and recreation and all that they bring to us. We get the opportunity to reflect on so much more.

As Governor, I am pleased to report on the state of New Hampshire's economic and social conditions because so much has been accomplished in the last 12 months. I am also very proud that my wife, Heather, is here and I want to publicly thank her for all that she does in our state. We have maintained our steady growth that leads New England out of the worst recession since World War II, and in some areas we have actually accelerated the lead beyond our neighboring states.

The competition among states has never been more significant and the New Hampshire advantage has never been more apparent.

The strength of this state remains its people, the working men and women who make up our business community, the elder citizens who continue to make a contribution even after their retirement, and the young people of our state who are poised to create the New Hampshire of the next century. It is for all of our citizens — but especially for our young people — that we must maintain what we do best in New Hampshire.

It is fashionable to say that the next generation will be the first generation this century with a lower standard of living than their parents. Well, I am not willing to give up on the American dream for New Hampshire's children. I want your help to maintain our lead in jobs and economic opportunity, education reform and in the overall quality of life that keeps us one of the most livable states in the nation. Do you know why our future is so bright? Because it is the people of New Hampshire who control their destiny, and not government.

In a few weeks, the New Hampshire Presidential primary will take its historic place in choosing a President who will be President at the beginning of the next century, in the year 2000. New Hampshire citizens are looking beyond the next election. They are looking for qualities of leadership and for a confidence in our future that will be built strong by maintaining our traditions and values and not by abandoning them.

The Presidential candidates have already told me how impressed they have been with the questions asked by New Hampshire citizens about the future of our nation. That is why the New Hampshire primary remains, and must remain, the place where national leadership is tested and confirmed by our citizens. I publically commend Bill Gardner for all he has done in keeping it that way.

Those who come to New Hampshire every four years to follow the candidates, and the ups and downs of the Presidential races, have written what they think about New Hampshire as well. The Wall Street Journal wrote about our remarkable turnaround, our drastic recovery from when the reporter was here four years ago.

We should never forget that the reason New Hampshire remains strong is our reliance on the values that made us strong in the first place: lower taxes, local control of education, smaller and more efficient government, less regulations on our citizens and on their economic activities and the belief that the people of the state are the best ones to determine the future course.

When I ran for governor in 1992, it was the first public office I had ever sought. I was the only major candidate for governor to say that we could have an economic recovery without raising taxes or even worse, without imposing a state income tax. Yet, there are people sitting before me today who, in their hearts, still believe higher taxes and bigger government are the answers to New Hampshire's future. I want you to know that the people of New Hampshire disagree with you and so do I.

Let's look at the results. Since early 1993, New Hampshire's employment rate has performed considerably better than the rest of New England and the nation. Our unemployment was 8.3 percent. It is now 3.2 percent. There are over 50,000 people working in New Hampshire today that were not working here three years ago. Our per capita income is above the national average and it is rising every year. There are more jobs in New Hampshire and more people working in New Hampshire than ever before in our history.

Remember the fight we had to change workers' compensation? As a result of that change, by the end of this year we will have returned $40.8 million to New Hampshire businesses through workers' comp reform. A job well done, because those businesses have done what with that money? They have hired more people. They have hired more equipment managers. They have made capital improvements. They have stimulated the economy. That is why the "Economic Conditions Report for New Hampshire" said that New Hampshire will continue to "lead the Northeast in the pace of employment growth" because of our "corporate relocations, our strong ties with Canada, a high-quality workforce and low business costs relative to our neighboring states".

Business New Hampshire Magazine did a similar study. It found that the New Hampshire companies "need to expand capacity and, in the meantime, the Granite State will continue to lead the region in economic growth." Those are two problems that I am hearing these days: the need to expand capacity and the need to find more workers. Let me assure you, the alternatives are workers that can't find jobs and capacity that we can't get rid of.

The University of New Hampshire's Whittemore School did an interesting study. They talked to 100 business executives in management and 50 business executives on the social service side. They said, "what is the best about New Hampshire?" They said, "Number one, the high quality of labor; number two, the low cost of that labor; number three, low taxes on business and number four, workers' comp reform". Which means the issues that you and I have been working on in the past are making a difference for the workers of New Hampshire today and for the workers of New Hampshire tomorrow.

We recently cut the Unemployment Tax 50 percent to the lowest point in the history of that tax. By doing so, we generated $30 million back to businesses. We have continued to hold business round tables around the state, listening to businesses, finding out where they are going and helping them go there.

Because of our high tech computer hardware and software manufacturers in New Hampshire, we have the New Hampshire High Tech Council and the Governor's Technology Partnership. Once again, let me remind you that we are a state that doesn't brag about all that we have done. There are 100,000 people writing software in New Hampshire today. This is a state on the move.

That is why one of the nation's largest HMOs, Oxford Health, has moved its operation center to southern New Hampshire and says that it could expand its workforce here to 1,500 employees. It is why the nation's second largest software manufacturer, Oracle, is building a building, just a few miles away, that is a $3 billion company.

When I went to the ribbon-cutting two weeks ago, the vice president of the company from Redwood Hills, California said to me, "You know, Governor, my real estate department thinks I'm crazy to do this because there were places in New England that literally would have given us buildings to have us move there." I said, "Why didn't you go, sir? Why are you building in New Hampshire?" He said, "Because these folks in front of you are our software specialists. They are our experts. They are our future. We polled them and over 90 percent said they wanted to stay in New Hampshire and not go somewhere else." That is a great tribute.

I'm sure you recently read that the world's largest financial management company, Fidelity, moved one of its operations to New Hampshire. When it left Boston, Boston Mayor Thomas Menino, made some very candid remarks. He said, "This is another reason why Boston and Massachusetts have got to get out there on the issue of taxes. Other places in New England are doing things to attract these kinds of businesses. We can't stand idly by. For mutual funds, this is the number one city in the country. They are a growth industry and we want them to grow within Massachusetts and not outside Massachusetts."

Despite the national and regional economic studies and the clear evidence that taxes and regulations and the size of government do make a difference, there are still people in New Hampshire who want to adopt a failed tax and spend policy. As long as I am your Governor, we are not going to do that.

I will not accept the status quo and I will continue to base our success on our people rather than on our government. Instead of looking at ways to raise taxes, we ought to be looking at ways to return money to the cities and towns and to the taxpayers who live in our state because it is their money.

With all that being said, is there a bill that has been introduced this year to study the feasibility of an income tax? Of course there is, because liberalism dies hard. But I can assure you that if there is any interest in this legislative body about passing a broad-based income tax or a sales tax,

I will veto that bill if it reaches my desk. I will work with those who want tax cuts as long as they have a history of cutting spending as well. You see, in this political year, you can pretend to support the tax cuts even though you have always supported spending in the past and even though you want to support spending now and you want a larger tax after we cut the ones we have.

Let's look at the whole record. To those that think our tax policy is irrelevant to our future, there is a study in my office that I want to commend to you. It wasn't done by somebody in New Hampshire. It was done by a former Vermont state economist. His name is Arthur Woolf. He publishes the Vermont Economic Newsletter. The study is entitled "Taxes and The Connecticut River Valley Economy: The Impact of Public Policy Choices on Retailing Activity in Vermont and New Hampshire." Let me quote it. "Policy makers in Montpelier need to be aware of the long-term consequences of the taxes they impose. The sales tax has had a dramatic impact on Vermont's border towns over the last 25 years."

Mr. Woolf's study is as follows. When the sales tax was passed in Vermont, New Hampshire sales per capita and Vermont sales per capita were the same. Since the sales tax New Hampshire sales have increased 60 percent above Vermont's. The Woolf study says that cost Vermont 1,000 retail jobs and $191 million in retail sales that have shifted across the river to New Hampshire. So jobs and economic growth and taxes are tied together. For those that still say it is a regional economy and what we do in this room is irrelevant, we either going to rise with the rest or fall with the rest, let me take two articles from yesterday's newspaper. The first headline is "In Maine People Are Leary in 1996." Residential building sales slipped 17 percent. Sales of existing homes were estimated to have dropped 10 percent and bankruptcies rose considerably. The state Planning Office economist said "if things continue like this in 1996, it doesn't look good." Another headline from yesterday's paper "Banner Vermont Bankruptcy Year". "A total of 1,044 cases were filed in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Vermont. The Court Clerk, Thomas Hart, said that is far more than the 810 cases in 1994. It is a 30 percent higher record. It sets a new record. In the past, no year has even been close."

Am I criticizing the Governor of Massachusetts, a Republican, the Governor of Maine, an Independent or the Governor of Vermont, a Democrat? Absolutely not. They are hardworking people as are the Governors that I have been privileged to meet. If they want state policy and the legislatures want state policy to be different than New Hampshire's, that is perfectly okay with me. My criticism is of those who live in this state who say the grass is always greener somewhere else. You show me those policies and we will adopt them. But, until then we will keep the New Hampshire advantage.

There is going to be a discussion in this chamber about a cigarette tax. I thought I ought to tell the experience in New Jersey. I'll be discussing New Jersey without discussing the toll gates, there so that will be a refreshing change for New Jersey anyway. Last week a proposal came to the floor in the New Jersey Committee to raise the cigarette tax and to use the money for poor health care. Health care for the poor, we are going to get the money from the cigarette tax. They didn't cut spending. They proposed to raise the tax. Most people don't smoke and most people believe that health care for the poor is a good idea. You need to know that when the bill came up last week it didn't get one single vote. The Wall Street Journal said as follows, "When a moderate Northeastern state rejects a 'politically correct' tax on cigarettes to help pay for indigent health care it is certainly safe to day the tax revolt is alive and well."

Elected officials have to come to understand what our citizens learned long ago. The way to balance a budget is to cut spending and not raise taxes. That is why Fran Riley and the Limited Spenders are right. It is a great name for the organization. Limit the spending and you won't have to worry about the problem of taxes.

Once again, New Hampshire has led the way. This legislative body recently met in special session to pass House Bill 32, the first time in our history that the largest department in state government, Health and Human Services, has been given the power to restructure its spending and its bureaucracy and to live within its means.

None of the dire predictions of dislocation and chaos have occurred and none need to occur. Because it is an insult to those professionals at Health and Human Services to tell them that they can't do more with less as long as you can let them cut their administration and bureaucracy and red tape. That is exactly what they are doing and I applaud them and I applaud you for giving them the opportunity to do that.

The most important part of that special session hasn't even been discussed yet. In the past, special sessions were called to raise taxes. This special session was called to cut spending. Let's not be afraid to meet again in special session if it means that we are going to cut spending and lower taxes and deliver real results to the people of New Hampshire. Let's continue to reject the failed liberal status quo philosophy that bigger government and higher taxes are the answer.

That is why I publicly commend the Speaker of the House, Harold Burns, and the Senate President, Joseph Delahunty, who said recently that we should hold spending down, that we don't need a supplemental budget with Christmas tree legislation attached and we shouldn't be spending unnecessarily anywhere. I commend them both.

I am proud that my two budgets have first, cut the growth of government and secondly cut the size of government itself. What has happend as a result of all we have talked about this morning? Well, have we received criticism, no. We have received an increase in our bond rating for the first time in years and the taxpayers of New Hampshire should know that upgrade has already saved $700,000 on the first bond offering. And we will have additional savings for them each time we have a bond offering as long as we maintain or upgrade that rating. We should be producing more results like that for the people of our state.

That is why I commend Bill Bartlett, the Commissioner of Resources and Economic Development, for turning that department into an agency that can quickly respond to the needs of the business community. He has done the same thing at Pease where nearly 2,000 jobs are there at the beginning of this new year.

There is much to be proud of in terms of our economic growth and the creation of jobs. But there are also some needs that ought to be addressed in this legislative session. I am sad to report that the legal profession in our state has reached the point where the bonding of attorneys has to be seriously considered to protect the victims of that profession. I want you to know that my parents were very proud when I became a lawyer 20 years ago. You already know how they felt about politics. But they were proud when I became a lawyer because when I became a lawyer in this state it was unheard of that a lawyer would violate his or her public trust and take thousands and in some cases, millions of dollars from innocent victims who were their clients. It is no longer sad today, it is in the papers. It is on the evening news. Therefore I believe practicing attorneys should be bonded in a way that protects the victims of greed and avarice and wrongdoing in that profession even though it is a small and untrustworthy portion of the profession we ought to have no one victims of any profession in our state.

Another concern that I want to address is lowering electric rates. I believe that competition among electric utilities is essential to bring down the cost of electricity for New Hampshire. These utilities have long been a monopoly and they must be restructured. Lower electric rates should be real and immediate.

I hope you and I don't disagree on how to reach that result. Respected State House reporter, Kevin Landrigan recently wrote that legislative leadership, "sent a clear message to Governor Steve Merrill that they are prepared to move more quickly than he is to reach a meeting of the minds with Public Service Company of New Hampshire."

Mr. Landrigan is right because I will not reach a meeting of the minds with any utility unless it guarantees lower rates and more competition and an end to the monopoly that has kept those rates high. That is why we do not have a deal today. Because I will not make a deal with taxpayers money for the sake of getting the deal.

The Wall Street Journal has again cited New Hampshire as one of four agressive states in the country on electric utilities. You need to know we are also doing the same thing on telecommunications and in the gas industry. But you should also be aware that the CEO of Northeast Utilities has criticized our pilot project. He called it "confiscatory". He thinks it is unjust. He stated that if the program doesn't change fundamentally the company will fight it "every step of the way."

I support the pilot program and I recommend that we establish a fast-track program to operate right alongside the pilot program. This new program will bring innovations and ideas from the private sector and from other states. We can apply them immediately in New Hampshire to deal with short-term problems.

We need the stability - thank you Jack, you are right as usual. If we keep the pilot project going we will have the stability of that project and if we get a fast-track project going we can have the potential for rapid innovation to solve specific problems. I want to commend the Public Utilities Commission on its approach to the problem of "stranded costs". I look forward to working with you to get those rates down and to keeping them down.

There is someone here today who deserves our thanks. After serving as the head of the Department of Revenue Administration and the Adjutant General of the New Hampshire National Guard, Lloyd Price has now taken on the responsibilities as the first head of the reorganized Youth Services Division, which includes the YDC and the Tobey School. He has done an outstanding job and you should know that he tours the facilities unannounced at night and on weekends and then on weekends he tries to have breakfast with the young men and women who live there. That hands-on approach is working. I want to publicly commend him and ask him to stand. General Price, I understand you are right up there. Please stand. Thank you.

As we commend General Price's efforts we should recognize that there are changes that need to be made at those facilities and we should make them. The employees there have been through a lot and they need our support and cooperation as they redesign their mission to meet juvenile justice needs in a changing society.

Let me talk to you a moment about that society. I want to assure you that all of the changes this society is going through are not positive ones. Perhaps now we finally recognize that the philosophy that "anything goes" does not serve our young people well and will not help them grow to be responsible, adult members of the community. For too long we have avoided anybody's values under the fear that someone would accuse us of setting forth a moral or an ethical or, heaven forbid, a religious value in our secular world. The result has been far too many young people don't know the difference between right and wrong and they don't have to bother to learn the difference.

While every idea deserves to be discussed in an open society, the consequence of giving every idea equal weight and value, regardless of its content, has lead to unfortunate results.

That is why I was so pleased to read Stacey Cole's column called "Nature Talks Down on the Farm." Stacey Cole is the Deputy Speaker of the House. This column wasn't openly moral or ethical or religious and yet it was all those things and more. He talked about the joy and the hard work and the warmth of family celebrations of past Thanksgivings. His column caused people to reflect on the season and all that family means. Many of our citizens even wrote to him and he included them in another column as they talked about their own values of warmth and love and care.

So, I ask you this, why is it we can talk about those things at Thanksgiving and at Chanukah, the festival of lights, and at Christmas and at New Year? and then we abandon those same qualities and consider them unfit for discussion in the first few cold weeks of January?

New Hampshire does not impose its values or community standards from the State House because we believe that the entire state is a community and we believe our state's churches and synagogues and neighborhoods and town halls can define what we believe better than Concord can define it.

But there are some things happening in our state. I believe the discussion of standardized dress in some schools indicates that just maybe the learning experience is affected by what you wear and how you behave and the total atmosphere for learning. Make no mistake, what you have on in school is not nearly as important as what you learn and the content of the knowledge you gain. But if you think you can learn in an atmosphere where "anything goes" I think you are wrong.

Fifty percent of the teachers in the District of Columbia school system have already been the victims of at least one act of violence from their students. While New Hampshire schools are far different, we ought to make sure that they remain free. We should defend the rights of teachers to teach in an atmosphere free from violence or intimidation or disrespect.

In New Hampshire we have learned the difference between the firearm and the criminal and learned which one we should prosecute. But we should have no hesitancy in declaring zero tolerance for firearms in schools and taking swift action on anyone who would promote violence in our schools or on our streets. Only by doing so can we protect both the rights of our gun owners and our schools.

We passed a bill mandating a year-long expulsion if you bring a gun to school. Guess what? More New Hampshire young people have brought guns to school since we passed the bill than before we passed it. Why? Because we can enact laws to maintain order but ultimately we have to rely on the values that Stacey Cole talks about. The values that our families, our churches, our synagogues, our neighborhoods, our schools pass on from one generation to the next. Those who argue against the teaching of character, or citizenship or ethical or moral behavior would create a new standard. They will undermine the New Hampshire advantage and one of the great characteristics of our quality of life.

Ridiculing religion in public settings creates a new standard, non-religion. Ridiculing codes of conduct and dress in schools creates a new standard, committed to the "grunge" look and "anything goes". Ridiculing a reasonable limit on sex shops in our communities results in a new standard that a portion of Main Street can become the combat zone, and you and I don't have any right to speak about it. I disagree and we are going to do something about it.

Communities do not have to allow themselves to be taken over by the lowest common denominator standards. As Governor I am not going to seek to impose my standards on any community in this state. But, I will support the right of a New Hampshire community and its citizens to maintain values that they believe in, including the right of a community to limit sexual explicit entertainment that violates their own community standards. I will work with those that are supporting that bill to give cities and towns the power to say, "enough".

I am pleased that the community of Berlin has stepped forward and indicated its interest as the potential site of a new correctional facility. I believe that facility should be constructed as quickly as practicable to assure that law enforcement and not the federal courts runs our corrections system.

In the last session you and I dealt with a tough subject, troubled juveniles, delinquents, abuse and neglect cases and children in need of services. We didn't go far enough and more needs to be done, but for any of you who are opposed to changes at all, let me tell you some positive results.

For the first time judges have been willing to meet with Division representatives to discuss individual cases and their effects on state budget. I applaud those judges and those in the department and several judges have already reduced their expenses as a result of looking at the ramifications and results of what they have done.

We were concerned with out-of-state placements. Since we have cut unnecessary spending, those out-of-state placements have gone from 157 to only 86. Saving taxpayers money. Since we don't control the purse strings and the results but the courts do, we established a review panel that we could appeal various cases to. The division appealed 15 orders and the review panel agreed with it 13 times and lowered costs accordingly. Guardian-Ad-Litems are being used instead of more costly attorneys.

Judges have agreed to look at the cases more than once a year in their annual review and, as a result, residential placement is down. In-home parental care is increasing. CASA volunteers will be soon serving on all juvenile cases in Rockingham and Merrimack counties saving us even more money.

I don't want to conclude any discussion about our state, particularly one that involves values, without discussing education and welfare because both of them have an impact on our present and our future. Regarding education, I have not changed my view that dedicated teachers, concerned parents and interested students account for the high standards of New Hampshire achievement in our schools. The NEA and the education lobby will continue to fight all of the positive changes that we recommend to improve our nation's education system and that is simply a given in the debate and we ought to move beyond it.

As a student of the New Hampshire school systems, including the University of New Hampshire, I am proud of our education system and, contrary to the popular belief, New Hampshire citizens spend considerably more than the national average on our educational system.

I am proud that I worked with the board of education to push through the educational assessment program which has been created to assure uniformity of opportunity and achievement in our schools. Here is what it does. If we can determine in the third and the sixth and the tenth grades that some students are doing very well in certain tested areas and that other students aren't doing well, we can spend the time and resources and energy to help these students and the school system that they attend. That is exactly what we are doing.

Unlike outcome-based education, which establishes no standards beyond the student himself, the goal of our assessment program is to increase the expectations of all students and the educational institutions. As you know, we just had some tests in grade three for English and math and the scores went up and the number of people taking the tests went up. We should be encouraged by those results, but we shouldn't rest on them. We shouldn't continue to talk about kindergarten. We ought to move forward. We ought to do two things. We ought to reject the $40 million mandated kindergarten program and we ought to support a kindergarten incentive program. The reason we didn't do so last year is that those who believe in the mandated $40 million program and the taxes to pay for it thought they would win if they waited long enough. Well, they won last time but they shouldn't win this time. I urge those individuals to stand aside and to let the young people in this state have a kindergarten program whether it is blessed by the NEA and its disciples or not.

We measure educational value in New Hampshire by the quality of our students' performance. You and I revised the Augenblick Formula in the last session of the legislature, a significant change that has received almost no public discussion. That is why our state continues to set a national standard for achievement in reading, math, as well as the SATs.

A Rhodes scholar, MIT graduate, named Caroline Hoxby, who is now a Harvard economist, has just finished a study of the New Hampshire funding system and contrasted it to the states around us. Let me read to you what this Harvard economist said. "Both students and taxpayers are better off under locally-based systems of school funding and school control. The existing New Hampshire system of public schools...is not merely adequate but is an effective and efficient means of providing education. This (New Hampshire) system...is one of the best and most stable methods of financing public schools."

Despite the attack on our schools by a group of lawyers seeking to impose a broad-based tax. I ask you to continue to make our system better by building on the best of it.

Regarding the changes in the Augenblick Formula, esteemed Dartmouth College Professors Colin and Rosemary Campbell have studied that change and have stated categorically that the new formula is based on "more specific measures of adequate school expenditures and fiscal capacity, and is better focused than the Augenblick Formula." Which means, once again, we have rejected the status quo in the subject of education and in every other area and we are making positive change.

Finally I want to speak to you about welfare. Our state received national attention regarding its welfare proposals. While I am proud of our proposals, I regret to inform you that they are just proposals. They are not policy. This state has submitted 65 waivers to the federal government based on President Clinton's speech to the National Governors Association in Burlington, Vermont where he announced approval for far-reaching, innovative welfare plans for the states.

Since I announced welfare reform last February and New Hampshire began a discussion of moving from welfare to work, the case loads have dropped. People recognize that the days of the automatic handout are over. But they also recognize that in return we will help them get jobs and get training and get education and we will help them in the transition to do so.

You need to know that the response of the welfare recipients themselves in New Hampshire has been far more positive than the response of the federal bureaucrats to the changes we want to make.

It is insulting that a sovereign state with a proven track record of getting results for welfare recipients should have to submit 65 waivers to the federal government and wait month-after-month only to find out that we will not be permitted to take the President up on his offer of fast-tracking welfare changes. Let me remind you that this plan was designed by Dick Chevrefils, a professional who has devoted his entire life to those caught in the welfare net. Yet it is being rejected on the grounds that the federal government knows best. Since we are only doing what the President encouraged us to do, perhaps when the President personally sees our welfare waivers he will approve them because he has been supportive of waivers for states in the past, remembering his 12 years as a governor.

We want to expand our pilot program because our pilot program, so far, has kept 30 percent of the folks who would have been welfare recipients from going on welfare in the first place. I am not including the folks that we have got in job training or education or work experiences. I'm talking about folks that we have kept off of welfare and in jobs.

This is what the federal government has asked us to do. Set up the same old requirement for control groups under the current plan and run them at the same time. That means we will be forced to document every change we intend to make, collect extensive data, make comparisons with the control groups not operating under the new plan and conduct an evaluation program of each and every pilot program we run in this state to make sure that the federal government knows we are treating our welfare workers better.

The federal bureaucrats have told us they do not endorse a number of changes. Let me mention three of them to you in case you think these are profound. We want to include educational activities for recipients to age 21. They want us to stop at age 20. We want our AFDC workers at Health and Human Services to work in conjunction with Department of Employment Security so that AFDC recipients can move from a check to a job. The federal government has said no.

Under my healthcare plan I have to participate in managed care. We have asked the federal government to permit us to move medicaid recipients to managed care. They have said that although it may be good enough for you and me, medicaid recipients will be able to choose any provider they want. You and I will be paying for health care for medicaid recipients that you and I can't qualify for ourselves.

You need to know the money we are going to be spending on this federal decision will be spent on bureaucrats and red tape and administration. I would rather spend it on welfare recipients for training, for jobs, for educational programs. Let me assure you the fight won't be easy. After all, it was Minority Leader, Rick Trombly, who said in response to my welfare program, "Governor Steve Merrill is the biggest welfare fraud in the state". That applause indicates that what I said earlier is still true. Liberalism dies hard. I will not let Washington stand in the way of men and women on welfare in New Hampshire who want to get off. I am sending the federal government notices today that we are going to implement our plan state wide and we are going to cut the expenses of welfare. If they don't like it they can come to New Hampshire and stop us from putting people back to work.

In conclusion it is clear, either you believe in the New Hampshire advantage or you don't. I ask each of you who believe in the greatness of this state and believe in its people, its traditions and values, to join me in making certain that every Presidential candidate hears from you about your strong feelings about local control and charting your own destiny for your own future. Let's ask our Presidential candidates, "What will you do to make the nation's values more like New Hampshire's values?" I ask you to join with me in making sure that the New Hampshire of tomorrow is an even better one than the New Hampshire of today. It is going to be a fight. But in that fight I can assure you I'll be fighting alongside you.

Thank you and God bless you.

Sen. Blaisdell and Rep. Ann Torr moved that the Joint Convention arise.

Adopted.

The Joint Convention adjourned.

Parliamentary Inquiry

Rep. Cobbin moved that the question by Rep. Jacobson and the response by Speaker Burns be printed in the Journal.

On a division vote, 155 members having voted in the affirmative and 123 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

Rep. Jacobson: Thank you Mr. Speaker. First I have a parliamentary inquiry. Are other questions on the rules in order at the present time?

Speaker: If you wish to ask your questions.

Rep. Jacobson: Because I have no problem with what he has just said.

Speaker: You have a question of the Chair then, I assume.

Rep. Jacobson: If I may. Is this the proper place?

Speaker: You may state your parliamentary inquiry.

Rep. Jacobson: Yesterday I appeared before the Committee on Legislative Administration and I made an inquiry regarding the constitutionality of the hearings that were held yesterday. The Chairman of that Committee informed me that the Leadership had, in fact, okayed it. Now, the reason why I am asking this is that I cannot find a conformity to either Part II, Article 3 of the Constitution or our House Rules numbers 41, 42 and 43 (a). Therefore, I'm interested in how this was determined that it was legal. I raised this also because there have been a number of court cases where the legislature has failed to follow the Constitutional process and the laws that had been enacted and the proceedings that had been enacted were, in fact, invalidated because they failed to follow the Constitution.

I cite, for example, Part II, Article 20, which is one that deals with having a two-thirds vote if less than two-thirds of the members are present. That has been ignored on occasion. So, I want to know, in the event that we pass legislation, whether or not there is a sound ground for holding these hearings. Historically, we had one hearing, the Finance Committee had a hearing in 1992. In 1994, there was a whole schedule - I was not here - but for some reason that whole schedule was cancelled. So that prior to this there has only been one instance where a hearing was held prior to the convening of the legislature. That is my inquiry.

Speaker: The Chair would state that the idea came up three bienniums ago by the late Clerk, Jim Chandler. Knowing that the members like to get out as early in June as they could, he suggested that we try it. So, it was done three bienniums ago, two bienniums ago and I followed the precedent that has been set by the House. It is true that the hearings were cancelled one year because we had a blizzard and we cancelled by inclement weather. The Constitution does say that we shall convene on the first Wednesday in January and such other times as they see fit. Since there were no votes taken and it certainly is the advantage to the members of the House. No one is being deprived. They were properly advertised. They were proper hearings and the Chair would rule, unless overruled by the House, that those were good hearings and I think that it saves us a lot of time throughout the year and we probably enact better legislation with more time to work on that.

Rep. Jacobson: Further inquiry.

Speaker: You may state your inquiry.

Rep. Jacobson: If your analysis is correct and constitutional, then what you are saying is that we can, in fact, have hearings in December, November, October, September, August and July prior to the convening of the second session. Because, I know of nothing that says that it can only happen on the Tuesday before. Is that correct?

Speaker: Only the precedent of this House that has gone on for three bienniums to make ourselves available on the Tuesday before we convene. Certainly, in the future if you or any other members wish to address that in the rules, and I know that people have talked about that, putting it in the rules, that would certainly be an opportunity that could occur sometime in the future.

Rep. Jacobson: Thank you.

The Rules Committee offered the following:

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

amending the joint rules of the general court for the 1996 session.

Amend Joint Rule 10 by replacing it with the following:

CONSENT CALENDAR

Rep. Ann Torr moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 388, rescinding the administrative rule which requires a licensee to disclose a material defect to a prospective buyer, and repealing a provision which requires disclosure by a seller to a buyer of real estate. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Richard H. Krueger for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The subcommittee early on recognized that the real issue was disclosure of material conditions of real property by the seller, licensee, and protection of buyer. Also, the degree of liability by the seller and licensee to the buyer in terms of time became another issue. Vote 13-1.

HB 419, relative to certain copyright licenses. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The feeling of the committee is that there is a problem in how these copyright organizations operate but the current legislation needs more work. It is the hope that these organizations will improve their methods of collecting their fees so that future legislation might not be necessary. Vote 15-1.

HB 420, relative to habitability in manufactured housing parks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill clarifies the law relative to habitability in manufactured housing park lots. The bill also brings cooperatively owned manufactured housing parks under the rules of RSA 205-A. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4001L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; General Applicability. Amend RSA 205-A by inserting after section 13-b the following new section:

205-A:13-c General Applicability.

I. A manufactured housing park owner shall assure that the roads, common areas, and facilities within the manufactured housing park are safe and fit for the purpose of which they were reasonably intended.

II. Cooperative housing parks shall be subject to the provisions of RSA 205-A.

III. In the rental of any lot in a manufactured housing park there shall be an implied warranty of habitability whereby the park owner warrants, at the inception and throughout the tenancy, that:

(a) There is a properly functioning water supply system which shall provide safe drinking water in accordance with the applicable standards established by the department of environmental services in sufficient quantities to meet ordinary household needs of the tenant.

(b) There is a safe properly functioning sewage disposal system, which shall be in accordance with the applicable standards established by the department of environmental services, available to the tenant household.

IV. The housing standards set forth under RSA 48-A shall also apply to manufactured housing parks.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the laws relative to habitability for manufactured housing park lots.

HB 568-FN, relative to the sale of pharmaceutical drugs. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: After many meetings and much testimony the subcommittee on HB 568 feels there are still many questions to be answered before a decision can be made on passage of this bill. Therefore, the committee is asking for Interim Study. Vote 15-1.

SB 148-FN-A, establishing the New Hampshire real estate investment trust act and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Eric N. Lindblade for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill was voted Inexpedient To Legislate because it was too broad in its application. Real estate investments could be made anywhere in the world not just in New Hampshire. The pass through provision of the bill would have permitted real estate investment trusts to avoid corporation taxes. Finally, the committee felt there already existed ample opportunity for investment in these securities as many of them are regularly traded on various stock exchanges. Vote 15-0.

SB 152-FN, relative to fees for filing documents with the insurance department. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill was introduced at the request of the Insurance Department. The committee voted Inexpedient To Legislate at the request of the Insurance Department because they are working on fees and licenses and will ask for new legislation in the 1997 session. Vote 17-1.

HB 190, making luring a minor a crime. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Anne M. Coughlin for Corrections and Criminal Justice. The committee showed great generosity in granting this freshman legislator's wish to further study an issue they had previously examined in great depth. The subcommittee recognized that a law to criminalize luring a child for an unlawful purpose would give law enforcement a valuable tool against pedophiles. But we were unable to resolve the problem of proving an accused pedophile had an unlawful intent. Such laws have proven a very hard sell in the courts. It is a sticking point past subcommittees and several other states have struggled with it. Unlawful intent, in the absence of any other crime, is very difficult to prove. The committee has opted instead to kill this bill, with the sponsor's knowledge, and address the issue of public notification of sex offenders and will bring in a new bill on that subject. Vote 15-0.

HB 448, prohibiting the use or ingestion of alcohol by persons under the age of 21 years. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Donna P. Sytek for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee kept this bill for study to allow us to research other states' laws against internal possession of alcohol by persons under 21. We could find no provision anywhere that would satisfy our concerns about the right against self-incrimination and questions about jurisdiction for voluntary acts (drinking) followed by involuntary acts (digesting). Although we are sympathetic to the needs of the police in enforcing laws against underage drinking, we recommend that this bill be killed. Vote 14-0.

HB 550-FN-A-L, designating certain taxes and revenue to fund public kindergarten and making an appropriation therefor, and repealing certain tax credits and a tax carry forward credit. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Stanley N. Searles Sr. for Education: This bill is not a final solution to a continuing problem but in the interest of avoiding unnecessary duplication of other outstanding bills it was voted Inexpedient To Legislate. Vote 15-0.

HB 157, establishing a committee to study the cost of the rabies vaccine for human beings and other issues relative to rabies. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Donald R. Philbrick for Environment and Agriculture: This bill was re-referred to committee as a vehicle to use in the event that something unforeseen should develop in the rabies problem which was rapidly developing last year. As nothing has occurred this year that would require legislation, we feel this bill should be Inexpedient To Legislate. Vote 15-0.

HB 210, establishing a study committee to review options for promoting economic development through the timely remediation of non-superfund sites. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. M. Kathryn Aranda for Environment and Agriculture: The issues raised in this bill are being incorporated into new legislation now being drafted. Vote 14-0.

HB 288, eliminating the requirement that solid waste management districts prepare solid waste management plans. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. M. Kathryn Aranda for Environment and Agriculture: This issue will be dealt with in the solid waste recodification bill which is being developed by the Environment and Agriculture committee, therefore this bill is no longer needed. Vote 14-0.

HB 292, changing the minimum acreage to qualify for current use from 10 acres to one acre. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Donald R. Philbrick for Environment and Agriculture: This bill was thoroughly studied through the summer and it was felt that the issue of discretionary easements which deals with land parcels of any size should be removed from RSA 79-A and a new RSA 79-C should be created. This bill was voted Inexpedient to Legislate and a new committee sponsored bill will be submitted for the next session which addresses this issue. Vote 16-0.

HB 352, relative to the New Hampshire/Vermont solid waste compact. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Donald R. Philbrick for Environment and Agriculture: This bill was held by the Committee in the event it was required to address problems of the NH/VT solid waste operations revealed through continued study of those operations in Claremont and Newport. Existing legislation is adequate to address the problems. Vote 14-0.

HB 355, relative to solid waste districts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Daniel M. Burnham for Environment and Agriculture: This bill is no longer necessary. It was written to address certain planning shortcomings related to solid waste management practices. These shortcomings are addressed in committee legislation recodifying and amending RSA 149-M. Vote 17-0.

HB 61-FN, consolidating and reorganizing the pari-mutuel commission and sweepstakes commission into the racing and lottery commission. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Executive Departments and Administration: This complicated re-referred bill came to the committee late in the session with little active support. After serious consideration during the recess, the consolidating and reorganizing of the pari-mutuel and sweepstakes commissions was found to be not necessary or feasible. The committee found no major problems with the operation of either commission. The sponsor felt that this is not the right time to pass this legislation. Vote 14-0.

HB 353, relative to state licensed or certified real estate appraisers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Sylvia A. Holley for Executive Departments and Administration: Recognizing the similarity of study goals in both HB 353 and SB 53, the E.D.&A.s interim study members joined the Senate study committee to research the issues relative to real estate appraisers. Reaching identical conclusions. the decision was jointly made by both groups to recommend that HB 353 be deemed ITL and support the efforts to pass SB 53. Vote 14-0.

HB 569, establishing a committee to review and make recommendations concerning the administrative practices of the public employee labor relations board. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Warren E. Goddard for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill is intended to establish a committee to review and make recommendations concerning the New Hampshire Public Employee Labor Relations Board. The committee found in review of the records of the PELRB's activities that there is no need for such a committee. Vote 12-0.

HB 591-FN, relative to forming a joint committee on boards and commissions orientation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Lawrence A. Emerton Sr. for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill will enable all new members of state regulatory boards, commissions, advisory boards, advisory committees or authorities to receive an orientation manual for their new members. This manual will give these new members a more expeditious start in their duties and a broad overview of state government. The overwhelming need for this manual was given to the committee by testimony from many agencies during hearings on this and other bills. Vote 15-0.

Amend that title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

requiring state regulatory boards, commissions, advisory boards, advisory committees, and authorities to develop an orientation manual for new members.

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1 and 2 with the following:

1 Statement of Intent. It is the intent of the legislature that all newly appointed members of state regulatory boards, commissions, advisory boards, advisory committees, and authorities shall receive training in their duties and responsibilities. Recognizing that each of these entities has a unique charge, the legislature finds that it is most appropriate for their members to develop, distribute and update an orientation manual specific to their individual duties and practices.

2 New Chapter; Orientation Manual for Boards and Commissions. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 20-A the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 20-B

BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS MEMBER ORIENTATION

20-B:1 Orientation Manual.

I. Every state regulatory board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee, or authority shall develop an orientation manual for its new members. The orientation manual shall include information about the business procedures of the regulatory board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee and authority. Such procedures shall include the mailing address and phone number of the office, a list of the members and staff, the customary meeting schedule, and any other pertinent information.

II. The following additional documents shall accompany each orientation manual. Such documents shall include but shall not be limited to:

(a) The enabling statutes and rules of the regulatory board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee, and authority.

(b) Other statutes governing subjects within the jurisdiction of the regulatory board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee, and authority.

(c) Case law relative to areas within the jurisdiction of the board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee, and authority.

(d) A copy of RSA 91-A, a copy of RSA 541-A, a copy of RSA 541, a copy of RSA 21-G:5-a, and a copy of the most recent guidelines for hearings officers produced by the department of justice.

20-B:2 Updating Orientation Manual. The members of every regulatory board, commission, advisory board, advisory committee, and authority shall review and update the new member orientation manual annually to ensure that all of its components are current and complete.

Referred to Finance.

HB 254, extending the term of the county attorney from 2 to 4 years. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Robert A. Lockwood for Judiciary and Family Law: The Committee has determined that there is no need for this bill. Vote 18-0.

SB 95-FN-A, relative to associate justices of the Manchester District Court and Nashua District Court. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Reps. Margaret D. Hallyburton and Nick Hart for Judiciary and Family Law: The bill establishes two new fulltime associate justices position, one for the Manchester District Court and one for the Nashua District Court. To appropriately handle the cases filed there, 3.7 fulltime judges are required in Manchester and 3.8 fulltime judges in Nashua. Each of these courts has only two fulltime judges at this time, so the need is evident. Vote 16-3.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

Referred to Finance.

HB 267-L, clarifying the extent to which governmental uses of property shall comply with local land use regulations. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: This bill was identical to SB 11. Since the committee had retained both and since SB 11 contained necessary and important amendments, this bill became unnecessary. Vote 14-1.

HB 331-L, relative to elderly property tax exemptions for persons with no social security income. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Norma A. Sabella for Municipal and County Government: This bill is the result of a careful study of several related bills from the last session. It establishes one elderly exemption to replace the existing elderly exemption laws. This bill clarifies the statutes relating to this exemption and allows towns and cities to ascertain their own income and asset limits. Vote 17-0.

HB 475-L, enabling municipalities to create regional transit districts. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: This bill encourages community cooperation and fosters regional connectivity by allowing towns and cities to voluntarily participate in regional transit districts. A regional transit board would be limited only by its vision and creativity in dealing with regional transportation concerns. Vote 14-3.

HB 634-L, allowing an amount to be assessed as part of village district property tax rates to be used to reimburse municipalities for paying village district tax abatements and interest. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: This bill was re-referred pending an appeal and the Supreme Court upheld the original ruling. Considering this opinion, the Committee felt that the assessment is the prerogative of the Selectmen and the 5% overlay for abatements should stay with the town portion of the taxes, instead of with the Village District. Vote 13-0.

SB 11-L, relative to the application of local land use regulations to governmental units. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Katherine H. Metzger for Municipal and County Government: This bill clarifies that governmental units are exempt from zoning regulations but must comply with subdivision and site plan review. However, there are provisions for waivers and overrides. Also, highway and utility projects are exempted. The committee felt this legislation will encourage dialogue between governmental units and local boards and allow flexibility at the local level. Vote 16-2.

Referred to Finance.

HB 391, increasing the penalty for a person convicted of being an armed career criminal. OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. James J. Fenton for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: This committee strongly supports the bill as an additional 15 years penalty for those who chose to accept a life of crime. The bill is consistent with federal law. Vote 12-0.

Referred to Corrections and Criminal Justice.

HCR 5, requesting Congress to adopt as part of the Contract with America procedures for instituting a constitutional amendment prohibiting desecration of the United States flag. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Richard A. Soucy for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: HCR 5, requesting Congress to adopt as part of the "Contract with America" procedures for instituting a constitutional amendment prohibiting desecration of the United States flag, is not needed. In 1989, SR 6 and HR 31, asking Congress to pass remedial legislation to protect our flag, passed both chambers on June 28, 1989. HR 57, during the 1990 session, passed on April 3, 1990, 201-142, asking for a constitutional amendment. Earlier, on March 8, 1990, the Senate unanimously passed a similar measure, SR 2. The committee feels that HCR 5 is redundant and voted Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 16-0.

HB 243, relative to the expansion of veterans' home facilities and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. J. Arthur Tufts for Public Works and Highways: Sufficient need for expansion of the New Hampshire Veterans Home was not demonstrated and the committee can deal with the issue when warranted. Vote 17-0.

HB 276, making an appropriation for the design and construction of a district court facility for Dover, Durham, and Somersworth. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Terence R. Pfaff for Public Works and Highways: The committee almost always authorizes the design and engineering money prior to any authorization of construction, furnishing or equipment and in this case the design and engineering money was approved in the Capital Budget, deleting the necessity for this bill. Vote 17-0.

HB 583, requiring the state to reopen Mittersill ski area and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Gene G. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: This bill would require the state to re-open Mittersill ski area and provide $1.5 million for this idea. Due to the ongoing study and the turmoil involving the state ski areas and reports of extra studies being done at Cannon, the committee unanimously felt passage of this bill would be inappropriate at this time. Vote 17-0.

HB 647, establishing a municipal bridge repair and a department of transportation "on the shelf" program and continually appropriating the municipal bridge repair and the department of transportation "on the shelf" account. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Gene G. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: This bill, as amended, sets up specific transfers for highway fund surpluses. For fiscal year 1996 any surplus in excess of a floor of $1.5 million will be distributed as follows: $500,000 for computer equipment; $2 million to the equipment and inventory fund and any surplus in excess of $4 million shall be transferred to the highway betterment account. After fiscal year 1996 all surplus in excess of $1.5 million will be transferred to the betterment account, which is the account that is providing so much work on some of our secondary roads and bridges. Passage of this act ensures that highway fund surpluses will be used for appropriate purposes. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4015L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to transfers from the highway surplus account.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Transfers from Highway Surplus Account in 1996. For fiscal year 1996 only, in the event that the balance of the highway surplus account exceeds $1,500,000 in fiscal year 1996, the funds shall be transferred as follows:

I. Funds in excess of $1,500,000 but less than $2,000,000 shall be transferred to the department of transportation. Such funds shall be used for the purchase and maintenance of computer equipment and data management inventory.

II. Funds in excess of $2,000,000 but less than $4,000,000 shall be transferred to the equipment and inventory fund established in RSA 228:24-b. Such funds shall be used as provided in RSA 228:24-b.

III. Funds in excess of $4,000,000 shall be transferred to the highway betterment account.

2 Transfers from Highway Surplus Account. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, beginning in fiscal year 1997 any surplus funds in excess of $1,500,000 in the highway surplus account on June 30 of each fiscal year shall be transferred to the highway betterment account.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires certain transfers to be made from the highway surplus accounts for fiscal year 1996 and for future fiscal years.

Referred to Finance.

SB 123, establishing a committee which shall develop a master plan for the Laconia state school property. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Leon Calawa, Jr. for Public Works and Highways: Until the present state prison is closed and moved from Laconia, it would be premature to spend $50,000 for a Master plan that would be used for five years. The needs of the state may change and go in different directions, and for this reason it was decided to report this bill Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 17-0.

SB 153, adding the reconstruction of sections of U.S. Route 3/New Hampshire Route 11 in the towns of Belmont and Tilton to the state 10-year transportation plan. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. John P. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: This bill would require three to be added to the Ten-Year Transportation Plan. The bill was re-referred in 1995 in order to await the development of the 1996 update of the plan. The draft plan currently being heard statewide by the Governor's Advisory Commission on Intermodel Transportation (GACIT) not only contains all three of these projects, but advances these projects starting in the fifth year of the plan. Therefore, the committee does not feel that this bill is needed, especially since the committee will be holding hearings on the Ten-Year Plan in early 1996 and can offer amendments to the Plan at that time. Vote 15-2.

SB 169, relative to the design of the relocation and reconstruction of NH Route 140 in the town of Belmont and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. David R. Boutin for Public Works and Highways: The majority of the committee believes that a process known as the Ten-Year Plan is in place and to adopt this bill would circumvent the process that all other projects are subject to. The committee does note that the Route 140 project is in the Ten-Year Plan with $500,000 allocated to preliminary engineering in 1998. Vote 13-5.

HB 207, requiring the department of fish and game to obtain approval from the public boat access advisory board before any funds are spent for acquisitions or improvements. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Michael D. Whalley for Resources, Recreation and Development: The committee feels that improvements have been made to the boat access program and HB 207 is not necessary at this time. Vote 15-0.

HB 218-FN, authorizing the department of environmental services, division of water resources, to acquire Hawkins Pond dam in Centre Harbor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: The committee found that this bill is no longer necessary, as the subject has been addressed in legislation that was enacted last session. Vote 16-0.

HB 363, relative to Murphy Dam on Lake Francis in the town of Pittsburg. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Thomas J. Kirby for Resources, Recreation and Development: The committee is bringing a committee bill to the House next session to effectively address those issues studied this summer within the HB 363 subcommittee. These new proposals will be heard in the House. HB 363 is no longer needed in this process and does not appropriately address these matters. Vote 17-0.

HB 377, establishing a committee to review the feasibility of funding certain operations at Mittersill ski area. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Deborah F. Merritt for Resources, Recreation and Development: The committee believes the establishment of a committee to review the feasibility of funding certain operations at Mittersill to be duplicative given the charge to the Mt. Sunapee and Cannon Mt. Ski Area Leasing Feasibility Study Committee.
Vote 16-0.

HB 457, relative to access to public waters through public lands for the purpose of sport fishing. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill is not necessary at this time because the City of Portsmouth is drafting a permit system to allow fishing at night on Pierce Island. Vote 17-0.

HB 484-FN, grandfathering certain sewage disposal systems from the approval requirements established by the department of environmental services. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Cynthia J. Dokmo for Resources, Recreation and Development: The concerns which prompted this bill have been addressed in HB 393, which became law effective July 1, 1995. Vote 17-0.

HB 488-FN, relative to certification of and fees for wetland scientists and changing the title of "natural scientists" to "soil scientists." INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Michael D. Whalley for Resources, Recreation and Development: The majority was opposed to the certification of wetland scientists because certification would add to the burdensome bureaucracy of land development review and would result in the exclusion of some presently employed in the area of wetland delineation. Vote 13-3.

HB 530-FN, transferring the functions and duties of the director of state ski operations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Deborah F. Merritt for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill abolishes the position of the Director of State Ski Operations and transfers the duties to the Director of Parks and Recreation. It removes the prohibition against the inclusion of revenues from state ski operations in the state park fund. As amended, revenues from the ski areas will be kept separate from revenues derived from service parks and may only be transferred within the park fund with prior approval of the Governor and Council and the Fiscal Committee. Vote 15-0.

Amend the bill by replacing section 7 with the following:

7 State Park Fund; Park Account; Ski Area Account. RSA 216-A:3-i is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

216-A:3-i State Park Fund Established.

I. The state treasurer shall establish a separate and distinct account to be known as the state park fund. The treasurer shall establish within the state park fund separate and distinct accounts known as the park account and the ski area account. The treasurer shall deposit in said accounts actual revenue derived by the commissioner of the department of resources and economic development in excess of budget expenses from fees, services, accommodations, rentals, retail sales, and net profit from concession operations, and including any federal moneys which become available, and all donations and gifts. The accounts shall be continuing and nonlapsing.

II. Any funds deposited into the park account and ski account are hereby continually appropriated to and may be expended by the commissioner of the department of resources and economic development only with the prior approval of the governor and council and the fiscal committee, provided that additional funds above those authorized in the budget are necessary for the division of parks and recreation to provide an adequate level of service and maintenance in the state park system, restore park facilities and for proper operation of the state owned ski areas.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 8 the following and renumbering the original sections 9 and 10 to read as 10 and 11 respectively:

8 Reference. Amend RSA 227:11 to read as follows:

227:11 Revenue. The department of resources and economic development shall collect such fares, tolls and charges for carriage and other services made available in connection with the tramways as the department deems reasonable. Such sums collected shall be deposited into the [general fund] ski area fund established in RSA 216-A:3-i. The commissioner of the department of resources and economic development shall make quarterly reports on revenue collected under this section to the fiscal committee, the senate president, the speaker of the house, and governor and council.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

(1) Abolishes the position of the director of state ski operations.

(2) Transfers the duties of the director of state ski operations to the director of parks and recreation.

(3) Establishes a park account and a ski area account in the state park fund.

Referred to Finance.

HB 605-FN, requiring boating safety education. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Peter O. Crowell for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill originally envisioned boater safety education for 16 years olds. During the summer, a subcommittee investigated the issue of safety on New Hampshire's waters via three public hearings. Three problem areas were identified: (a) the boating public lacks knowledge of the boating rules, (b) lack of enforcement on the lakes, i.e. not enough law enforcement officers available, and (c) people operating boats under the influence of alcohol. It was determined that HB 605-FN would not address the heart of the problem by limiting boater safety education to only 16 year olds. Therefore, it is recommended this bill be voted Inexpedient To Legislate. Three different pieces of legislation will be filed this session which will address properly these three issues which are of such concern to the boating public. Vote 16-0.

HB 297, allowing commercial or industrial businesses located in New Hampshire to obtain special competitive electric rates in certain circumstances. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Lawrence J. Guay for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill would have allowed a commercial or industrial business located in New Hampshire to obtain approval from the public utilities commission for special competitive electric rates. The subject matter of this bill is being examined by the Retail Wheeling and Restructuring Study Committee, as part of its examination of the entire electric utility industry. Vote 12-0.

HB 380, to legalize the substitution of metric equivalents for any English system value expressed in state motor vehicle laws. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Godfrey G. Howard for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill, to legalize the substitution of metric equivalents for our present English system in state motor vehicle laws, was introduced at the request of the Department of Transportation to forestall possible loss of Federal highway funds, despite widespread lack of enthusiasm for the use of metric in highway signs. It is now believed, however, that it may be many years, if ever, before metric highway signage is Federally mandated. Hence the bill's original purpose no longer applies. Vote 12-0.

HB 625, relative to small power producers, qualifying cogenerators, and payment for the purchase of the output of certain facilities. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Bernard D. Lamach for Science, Technology and Energy: Although an amendment was presented and was voted favorably by the committee, Refer to Interim Study was supported by the committee to allow this subject matter to come forward coincidentally with the effort on Retail Wheeling and Utility Restructuring. Vote 9-2.

HB 447, establishing a committee to review certain aspects of the OHRV laws. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: The committee determined that funds presently allocated to the OHRV Safety Education Program are being appropriately expended on OHRV safety issues within the law enforcement division of the Fish and Game Department. The committee further determined that the safety program is appropriately assigned to fish and game and that no further study is necessary since both the Fish and Game Department and the Department of Resources and Economic Development are adequately meeting their statutory obligations to the OHRV program. Vote 17-0.

HB 482-FN, requiring the division of motor vehicles to provide a limited purpose drivers license to persons who have lost their privileges. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: The committee voted unanimously that this was not the time to weaken the state's anti-DWI initiative by allowing persons whose drivers' license has been revoked to operate a vehicle upon our public highways for any reason whatsoever. Vote 17-0.

HB 555-FN, requiring certificates of title and title fees for OHRVs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Sherman A. Packard for Transportation: This bill was found undesirable by the Department of Safety due to the increased demands it would put on the DOS. It was also found that at this time the problem did not exist in the depth as originally thought. Vote 17-0.

HB 575-FN-L, requiring certificates of title for vessels. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Ken W. Malcolm for Transportation: Due to financial and personnel constraints this would not be the time to start this program despite some of the merit this bill contains. Vote 17-0.

SB 167-FN, requiring any person applying for or renewing a driver's license to be checked through the National Crime Information Center for wanted felons and the National Law Enforcement Telecommunications Systems, as a precondition to issuance, and imposing a surcharge on fines and default payments which are overdue to the division of motor vehicles. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Fred A. Kruse for Transportation: This bill has been thoroughly discussed during the interim period by a subcommittee of the Transportation Committee and was recommended to the full committee as Inexpedient To Legislate in both the original version and in a revised version put forward by the sponsor. Vote 17-0.

HB 269, relative to the taking of fish and game on posted property. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. William P. Boucher for Wildlife and Marine Resources: The committee feels that there are many issues that came out of the subcommittee deliberations that need to be considered. The need for public exposure to this issue came about too late in our schedule to deal with and we ask the House for support to explore all these ramifications. Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR PART I

(Finance, Executive Departments and Administration and Corrections and Criminal Justice)

HB 580-FN, allowing the formation of and regulating limited liability partnerships and providing for registration fees. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill addresses the problem that was brought to our attention by the Attorney General's office. The big six accounting firms are partnerships but do not have the type of ownership that are defined under New Hampshire law. This bill expands New Hampshire's uniform partnership to now include "Registered Limited Liability Partnerships." Vote 12-6.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 8 with the following:

9 New Subdivision; Limited Liability Partnerships. Amend RSA 304-A by inserting after section 43 the following new subdivision:

Registered Limited Liability Partnerships

304-A:44 Registered Limited Liability Partnerships.

(b) The address of its principal office.

(c) The address of its registered office and the name and address of its registered agent for service of process in this state.

(d) A brief statement of the business in which the partnership engages.

(e) Any other matters that the partnership determines to include.

(f) That the partnership hereby registers as a registered limited liability partnership.

II. The registration shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a registration. If the partner executing the registration is other than a natural person, the registration shall be executed

Such annual notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute an annual notice. If the partner executing the annual notice is other than a natural person, the annual notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. Such notice shall be accompanied by an annual fee of $100.

VI. A partnership becomes a registered limited liability partnership at the time of the filing of the initial registration with the secretary of state or at any later date not later than the ninetieth day after the date the registration is filed, specified in the registration, if, in either case, there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter. A partnership continues as a registered limited liability partnership if there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The status of a partnership as a registered limited liability partnership and the liability of a partner of such registered limited liability partnership shall not be adversely affected by errors or subsequent changes in the information stated in a registration under paragraph I of this section or notice under paragraph V of this section.

VII.(a) Registration remains effective until:

(1) It is voluntarily withdrawn by filing with the secretary of state a written withdrawal notice; or

(2) 60 days after receipt by the partnership of a notice from the secretary of state that the partnership has failed to make timely payment of the annual fee specified in paragraph V, unless the fee is paid within such 60 day period.

(b) A withdrawal notice under subparagraph (a)(1) shall contain the name of the registered limited liability partnership, the date on which it originally registered as a limited liability partnership, and the date on which the withdrawal becomes effective. The notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal notice. If the partner executing the withdrawal notice is other than a natural person, the notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35.

VIII. The fact that a registration or a notice is on file with the secretary of state is notice that the partnership is a registered limited liability partnership and is notice of all other facts set forth in the registration or notice.

IX. The secretary of state shall provide forms for a registration under paragraph I of this section or an annual notice under paragraph V of this section.

304-A:45 Name of Registered Limited Liability Partnership. The name of a registered limited liability partnership:

III. An applicant for a registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a same name or deceptively similar name to one or more of the names described in subsections (a) through (h) and the secretary of state shall authorize the use of the name applied for if the holder or holders of the name gives consent in writing.

304-A:46 Reservation of Name.

I. The exclusive right to the use of a name may be reserved by:

(a) Any person intending to register as a registered limited liability partnership under this chapter and to adopt that name;

II. The reservation of a specified name shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application, executed by the applicant, to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by a registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of 120 days. Once having so reserved a name, the same applicant may again reserve the same name for successive 120-day periods. A registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership may file with the secretary of state a notice of change with respect to any other information contained in its registration or annual notice. Any notice of change of name or information shall specify the name under which the registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership was originally registered, the date of its original registration, and the new name or new information. Such notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a statement of change of name or information. If the partner executing the notice is other than a natural person, the statement shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35.

304-A:47 Registered Office; Registered Agent.

(a) The name of the registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership.

(b) The street address of its current registered office.

(c) If the street address of its registered office is to be changed, the street address to which the registered office is to be changed and the date on which such change was or is to be effective.

(d) The name and address of its current registered agent.

(e) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name and address of its successor registered agent and the date on which such change was or is to be effective.

(f) That after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

III. The notice of change of name or address of registered agent or registered office shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a statement of change of name or address of registered agent or registered office. If the partner executing the notice is other than a natural person, the notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35.

IV. A registered agent of a registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership may resign as registered agent by executing and filing a written notice of resignation with the secretary of state. The statement shall recite that a copy of it has been mailed to the registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership.

VI. Any notice or statement filed under RSA 304-A:47, III or IV shall be accompanied by a fee of $15.

304-A:48 Applicability of Chapter to Foreign and Interstate Commerce.

A partnership, including a registered limited liability partnership, formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter, may conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have an exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States or in any foreign country.

II. It is the intent of the legislature that the legal existence of registered limited liability partnerships formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter be recognized outside the boundaries of this state and that the laws of this state governing such registered limited liability partnerships transacting business outside this state be granted the protection of full faith and credit under the Constitution of the United States.

III. It is the policy of this state that the internal affairs of partnerships, including registered limited liability partnerships, formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter, including the liability of partners for debts, obligations and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership, shall be subject to and governed by the laws of this state.

IV. Upon transacting business in this state, a foreign registered limited liability partnership shall:

(a) Comply with any statutory or administrative registration of filing requirements governing the specific type of business in which the partnership is engaged; and

(b) File a notice of registration with the secretary of state, on such forms as the secretary shall provide, stating the name of the partnership:

(1) The address of its principal office.

(2) The jurisdiction in which it is registered as a registered limited liability partnership.

(3) The address of its registered office and the name and address of its registered agent for service of process in this state.

(4) Any other information that the partnership determines to include.

(5) A brief statement of the business in which the partnership engages.

V. The notice of registration shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a notice of registration. If the partner executing the notice of registration is other than a natural person, the notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $100. The notice shall be accompanied by a certificate of legal existence or good standing, authenticated within 60 days prior to the filing of the notice, issued by the proper officer of the jurisdiction in which the foreign registered limited liability partnership is registered as such. The notice becomes effective at the time of filing with the secretary of state or at any later date not later than the ninetieth day after the date the notice is filed.

VI. A foreign registered limited liability partnership may register under paragraph IV under its name, provided, however, that the name must contain the words "limited liability partnership," "registered limited liability partnership" or "professional limited liability partnership," or the abbreviation "L.L.P.," "LLP," "R.L.L.P.," "P.L.L.P.," "PLLP," "P.L.L." or "PLL," as the last words or letters of its name. The name of a foreign registered limited liability partnership must satisfy the requirements of RSA 304-A:45, II. If the secretary of state determines that the real name of a foreign registered limited liability partnership is unavailable in this state, the foreign registered limited liability partnership may use a fictitious name, under which it may register and transact business in this state.

VII. The internal affairs of foreign registered limited liability partnerships, and the liability of partners for debts, obligations and liabilities of or chargeable to the partnership, shall be subject to and governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the foreign registered limited liability partnership is registered.

VIII.(a) A notice of registration under RSA 304-A:48, V remains effective until:

(1) It is voluntarily withdrawn by filing with the secretary of state a written withdrawal notice; or

(2) Sixty days after receipt by the foreign registered limited liability partnership of a notice from the secretary of state that the partnership has failed to make timely payment of the annual fee specified in RSA 304-A:48, X, unless such fee is paid within such 60-day period.

(b) A withdrawal notice under subparagraph (a)(1) shall contain the name of the foreign registered limited liability partnership, the date on which it originally registered with the secretary of state as a foreign registered limited liability partnership, and the date upon which the withdrawal becomes effective. The notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal notice. If the partner executing the withdrawal notice is other than a natural person, the notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35.

IX. A foreign registered limited liability partnership is not subject to chapter 305-A.

X. A foreign registered limited liability partnership registered under this section shall file, in each year following the year in which the notice of registration is filed under RSA 304-A:48, V, on a date specified by the secretary of state, an annual notice, on such forms as the secretary shall provide, stating any material changes in the information contained in the notice of registration or that there are no material changes. Such annual notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute the annual notice. If the partner executing the annual notice is other than a natural person, the annual notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partnership. Such notice shall be accompanied by an annual fee of $100.

304-A:49 Documents; Certificates; Fees.

I. To file a document with the secretary of state under this chapter, the original and one exact or conformed copy of the document shall be delivered to the office of the secretary of state along with the prescribed fee. The copy shall be stamped with the word "FILED" and the date and returned to the partnership, if the partnership so requests.

II. The secretary of state may:

(a) Certify copies of any paper on file as provided for by this chapter, for a fee of $1 per page and $5 for the certificate.

(b) Issue any certificate, including but not limited to a certificate of good standing, other than a certification of a copy under subparagraph II(a), for a fee of $5, except that for issuing any certificate of the secretary of state that recites all of the filings of a registered limited liability partnership or foreign limited liability partnership, the fee shall be $10.

(c) Receive, file or index any statement, notice, certificate, affidavit, agreement or other paper provided for by this chapter, for which no different fee is specifically prescribed, for a fee of $15.

III. The secretary of state shall establish, and may from time to time amend, a schedule of specific fees payable under this chapter.

304-A:50 Administration.

I. The secretary of state shall collect all fees required under this chapter and shall pay them to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund as unrestricted revenue, except as provided in paragraph II.

II. The state treasurer shall pay the expenses of administering this chapter out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated until the fees collected pursuant to this chapter have been received by the treasurer. Thereafter, the treasurer shall pay the expenses of administering this chapter out of the fees collected under this chapter and shall reimburse the treasury for previous expenses paid by the treasurer. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for the sums authorized by this section out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

304-A:51 Rulemaking. The secretary of state may adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter.

304-A:52 Reserved Power of State of New Hampshire to Amend or Repeal Chapter. All provisions of this chapter may be amended from time to time or repealed, and all rights of members and managers are subject to this reservation.

(a) The laws and rules governing the rendering of professional services by partnerships; and

(b) Such other terms and conditions imposed by its governing licensing authority.

IV. The secretary of state shall decline to register any trade name the same as, or deceptively similar to an agency or instrumentality of the United States or this state or subdivision thereof or of any political party recognized under RSA 652:11, unless written consent is obtained from the authorized representative of such party.

"Security" does not include any insurance or endowment policy or annuity contract under which an insurance company promises to pay money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or for some other specified period.

(b) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), a membership interest in a limited liability company or a partnership interest in a registered limited liability partnership is not a security if:

(1) The secretary of state, by rule or order, determines that it is not a security;

(3) The registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership:

(c) For purposes of subparagraph (b)(3) of this paragraph, a registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership is related to a registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership engaged in the rendering of professional services if:

(B) At least a majority of partners in each partnership also hold interests or are members in another person, and each partnership renders services pursuant to an agreement with such other person, or

(C) The partnerships are affiliates within the meaning of RSA 421-B:2, I.

(D) In connection with the issuance of a cease and desist order issued by the secretary of state, and any hearings conducted, under RSA 421-B:23, I(a), the secretary may presume that a membership interest in a limited liability company or a partnership interest in a registered limited liability partnership is a security, and the person relying on subparagraph (b) of this paragraph has the burden of proving that the interest is not a security under the provisions of subparagraph (b).

12 Registration Requirement. Amend RSA 421-B:11, II to read as follows:

II. Report adopted and referred to Finance.

SB 133-FN-A, establishing a pollution prevention program in the department of environmental services and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Harold P. Melcher for Environment and Agriculture: The committee felt that by permitting the state to give helpful advice to businesses, this bill would effectually reduce environmental pollution before it happened, would save later expensive cleanups, and would make New Hampshire more attractive to industry. Vote 14-1.

Amendment (3537L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings. The general court finds that traditional regulatory approaches to government environmental management have enjoyed important and significant success in reducing and controlling pollution of the state's environment. The need to continue and maintain regulatory programs is acknowledged, while also recognizing the desirability of embracing alternative methods to protect the state's natural resources and public health through more cooperative, comprehensive, goal-oriented approaches to minimizing human impacts on ecosystems. The general court also finds that many existing government environmental programs tend to be focused, as a result of statutory or funding constraints, on one medium, such as air, water, or land, which can cause fragmentation in their application. One way to minimize fragmentation is to put more emphasis on preventing pollution from occurring in the first place. The general court further finds that preventing pollution requires that human activities which affect the environment be viewed as a whole. Undesirable environmental impacts can be lessened by emphasizing alternative, less wasteful methods of conducting economically beneficial human activities. Implementing pollution prevention can also result in positive economic effects by reducing costs and improving efficiency. Therefore, the general court finds that in order to enhance its role in protecting New Hampshire's environment, state government needs to provide leadership and assistance to assure that preventing pollution is the option of first choice whenever possible in implementing environmental programs. It also needs to communicate with and listen to those it regulates so there are understood expectations on each side.

2 Purpose. The purposes of this act are to:

I. Ensure that pollution prevention, as further defined by this act, is practiced throughout state and local government and the regulated community.

II. Encourage development of methods to assist the regulated community to achieve compliance with regulatory requirements in a cost-effective manner sensitive to environmental quality.

III. Target implementation to include both the myriad of activities conducted directly by government which impact the state's ecosystems, and environmental programs which affect the lives and livelihoods of New Hampshire citizens.

3 New Subdivision; Pollution Prevention. Amend RSA 21-O by inserting after section 14 the following new subdivision:

Pollution Prevention

21-O:15 Pollution Prevention Policy. The department shall promote pollution prevention actions in all sectors of the state, including, but not limited to the department itself, other state agencies, local governmental entities, the regulated communities, and homeowners, as the preferred option for meeting established environmental quality goals. In any case where pollution prevention options have been explored and found not to be feasible, recycling, treatment, and disposal shall be examined, in that order. Department decisions which do not contribute to efforts to prevent pollution at the source of generation or release shall be periodically reexamined in order to continually strive toward pollution prevention objectives.

21-O:16 Pollution Prevention Coordinator. There is established in the office of the commissioner, department of environmental services, the position of state pollution prevention coordinator. The coordinator shall be a classified employee qualified by reason of education and experience. It is the intent of the legislature that coordination of pollution prevention efforts shall complement and reinforce existing state, federal, local, and private pollution prevention efforts.

21-O:17 Definitions. In this subdivision:

I. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of environmental services.

II. "Coordinator" means the state pollution prevention coordinator.

III. "Department" means the department of environmental services.

IV. "Pollution prevention" means the use of materials, processes, or practices which reduce or eliminate the creation of pollutants or wastes at the source, or minimize their release into the environment prior to recycling, treatment, or disposal. When being practiced, it includes avoiding or minimizing the transfer of pollutant or waste generation and later disposal from one medium, such as air, water or land, to another. It also includes:

(a) Department employees or agents providing such technical assistance shall not make available to any department regulatory program or any other regulatory or enforcement agency, information obtained in the course of providing such technical assistance unless:

5 Appropriation. The sum of $99,830 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1997, is hereby appropriated to the department of environmental services for the purpose of compensating the employees hired to fill the positions established in section 4 of this act. This appropriation is in addition to any other funds appropriated to the department of environmental services and shall be expended as follows:

6 Funding Mechanism. The general court finds that use of the hazardous waste cleanup fund established under RSA 147-B to pay the costs of the pollution prevention program established by this act is an appropriate use of that fund. Section 7 of this act reflects this finding.

7 New Paragraph; Use of Funds. Amend RSA 147-B:7 by inserting after paragraph IV the following new paragraph:

V. The department may use up to $115,000 per year from the fund to pay the costs of not more than 2 staff positions and related expenses for the pollution prevention program established under RSA 21-O:15 through RSA 21-O:22.

8 Review. It is the intent of the general court that RSA 21-O:15-22, as enacted pursuant to this act, shall be repealed effective July 1, 2002, unless it can be demonstrated to be effective in encouraging enhanced voluntary compliance with environmental laws and in not providing opportunities for avoiding such compliance. The repeal of RSA 21-O:15-22 shall not affect the confidentiality of any assistance performed while the statute was in effect. The department, in consultation with the Business and Industry Association of N.H. and other environmental interests, shall report to the general court no later than November 1, 2001, regarding the effectiveness of this act.

9 Repeal. RSA 21-O:15-22, relative to the pollution prevention program, is repealed.

HB 533-FN, relative to retirement benefits for the state treasurer. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill was re-referred to the committee so that we might hear from the Treasurer as to why she did not join this program during the open period. The committee agreed that she should have the opportunity to join at this time upon payment of all back contributions. This program was open only to those specified in the original bill and this will close the bill as no other employees are eligible. Vote 14-0.

HB 547-FN-L, establishing a retirement system for volunteer firefighters. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Ray F. Langer for Executive Departments and Administration: There is a need for trained volunteers or call firefighters and emergency medical personnel. This is an incentive award program to encourage these personnel to provide a long-term commitment in this community service. The bill enables a community's or fire district's legislative body, as a sponsoring body, to adopt this plan by a 2/3 vote. The plan provides that non-taxable yearly contributions will be made by the sponsoring organization and additional contributions made by the participant. One hundred percent of these contributions plus any earned interest made on behalf of the participant, will be distributed to the participant at the completion of 20 years of creditable service or attainment of age 60, whichever comes first. There is no requirement for city, town, village, volunteer fire district, fire protection district or other entity to participate nor is there any cost to the state. Vote 15-0.

100-B:9 Defined Contribution Plan.

I. If the service awards program and the related trust fund are not tax qualified within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the trust fund referred to in this paragraph may provide that the assets held under the fund may be subject to the claims of general creditors, if any, of the sponsor or may contain such other terms and provisions as are necessary to insure that the participation by an active member in the service awards program does not result in taxable income to such volunteer firefighter under any provision of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The contribution requirements for a service awards program that is a nonqualified deferred compensation plan shall be the amount actuarially determined. The contributions shall be made by the sponsors and the members on an annual basis. The sponsor shall contribute a minimum of $300 for each member in the plan. III. A member's retirement income plan shall provide that, in the event of the death of an active member who has a right to a nonforfeitable percentage of retirement income, the designated beneficiaries of such active member, or the estate if no beneficiary is so designated, shall be entitled to receive benefits payable under the service award plan. Such benefits shall be equal to the amount of contributions earned by the member under the plan at the date of death.

100-B:10 Administration Reporting and Disclosure.

I.(a) The trustee shall provide each active member who participates in a service awards program maintained under this chapter with a summary of the program's provisions, including the program's provisions relating to the participation requirements and the program's service awards formula for distributing contributions, which shall be as follows:

Retiring After:

5-6 years: The member's contributions plus 20 percent of the sponsor's contributions.
6-7 years: The member's contributions plus 40 percent of the sponsor's contributions.
7-8 years: The member's contributions plus 60 percent of the sponsor's contributions.
8-9 years: The member's contributions plus 80 percent of the sponsor's contributions.

(b) This summary shall be provided to each service awards program participant within 6 months from the date the program participation commences. In addition, any material modification to such program provisions shall be communicated in writing to each participant within 6 months after the later of the date modification is adopted or the date it is effective. A copy of this program, the summary of the program, and documents related to the funding or investment of the assets of the program and of any contracts or agreements with service providers to the program shall be made available for inspection or copying by a program participant or beneficiary at the sponsor's main office.

II.(a) It shall be the responsibility of the governing body of each municipality to maintain all required records on forms prescribed by the committee.

(b) Each fire department shall furnish to the governing body of the municipality a list of all volunteer members, certified under oath, and shall identify those volunteer members who have qualified for credit under the program for the previous year. Such list shall be submitted annually by February 15.

(c) The governing body of each municipality shall review the list of each fire department and approve the final annual certification. The approved list of certified members shall then be returned to the fire department and posted for at least 30 days for review by members.

100-B:11 Amendment and Termination of Plan.

I. The committee shall have the right to amend the plan at any time provided that no amendment shall:

(a) Cause or permit any portion of the fund to become the property of the sponsor until contribution repayments to members and beneficiaries are satisfied; or

(b) Deprive any member or beneficiary retroactively of rights already accrued under the plan.

II. No amendment improving the plan shall be made before January 1, 2001.

III. The local legislative body of the municipality shall have the right by action to terminate the plan at any time, subject to the following:

(a) If the plan is terminated in its entirety, or if the sponsor's contributions are discontinued, and not merely suspended, the fund shall be used subject to the payment of expenses, for the benefit of members and beneficiaries and for no other purpose until all contribution repayments to members and beneficiaries for contributions payable under the plan to the date of termination or discontinuance of contributions have been satisfied.

(b) If the fund is insufficient to satisfy all contribution repayments in full, then the assets of the fund shall be applied in the following order:

(1) To provide to each member an amount equal to the member's contributions, with credited interest thereon, to the earliest of the member's contribution repayment date, or the date of termination, reduced by the amount of any payments made to such member, which amount shall reduce the amounts necessary to provide contribution repayments set forth in subparagraphs (2)-(4).

(2) Class 1: Retired members and other members who have attained their benefit dates.

(3) Class 2: Members who have terminated volunteer service with the sponsor, or could have terminated such service, with a right to termination benefits for themselves or their beneficiaries under RSA 100-B:3.

(4) Class 3: All remaining members.

(c) Each of the foregoing classes, with the exception of Class 1, shall be determined as of the date of termination of the plan.

IV.(a) If upon the application of the assets of the fund in the order of priority to provide payment in part of liabilities to members and beneficiaries in one of the 3 classes, there are assets available for that class but not sufficient to satisfy such liabilities in full, the assets available for that class shall be applied on the basis of the proportions which the available assets bear to the current values of the accrued benefits of all members and beneficiaries in that class.

(b) Upon the termination of the plan, the fund shall continue in existence and the assets shall be applied to the benefit of the several classes, or the fund may be distributed to each member or beneficiary of the current value of what such member or beneficiary is entitled to receive. These payments shall be made in installments over a period of 3 years.

V. After the fulfillment of all obligations to members and their beneficiaries provided for in this section, any portion of the fund remaining shall be returned to the governing body of the municipality.

100-B:12 Miscellaneous.

I. If any person to whom a contribution is repayable from the fund is a minor, or any person to whom such benefit is payable is incompetent by reason of physical or mental disability, any payment due, unless a proper claim shall have been made by a duly appointed guardian, conservator or legal representative, may be made to the member's spouse, child, parent, or brother or sister, or to any person deemed by the committee to have incurred expenses for such person otherwise entitled to payment. Any such payment shall be a complete discharge of any liability for such payment under the plan.

II. Members and beneficiaries shall be entitled to all the contribution repayments specifically set out under the terms of the plan, but to the extent permitted by law, the contribution repayments or any of the property rights in the benefits shall not be assignable or distributable to any creditor or other claimant of such member or beneficiary. No member or beneficiary shall have the right to anticipate, assign, pledge, accelerate, or in any way dispose of any of the moneys or benefits or other property which may be payable to them.

III. All contribution repayments under the plan shall be paid or provided for solely from the fund, and a sponsor assumes no liabilities or responsibilities for benefits.

IV. Neither the action of a sponsor in the establishment of this plan or any action taken by it or by the committee shall be construed as giving any member the right to be retained in such status or any other right whatsoever except to the extent of the contribution repayments provided by the plan to be paid or made available from the fund.

V. If any provisions of this chapter or the application thereof is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

VI. Whenever reasonable efforts fail to locate any member or beneficiary entitled to contribution repayments under the plan within 7 years from the time notice is first received that the member or beneficiary is not to be found at the address in the records of the sponsor, or the trustee, the committee may direct that any contribution repayments to which such person may be entitled shall thereupon be cancelled and no payment shall be made thereafter to anyone with respect to the benefits so cancelled.

VII. Forfeitures arising from death, termination of service, or otherwise under the plan shall not be applied to increase the contribution repayments any member would otherwise receive under the plan prior to the plan's termination but shall be used as soon as possible to enhance the principal assets of the plan.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 1997.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a length of service awards program for volunteer and call firefighters and emergency medical personnel in volunteer municipal groups.

This program shall provide an income after a period of vesting to those that meet the yearly certification criteria and who have made periodic payments into the program's plan. This is a nonqualified deferred compensation plan, and contributions shall be made by the municipality and the individual into the plan. Participation in the plan is voluntary, and must be approved by each local legislative body.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 614-FN-L, to provide an additional service retirement option for group I teacher members of the retirement system. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Myron S. Steere III for Executive Departments and Administration: The bill offers a retirement at full benefits based on a teacher reaching a combination of age and years of service equaling 85. The offering of early retirement options in theory is a worthwhile endeavor, but should not create an additional burden for the retirement system or employers. The committee's research found that the bill would not fully fund the cost of the early retirement option as presented. The result of the inadequate funding could potentially create a prohibitive increase in costs for the retirement system, employers and teachers. Vote 13-1.

Adopted.

SB 157-FN-L, placing probation-parole officers in group II in the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill passed the E.D.& A. Committee, the standing policy committee, with a 15-0 vote. The Finance Committee reported this bill out as Inexpedient To Legislate by a vote of 11-10. The Chairman of House Finance moved re-refer for the bill. This passed the House on a voice vote. The concerns, outlined in the blurb, dealt with possible unquantified cost to the state. The E.D.& A. Committee felt the policy vote was correct and we considered the cost to the state based upon our expertise with the retirement system and the present insurance coverage for state employees and retirees. Our assessment is that with the savings in the fiscal note coupled with the increase in health insurance costs with those retiring early there might be a wash. We need to point out that both Group I and Group II state employees are vested for health insurance at ten years and those presently in Group I that transfer in Group II on the effective date of this bill will receive a split benefit retirement. That is, they will receive benefits based on their length of service as a participant in Group I and as a participant in Group II. Vote 15-0.

HB 306, establishing a children, youth, and families council to address the efficient delivery of services to children and families. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Julie M. Brown for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill establishes a family resource council to address the efficient delivery of services to children and families. This would have support under one umbrella for easy access. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (3959L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

establishing a family resource council to address the efficient delivery of services to children and families, and making an appropriation therefor.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Recognition.

I. The general court recognizes that New Hampshire needs healthy, cohesive and productive families at all income levels.

II. In addition, the general court recognizes that:

(a) In 1990, New Hampshire embarked upon a uniform plan to prevent child abuse and neglect.

(b) Through the efforts of community leaders, state agencies and human service providers, community forums were held in different regions of the state to address the broader issues connected with child abuse and neglect such as: parent education and support, child care, health care, early childhood education and teen pregnancy.

(c) The resulting formation of the state leadership team on child abuse prevention and family support functioned as an advocacy and assistance network in helping communities establish prevention programs.

III. The general court also recognizes that stress loads on families with children have increased dramatically over the past several decades because of:

(a) A changing economy which has produced job insecurity at the same time that basic living costs continue to rise.

(b) Changing family structures with more single parents, blended families, and families whose parents work long hours out of the home.

(c) Loss of traditional community support systems because of moves away from family members, cut-backs in funding for preventive programs, and fewer community residents with time available for volunteer activities.

IV. The general court further recognizes that:

(a) Many local communities are trying to respond to these changes by developing parent education and support programs to strengthen families and promote the health and development of children and youth.

(b) Many of the state agency programs and funding streams that could facilitate these efforts are fragmented and uncoordinated.

(c) The reorganization of the department of health and human services is intended to improve the coordination and delivery of services to families, as reflected in its mission as stated: "To join communities and families in providing opportunities for citizens to achieve health and independence."

2 New Chapter; Family Resource Council Established. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 126-H the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 126-I
FAMILY RESOURCE COUNCIL

126-I:1 Family Resource Council Established; Purpose.

I. In view of the change in the federal structure regulating the delivery of human services by way of "block grants and performance partnerships" allowing for coordination of these services, there is hereby established a family resource council. The purpose of this council shall be to help coordinate all services and to identify funding streams, to facilitate the development of community-based primary prevention approaches that prevent family dysfunction, and strengthen and promote the integrity of the individual family and community such as:

(a) Increasing access to primary health care systems that provide a medical home and emphasize health promotion and disease prevention.

(b) Increasing access to basic parent education and support programs such as:

(1) Home visiting to families having a new baby or a child with a disability.

(2) Developing the concept of community-based family resource centers that provide information and opportunities for support and skill development for families with children and youth.

(c) Increasing access to high quality, affordable child care and early childhood education programs so that all children will enter the school system ready to learn and have a safe and development-promoting place to go after school.

(d) Working toward the establishment of community and regional family resource centers.

(e) Helping family members upgrade job skills and develop small businesses that promote economic independence.

(f) Helping family members resolve conflicts and improve family relationships through mediation and other communications skills.

I feel honored to represent educators in New Hampshire, a state which has much to be proud of. New Hampshire's founding fathers drafted a unique state constitution in 1784 stressing the value of education in a way not even found in our United States Constitution. The document states that "knowledge and learning are essential to the preservation of a free government", outlining the duties of legislators and magistrates in cherishing and encouraging educators in private and public institutions. Your proclamation today shows how faithfully you are echoing those important words of our ancestors. Next to the United States House, the New Hampshire House of Representatives, or the citizens legislature, is the largest legislature in the nation. New Hampshire expects much of its citizens. You will agree, I am sure, with Jules Michelet who said in 1846, "What is the first part of politics? Education. The second? Education. And the third? Education". Thank you for the faith that you put in us educators as we help to shape your future citizens. I know that you rely on well-educated young people to fill these seats in the future and to make sure that good decisions about their lives and the lives of their own children will be made. Thank you very much.

HB 445, authorizing the director of state police to offer an optional photo or imaged handgun license and setting the license fee. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. George R. Rubin for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: HB 445 makes state law consistent with federal law with regard to holders of concealed weapons permits. It also creates an optional photo or imaged concealed weapons permit to be issued by the State Police which shall be issued subject to a review of criminal history and protective order records. The permit shall be valid for a term of four years. The bill does not change the current process for issuing local permits. The new photo/imaged ID holders will be exempt from the provisions of the Brady Bill for purchasing firearms. The instant telephone check of criminal records law, RSA 159-C, has been modified to repeal exemptions for curios and relics as defined by 27 C.F.R. 178.11. Vote 12-1.

Amendment (3775L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

making state law consistent with federal law with regard to holders of concealed weapons licenses.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Intent. The general court recognizes that the so-called "Brady Bill" enacted by Congress calls for a criminal records check and a possible 5-day waiting period on the transfer of handguns by federal firearms licensees. RSA 159-C established an alternative to the 5-day waiting period by providing for an instant telephone check of criminal records. The instant check law, as allowed by the Brady Bill, exempted from the background check requirements certain transactions, including those involving holders of concealed weapons permits. Discrepancies between state and federal law, however, have resulted in some situations where permit holders have not been able to take advantage of the exemption from the instant check process. This legislation is intended to bring the instant check law into complete compliance with the Brady Bill, and to remove impediments to the efficient operation of the instant check system by revising the state concealed weapons permit requirements to be consistent with the respective requirements of federal law. This will enable residents who hold a valid New Hampshire concealed weapons permit to purchase handguns without submitting to the instant record check at the time of purchase.

2 Licensing Procedures; Criminal History Investigations. Amend RSA 159:6 to read as follows:

159:6 License to Carry.

I. The selectmen of a town or the mayor or chief of police of a city or some full-time police officer designated by them respectively, upon application of any resident of such town or city, or the director of state police, or some person designated by such director, upon application of a nonresident, shall issue a license to such applicant authorizing the applicant to carry a loaded pistol or revolver in this state for not more than 4 years from the date of issue, if it appears that the applicant has good reason to fear injury to the applicant's person or property or has any proper purpose, and that the applicant is a suitable person to be licensed. Hunting, target shooting or self defense shall be considered a proper purpose. The license shall be valid for all allowable purposes regardless of the purpose for which it was originally issued. The license shall be in duplicate and shall bear the name, address, description and signature of the licensee. The original shall be delivered to the licensee and the duplicate shall be preserved by the [people issuing the same] licensing entity for 4 years. When required, license renewal shall take place within the month of the fourth anniversary of the license holder's date of birth following the date of issuance. The license shall be issued within 14 days after application, and, if such application is denied, the reason for such denial shall be stated in writing, the original of which such writing shall be delivered to the applicant, and a copy kept in the office of the [person] entity to [whom] which the application was made. The fee for licenses issued to residents of the state shall be $10, which fee shall be for the use of the law enforcement department of the town granting said licenses; the fee for licenses granted to out-of-state residents shall be $20, which fee shall be for the use of the state. The director of state police is hereby authorized and directed to prepare forms for the licenses required under this chapter and forms for the application for such licenses and to supply the same to officials of the cities and towns authorized to issue said licenses. No other forms shall be used by officials of cities and towns. The cost of said forms shall be paid out of the fees received from nonresident licenses.

II. In addition to the form of license described in paragraph I, the director of state police, or designee, is authorized to offer to residents of the state of New Hampshire a form of license which, in addition to the information described in paragraph I, contains a photograph of the applicant or other image of the applicant, as the director may determine. Application for this form of license shall be solely at the discretion of the applicant. The application shall be made to the director of state police or designee, and the fee shall be $10, which fee shall be for the use of the state.

III. Prior to the issuance of a license pursuant to paragraph II, the director of state police or designee shall review criminal history records and protective order records to determine if the applicant is prohibited from receipt or possession of a handgun pursuant to state or federal law. If the person is so prohibited, no license shall be issued.

IV. In consultation with the committee on public protection and veterans affairs of the house of representatives, the commissioner of safety shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to establishing procedures for implementing this section, limited to:

(a) The form of the license.

(b) Making application to obtain the license.

(c) Conducting criminal and protective order background checks in order to determine whether the applicant is prohibited form holding a license.

(d) License renewals.

V. The applicant may appeal a denial of a license under this section to the district court within the jurisdiction of which the applicant resides.

3 Five Business Days; Reference Changes. Amend RSA 159-C:2, II to read as follows:

II. In the event of electronic failure or similar emergency beyond the control of the department, the department shall immediately notify the requesting licensee of the reason for, and estimated length of, such delay. After such notification, the department shall[, and in no event later than the end of the next business day of the licensee,] make all diligent efforts to either inform the licensee that its records demonstrate that the potential buyer or transferee is prohibited from receipt or possession of a handgun pursuant to state or federal law or provide the licensee with a unique approval number by the end of the next business day of the licensee.

III. [Unless] If the licensee is not notified by the end of [said next] 5 business [day] days that the potential buyer or transferee is so prohibited, and without regard to whether he has received a unique approval number, the licensee may complete the sale or delivery and shall not be deemed in violation of this section with respect to such sale or delivery. For the purposes of this paragraph, "business days" means days that state offices are open.

4 Exemptions From Criminal Records Check. RSA 159-C:9, III and IV are repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. Potential buyers or transferees who hold a valid permit to carry a concealed weapon pursuant to RSA 159:6, II, who exhibit such permit to a licensed importer, manufacturer or dealer.

IV. When a holder of a permit to carry a concealed weapon under RSA 159:6, II is convicted of a felony subsequent to the issuance of the permit, such permit is no longer considered valid.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill revises state law to be consistent with federal law with regard to allowing persons who hold a valid photo or imaged New Hampshire concealed weapons license to purchase handguns without submitting to an instant criminal record check at the time of purchase. The bill authorizes the director of state police to offer the optional photo or imaged license to New Hampshire residents, sets a fee for the license, and grants the commissioner of safety rulemaking authority relative to the license.

The bill repeals an exception from the handgun laws for handguns which are relics or curios.

Adopted.

Rep. Welch spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. John Flanders moved that HB 445, making state law consistent with federal law with regard to holders of concealed weapons licenses, be laid on the table.

Adopted.

HB 599-FN, licensing, regulating and taxing video gambling machine use. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Betsy McKinney for the Majority of Regulated Revenues: The majority of the committee felt that the subcommittee had worked hard to reach agreement with all parties concerned and, in this attempt, had completely satisfied none of these parties. The subcommittee amendment called for video machines at the tracks and at four locations to be named by the sweepstakes commission. The general language of the bill was not specific in the major points of controversy brought up in the committee discussion. However, the information brought forth will, and should be used in future presentations that will come as the question of video machines will remain. There are three Senate and two House bills coming in this session on video gambling. Vote 9-6.

Reps. Stephen G. Avery, Francis C. Vincent and Raymond A. Lundborn for the Minority of Regulated Revenues: The minority of the committee feels that this is an important issue that needs to be debated especially with the advent of pending Massachusetts legislation that could effect the viability of New Hampshire trackes in the southern tier of our state. It could cost the state money and loss of jobs and should be addressed.

Adopted.

SB 127-FN, relative to licenses and fees for beverage manufacturers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. M. Virginia Burke for Regulated Revenues: Some members of the committee felt that we should look at this issue again. Since we have two licensing bills coming before the committee in the next session, we hope to address these issues at that time when we have more members of the public available to testify. Vote 9-7.

Adopted.

HB 151-FN, establishing a special license plate program, including related fees. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: In considering HB 151-FN, the committee amended the text of the original bill by (1) increasing the minimum number of applications from an affinity group from one to three hundred, (2) adding language that specifically prohibits any devices that resemble law enforcement badges or emblems and gives the commissioner specific approval authority over those devices submitted, (3) deleting the establishment of an additional special plate fund and instead the monies received will be placed into the existing vanity plate fund (pursuant to RSA 263:52), and (4) specifying a $25 annual renewal fee which is the same as currently charged for renewing vanity plates. The program established by this bill will provide a mechanism by which special license plate requests by various interest groups can be handled within the Department of Safety, thus eliminating the need for special legislation for each separate request. Vote 12-1.

Amend RSA 261-A:3, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. Three hundred or more applications signed by those individuals stating their intent to purchase the special license plate being requested. The applications may be in the form of a signed petition.

Amend RSA 261-A:4, III as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

III. Any graphic device related to the affinity group. Any device submitted shall not resemble in any way the badge or graphic device issued to a peace officer and shall be subject to approval by the commissioner.

Amend RSA 261-A:5, I to read as follows:

261-A:5 Fees.

I. The fee for each special license plate shall be $40 per initial set of plates with a minimum of 300 orders. The annual renewal fee shall be $25 per set, in addition to any graphic device related to an affinity group, a person may elect to obtain vanity number plates at no additional cost.

Amend RSA 261-A as inserted by section 1 of the bill by deleting section 6 and renumbering sections 7 and 8 to read as 6 and 7 respectively.

RSA 261-A:6 as inserted by section 1 of the bill is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

261-A:6 Replacement; Refund.

I. If a special license plate is defaced and the registrant desires a replacement plate, the owner shall file an application for replacement accompanied by a $25 fee. A regular series plate may be issued on a temporary basis until a special license plate replacement has been made.

II. If the registrant ceases to be a member of the affinity group, the registrant shall file an application for replacement of the special plate, along with the appropriate replacement plate fee for a regular registration plate.

III. No refund of the license plate fee shall be given by the department after an application has been processed.

IV. All special license plate fees collected under this section shall be deposited into the vanity plate fund established in RSA 263:52.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Repeal. RSA 261-A, relative to a special license plate program is repealed.

3 Effective Date.

I Section 2 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1999.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

Rep. Mock spoke against and yielded to questions.

The amendment failed.

Reps. John Chandler, Gene Chandler and Schotanus offered a floor amendment.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Repeal. RSA 261-A, relative to a special license plate program is repealed.

Floor amendment adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 524-FN, establishing an environmental trust fund and special motor vehicle license plate, and associated fees, to support New Hampshire's natural and cultural resources. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: In considering HB 524-FN, the committee endorsed the concept of a NH environmental license plate, but were troubled by some of the funding specifics contained in this bill. Apart from the Department of Safety's objection to having their resources used to pay for the programs of other state agencies, the process of transferring the net revenue from such a license plate program from the Department of Safety to other state agencies for use in protecting and promoting the state's "natural, historic and cultural resources" raised the possibility that the bill's funding provisions may be beyond the bounds set by Article 6-a, Part Second of the New Hampshire State Constitution which mandates that net revenue from motor vehicle registration fees, licenses and tolls be restricted only to highway construction and maintenance. Before proceeding further with this bill, the committee suggests that the bill's sponsors seek a House Resolution asking the State Supreme Court for a clarification of 6-a to resolve the constitutional issue, which would eliminate the possibility of any costly future legal challenge as a result of the state's enactment of an unconstitutional law. Vote 12-5.

Rep. Fuller Clark spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Mock spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Searles requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

OADAP has been exempted and is filing its own bill of eligibility and oversight. Vote 16-0.

330-A:32 Applicants From Other States. The licensing boards may license any applicant who is licensed in any other state, provided the other state's licensure requirements are substantially equivalent to or higher than those of this state.

330-A:33 Disciplinary Action.

I. The administrative board may, for just cause, undertake an investigation or disciplinary proceedings:

(a) Upon its own initiative.

(b) Upon referral from any of the licensing boards or the advisory committee.

(c) Upon written complaint of any person which charges that a person licensed or registered under this chapter has committed misconduct under paragraph II and which specifies the grounds for such charges.

II. Misconduct sufficient to support disciplinary proceedings under this section shall include any allegations of:

No civil action for damages shall be maintained against any organization or its members or against any other person for or by reason of any good faith statement, report, communication, or testimony to the administrative or licensing boards, or determination by the administrative board in relation to proceedings under this chapter.

V. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of rehearing appeal under RSA 541.

330-A:34 Investigations and Complaints.

I. The administrative board may investigate possible misconduct by licensees or registrants and other matters within the scope of this chapter. Investigations may be conducted formally, after issuance of a board order setting forth the general scope of the investigation, or informally without such an order. In either case, administrative board investigations and the information gathered in such investigations shall be exempt from the public disclosure provisions of RSA 91-A, except to the extent such information may later become the subject of a public disciplinary hearing. The administrative board may disclose information acquired in an investigation to law enforcement or health licensing agencies in this state or any other jurisdiction, or in response to specific statutory requirements or court orders. A licensee under this chapter shall be promptly informed of the nature and scope of any pending investigation.

II. The administrative board may employ or retain hearing officers, legal counsel, medical advisors, mental health advisors, or investigators to assist with any investigation and with the conduct of hearings. Members of the administrative and licensing boards are not eligible for retention.

III. The form taken by an investigation is a matter reserved to the discretion of the board. The administrative board may, with just cause, conduct investigations on an ex parte basis only if there is an imminent danger of life or health of a client.

IV.(a) The administrative board or its designee may administer oaths or affirmations, preserve testimony, and issue subpoenas for witnesses and for documents and objects only in a formal investigation or an adjudicatory hearing, except that subpoenas for mental health records as provided in paragraph V may be issued at any time.

(b) The board may serve a subpoena on a licensee by certified mail in accordance with the procedures and fee schedules used in superior court.

(c) Any subpoena related to appearance at a hearing or investigatory proceeding issued by the board shall be annotated "Fees Guaranteed by the New Hampshire Administrative Board of Mental Health Practice" in order to be valid.

(d) A minimum of 48 hours' notice shall be given for compliance with a subpoena issued under this chapter.

V. The administrative board may, with just cause, at any time subpoena mental health records from its licensees and from hospitals and other health care providers licensed in this state. Such subpoenas shall be served by certified mail or by personal delivery to the address shown on the respondent's current license. A minimum of 15 days' advance notice shall be allowed for complying with a subpoena duces tecum issued under this paragraph.

VI. All licensees shall have the duty to notify the administrative and licensing boards of their current business and residence addresses.

VII. On its own motion, with just cause, or in response to a complaint received by a licensing board or the advisory committee, the administrative board shall informally mail a copy of a complaint to any licensee or registrant who is the subject of the complaint, and require the licensee or registrant to provide a detailed and good faith written response to the allegations identified by the board. The licensee or registrant shall provide complete copies of the licensee's or registrant's office records concerning any patient identified in the complaint. The licensee or registrant shall respond to such request within a reasonable time period of not less than 15 days, as the administrative board shall specify in its written request.

VIII. Any person may file a written complaint with the administrative board which charges that a person licensed or registered under this chapter has committed misconduct. The administrative board may dismiss complaints when the undisputed allegations do not warrant disciplinary actions and may settle complaints informally with the consent of the licensee or registrant. Some or all of the allegations in a complaint may be consolidated with another complaint or with issues which the administrative board chooses to investigate or hear on its own motion. If an investigation of a complaint results in an offer of settlement by the licensee or registrant, the administrative board may settle the allegations against the licensee or registrant without the consent of a complainant, provided that the complainant is given an opportunity to comment on the terms of the proposed settlement.

IX. The administrative board is authorized to conduct hearings on appeals from licensing board decisions that result in the denial of or failure to timely act upon an application for licensure or licensure renewal.

330-A:35 Hearings.

I. Any complaint not dismissed or settled informally shall be heard by the administrative board or a hearing officer designated by the board. Such hearing shall be an open public hearing. Any member of the administrative board or designated hearing officer shall have the authority to preside at such a hearing and to issue oaths or affirmations to witnesses.

II. The administrative board shall furnish the respondent and the complainant, if any, at least 15 days' written notice of the date, time, and place of a hearing, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Such notice shall include a specification of the issues to be heard and, in the case of a disciplinary hearing, a statement as to whether the action has been initiated by a written complaint or upon the board's own motion, or both. If a written complaint is involved, the notice shall provide the complainant with a reasonable opportunity to intervene as a party.

III. The hearing officer may recommend to the administrative board, before or after the commencement of an adjudicatory hearing, dispose of disciplinary or certification allegations arising under this chapter by order of dismissal, settlement, default, consent order, or summary judgment order. In disciplinary hearings, the designated hearing officer may hold prehearing conferences which shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 91-A, but all final disciplinary actions, including those which occur without holding a public hearing, shall be publicly released at the time they are served on the parties.

IV. As a respondent, one shall be heard in one's defense either in person or by counsel and may produce witnesses and testify in one's behalf. A stenographic record of the hearing shall be taken and preserved. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time.

V. Every final disciplinary action and other adjudicatory decision made final by the administrative board or its designated hearing officer shall be reduced to writing and served upon the parties. Such decisions shall not be made public until they are served upon the parties.

VI. The administrative board shall have no obligation or authority to appoint or provide an attorney to any person appearing at a hearing or investigation.

330-A:36 Temporary Suspension Where Imminent Threat. In cases involving imminent danger to life or health, the administrative board may, after hearing, order suspension of a licensee or registrant pending hearing for a period of not more than 90 days. In such cases, the basis for the board's finding of imminent danger to life or health shall be reduced to writing and combined with a hearing notice which complies with RSA 330-A:35, II. A licensee or registrant may be allowed additional time to prepare for a hearing, but any additional time for preparation shall result in an extension of license or registration suspension commensurate with the additional time extended.

330-A:37 Expirations and Renewals. Licenses and registrations shall be valid for a period of 2 years and shall become invalid on the expiration date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of each licensing board or the advisory committee to notify every person licensed or registered by that board or advisory committee under this chapter of the date of expiration of the license or registration and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for 2 years. Such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of expiration of such license or registration. Renewal may be affected by the payment of the fee as set by the administrative board.

330-A:38 Privileged Communications. The confidential relations and communications between any person licensed or registered under provisions of this chapter and such licensee's or registrant's client are placed on the same basis as those provided by law between attorney and client, and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require any such privileged communications to be disclosed, unless such disclosure is required by a court order. Confidential relations and communications between a client and any person working under the supervision of a person licensed or registered under this chapter which are necessary and customary for diagnosis and treatment are privileged to the same extent as though those relations or communications were with the supervising person licensed or registered under this chapter, unless such disclosure is required by a court order. This section shall not apply to hearings conducted pursuant to RSA 135-C:27-54 or RSA 464-A.

330-A:39 Disposition of Fees, Fines, and Penalties. All fees, fines, penalties, and other moneys derived from the operation of this chapter shall be paid to the administrative board to be used for the payment of expenses involved in carrying out responsibilities under this chapter.

330-A:41 Unauthorized Mental Health Practice Prohibited.

I. Except as provided in RSA 330-A:42, no person shall engage in mental health practice or represent oneself as a psychologist, pastoral counselor, clinical social worker, marriage and family therapist, mental health counselor, or mental health assistant unless licensed or registered by the respective licensing board under this chapter.

II. A person who violates the provisions of paragraph I shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and each violation shall be deemed a separate offense. The administrative board is further authorized to enforce the provisions of paragraph I by seeking injunctive relief from the superior court.

330-A:42 Persons Exempted. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit:

I. The activities, services, and use of official title on the part of a person in the employ of a federal, state, county, or municipal agency, other political subdivision, or duly chartered educational institution, insofar as such activities and services are a part of the duties of such person in that salaried position.

II. The activities and services of a student, intern, or resident in a mental health discipline regulated by the licensing boards, who is pursuing a course of study approved by a regionally accredited degree-granting institution or at another training site approved as providing qualifying training and experience constituting a part of the supervised course of study.

III. The counseling activities of rabbis, priests, ministers, Christian Science practitioners, clergy, or members of religious orders when their counseling activities are within the scope of the performance of their regular or specialized ministerial duties and are performed under the auspices or sponsorship of an established and legally recognized church or denomination.

IV. The activities and services of any other person providing mental health services as an employee of or consultant to an institution, facility, or nonprofit institution or agency which provides clinical mental health experience and individual supervision by a person licensed under this chapter and which assumes professional, ethical, and legal responsibility for such mental health services.

V. The activities and services of certified alcohol and substance abuse counselors certified under RSA 172.

has communicated to such licensee or registrant a serious threat of physical violence against a clearly identified or reasonably identifiable victim or victims, or a serious threat of substantial damage to real property.

II. The duty may be discharged by, and no monetary liability or cause of action shall arise against, any person licensed or registered under this chapter if the licensee or registrant makes reasonable efforts to communicate the threat to the victim or victims, notifies the police department closest to the client's or potential victim's residence, or obtains civil commitment of the client to the state mental health system.

III. No monetary liability and no cause of action may arise concerning client privacy or confidentiality against any person licensed or registered under this chapter for information disclosed to third parties in an effort to discharge a duty under paragraph II.

Sexual Misconduct

330-A:44 Sexual Misconduct Subject to Disciplinary Action. Sexual relations with a client or a former client shall be considered sexual misconduct and shall be subject to disciplinary action under RSA 330-A and the duty to inform established in RSA 330-A:43.

330-A:45 Sexual Misconduct; Duty to Inform.

I. If, during the course of mental health therapy a client alleges that a person licensed or registered under this chapter has engaged with the client in sexual misconduct as defined in RSA 330-A:44, the person licensed or registered under this chapter shall have a duty to inform the client in the manner provided for in paragraph II.

II. The duty may be discharged by, and no monetary liability or cause of action may arise against, any person licensed or registered under this chapter, if the licensee or registrant informs the client of the unethical, unprofessional, and dishonorable conduct of the previous psychotherapist's actions. Any person licensed or registered under this chapter shall also advise the client that such sexual misconduct is cause for disciplinary action by the administrative board.

III. No civil or criminal liability shall arise concerning client privacy or confidentiality against a person licensed or registered under this chapter for information disclosed to the board or any other statutorily created medical occupational licensing board conducting disciplinary proceedings in discharging the responsibilities established under this subdivision, provided that such information is disclosed in good faith.

IV. No civil action shall be maintained against any board member, the board or its agents or employees, or against any organization or its members, including, but not limited to, any member of a professional standards review organization listed in RSA 507:8-c, I, or against any other person for or by reason of any statement, report, communication or testimony to the board, or determination by the board in relation to disciplinary proceedings under this section provided that such statement, report, communication, or determination is made in good faith.

REGULAR CALENDAR PART II

HB 229, relative to ticket scalping. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This legislation grew out of the frustration people have over ticket markup by both Ticket Master and other re-sellers who get their tickets from Ticket Master. If a consumer wants to avoid paying a large markup on a concert ticket that is in high demand, they must stand in line when the tickets go on sale. The committee is not willing to put ticket re-sellers out of business when they are providing a useful service for those who can't find the time to stand in line and are willing to pay for that service. Vote 14-1.

Adopted.

HB 392, requiring a financial institution to allow an applicant for a mortgage loan to select an appraisal firm from a list of firms supplied by the institution. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Eric N. Lindblade for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill was found Inexpedient To Legislate because Federal law prohibits any other than the lending institution to choose the appraiser. It was also pointed out that the lending institution would in any case not be bound to accept the appraisal of an appraiser chosen by the buyer even if on a bank approved list. Vote 11-4.

Adopted.

HB 477-FN, regulating motor vehicle leasing. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. John B. Hunt for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: After three years and hours of subcommittee work, the Commerce Committee finally has a motor vehicle leasing bill to offer to the full House. This is a consumer protection bill badly needed to better inform New Hampshire citizens of their right and responsibilities when leasing a car. This bill is strongly supported by the consumer protection division of the Attorney General's office. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (4034L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Chapter; Motor Vehicle Leasing. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 361-C the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 361-D
MOTOR VEHICLE LEASING

361-D:1 Definitions.

I. "Adjusted capitalized cost" means the amount which serves as the basis for determining the base lease payment, computed by subtracting from the capitalized cost and any capitalized cost reduction.

II. "Capitalized cost" means the total dollar amount of all items included in the value of a lease at the time that it is consummated, including, but not limited to taxes, registration, license acquisition, administration, assignment and other fees, insurance, accessories, installation, and delivery. It also may include, with respect to a vehicle or other property traded in connection with a lease, the unpaid balance of any amount financed under an outstanding vehicle loan agreement or vehicle retail installment contract or the unpaid portion of the early termination obligation under any lease or other obligation of the lessee.

III. "Capitalized cost reduction" means any payments made by cash, check, rebates or similar means that are in the nature of down payments made by the lessee and any net trade-in allowance granted by the lessor at the inception of the lease for the purpose of reducing the capitalized cost. The term capitalized cost reduction does not include any base lease payments due at the inception of the lease.

IV. "Constant yield method" means:

(a) In the case of a periodic payment lease the method of determining the lease charge portion of each base lease payment pursuant to which the lease charge for each computational period is earned in advance by multiplying the constant rate implicit in the lease times the balance subject to lease charge as it declines during the lease term. At any given time during the scheduled term of a periodic payment lease, the balance subject to lease charge shall be the difference between the adjusted capitalized cost and the sum of all depreciation amounts accrued during the preceding computational periods and the first base lease payment.

(b) In the case of a single payment lease, the method of determining the periodic earning of the lease charge portion of the single lease payment pursuant to which the lease charge for each computational period is earned in advance by multiplying the constant rate implicit in the lease times the balance subject to lease charge as it increases during the lease term. At any given time during the term of a single payment lease, the balance subject to lease charge shall be determined by subtracting from the residual value the total lease charge scheduled to be earned over the lease term and adding to the difference all lease charges accrued during the preceding computational periods.

(c) In the case of either a periodic payment lease or a single payment lease, the periodic lease charge calculations shall be based on the assumption that the holder will receive the lease payment or payments on their exact due date or dates and that the lease goes to its full term.

V. "Fair market value" means the value of the motor vehicle if sold in a commercially reasonable manner in the customary market for such motor vehicle.

VI. "Gap amount" means the difference between the amount owed (or which would be owed in the absence of gap protection) by the lessee under the consumer lease in the event of a total loss of the vehicle prior to the end of the lease term occasioned by its theft, physical damage or other occurrence as specified in the consumer lease, and the actual cash value or portion of the actual cash value of the vehicle, actually received by the lessor from the insurance company or from any other person. The gap amount shall not include any deductible amount applicable to any insurance policy maintained by the lessee or any past due payments owed by the lessee as of the time of the receipt by the lessor of the insurance proceeds, or any other amount due because of the lessee's default.

VII. "Lease agreement" or "lease" means any written agreement for or in contemplation of the use of a motor vehicle in this state, and the purchase of goods, services or benefits incidental thereto, by a person for a term exceeding 4 months, whether or not it is agreed that the lessee bear the risk of the motor vehicle's depreciation or have the option to purchase the motor vehicle. This shall not include a lease to a government, governmental agency or instrumentality, or any agreement that requires a person to purchase a motor vehicle at the end of the agreed upon term.

VIII. "Motor vehicle" means any device propelled or drawn by any power other than muscular power, in, upon, or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting heavy trucks as defined in RSA 259:41, road machinery, buses, agricultural machinery, and house and boat trailers.

IX. "Motor vehicle lessor" means a person who holds legal or equitable title to a motor vehicle leased to a lessee under a written lease agreement, or who holds the lessor's rights under such an agreement.

X. "Open end lease" means a lease agreement in which the lessee's liability at the end of the lease term is based on the difference between the residual value of the motor vehicle and its realized value.

XI. "Realized value" means the greater of:

(a) The price received by the lessor for disposition of the vehicle, after subtracting all actual and reasonable expenses of sale.

(b) Insurance proceeds in the event of the total loss or destruction of the vehicle.

(c) The highest bona fide offer received by the holder for disposition of the vehicle.

(d) If the lessee obtains an appraisal, the realized value shall be the vehicle's fair market value, or if the lessor and the lessee agree upon the realized value, such agreed-upon amount shall be the realized value.

(e) The vehicle's realized value and fair market value may be determined in the customary wholesale market at the time of disposition of the vehicle.

XII. "Residual value" means the value of the vehicle at the end of the scheduled lease term, used by the lessor in determining the base lease payment, as established by the lessor at the time the lessor and lessee enter into a lease.

XIII. "Solicitation" means any commercial message in any medium or in any location that directly or indirectly promotes a lease transaction, but shall not include direct negotiations between a lessor and lessee or potential lessee.

361-D:2 Information to Be Included With Solicitation.

I. Any solicitation to enter into a lease agreement which contains references to the amount of any payment, the number of payments, a statement of any required downpayment or that no payment is required, and shall also include a clear and conspicuous statement of all of the following:

(a) A statement that the transaction advertised is a lease.

(b) Whether the lease is an open end lease under which the lessee is to bear the risk of the motor vehicle's depreciation at lease end, and if so the value placed on the motor vehicle at the inception of the lease and the maximum for which the lessee could be held liable at the end of the lease period, or the method for calculating the lessee's liability.

(c) The amount, if any, required by the lessor as a security deposit, advance periodic payment, or other prepayment.

(d) The term of the lease expressed in months, the amounts and due dates or periods of scheduled payments, and the total amount of periodic payments.

(e) A statement of whether or not the lessee has the option to purchase the leased motor vehicle and at what price and time. The method of determining the price may be substituted for disclosure of the price.

II. No solicitation may state that a specific lease of any motor vehicle at specific amounts or terms is available unless the lessor usually and customarily leases or will lease that motor vehicle at those amounts or terms.

III. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity of the leasing agreement. There shall be no liability on the part of any owner or personnel of any advertising medium for any violation of this section.

IV. A lessor shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this section if the solicitation includes a clear and conspicuous disclosure of a toll-free telephone number that consumers may use to obtain a free copy of the information required to be disclosed by this section.

361-D:3 Lease Agreement; Form and Contents.

I. Every lease agreement shall be in writing and, if printed, shall:

(a) Be in type no smaller than 8-point.

(b) Contain in a single document all of the agreements of the lessor and lessee with respect to the obligations of each party.

(c) Be clearly marked, at the top of the lease agreement in at least 10-point, bold capitalized type, the words "Motor Vehicle Lease Agreement".

II.(a) The agreement shall be signed by the lessor or authorized representative and by the lessee or authorized representative.

(b) An exact copy shall be furnished the lessee by the lessor at the time the lessor and the lessee have signed the agreement.

(c) No motor vehicle shall be delivered under this chapter until the lessor delivers to the lessee a fully executed copy of the agreement.

(d) The lessor shall not obtain the signature of the lessee to an agreement when it contains blank spaces to be filled in after it has been signed.

III. Every agreement shall conform to the requirements of 15 U.S.C. section 1604 as amended and 12 C.F.R, part 13 as amended and shall contain, although not necessarily in the sequence or order set forth below, the following separate items:

(a) A brief description of the motor vehicle, including the identification or license number, if known, or both the identification and license number, if both are known.

(b) If the lease is an open end lease, the value placed on the motor vehicle at the inception of the lease.

(c) The amount of any payment made by the lessee at the inception of the lease, other than a security deposit or advance periodic payment, and the monetary value less any existing obligation, and brief description of any property accepted by the lessor in lieu of cash.

(d) The amount of any advance periodic payment or payments required at the inception of the lease.

(e) The number, amount, and the due dates or period of payments under the lease agreement, and the total amount of such periodic payments.

(f) The residual value of the motor vehicle.

(g) The amount or the method of determining the amount of any liability to be imposed on the lessee at the expiration of the lease term.

(h) The amount of any security deposit received by the lessor as security for the performance of the lessee's obligations under the lease agreement.

(i) The amount paid or to be paid for current year vehicle tax or license fees.

(j) A brief description of insurance provided or paid for by the lessor, including the type and amount of coverage and costs, or, if not provided or paid for by the lessor, the type and amount of coverage required of the lessee.

(k) The description of, amount of, or method of determining other charges payable by the lessee not included in the periodic payments.

(l) A statement identifying all express warranties and guarantees made by the manufacturer or lessor with respect to the leased motor vehicle, and identifying the party responsible for maintaining or servicing the leased property together with a description of the responsibility.

(m) Any mileage limitation which will be utilized in determining, a charge for excessive use or the residual value of the motor vehicle, or both.

(n) A statement whether or not the lease agreement contains an express option to purchase the vehicle at the end of or during the lease term and at what price or the method of determining the price.

(o) A statement of the conditions under which the lessee or lessor may terminate the lease prior to the end of the term and the amount or method of determining any penalty or other charge for delinquency, default, or early termination.

(p) If the lease is an open end lease, a statement that the lessee shall be liable for the difference between the estimated residual value of the motor vehicle and its realized value at the end of the term.

(q) The capitalized cost, identified as "capitalized cost", and a descriptive explanation describing the agreed upon amount determined at lease inception for all items and services included in the lease and an itemized list containing each and every amount that has been included in the calculation of the capitalized cost, together with a brief description of the amount.

(r) Any capitalized cost reduction, using the term "capitalized cost reduction".

(s) The adjusted capitalized cost, using the term "adjusted capitalized cost" and a descriptive explanation, as applicable, describing the agreed upon amount which serves as the basis for determining the base lease payment. If you are not in default, this amount plus any applicable early termination charges determines your maximum early termination obligation".

IV. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, any information required to be disclosed in a lease agreement under this chapter may be set forth in the manner required or permitted under federal law or regulation, as in effect at the time such disclosure is made. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to prohibit the disclosure in such agreement of additional information required or permitted under federal law, as in effect at the time such disclosure is made.

V. Any portion of the information required to be disclosed under this section may be given in the form of a reasonable estimate where the lessor is not in a position to know exact information.

361-D:4 Lease Agreement; Warnings. Every lease agreement shall contain, in at least 8-point bold type, above the acknowledgment required under RSA 361-D:7 or if none exists the space provided for the lessee's signature and circumscribed by a line, the following warnings which shall be signed or initialed by the lessee:

I. Notice to the lessee:

(a) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in;

(b) You are entitled to a completely filled in copy of this agreement;

(c) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability by an early termination obligation under this agreement.

s/s_____ lessee

II. Warning—Unless a charge is included in this agreement for public liability or property damage insurance, payment for such coverage is not provided by this agreement.

s/s_____ lessee

III. You have the right to return the vehicle, and receive a refund of any payments made if the credit application is not approved, unless nonapproval results from an incomplete application or from incorrect information provided by you.

s/s_____ lessee

IV. New Hampshire law does not provide for a "cooling-off" or other cancellation period for vehicle leases. Therefore, you cannot later cancel this lease simply because you change your mind, decide the base payment or capitalized costs are too much, or wish you had acquired a different vehicle. You may only cancel this lease with the agreement of the lessor or for legal cause, such as fraud.

s/s_____ lessee

V. Any holder of this lease is subject to all claims and defenses which:

(a) You could assert against the lessor of the vehicle that you have leased and

(b) Are clear on the face of the lease.

361-D:5 Lease Agreement; Prohibited Provisions. No lease agreement shall contain any provision by which:

I. A power of attorney is given to confess judgment in this state, or an assignment of wages is given; provided that nothing contained in this paragraph shall prohibit the giving of an assignment of wages contained in a separate instrument.

II. The lessee waives any right of action against the lessor or holder of the lease agreement or other person acting on lessee's behalf for any illegal act committed in the collection of payments under the agreement or in the repossession of the motor vehicle.

III. The lessee relieves the lessor from liability for any legal remedies which the lessee may have against the lessor under the agreement or any separate instruments executed in connection with the agreement.

IV. The lessor or holder of the agreement is given the right to commence action on an agreement under the provisions of this chapter in a county other than the county in which the agreement was signed by the lessee, the county in which the lessee resides at the commencement of the action, the county in which the lessee resided at the time the agreement was entered into or in the county in which the motor vehicle purchased pursuant to such agreement is permanently garaged.

361-D:6 Sample Lease Form. The lessor shall make a blank sample of its current lease form readily available for examination by prospective lessees by furnishing it upon request before the consummation of a lease and shall provide a copy of a sample lease to every prospective lessee upon the signing by the prospective lessee of any motor vehicle order form or other agreement to lease an identified motor vehicle.

361-D:7 Acknowledgment By Lessee.

I. Any acknowledgment by the lessee of delivery of a copy of a lease agreement or purchase order and any vehicle lease proposal and any credit statement which the lessor has required or requested the lessee to sign, and which the lessee has signed, during the agreement negotiations, shall be printed or written in size equal to at least 10-point bold type and, if contained in the agreement, shall appear directly above the space reserved for the lessee's signature.

II. The lessee's written acknowledgment, conforming to the requirements of this section, of delivery of a completely filled in copy of the agreement, and a copy of such other documents shall be a rebuttable presumption of delivery in any action or proceeding by or against a holder without knowledge to the contrary when the holder acquired interest in the agreement.

III. If such holder furnishes the lessee a copy of such documents, or a notice containing items listed in RSA 361-D:3, III(a)-(l) stating that the lessee shall notify such holder in writing within 30 days if the holder was not furnished a copy of such documents, and no such notification is given, it shall be conclusively presumed in favor of such a holder that copies of such documents were furnished as required by this chapter.

361-D:8 Payment or Trade-in.

I. If a lessee has made a payment to a lessor pending the execution of a lease, has surrendered possession of a trade-in vehicle, or both, the lessee shall have the right, if the lease application is not approved, to have any trade-in vehicle returned and receive a refund of any payments made within 10 days after the lessor receives notice that the application has not been approved. If a lessee leaves a trade-in vehicle with the lessor and the lessor and lessee agree that the parties shall enter into a lease, the lessor shall not sell or transfer the trade-in vehicle until the lessee and the lessor execute a lease.

II. This section shall not apply to the sale of a vehicle by a prospective lessee to a prospective lessor under a separate contract of sale if such contract is executed before the parties have consummated a lease, is dated as of the sale date and is signed by the parties. Such contract shall provide and shall clearly and conspicuously disclose, in at least 8 point bold face type: that the contract price establishes the vehicle's value for purposes of determining the amount the lessor will credit as a "capitalized cost reduction" under any lease subsequently consummated by the parties or as the amount due to the lessee for the vehicle in the event the parties fail to consummate a lease within 30 days; that the prospective lessee agrees to leave the contract price on deposit with the prospective lessor pending the consummation of a lease for a vehicle to be ordered from the manufacturer or for a vehicle not yet in production as of the date of the contract; and that 15 days after the lessor and potential lessee shall agree that no lease will be consummated, and, in any event, no later than 45 days after the sale date, the prospective lessee shall be entitled to payment of the agreed upon price for the vehicle unless within that time the parties have consummated a lease or have agreed to an earlier payment of the price to the prospective lessee.

316-D:9 Total Loss Notice and Waiver of Gap Amount.

I. If the lease provides that the lessee shall be responsible for the gap amount, the lease shall disclose that fact and disclose the obligations for which the lessee would remain liable in the event of a total loss of the vehicle prior to the end of the lease term occasioned by its theft, physical damage or other occurrences as specified in the lease, using the term "gap amount".

II. The lessor may waive its contractual right to hold the lessee liable for some or all of the gap amount. This waiver may be granted either without a separate charge to the lessee, or in exchange for the payment by the lessee of a separate charge. Any separate charge for such waiver must be conspicuously disclosed to the lessee.

III. If the lessor, as provided in paragraph II of this section, offers for a separately stated charge to waive its contractual right to hold the lessee liable for the gap amount, the lease shall also contain a conspicuous notice which shall state in at least 8 point bold face type that:

(a) For a separate charge disclosed in the notice the lessor shall waive its contractual right to hold the lessee liable for the gap amount.

(b) The lessee may as an alternative to purchasing a waiver, be able to purchase protection covering the gap amount from a company which has been authorized to do business in this state.

(c) Failure to provide the notice as required by this section shall invalidate any lease provision which otherwise would obligate a lessee to pay to the holder, after a total loss of the vehicle occasioned by its theft, physical damage or other occurrence as specified in the lease.

(d) No lease shall be conditioned upon the lessee's obtaining of vehicle lessee gap protection.

IV. The lessor's waiver of its contractual right to hold the lessee liable for the gap amount may be conditioned upon the receipt by the lessor of:

(a) All amounts due under the lease as of the date of receipt by the lessor of the insurance proceeds or equivalent amount as specified in the lease, or if no such date is specified, as of the date of total loss of the vehicle.

(b) An amount from the lessee equal to the amount of the lessee's deductible and any other subtractions from the actual cash value under the lessee's insurance policy.

(c) Insurance proceeds from the insurance policy required under the lease, or the equivalent amount of the value of the vehicle.

V. The lessor's waiver of its right to hold the lessee liable for the gap amount shall not be deemed to be insurance under the laws of this state and no license shall be required of lessors who waive or offer to waive such right.

VI. In the event that no amount is received by the lessor from the lessee's insurance company or from any other party in payment of the loss, the realized value of the motor vehicle shall be the actual cash value of the motor vehicle established by reference to an official used car value guide publication as of the date of the loss.

361-D:10 Refund of Excess Fees. If a lessee of a vehicle pays to the lessor an amount for the licensing or transfer of title of the vehicle which amount is in excess of the actual fees due for such licensing or transfer, or which amount is in excess of the amount which has been paid, prior to the sale, by the lessor to the state in order to avoid penalties that would have accrued because of late payment of such fees, the lessor shall return such excess amount to the lessee, whether or not such lessee requests the return of the excess amount.

361-D:11 Lien on Other Property. No agreement in connection with a lease agreement which provides for the inclusion of title to or a lien upon any personal or real property, other than the motor vehicle which is the subject matter of the lease agreement, or accessories for such lease or special and auxiliary equipment used in connection with such lease as security for the payment of the agreement obligations, shall be enforceable. This section shall not apply to a security deposit, advance payment of rent, or other cash prepayment. This section shall not apply to contracts which are ancillary to the lease and directly applicable to the leased vehicle, such as extended warranty or service agreements or contracts of insurance.

361-D:12 Rights of Assignee of Lessor.

I. An assignee of the lessor's rights shall be subject to all equities and defenses of the lessee against the lessor that are clear on the face of the lease, notwithstanding an agreement to the contrary, but the assignee's liability may not exceed the amount of the obligation owing to the assignee at the time of the assignment.

II. The assignee shall have recourse against the lessor to the extent of any liability incurred by the assignee pursuant to this section regardless of whether the assignment was with or without recourse.

361-D:13 Unlawful Rebates, Discounts, and Commissions. It shall be unlawful for any lessor to induce or attempt to induce any person to enter into an agreement subject to this chapter by offering a rebate, discount, commission or other consideration, on the condition that the lessee or prospective lessee gives information or assistance for the purpose of enabling a lessor to either lease or sell a motor vehicle to another.

361-D:14 Refund of Prepayment.

I. Any payment made by a prospective lessee to a lessor pending the execution of a lease agreement shall be refunded to the lessee in the event the lease agreement is not executed.

II. The provisions of this section shall not apply when a lessee leaves such motor vehicle with the lessor in lieu of or in addition to a cash payment, and the lessee and lessor, with knowledge and consent, agree that the parties shall enter into the lease agreement, and that the lessee shall take delivery of the motor vehicle described in the lease agreement from the lessor, at a date more than 5 days after the date the lessee leaves the motor vehicle with the lessor.

361-D:15 Notice of Lessee's Default and Right to Cure.

I. After a lessee has been in default for 10 days solely by reasons of the lessee's failure to make a timely lease payment and any applicable late charges, the holder may declare the lessee to be in default and may send the lessee a notice of default.

II. A lessee who has been in default solely by reason of the lessee's failure to make a timely lease payment and any applicable late charges and who has not previously been afforded the right to cure the default shall be entitled to cure the default.

III. If the lessee is entitled to cure the default the notice shall contain a conspicuous statement that the lessee is entitled to cure the default, setting forth the dollar amount necessary to cure the default, the date by which payment must be made and the name, address and telephone number of the holder from which information may be obtained regarding such cure.

IV. This section shall not apply to any default other than the lessee's failure to make a timely lease payment and any applicable late charges.

361-D:16 Lessee to Bear Risk of Vehicle's Depreciation.

I. For open end leases, in which the lessee's liability on expiration of a lease is based on the residual value of the motor vehicle, such residual value shall be a reasonable approximation of the anticipated fair market value of the motor vehicle on lease expiration.

II. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the estimated residual value is unreasonable to the extent that the estimated residual value exceeds the residual value at lease end by more than 3 times the average payment allocable to a monthly period under the lease. This presumption shall not apply when the excess of estimated over actual residual value is due to physical damage to the motor vehicle beyond reasonable wear and use, or to excessive use, and the lease may set standards for such wear and use if such standards are not unreasonable.

361-D:17 Method for Establishing Realized Value.

I.(a) If a lease is terminated early and the lessee does not exercise any purchase option, or if the lessee's liability at the scheduled end of the lease term is based upon the vehicle's residual value and the lessee does not exercise any purchase option, the holder shall act in a commercially reasonable manner when disposing of the vehicle or obtaining cash bids for the purpose of establishing the realized value of the vehicle.

(b) Within 5 business days of lease termination, a lessee who is not in default and whose lease is terminated early without the exercise of a purchase option or whose liability at the scheduled end of the lease term is based upon the residual value of the vehicle may obtain, at the lessee's expense, a professional appraisal of the wholesale value which could be realized at sale of the vehicle, by an appraiser mutually acceptable to the lessee and the holder, who is not the agent or employee of either the lessor, the dealer or the lessee.

(c) The appraisal shall be final and binding upon the parties and shall be used as the realized value in determining the lessee's liability at early termination or at the scheduled end of the lease term.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the lessee and the lessor from agreeing upon the vehicle's realized value, in which case the value agreed upon shall be final and binding upon the parties and shall be used as the realized value in determining the lessee's liability at early termination or at the scheduled end of the lease term.

II.(a) In the event of a total loss of the vehicle prior to the end of the lease term occasioned by its theft, physical damage or other occurrence as specified in the lease, the realized value shall be deemed to be the sum of the amount received by the holder from the lessee's insurance company or from any other party in payment of the loss, and the amount of the lessee's deductible under the lessee's insurance policy.

(b) In the event that no amount is received by the lessor from the lessee's insurance company or from any other party in payment of the loss, the realized value of the motor vehicle will be the actual cash value of the motor vehicle established by reference to an official used car value guide publication as of the date of the loss.

361-D:18 Restriction on Liability for Early Termination.

I. The lessee shall have the right to terminate the lease at any time after the lessee has made 21 full periodic lease payments for which lease charges have been accrued by the holder, or, in the case of a single payment lease, at the expiration of 12 months from the consummation of the lease. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit the holder from permitting the lessee to terminate the lease before the expiration of 12 months.

II. If a lease is terminated early and there is not a purchase option or the lessee does not exercise any purchase option, the lessee's early termination obligation may not exceed an amount equal to the sum of:

(a) Any unpaid lease payments that accrued through the date of early termination.

(b) Any other unpaid amounts, other than excess mileage charges, arising under the terms of the lease.

(c) Any official fees and taxes imposed in connection with lease termination.

(d) A disposition fee in an amount set forth in the consumer lease.

(e) The reasonable costs of retaking, storing, preparing for sale and selling the vehicle, including reasonable attorneys' fees and collection and court costs incurred by the lessor in recovering or securing possession of the vehicle.

(f) The amount, if any, by which the balance subject to lease charge plus the lease charge earned in advance for the computational period as defined in the lease, in which the early termination occurs, calculated in accordance with the constant yield method or any other generally accepted lease accounting method exceeds the realized value of the vehicle.

(g) Any other early termination charge expressly disclosed in the consumer lease.

III. As an alternative to the constant yield and other generally accepted lease accounting methods of determining the depreciation amounts accrued through the date of early termination of a precomputed lease transaction, those amounts may be determined under paragraph II(f) by using a lease provision under which the lease charge is calculated on the adjusted capitalized cost for the time outstanding according to a generally accepted actuarial method.

IV. This section shall not limit or restrict the manner of calculating the lessee's early termination obligation, whether by way of unamortized capitalized cost, discounted present value of remaining lease payments, multiples of monthly payments or otherwise, provided that the amount and method of calculating the lessee's early termination obligation shall always be clearly disclosed in the lease.

V. Any refundable security deposit or advance lease payment held by the holder may be retained by the holder and shall be credited against the lessee's early termination obligation. The amount of such security deposit or advance lease payment in excess of the amount of the lessee's early termination obligation shall be returned to the lessee. The holder is not obligated to pay interest to the lessee on the security deposit.

316-D:19 Restriction on the Reporting of Early Terminations. The holder of a lease shall not report the voluntary early termination of a lease to a consumer reporting agency as a default unless the lessee fails to satisfy the lessee's early termination obligations within the time periods set forth in the lease.

361-D:20 Assessment of Excess Wear and Damage to the Vehicle.

I. The lease shall contain a clause complying with the Consumer Leasing Act, 15 U.S.C. section 1677 et seq., which describes the standards for determining excess wear and damage to the vehicle for which the lessee will be liable. Upon the lessee's exercise of a purchase option, the holder may not charge, receive or collect a charge for excess wear and damage to the vehicle. The holder may not prohibit the lessee from being present at an inspection for excess wear and damage.

II. No later than 30 days after the return of the vehicle, the holder shall present an itemized bill to the lessee by hand delivery at any location or by first class mail or recognized courier service to the address on the holder's records. The itemized bill shall consist of a listing of the items of excess wear and damage and the amounts to be paid by the lease. An itemized bill may be comprised of separate documents delivered or mailed separately. An itemized bill may also include identified charges for excess mileage and other amounts due under the lease. Mere acknowledgment by the lessee or receipt of an itemized bill shall not operate as an admission of the existence, nature, obligation to pay, or amount of any of the items therein. The holder shall not be required to prepare an itemized bill in response to wear and damage charges identified in lessee's counter inspection report.

III. Except as provided in this chapter, for inspections at or after the return of the vehicle, the holder shall:

(a) Provide to the lessee an itemized bill.

(b) Provide to the lessee the following statement: "You are being asked to pay this amount for excess wear and damage. If you do not agree with this amount and to preserve valuable rights, you must obtain and deliver to us, within 30 days after hand delivery or mailing of this bill, an itemized inspection report and estimate of the cost of repairing such excess wear and damage from an appraiser agreed to by us and, if your lease has ended, payment of any charges due under the inspection you obtained. If you properly obtain and deliver such appraisal and tender any amounts due, such appraisal shall be binding on the holder. If you fail to do so, the holder's inspection shall be conclusive."

(c) In order for the lessee to obtain a counter-inspection, the holder shall allow the lessee access to the vehicle at a reasonable time and place designated by the holder during the 30 day time period as provided in subparagraph (b). The holder shall not be required, however, to deliver the vehicle to, or produce the vehicle at, a destination designated by the lessee for such purpose.

IV. If the lessee is required, or is given the option, to have the vehicle inspected by the holder prior to scheduled termination, the holder shall provide to the lessee notice of such inspection at least 15 days prior to the last date available for such inspection, which shall not be earlier than 15 days prior to scheduled termination, and the notice that the holder's inspection at lease end shall be conclusive. The pre-termination inspection shall be reasonable as to time and place. In addition to the statement required in paragraph III(b), an itemized bill shall include the following statement: "If this inspection report was prepared by the holder prior to the scheduled termination, you may avoid excess wear and damage charges by having such items satisfactorily repaired prior to the return of the vehicle. The holder may inspect the vehicle at or after its return and may seek additional charges only by written notice and only for wear and damage incurred after the date of the holder's vehicle inspection. In addition, any charges for wear and damage under this inspection or your own inspection shall be due when your lease terminates."

V.(a) A lessee counter-inspection as provided in this section or, if no such counter-inspection is obtained, a pre-termination itemized bill prepared by the holder as required by this paragraph shall be conclusive upon the holder and not subject to increase at the termination of the lease, except to the extent that such wear and damage was obscured or concealed or is reasonably believed by the holder to have occurred after the initial pre-termination inspection.

(b) In such case, with respect to such additional wear and damage charges, the holder may give the lessee another itemized bill described in paragraphs II and III.

VI. If the lessee does not present the vehicle for inspection, the holder shall give the lessee the itemized bill.

VII.(a) The lessee may obtain at the lessee's expense within the periods provided, a counter-inspection.

(b) To be considered a "counter-inspection", the inspection shall:

(1) Be conducted by an inspector reasonably agreed to by the holder.

(2) Be in writing in a form provided by or acceptable to the holder listing the items of excess wear and damage, if any, and the associated estimated cost of repairs according to standards set forth in the lease.

(3) Be delivered to the holder within the applicable time frame.

(4) If conducted after the vehicle is returned to the lessor, be accompanied by payment of the amount of such excess wear and damage listed on the counter-inspection.

VIII. Absent mathematical or other manifest error, the holder shall accept such counter-inspection as determinative of the lessee's excess wear and damage obligations under the lease with respect to the itemized bill for which the counter-inspection is presented and payment is made.

IX. If the lessee does not obtain a counter-inspection or a pre-termination inspection, then with respect to such inspection the lessee shall not be in default, notwithstanding any provision in the lessee's lease agreement to the contrary. If the lessee does not obtain a counter-inspection or, if offered, a pre-termination inspection, the itemized bill shall be conclusive.

X. The holder shall substantially comply with the provisions of this section. If the holder wishes to charge, receive or collect a charge for excess wear and damage, the exclusive penalty for failure to do so shall be a waiver of the right to collect all contested excess wear and damage charges from the lessee. The holder shall not be required to send any notice if the holder does not wish to collect an excess wear and damage charge. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the lessee's obligation for any charge for excess mileage or prohibit any agreement between the lessee and the holder relating to wear and damage if such agreement is consistent with the rights given to the lessee. Nothing shall limit the lessee's liability to holder for odometer rollbacks or obscured or concealed structural or safety related damage discovered by the holder after the return of the vehicle or after the lessee receives an itemized bill.

361-D:21 Satisfaction of Lease. After the payment of all sums for which the lessee is obligated under a lease, and upon the lessee's written request, the holder shall mail to the lessee at the lessee's last known address a document stating that the lessee has made payment in full. This document shall not operate to release the lessee from liability for events discovered by the holder subsequent to the mailing of such document.

316-D:22 Renegotiations and Extensions.

I. All disclosure requirements set forth in this chapter shall apply to the renegotiation of a lease. A renegotiation does not constitute a transaction subject to warranty or other provisions that apply to the sale of used vehicles under the laws of this state.

II. The disclosure requirements shall not apply to any extension of a lease 6 months or less.

361-D:23 Liability of Lessor.

I. Except as otherwise provided by this section, any lessor who fails to comply with any requirement imposed under the provisions of this chapter or for which no specific relief is provided with respect to any person shall be liable to such person in an amount equal to the sum of:

(a) Any actual damages sustained by such person as a result of the failure.

(b) In the case of an individual action, 25 percent of the total amount of monthly payments under the lease except that liability under this subparagraph shall not be less than $100 or greater than $1,000; or in the case of a class action, such amount as the court may allow, except that as to each member of the class no minimum recovery shall be applicable, and the total recovery in such action shall not be more than the lesser of $500,000 or one percent of the net worth of the lessor.

(c) The costs of the action, together with reasonable attorney fees as determined by the court.

II. In determining the amount of award in any class action, the court shall consider, among other relevant factors:

(a) The amount of any actual damages sustained.

(b) The frequency and persistence of failure of compliance by the lessor.

(c) The resources of the lessor.

(d) The number of persons adversely affected.

(e) The extent to which the lessor's failure of compliance was intentional.

III. A lessor shall not be liable under this section if within 30 days after discovery of an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this section or the receipt of written notice of the error, the lessor notifies the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to insure that the person will not be required to pay any amount in excess of the amount that should correctly have been disclosed.

IV. A lessor shall not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this chapter if the lessor shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance or procedures reasonably adopted to avoid any such error.

V. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any civil action for a violation of this chapter which may be brought against the original lessor in any lease transaction may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original lessor where the violation from which the alleged liability arose is apparent on the face of the instrument assigned unless the assignment is involuntary.

VI. A person shall not take any action to offset any amount for which a lessor is potentially liable to such person under subparagraph I(b) against any amount owing to such lessor by such person, unless the amount of the lessor's liability to such person has been determined by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action to which such person was a party.

VII. No provision of this section imposing any liability shall apply to any act done or omitted in good faith conformity with any rule, regulation or interpretation of federal law, notwithstanding that after such act or omission has occurred, such rule, regulation or interpretation is amended, rescinded or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

VIII. The multiple failure to disclose any information required under this chapter to be disclosed in connection with a single lease transaction shall entitle the person to a single recovery under this section, but continued failure to disclose after a recovery has been granted shall give rise to rights to additional recoveries.

IX. Actions alleging a failure to disclose or otherwise comply with the requirements of this chapter shall be brought within one year of the termination of the lease agreement.

361-D:24 Rescission of Agreement. If the lessor fails to comply with RSA 361-D:3, as an alternative to an action under RSA 361-D:23, the lessee may rescind the agreement if the failure to comply was willful, or if correction will increase the amount of the agreement balance, unless the lessor waives the collection of the increased amount.

361-D:25 Costs and Attorney's Fees. In any action by a consumer against the lessor of a motor vehicle based upon the alleged breach of a written agreement made in connection with lease of such motor vehicle, the court, in its discretion, may award to the plaintiff costs and reasonable attorney's fees. If the court determines that the action was brought with no substantial justification, it may award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the defendant.

361-D:26 Sale of Leased Vehicle.

I. At the termination or expiration of an open end lease, when disposing of a vehicle or obtaining cash bids for the purpose of setting the fair market value of a vehicle, the lessor shall act in a commercially reasonable manner in the customary market for such vehicle.

II. Notwithstanding any provision in a lease agreement to the contrary at least 10 days' written notice of intent to sell such motor vehicle shall be given by the lessor to the lessee, unless the lessor and lessee have agreed in writing to the amount of the lessee's liability under the lease agreement after the lessee returns the motor vehicle to the lessor, or the lessee has satisfied the lease agreement obligations by payment to the lessor. The notice shall be personally served or shall be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, directed to the address of the lessee shown on the agreement, unless the lessee has notified the holder in writing of a different address. The notice shall set forth separately any charges or sums due and state that the lessee will be liable for the difference between the amount of liability imposed on the lessee at the expiration of the lease term and the actual cash value of the motor vehicle when it is sold. The notice shall also state that the lessee has the right to submit a cash bid for the purchase of the vehicle.

361-D:27 Duties of Lessor. A lessor shall not:

I. Fail to register the leased vehicle pursuant to the lease agreement or to provide the lessee with all documentation necessary to secure registration.

II. Advertise any specific vehicle in the inventory of the lessor for lease without identifying such vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

III. Refuse to lease a vehicle to any creditworthy person at the advertised total lease amount.

IV. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 361-D:23, a lessor shall be held civilly liable for a violation of this section.

361-D:28 Administrative Enforcement. In addition to the private rights created by this chapter, compliance with the requirements imposed under this chapter shall be enforced by the department of justice.

361-D:29 Rulemaking. The attorney general shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to:

I. The information required to be included with the solicitation under RSA 361-D:2.

II. The forms necessary to comply with the provision of RSA 361-D:3.

III. Any other matter necessary for the administration of this chapter.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a procedure to be used to regulate motor vehicle leases.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

CACR 5, relating to the role of the governor and repealing articles relative to the judiciary. Providing that the governor shall be the supreme executive magistrate, and that articles relative to the judicial powers of the courts and the supreme court and its administration shall be repealed. MAJORITY: REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Randall F. Shaw for the Majority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The majority of this committee does not agree with the subcommittee's recommendation of Inexpedient To Legislate. The majority believes that there are still some accountability problems with the Judiciary Branch. The majority believes that further study and public input is necessary to determine if a CACR on other legislation should be recommended to this body. Vote 12-7.

Rep. Charles W. Chandler for the Minority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The minority feels that to re-refer to interim study is unnecessary. The resolution has been fully and fairly studied and analyzed. As worded, the resolution creates havoc with the separation of powers principles and in fact would create a void in the New Hampshire legal system. Sponsors of the resolution should find other less destructive methods to address their problems, real or perceived.

Adopted.

CACR 16, relating to municipalities' home rule. Providing that municipalities shall have home rule authority to exercise any powers not specifically prohibited by the state or federal constitutions or any statute adopted by the legislature. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Janet S. Arndt for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The committee voted to send CACR 16 to interim study. The testimony was overwhelmingly in favor of home rule, however, when the study began it became immediately obvious that the issue was too enormous to decide in a short amount of time and is beyond the scope of a small subcommittee. Vote 17-1.

Adopted.

HB 279, relative to the jurisdiction of the ballot law commission. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Carol H. Holden for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The subcommittee reported HB 279 as inexpedient to legislate by a vote of 4-0. If the bill passed, the power that now resides in the Supreme Court would be given to the Ballot Law Commission. The committee felt that current law that provides that elections should not be overturned unless sufficient proof can be offered to prove that the outcome would be different need not be changed. Vote 12-5.

Adopted.

HB 638-FN-A, relative to creating a centralized computerized checklist and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. George F. Brown for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: Due to financial restraints, i.e., budget shortfalls and federal court cases which might affect the outcome, the committee therefore believes this bill should be inexpedient to legislate. Vote 17-0.

Rep. George Brown yielded to questions.

Adopted.

HB 175-FN, limiting apportionment for capital and operating expenses to average daily membership, equalized valuation, or a combination of the 2, unless determined otherwise by majority vote. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. William S. Belvin for Education: This bill, as proposed, dealt with amending cooperative school district articles of agreement and revising existing apportionments for capital and operating expenses. There is ambiguous language in the law around the issue of the date of co-op formation, and the role of the State Board of Education in the approval of articles of agreement. Prior to July 1, 1963, each of the ten such co-ops made their own arrangements. Revisions only require state board approval of cost apportionment if the revision is other than 100 percent equalized valuation or 50/50 average daily memberships and 100 percent equalized valuation. The 23 co-ops found after July 1, 1963 have articles of agreement which require state board approval for any changes. This bill corrects the confusing references to pre- and post-1963 co-ops. Obsolete and contradictory law is repealed and unambiguous language has been incorporated. The basic intent of co-op law has been retained. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4036L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to cooperative school districts.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Option for Board to Adopt Additional Standards Deleted; Safeguards Against Isolating School Districts Provision Deleted. Amend RSA 195:2, I to read as follows:

195:2 Standards.

I.(a) It is the purpose of this chapter to increase educational opportunities within the state by encouraging the formation of cooperative school districts which will each:

(1) Be a natural social and economic region.

(2) [With] Have an adequate minimum taxable valuation [and].

(3) Have a number of pupils sufficient to permit the efficient use of school facilities within the district and to provide improved instruction. [The board may formulate and adopt additional standards consistent with this purpose and with these standards; and]

(b) The state board of education shall approve articles of agreement for a proposed cooperative school district, or agreements for the enlargement of a cooperative school district, only after determining that the formation or enlargement of the district will be in accord with such standards and the purposes set forth herein. [Safeguards shall be adopted against the isolation of school districts which it might become impractical to annex to any cooperative school district at a later time.]

2 "Annexation" Changed to "Existing Arrangements." Amend RSA 195:2, III to read as follows:

III. ADVISORY POWERS OF BOARD. The board may prepare recommended forms of articles of agreement and [agreements for annexation] existing arrangements for cooperative school districts and may furnish its advisory services to cooperative school district planning boards or school boards who have such matters under consideration.

3 Election of Officers; Dates and Cross References Deleted. Amend RSA 195:4, II and III to read as follows:

II. ELECTION OF OFFICERS. [Every cooperative school district organized prior to July 1, 1963, may continue to elect the members of its cooperative school board in the same manner and for the same terms as were provided by law immediately prior to August 22, 1971.] Every such school district may, as provided in RSA 195:19 [and RSA 671:8 and 9], adopt a bylaw to specify the number, composition, method of selection, and terms of office of its cooperative school board; provided that its cooperative school board shall consist of an odd number of members, not more than 15 for terms not exceeding 3 years.

III. CHECKLISTS. At the meetings held in the pre-existing districts for the purpose of accepting the articles of agreement, or any [agreement of annexation] existing arrangements, and at the organization meeting of the cooperative school district the checklists for each pre-existing district shall be used. The school board of any pre-existing district which does not have a checklist shall make, post and correct a list of the legal voters in the district for use at such meetings as supervisors are required to do in regard to the list of voters in their towns. Thereafter the cooperative school board shall make, post and correct a list of the legal voters of the cooperative school district acting as supervisors are required to do, except that such list shall indicate with respect to each voter the pre-existing district in which he resides. Any 2 members of the cooperative school board shall constitute a quorum at sessions for the correction of the checklist. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions whenever each of the pre-existing school districts is coextensive with the town in which it is located the cooperative school district may, at an annual cooperative school district meeting, under an article in the warrant for such meeting, vote that the supervisors of each town, acting as the supervisors of the cooperative school district, shall make, post and correct in each pre-existing district a checklist of the voters in each pre-existing district and shall certify to the same acting as supervisors of the cooperative school district. At each annual meeting for the election of officers of the cooperative district the checklists prepared by the supervisors in each pre-existing district in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall be used and the town supervisors from each preexisting district shall attend said annual meeting. The voters of the cooperative district shall be those whose names appear on the checklists as provided by this paragraph. The supervisors shall be paid such compensation as the district may provide.

4 "Annexation" Changed to "Existing Arrangements." Amend RSA 195:6, I to read as follows:

I. Each cooperative school district shall be a body corporate and politic with power to sue and be sued, to acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property for the use of schools therein, and to make necessary contracts in relation thereto, and have and possess all the powers and be subject to all the liabilities conferred and imposed upon school districts under the provisions of RSA 194. Whenever a cooperative school district assumes all the functions of a pre-existing district, it shall also assume the outstanding indebtedness and obligations thereof as of the date of operating responsibility; and on such date of operating responsibility the pre-existing districts shall be deemed dissolved, and any and all assets, property and records thereof not previously disposed of shall vest in the cooperative school district, unless otherwise provided in the articles of agreement or [agreement of annexation] existing arrangements.

5 Apportionment of Costs; Districts Organized Prior to July 1, 1963. Amend RSA 195:7 and 8 to read as follows:

195:7 Costs of Capital Outlay and Operation. If a cooperative school district was organized prior to July 1, 1963, during the first 5 years after the formation of a cooperative school district each pre-existing district shall pay its share of all capital outlay costs and operational costs in accordance with either one of the following formulas as determined by a majority vote of the cooperative district meeting:

I. All such costs shall be apportioned on the basis of the ratio that the equalized valuation of each pre-existing district bears to that of the cooperative district; or

II. One-half of all such costs shall be apportioned on the basis of the ratio that the equalized valuation of each pre-existing district bears to that of the cooperative district and 1/2 shall be apportioned on the average daily membership for the preceding year.

III. Some other formula offered by the cooperative school board with the board's recommendation, adopted by the cooperative school district and approved by the state board of education.

195:8 Five-Year Period Reconsideration. If a cooperative school district was organized prior to July 1, 1963, after the expiration of the first 5-year period measured from the date of the first annual meeting and after the expiration of each subsequent 5-year period measured from the date of the last change thereto, the basis for the apportionment of all such costs may be subject to review, pursuant to an article for that purpose duly inserted in the warrant for a district meeting and the cooperative school district may then by majority vote elect to apportion all such costs by the adoption of either formula I, II or III, as defined in RSA 195:7. Such apportionment may be reviewed in the same manner at any time in order to permit [annexation] the membership of a school district or [a] an increase in the number of grades for which the district shall be responsible.

6 Municipal Budget Law Applies to Cooperative School Districts; Procedure for Establishing a Budget Committee. Amend RSA 195:12 and 12-a, I to read as follows:

195:12 Budget. At least 30 days prior to the annual meeting, the cooperative school board shall prepare a budget for the ensuing year, after holding at least one public hearing upon a preliminary budget at some convenient place in the district, of which at least 7 days' notice shall have been given, and said budget, subsequent to its final approval by such board, shall be posted in a public place in each pre-existing district and given such other publication as the cooperative school board may determine. The provisions of RSA 32 shall [not] apply to a cooperative school district[, except in a case where said district is composed of pre-existing districts wholly within one town, which town has adopted said budget law, or except as provided in RSA 195:12-a, II, but in such excepted cases, this section shall not apply].

I. A cooperative school district at an annual meeting, under a proper article in the warrant, may vote to establish a budget committee pursuant to RSA 32:14 and may rescind such action in a like manner. The budget committee shall have the same number of members as the cooperative district school board plus one additional member from the school board as hereinafter provided in this paragraph. The terms of office and manner of election of members shall be determined in the same manner as for the cooperative school board. Whenever it is voted to establish a budget committee, the moderator in the first instance shall appoint the members thereof except for the additional member appointed from the school board within 15 days of the vote establishing the committee. The members appointed by the moderator shall serve until the next annual meeting when the meeting shall elect their successors. No member of the cooperative school board shall be appointed or elected to the budget committee except that the chairman of the cooperative school board shall appoint a member of the board to serve on the budget committee with all the powers and duties of any other member of the committee. After appointment or election the budget committee shall promptly organize and choose a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary. The secretary shall keep records of the proceedings of the budget committee, which shall be public records open to public inspection.

7 "Annexation" Changed to "Existing Arrangements." Amend RSA 195:14, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) The commissioner of revenue administration shall then add the amount determined under subparagraph (a) to the other sums to be raised by said preexisting districts and include the same in computing the rate percent of taxation for each preexisting district, unless the articles of agreement or [agreement of annexation] existing arrangements provides otherwise.

8 References to Specific State Aid Deleted. Amend RSA 195:15 to read as follows:

195:15 State Aid. The state aid[, provided by RSA 198:8, 9 and 10,] to which a cooperative elementary and/or secondary district shall be entitled shall be the total of those shares of the aid to which the pupils attending the cooperative district would have entitled the pre-existing districts, had they remained in the pre-existing districts.

9 "Annexation" Changed to "Enlargement"; Organization Prior to July 1, 1963 Added; "Decrease" in Grades Added. Amend RSA 195:16 and RSA 195:16-a to read as follows:

195:16 [Annexation] Enlargement of Territory. [One or more school districts may be annexed to] A cooperative school district[, whether heretofore or hereafter organized,] organized prior to July 1, 1963 may be enlarged in the following manner:

I. The school board of any school district situated in proximity to an existing cooperative school district may petition the cooperative school board to meet with it to study jointly the advisability and the terms of [annexing such school district to] enlarging the cooperative school district to include such district. It shall thereupon be the duty of the cooperative school board to meet with the other school board as requested and engage in such joint study. After such joint study the 2 school boards may recommend that [such school district be annexed to] the cooperative school district be so enlarged, and if they so recommend, they shall submit [a] proposed articles of agreement [of annexation] in writing signed by a majority of each board setting forth in detail:

(a) the date of operating responsibility, when the cooperative district shall assume control of operation of schools within the [annexed] joining school district, upon which date the [annexed] joining school district shall cease to exist;

(b) the number, composition, method of selection and terms of office of its cooperative school board, all in accordance with the provisions of RSA 195:19 through 23 inclusive, provided that its cooperative school board shall consist of an odd number of members not more than 15 for terms not exceeding 3 years;

(c) the specific school properties and other assets in the [annexed] district to be acquired by the cooperative school district and the disposition of those not acquired including the records;

(d) the initial location of the school or schools which will serve the [annexed] joining school district;

(e) the indebtedness of the [annexed] joining school district which the cooperative school district is to assume;

(f) the method of apportioning the capital outlay costs and operational costs under RSA 195:7 or under the articles of agreement of the cooperative school district, which method may be different from the formula previously adopted by the cooperative school district notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 195:8 or its articles of agreement;

(g) the manner in which state aid referred to in RSA 195:15 or any other available state aid shall be allocated, unless otherwise expressly provided by law;

(h) provisions similar to those outlined in RSA 195:18, IV, if desirable; and

(i) any other matters, not incompatible with law, which the 2 school boards may consider appropriate to include in the agreement.

II. An executed copy of such proposed articles of agreement [of annexation] shall be submitted to the board; and if it finds that the proposed [annexation] enlargement would be in accord with the standards set forth in RSA 195:2 and approves the agreement, it shall cause the agreement to be submitted to the cooperative school district and to the joining school district [to be annexed] for acceptance by each.

III. The cooperative school board and the school board of the joining school district [to be annexed], upon receipt of written notice of such approval by the board, shall cause the agreement to be filed with their respective district clerks and submitted to the voters of their respective districts as soon as may reasonably be possible at duly called meetings, the voting to be by ballot with the use of the checklist, after reasonable opportunity for debate in open meeting. The article in the warrant and the question on the ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall the proposed articles of agreement [of annexation] on file with the district clerk, joining _____ school district to _____ cooperative school district be approved?"

Yes _____ No _____

If a majority of the voters present and voting at such meetings in each district shall vote in the affirmative, the clerk of each district shall forthwith send to the board a certified copy of the warrant, certificate of posting, evidence of publication, if required, and minutes of meeting. If the board finds that a majority of the voters present and voting in each district meeting have voted in favor of the [annexation] enlargement, it shall issue its certificate to that effect, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the lawful [annexation of such pre-existing school district to] enlargement of the cooperative school district. [An] Articles of agreement [of annexation] so adopted shall be deemed to amend the inconsistent provisions in any pre-existing articles of agreement of the cooperative school district.

III-a. Within 60 days after the board has issued its certificate of the lawful [annexation of such pre-existing school district to] enlargement of the cooperative school district, the board shall fix a time and place for a special meeting of the qualified voters within the districts, and shall prepare the warrant for the meeting after consultation with school boards of the pre-existing school district and cooperative school district. The warrant shall include articles for the selection of such school board members as may be necessary as a result of the [annexation] enlargement and other items of business that require action under the terms of the articles of [annexation] agreement. The warrant shall be under the hand of the commissioner, in the name of the board, and the commissioner shall cause attested copies of same to be posted at least 14 days before the meeting in 3 public places in each district and a copy of the same to be published at least one week before the date of the meeting in some newspaper generally circulated within the cooperative school district. The expense of posting and publishing the warrant shall be paid by the state. The agent or agents of the commissioner who post and cause publication of the warrant shall make a return thereof, which, with the warrant, shall be made a part of the district records. The meeting shall be called to order by the moderator of the cooperative school district. This meeting shall have the same power and authority as an annual meeting with reference to the raising or appropriating of money. At this meeting and at all future special and annual meetings, qualified voters of the [annexed] joining district are eligible for participation in all matters of the cooperative school district.

IV. Except for operating responsibility with respect to the schools in the [annexed] joining district, which authority shall commence on the date specified in the articles of agreement [of annexation], the cooperative school district and its school board shall have full powers and duties in the enlarged district from the date of the certificate of [annexation] enlargement.

V. The failure of the voters to approve the [annexation] acquisition of a school district shall not prevent the commencement of [annexation] enlargement proceedings under this section with respect to such district thereafter.

195:16-a Increase or Decrease in Grades. Any cooperative school district whether organized heretofore or hereafter, which provides only elementary schools or only secondary schools may amend its existing arrangement or articles of agreement, or otherwise enlarge its powers, to provide [both] kindergarten, elementary, and secondary school education. [If the cooperative school district was organized prior to July 1, 1963, it shall proceed by agreement of annexation with the school districts concerned as provided in RSA 195:16.] If the cooperative district was organized pursuant to RSA 195:18, it shall proceed by amendment of its articles of agreement. The proposed [agreement of annexation or the proposed amended] articles of agreement or amendment to existing arrangement shall be submitted to the state board for its approval. If the board finds that the same are in accord with the standards set forth in RSA 195:2, it shall approve the same and notify the cooperative school board of its approval. The proposed [agreement of annexation] amendment to its existing arrangement or amended articles of agreement shall thereafter be filed with the district clerk and submitted to the voters of the cooperative school district at an annual or special district meeting. The question shall be considered at such meeting by the voters of each pre-existing district voting separately by ballot with the use of the checklist after reasonable opportunity for debate in open meeting and the question on the ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall _____ cooperative school district [adopt the agreement of annexation (or] (amend its articles of agreement) or (amend its existing arrangement) to provide both elementary and secondary schools within the district, in accordance with the written instrument on file with the district clerk?"

Yes _____ No _____

If a majority of the voters of each pre-existing district present and voting shall vote in the affirmative, the clerk of the cooperative school district shall forthwith send to the board a certified copy of the warrant, certificate of posting, evidence of publication, if necessary, and minutes of the meeting. If the state board finds that a majority of the voters voting as aforesaid have voted in favor of increasing the grades for which the cooperative school district is to be responsible, it shall issue its certificate to that effect; and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the lawful amendment of the district's articles of agreement [or enlargement of its power by agreement of annexation,] notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained in such articles or otherwise. The cooperative school board shall assume operating responsibility for the newly included school grades as of the date specified in the amended articles [or] of agreement [of annexation] or the existing arrangement.

10 Section Title Clarified; Date Deleted. Amend the section title and introductory paragraph of RSA 195:18 and 195:18, I to read as follows:

195:18 Procedure for Formation of Cooperative School District. [After June 30, 1963,] Cooperative school districts shall be organized solely in accordance with the following procedure:

I.(a) Any school district pursuant to an article in the warrant for any annual or special meeting may vote to create a cooperative school district planning committee consisting of 3 qualified voters of whom at least one shall be a member of the school board. The members of the committee shall be elected at the meeting at which the committee is created, unless the district determines that they shall be appointed by the moderator. The members of the committee shall serve without pay for a term ending (1) at the third annual meeting of the district following the creation of the committee, if the committee is created at an annual meeting, or (2) at the first annual meeting of the district next following the expiration of 3 years from the date of the creation of the committee, if the committee is created at a special meeting, or (3) upon the final adjournment of the organization meeting of any cooperative school district of which the district becomes a part. If the term of the committee ends at an annual meeting of the district, the district may create a successor cooperative school district planning committee pursuant to the foregoing provisions. Vacancies on the committee shall be filled by the moderator for the balance of the unexpired term. The district may appropriate money to meet the expenses of the committee at the meeting at which it is created or at any subsequent district meeting notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 32 or RSA 197:3, and such expenses may include the cost of publication and distribution of reports. Cooperative school district planning committees from any 2 or more school districts may join together to form a cooperative school district planning board which shall organize by the election of a chairman and a clerk-treasurer. The planning board may thereafter admit to membership planning committees from other school districts, but the members of a planning committee shall not be members of more than one planning board at any one time. A cooperative school district planning board shall act by a majority vote of its total membership.

(b) Any school district which votes at any annual or special district meeting to create a cooperative school district planning committee under RSA 195:18 shall elect the members of such committee as provided in RSA 195:18.

11 "Annexation" Changed to "Enlargement." Amend RSA 195:18, III(i) to read as follows:

(i) The method by which the articles of agreement may be amended with the approval of the board; except that no amendment may permit secession of territory and the provisions adopted under either subparagraph (e) or (g) above may not be amended prior to the expiration of 5 years from the date of the first annual meeting of the cooperative school district, or thereafter, within 5 years following the adoption of any amendment to such provisions respectively; but such provisions may be amended at any time in order to permit the [annexation] enlargement of a cooperative school district or an increase in the number of grades for which the cooperative school district shall be responsible.

12 Provisions Relative to Certain Powers of Cooperative School Districts and Acceptance of New Cooperative District Deleted. Amend RSA 195:18, X to read as follows:

X. The provisions of RSA 195:[4, I, II, and 195:4-a,] 7 and 8[,] shall not apply to cooperative school districts organized under this section, but all other sections of this chapter shall apply to such districts, except as otherwise expressly provided in this section or in any articles of agreement adopted pursuant hereto.

13 New Sections; Cooperative School Board Composition; Reapportionment; Special Provisions. Amend RSA 195 by inserting after section 19 the following new sections:

195:19-a Composition of Cooperative School Boards. The number, composition, method of selection, and terms of members of cooperative school boards shall be as provided in the bylaws or articles of agreement of the cooperative school district, as the case may be; provided, however, that such bylaws and articles of agreement shall be limited to the alternatives contained herein where applicable; and provided further that no cooperative school district in existence on August 22, 1971 shall be required to conform hereto unless it is so voted pursuant to RSA 671:9.

I. All members of the cooperative school board shall be elected "at large"; or

II. The cooperative school district shall be divided into single board member districts according to population with as nearly equal population in each district as possible; or

III. The cooperative school district shall be divided into multiboard member districts or a combination of single member or multimember districts so that proportional representation will be most nearly achieved; or

IV. The members of the cooperative school board shall each be domiciled in and represent a preexisting district with each preexisting district having at least one such resident representative but all members of the cooperative school board shall be elected "at large"; or

V. Such other method of selection of cooperative school board members compatible with proportional representation, one-man one-vote principle as may be approved by the state board of education.

VI. The terms of the members of the cooperative school board shall be as provided in the bylaws or articles of agreement provided that in no case shall such terms exceed 3 years.

VII. Whenever the bylaws or articles of agreement provide for the election of cooperative school board members pursuant to this chapter, said election shall be with the use of the nonpartisan ballot system under RSA 669.

195:19-b Reapportionment. Any cooperative school district organized under any of the provisions of RSA 195 or pursuant to any special act may at any regular or special meeting vote to change the number, composition, method of selection, and terms of office of members on the board of the district, provided that in no event shall the board exceed 15 members nor terms exceed 3 years; and may change the apportionment of the board in relation to the preexisting school districts.

195:19-c Special Provisions for Cooperative School Districts.

I. At the organizational meeting of the cooperative school district, the checklists for each preexisting district shall be used. The school board of any preexisting district which does not have a checklist shall make a list of the legal voters in the district for use at such meeting as supervisors are required to do in towns as provided in RSA 654:25-654:31. Thereafter, the cooperative school board shall make, correct and post a list of the legal voters of the cooperative school district acting as supervisors are required to do; except that such list shall indicate with respect to each voter the preexisting district in which he is domiciled. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, whenever each of the preexisting school districts is coextensive with the town in which it is located, the cooperative school district may, at an annual cooperative school district meeting, under an article in the warrant for such meeting, vote that the supervisors of each town, acting as the supervisors of the cooperative school district, shall make, correct and post in each preexisting district a checklist of the voters in each preexisting district and shall certify to the same acting as supervisors of the cooperative school district and shall attend the cooperative school district meeting. At each cooperative school district election, the checklists prepared by the supervisors in each preexisting district in accordance with this section shall be used.

II. An updated checklist shall be used at all cooperative school district elections and meetings for the same purposes as checklists are used by towns as provided in RSA 669:5.

III. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any registered voter on a town or city checklist, who has his domicile within a cooperative school district, shall be eligible to vote at any cooperative school district election or meeting in the district where he has his domicile. The supervisors of the checklists for the various cities and towns within a cooperative school district shall make an appropriate notation on their respective checklists with respect to which school district a registered voter is entitled to vote in.

IV. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any cooperative school district, which uses the checklists of the cities and towns within the district for an election or meeting pursuant to paragraph III, shall not be required to maintain a separate school district checklist or conduct sessions of the supervisors of the checklist.

14 Cross Reference Revised. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 195:22 to read as follows:

195:22 Method of Proposal. A plan for reapportionment, including the terms of office of members to be elected pursuant thereto, as provided for by RSA [195:20 and 21] 195:19-c:

15 Dissolution of a 2-District Cooperative. Amend RSA 195:29 to read as follows:

195:29 Vote on Withdrawal. If the state board approves the plan for withdrawal, the board shall cause the withdrawal plan to be published once in some newspaper generally circulated within the cooperative school district. Upon receipt of a written notice of the board's approval of the withdrawal agreement, the school board of the cooperative district shall cause the withdrawal plan to be filed with the clerk of the cooperative school district and submitted to the voters of the district as soon as may reasonably be possible at an annual or special meeting called for the purpose, the voting to be by ballot with the use of the checklist, after reasonable opportunity for debate in open meeting. The article in the warrant for the district meeting and the question on the ballot to be used at the meeting shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall the school district accept the provisions of RSA 195 (as amended) providing for the withdrawal of the pre-existing district of _____ from the _____ cooperative school district in accordance with the provisions of the proposed withdrawal plan filed with the school district clerk?"

Yes _____ No _____

If a majority of the voters present and voting shall vote in the affirmative, the clerk of the cooperative school district shall forthwith send to the state board of education a certified copy of the warrant, certificate of posting, evidence of publication, and minutes of the meeting. If the board finds that a majority of the voters present and voting have voted in favor of the withdrawal plan, it shall issue its certificate to that effect and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the withdrawal of the pre-existing district and the continuation of the cooperative school district as of the date of its issuance, or the dissolution of a 2-district cooperative if the cooperative was formed by 2 preexisting districts, provided, however, that a withdrawal plan shall be prepared for a 2-district cooperative and it shall provide for the disposition of property held within the cooperative and a statement of assumption of liabilities. If a majority of voters present and voting reject the plan, the withdrawing district shall have the right to appeal such vote to the state board of education. The state board shall upon receipt of such appeal investigate and report back to the district on its findings and recommendations; and this report may require that there will be another special meeting for a vote of reconsideration.

16 Planning Committees; Composition of Boards; Reapportionment. Amend RSA 671:7-9 to read as follows:

671:7 Cooperative School District Planning Committee. Any school district which votes at any annual or special district meeting to create [and to elect] a cooperative school district planning committee under RSA 195:18 shall[, at the same meeting,] elect the members of said committee as provided in RSA 195:18.

671:8 Composition of Cooperative School Boards. The number, composition, method of selection, and terms of members of cooperative school boards shall be as provided in the bylaws or articles of agreement of the cooperative school district, as the case may be[; provided, however, that such bylaws and articles of agreement shall be limited to the alternatives contained herein where applicable; and provided further that no cooperative school district in existence on August 22, 1971 shall be required to conform hereto unless it is so voted pursuant to RSA 671:9], in accordance with RSA 195:19-a.

[I. All members of the cooperative school board shall be elected "at large"; or

VI. The terms of the members of the cooperative school board shall be as provided in the bylaws or articles of agreement provided that in no case shall such terms exceed 3 years.

VII. Whenever the bylaws or articles of agreement provide for the election of cooperative school board members pursuant to this chapter, said election shall be with the use of the nonpartisan ballot system under RSA 669.]

671:9 Reapportionment. Any cooperative school district organized under any of the provisions of RSA 195 or pursuant to any special act may at any regular or special meeting vote to change the number, composition, method of selection, and terms of office of members on the board of the district[, provided that in no event shall the board exceed 15 members nor terms exceed 3 years; and may change the apportionment of the board in relation to the preexisting school districts as provided in RSA 671:8. If a reapportionment of a board is adopted pursuant to this section, the term of each and every board member under the prior apportionment shall terminate at the next election of board members when a completely new board shall be elected pursuant to the reapportionment] in accordance with the provisions of RSA 195:19-b.

17 Procedure; First Meeting; Cross Reference Inserted. Amend RSA 671:12 to read as follows:

671:12 First Meeting. [At] The organizational meeting of a cooperative school district[, the first order of business shall be the election by ballot of a temporary moderator and a temporary clerk] shall be conducted in accordance with RSA 195:18, IX.

I. At the organizational meeting of the cooperative school district, the checklists for each preexisting district shall be used in accordance with RSA 195:19-c. The school board of any preexisting district which does not have a checklist shall make a list of the legal voters in the district for use at such meeting as supervisors are required to do in towns as provided in RSA 654:25-654:31. Thereafter, the cooperative school board shall make, correct and post a list of the legal voters of the cooperative school district acting as supervisors are required to do; except that such list shall indicate with respect to each voter the preexisting district in which [he] the voter is domiciled. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, whenever each of the preexisting school districts is coextensive with the town in which it is located, the cooperative school district may, at an annual cooperative school district meeting, under an article in the warrant for such meeting, vote that the supervisors of each town, acting as the supervisors of the cooperative school district, shall make, correct and post in each preexisting district a checklist of the voters in each preexisting district and shall certify to the same acting as supervisors of the cooperative school district and shall attend the cooperative school district meeting. At each cooperative school district election, the checklists prepared by the supervisors in each preexisting district in accordance with this section shall be used.

19 Repeals. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 195:2, II, relative to cooperative district standards regarding geographical plans.

II. RSA 195:4-a, relative to acceptance by the state board of the establishment of new cooperative districts.

III. RSA 195:17, relative to other statutes inconsistent with statutory provisions regarding cooperative districts.

IV. RSA 195:24, relative to the withdrawal vote of a pre-existing school district.

20 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill revises and coordinates provisions relative to cooperative school districts, including formation, adoption of agreements, organization of boards, withdrawals or dissolutions, and increasing or decreasing the number of grades.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

RECESS

(Speaker Burns in the Chair)

HB 339, relative to death with dignity for certain persons suffering from a terminal condition. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. FIRST MINORITY REPORT: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. SECOND MINORITY REPORT: REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Alf E. Jacobson for the Majority of Judiciary and Family Law: HB 339 extends the right to die with dignity under sharply defined restrictions. The bill imposes no mandate on anyone. This bill is a basic freedom of choice legislation. Vote 12-7.

Rep. John J. McCarthy Jr. for the first Minority report of Judiciary and Family Law: I am opposed to both passage and/or interim study of HB 339 on moral and ethical grounds. The AMA has developed policies prohibiting physician-assisted suicide. It is my belief that physician-assisted suicide is likely, in the long run, to cause more problems than it hopes to solve.

Reps. Margaret D. Hallyburton and Lionel W. Johnson for the second Minority report of Judiciary and Family Law: Even those legislators who support this bill acknowledge that it is poorly crafted. There are a great many unanswered questions which the majority has chosen not to address for the sake of "sending a message." If we are to pass an act of this magnitude, it deserves to be coherent, workable, and internally consistent.

Amendment (3919L)

Amend RSA 137-K:2 as inserted by section I of the bill by inserting after paragraph XII the following and renumbering the original paragraph XIII to read as XIV:

XIII. "Suffering" means a state of severe distress, sense of personal loss, lack of hope, loss of control, and impaired quality of life.

Rep. Goddard spoke against.
The amendment failed.
Rep. John McCarthy spoke against.
Rep. Guest spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Daniels moved that HB 339, relative to death with dignity for certain persons suffering from a terminal condition, be laid on the table.

Rep. Daniels requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the motion to lay on the table.

HB 275, encouraging businesses to conduct environmental self-audits. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. M. Kathryn Aranda for Environment and Agriculture: This bill outlines the conditions under which voluntary environmental audits by a regulated entity may develop information and reports as privileged information, and the terms permitting an exemption from penalties for certain non-compliance which is promptly reported and corrected. The subcommittee studying this bill was made up of representatives from three House policy committees: Environment & Agriculture, Science, Technology & Energy, and Resources, Recreation & Development. Representatives from the Department of Environmental Services, the Department of Justice, businesses, industries, and environmental groups also participated in the series of meetings during the summer. This bill reflects a consensus of the participants. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (3832L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose.

I. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of New Hampshire and the purpose of this act to protect the environment and the public health and welfare by creating incentives for voluntary compliance with environmental protection laws in the state of New Hampshire.

II. In order to encourage persons owning or operating facilities or conducting activities that are regulated under any environmental laws to conduct voluntary environmental audits, an environmental audit privilege is recognized to protect the confidentiality of such audits and related communications. The general court finds that this privilege will encourage enhanced voluntary compliance with environmental laws and thus improve environmental quality without inhibiting the exercise of the regulatory and enforcement authority of those entrusted with protecting the environment. The general court further finds that it is in the interest of enhanced voluntary compliance to limit the imposition of penalties upon regulated entities that perform voluntary environmental audits.

2 New Chapter; Environmental Audits. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 147-D the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 147-E
ENVIRONMENTAL AUDITS

147-E:1 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Auditor" means the person or persons engaged or designated by the regulated entity to conduct an environmental audit and may include officers or employees of the regulated entity or independent contractors hired for that purpose.

II. "Compliance action" means any administrative or civil action initiated by or on behalf of the department which is intended to cause a person to comply with any environmental law, but which does not seek a monetary penalty, such as letters of deficiency, notices of violation, administrative orders, and civil injunction actions.

III. "Department" means the department of environmental services.

IV. "Environmental audit" means a voluntary, objective, and comprehensive evaluation of one or more facilities, activities, or management systems related to such facilities or activities that is undertaken specifically to identify areas of noncompliance and to improve compliance with one or more environmental laws.

V. "Environmental audit report" means a certain set of documents, each labeled "environmental audit report: privileged document" and bearing the date of preparation, prepared in connection with an environmental audit.

VI. "Environmental law" means RSA 125-C, RSA 125-D, RSA 125-I, those portions of RSA 141-E implemented by the department of environmental services, RSA 146-A, RSA 146-C, RSA 147-A, RSA 147-B, RSA 149-M, RSA 481, RSA 482, RSA 482-A, RSA 483, RSA 483-B, RSA 485, RSA 485-A, RSA 485-C, and RSA 487 and any rules adopted under such statutes, as well as any permits and licenses issued under such statutes and rules.

VII. "Penalty action" means any administrative, civil, or criminal action initiated by or on behalf of the department and intended to impose a monetary penalty or incarceration for violation of any environmental law.

VIII. "Person" means any individual, or any business entity, including a trust, firm, joint stock company, corporation (including a government corporation), partnership, association, or any political subdivision of the state.

IX. "Regulated entity" means any person who owns or operates a facility or conducts activities that are regulated under any environmental law.

147-E:2 Content of Environmental Audit Reports. An environmental audit report, when completed, shall have the following components:

I. A written plan prepared by or on behalf of the regulated entity prior to commencement of the audit that identifies the proposed auditor, and with particularity the scope of the audit, the anticipated date for commencement of the audit, and the anticipated date for completion of the audit, which in no event shall be more than 6 months from the date of commencement.

II. Documents prepared by the auditor which shall include the information or a summary of the information generated during, or as a result of, the audit and the conclusions and recommendations made during or as a result of the audit, together with all exhibits and appendices. Such documents may include field notes and records of observations, findings, opinions, suggestions, conclusions, drafts, memoranda, drawings, photographs, computer-generated or electronically recorded information, maps, charts, graphs, and surveys, and other such materials, provided such supporting information is generated or developed in the course of and by reason of an environmental audit.

III. Documents prepared by the regulated entity analyzing portions or all of the documents described in paragraph II of this section and discussing implementation issues.

IV. Documents prepared by the auditor comprising an implementation plan. Such implementation plan shall identify areas of noncompliance with environmental law, including conditions which may give rise to a duty to report under environment law; provided, however, that identification of any areas of noncompliance shall not be construed as evidence of noncompliance, as an admission of liability, or as a legal opinion. Such implementation plan shall also include recommended actions for correcting such areas of noncompliance and recommendations for preventing recurrence of the identified noncompliance.

147-E:3 Environmental Audit Privilege. An environmental audit report prepared pursuant to and after the effective date of this chapter shall be privileged and shall not be discoverable or admissible as evidence in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding, except as provided in RSA 147-E:4 and RSA 147-E:5. The privilege may be claimed by the regulated entity or its agents. An auditor who is not an officer, employee, or agent of the regulated entity shall be authorized to assert the privilege on behalf of the regulated entity but in no event shall such an auditor be authorized to waive it.

147-E:4 Exceptions. The privilege described in RSA 147-E:3 shall not apply to the extent that:

I.(a) It is waived expressly or by implication by the regulated entity that prepared or caused to be prepared the environmental audit report. A claim of privilege is not defeated by a disclosure that was made inadvertently.

(b) The regulated entity seeks to introduce all or part of an environmental audit report as evidence, in which case the introduction of any part of the environmental audit report shall constitute waiver of the privilege as to the entire environmental audit report.

II. The environmental audit report shows evidence of noncompliance with environmental law and appropriate efforts to achieve compliance were not upon discovery promptly initiated and diligently pursued.

III. The environmental audit report reveals a threat of imminent and substantial harm to the public health or the environment.

IV.(a) In a civil or criminal or an administrative proceeding, if the court having jurisdiction under RSA 147-E:7, after an in camera review, determines that the environmental audit was:

(1) Undertaken for a fraudulent purpose, including without limitation the use of the privilege to avoid disclosure to regulators of violations known to exist or reasonably believed to exist by the regulated entity; or

(2) Commenced by a regulated entity after learning of or receiving an official notice of impending government inspection or investigation.

(b) In a criminal proceeding only, if the court, after an in camera review, determines that the material shows evidence of the commission of a criminal offense under an environmental law and the state demonstrates that it has a compelling need for the information and the information is not otherwise available.

147-E:5 Non-Privileged Matters. The following are not covered by the privilege described in RSA 147-E:3.

I. Documents, communications, data, reports, or other information required to be collected, developed, maintained, reported, or otherwise made available to a regulatory agency pursuant to an environmental law.

II. Data or other information obtained by any regulatory agency, including, but not limited to, data or information obtained by observation, sampling, or monitoring.

III. Documents, communications, data, reports, or other information developed or maintained in the course of any regularly conducted business activity or regular practice other than an environmental audit report, even if such information:

(a) Was reviewed by the auditor;

(b) Formed a basis in whole or in part for the environmental audit report; or

(c) Was incorporated into the environmental audit report.

IV. The fact that an environmental audit is being or has been performed or that an environmental audit report is being or has been prepared.

147-E:6 In Camera Proceedings.

I. In the event of a dispute in any civil or criminal proceeding over whether an environmental audit report is privileged under RSA 147-E:3, is subject to an exception set forth in RSA 147-E:4, IV, or is non-privileged under RSA 147-E:5, any party to the proceeding may file with the court having jurisdiction over the matter a motion requesting an in camera hearing to determine whether such environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged or subject to disclosure. Any such motion shall state the grounds on which the party filing the motion is claiming the privilege or is entitled to disclosure. Upon the filing of such motion, an in camera review shall be conducted as set forth in paragraph III of this section.

II. In the event of a dispute in any state administrative proceeding over whether an environmental audit report is privileged under RSA 147-E:3, is subject to an exception set forth in RSA 147-E:4, or is non-privileged under RSA 147-E:5, any party to the proceeding may file with the Merrimack county superior court a petition requesting an in camera hearing to determine whether such environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged or subject to disclosure. Any such petition shall state the grounds on which the party filing the petition is claiming the privilege or is entitled to disclosure. Upon the filing of such petition an in camera review shall be conducted as set forth in paragraph III of this section.

III. Upon the filing of any motion or petition for in camera review pursuant to this section, the opposing party shall have 10 days to file an objection to such motion or response to such petition. Upon the receipt of the opposing party's objection or response, the court shall issue an order scheduling an in camera hearing to be held within 21 days of the filing of the motion or petition to determine whether such environmental audit report or portions thereof are privileged. The order shall require that a copy of the environmental audit report be immediately provided to the department of justice. The department of justice may consult with the department as necessary to prepare for the in camera hearing, but shall limit the distribution and review of the environmental audit report to protect against further disclosure. The information gained from the environmental audit report used in preparation for the in camera hearing shall not be used in any investigation or in any proceeding against the regulated entity and shall otherwise be kept confidential, unless and until the information is found by the court to be subject to disclosure. The court shall issue an order concerning the privileged status or disclosure of such environmental audit report within 7 days of the in camera hearing.

147-E:7 Duty to Comply and Report; Other Privileges Not Affected; Continuous Audits Not Authorized.

I. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as relieving any person from any duty to comply with, or to report or submit any information under, any environmental law. Where the submission of information is required under any environmental law, a regulated entity may comply with such requirement by submitting information contained in an environmental audit report. The privilege under RSA 147-E:3 will be deemed waived as to such submitted information, but not as to any other portion of the environmental audit report.

II. Nothing in this chapter shall limit, waive, or abrogate the scope or nature of any statutory or common law privilege, including the work product doctrine and the attorney-client privilege.

III. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize a privilege for continuous or uninterrupted environmental audits.

147-E:8 Testimony. An auditor shall not be required to testify or otherwise compelled to reveal information which is privileged under RSA 147-E:3. This testimonial privilege shall not apply to information which is subject to any of the exceptions set forth in RSA 147-E:4 or is non-privileged under RSA 147-E:5. Any dispute under this section shall be resolved in accordance with the provisions of RSA 147-E:6.

147-E:9 Penalty Waiver.

I. Any regulated entity which discovers a violation of environmental law through an environmental audit and which elects to undertake the following steps shall not be subject to any penalty action for such a violation:

(a) Report to the department within 30 days of discovery of the violation:

(1) The nature and extent of the violation;

(2) That the violation was discovered through an environmental audit;

(3) That all violations of environmental law discovered by this environmental audit have been or will be disclosed to the department in accordance with this section;

(4) The nature and extent of corrective and remedial actions proposed or already undertaken;

(5) A commitment to perform all necessary and appropriate corrective and remedial actions as soon as practicable and in any event within 90 days or, if incapable of being performed within 90 days, in accordance with an agreement negotiated with the department providing for a longer schedule; and

(6) A commitment to undertake measures to prevent a recurrence of the violation; and

(b) Report to the department within 10 days of completion of all corrective and remedial action:

(1) That all necessary and appropriate corrective and remedial actions were completed as soon as practicable, and in any event within 90 days or in accordance with an agreement with the department; and

(2) The nature and extent of measures which have been undertaken to prevent a recurrence of the violation, and that such measures constitute all measures believed to be necessary and appropriate to prevent such a recurrence.

(c) The regulated entity shall submit information adequate to allow the department to confirm that corrective and remedial actions, and measures to prevent recurrence, are appropriate and that they were implemented in accordance with this chapter.

II. A regulated entity shall not qualify for a penalty waiver pursuant to RSA 147-E:9, I if:

(a) The violation was a criminal act committed knowingly, purposefully, or recklessly;

(b) The violation resulted in serious harm to human health or the environment;

(c) Within the 3 years preceding discovery of the violation, the regulated entity was the subject of:

(1) A compliance action or penalty action for violation of the same environmental law; or

(2) Multiple compliance actions or penalty actions for violations of any environmental laws; or

(3) Any criminal conviction for violation of any environmental law;

(d) The violation was discovered by the state before it was disclosed to the department pursuant to RSA 147-E:9, I;

(e) The violation was disclosed to the department pursuant to RSA 147-E:9, I after the commencement of a federal, state or local agency action, including an inspection, investigation or environmental information request;

(f) Any of the reports or notices provided to the department pursuant to RSA 147-E:9, I prove not to be true; or

(g) Absent good cause shown;

(1) Corrective and remedial actions were not appropriate or implemented in accordance with this chapter; or

(2) Measures to prevent recurrence were not adequate or were not implemented in accordance with this chapter.

III. Nothing herein shall prevent the state from initiating a compliance action against the regulated entity for any violation disclosed to or discovered by the department.

3 Applicability; Report. It is the intent of the general court that RSA 147-E as enacted pursuant to this act shall be repealed unless it can be demonstrated to be effective in encouraging enhanced voluntary compliance with environmental laws, and in not providing opportunities for avoidance of such compliance. In order to provide a fair assessment, RSA 147-E as enacted pursuant to this act should be given adequate time to be implemented and studied. Therefore, RSA 147-E as enacted pursuant to this act shall be repealed effective July 1, 2002, unless specifically extended by legislative enactment. The repeal of the act shall not affect the validity of any privilege which attached to any environmental audit report completed before June 30, 2002, and questions regarding the confidentiality of audits performed while the act was in effect shall be resolved with reference to the provisions of the act. The New Hampshire department of environmental services, in consultation with New Hampshire business and industry association and other environmental interests, shall report to the general court no later than November 1, 2001, regarding the effectiveness of the act.

4 Repeal. RSA 147-E, relative to environmental audits, is repealed.

5 Effective Date.

I. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2002.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 236, relative to the recovered memory syndrome. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Howard E. Williams for Executive Departments and Administration: People seeking psychological services are fragile members of our society and need assurances that the treatment received is safe, effective and appropriate. Informed consent is a critical element in this process. In order to ensure timely treatment to an informed client, the language detailing elements of the treatment must be clearly communicated. Vote 8-7.

Adopted.

HB 514-FN, relative to hearing aid dealers and increasing the fees for persons seeking certification as hearing aid dealers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: The passage of time seems to have resolved many of the issues presented by HB 514-FN. The study committee reviewed a recent bill recently passed by the Colorado Legislature. Of interest, New Hampshire has had almost all the similar consumer protections in place for many, many years. In addition, we were informed that the organization representing the NH Audiologists will be presenting a bill for the 1997 session that may address separately some of the issues considered under this bill. Vote 11-2.

Rep. Copenhaver spoke to the bill.

Adopted.

SB 90, relative to uniform adjudicative hearing procedures for state agencies. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for the Majority of Executive Departments and Administration: SB 90 was re-referred to the committee for an in-depth study of rules and procedures for adjudicative hearings and how this can be improved to insure uniform hearings for all citizens appearing before the agencies, boards and commissions. The amended bill directs the Department of Justice, an executive department, to draw up uniform adjudicative rules usable by all departments, boards and commissions and mandates that all agencies, boards and commissions will adopt or assent by default the model rules. The committee is aware of the separation of powers between the executive branch and the legislative branch but RSA 541-A was generated by and approved by the Legislature and the majority felt it was proper for the executive branch to develop rules for the executive branch along with consultation by a legislative advisory committee prior to presentation to the joint legislative committee and administrative rules. For final adoption, the other major portion of this bill establishes a trial program for two years whereby hearings of boards and commissions attached to the secretary of state will be conducted in accordance with the model rules by a hearings examiner or officer. The bill spells out that this officer will not participate in the decisions of the agency, board or commission. Vote 10-3.

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for the Minority of Executive Departments and Administration: The committee agrees with Part II of the bill relative to the pilot program, appointment of examiners or hearing officers. The main objection of the minority is the delegation of powers to the Attorney General to adopt model rules. Inasmuch as departments, including the Attorney General, have disregarded the provisions of 541-A, we see no reason to give them added responsibilities and we feel that rules should remain as part of the legislative process. The concerns we have are the abdication of the rights granted to the legislative branch only by Part I, Chapter 12 of the Constitution, and allowing executive branch rules to violate due process afforded to our constituents by Part I, Chapter 14 of the Constitution.

Amendment (4016L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to uniform adjudicative proceedings for state agencies.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

(e) Standard of proof;

(f) Computation of time;

There is established a legislative advisory committee on adjudicative proceedings composed of 7 members as follows: 3 members of the house of representatives, appointed by the speaker of the house; 3 members of the senate, appointed by the senate president; and one member representing the New Hampshire Bar Association, appointed by its president. The attorney general shall consult the legislative advisory committee before requesting a fiscal impact statement pursuant to RSA 541-A:5 for the model rules and any amendments proposed pursuant to paragraph II.

V. Each agency shall adopt the text of the current model rules pursuant to RSA 541-A subject to the following:

(a) Supplements or modifications shall be adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A if necessary to implement the specific statutory provisions of the agency, or judicial decisions, affecting the conduct of an adjudicative proceeding and to comply with paragraph I of this section.

VI. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 541-A:22, I, an agency not in compliance with paragraph I of this section may apply whatever model rules are necessary in a particular adjudicative proceeding when no effective agency rule addresses the matter covered by the applicable model rule, provided that:

(a) Such use shall not conflict with a statute, judicial decision, or other rules of the agency;

(b) Notice shall be given to all parties with the notice pursuant to RSA 541-A:31, III of the extent to which the model rules will apply to the proceeding;

(c) The agency notifies the attorney general and the joint legislative committee on administrative rules before the final decision is rendered that the model rules are being applied; and

HB 501, relative to public employee collective bargaining. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Robert H. Turner for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill deals with the requirements that cost items in a collective bargaining contract be submitted to the legislative body of the public employer for approval at an annual meeting or in certain cases, a special meeting. If submitted to a special meeting, the legislative body shall have the same authority to raise and appropriate money for cost items as at an annual meeting and shall be exempt from the requirements of RSA 197:3 and RSA 31:5. However, no such special meeting shall be held between December 15th and the annual town or school district meeting. The bill as amended has the support of the NH School Boards Association, the NH Municipal Association, the NH Department of Revenue Administration, NEA of New Hampshire, the Public Employee Labor Relations Board, as well as the Labor Committee. The amendment was coordinated with the House Municipal and County Government Committee's work on HB 610-L on integrating changes in the Municipal Budget Act into the laws relating to towns and school districts on negotiated cost items. This was done to prevent any conflict in language or submission dates in either bill. Vote 12-2.

Amendment (2636L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Cost Items; Legislative Body Approval required. Amend RSA 273-A:3, II(b) to read as follows:

(b) Only cost items shall be submitted to the legislative body of the public employer for approval at an annual or special meeting. The cost items shall be submitted to either an annual or special meeting within 90 days of agreement or issuance of a neutral party's recommendations. If submitted to a special meeting, the legislative body shall have the same authority to raise and appropriate money for cost items as at an annual meeting and shall be exempt from the requirements of RSA 197:3 and RSA 31:5. However, no such special meeting shall be held between December 15 and the annual town or school district meeting. If the legislative body rejects any part of the submission, or while accepting the submission takes any action which would result in a modification of the terms of the cost item submitted to it, either party may reopen negotiations on all or part of the entire agreement.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires that cost items be submitted to the legislative body of the public employer for approval at an annual meeting or in certain cases, a special meeting.

HB 606, excluding certain welfare recipients from the definition of public employee under the workers' compensation law. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Arthur W. Smith for the Majority of Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The majority of the committee adopted the amendments to HB 606-L, having to do with the definition of employee in respect to workers' compensation, for people involved in work fare. The amendment clarifies the ability of the overseer of public welfare to require able-bodied welfare recipients to participate in a municipalities' work program and further allows the municipality the option to decide whether they want to provide a benefit to cover them with workers' compensation, thus avoiding any conflict with Article 28-A, the mandate law. Vote 9-5.

Reps. Bishop, Drabinowicz, C. Jean, Laughlin and Palmer for the Minority of Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: The minority feel that any person participating in a local welfare work program shall be included under RSA 165:31. However, the local governing body may vote to exclude local welfare work participants. With the controversy on this issue within the committee, it is our opinion that this will open the door to litigation.

Amendment (3624L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Certain Welfare Recipients Added. Amend RSA 281-A:2, VII(b) to read as follows:

(b) "Employee," with respect to public employment shall not include any inmate of a county or state correctional facility who is, under RSA 651, required or allowed to work or perform services for which no significant remuneration is provided, or any participant performing community service work under a court order or the provisions of a court diversion program. "Employee", with respect to public employment shall also not include any person participating in a local welfare work program established under RSA 165:31; however, the local governing body may vote to extend the provisions of this chapter to local welfare work program participants through guidelines adopted under RSA 165:1, II.

2 Work Program Requirements. Amend RSA 165:31 to read as follows:

165:31 [Employment of] Work Program Requirements for Assisted Persons.

I. Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 4-FN, relative to the time allowed for postsurgical recovery. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Michael Morello for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill concerns remaining overnight in ambulatory surgical facilities. The subcommittee examined all issues and felt that problems with RSA 151-d can be cleared up by specifically defining terms involved. The bill will require ambulatory surgical facilities who want to keep patients overnight to meet the standards established by the Certificate of Need Board. This requirement insures quality of care for all patients receiving services from ambulatory surgical facilities. Vote 11-5.

Rep. Francine Wendelboe for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill, as amended, is anti-consumer, anti-business and continues the status quo quagmire of health care. More debate on this issue should occur on the House floor or Committee of Conference.

Thursday, January 11, 1996

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Hays M. Junkin, Pastor, St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Hopkinton.

Kind protector of all the people, we remember before You today the people of New Hampshire, the young and old, the strong and the weak. Be present here with us as this legislature does the work of the people. Help them on these winter days not to be "snowed under" by popularity polls or quick solutions. Instead, encourage them to plow through to proper decisions that benefit all the people.

We give thanks for each member of this Legislature. For their many hours of hard work and for the sacrifice of their time and energy.

We especially remember this morning J. Francis Laughlin. As a beloved member of this assembly, Fran's passion for the highest quality of work done on the peoples' behalf was a witness to everyone. We ask that You receive him now into his heavenly home where Your love is always in the majority and where Fran will feel very much at peace. Amen.

REGULAR CALENDAR PART II (Cont'd.)

HB 469-FN, relative to a civil filing fee surcharge to fund civil legal assistance to low-income persons. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Nick Hart for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee feels that it wants to keep this bill alive to try to find a problem to the underfunding of legal assistance. Vote 13-6.

Adopted.

HB 589-FN, excluding convicted felons from serving on juries. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Donald F. McMahon for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee felt that since the question of past convictions and annulments are addressed on the Juror Questionnaire, the judge, defense attorney, and the prosecutor may make a decision on the seating of the potential juror. The sponsors desire to upgrade the jury system is a valid one and should be followed up on. Vote 9-4.

Adopted.

SB 115, preventing strategic lawsuits against public participation. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Sandra B. Keans for Judiciary and Family Law: There has been an explosion of suits filed against private individuals who have exercised their first amendment rights at public meetings. Large corporations, particularly, have the ability to tie an individual up in court in an attempt to keep them quiet while things like zoning changes take place. This bill would add the same penalty to these actions as in other frivolous suits (RSA 507:15). Vote 18-1.

Amendment (4041L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following;

1 Findings and Purpose. The legislature finds and declares that there has been a disturbing increase in strategic lawsuits against public participation, which are lawsuits brought primarily to chill the valid exercise of the constitutional rights of freedom of speech and petition for the redress of grievances. The legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to encourage continued participation in matters of public significance, and that this participation should not be chilled through abuse of the judicial process.

2 Frivolous Lawsuits; Penalties. Amend RSA 507:15 to read as follows:

507:15 Penalties for Frivolous Actions. If, upon the hearing of any contract or tort action, it clearly appears to the court that the action or any defense is frivolous or intended to harass or intimidate the prevailing party, then the court, upon motion of the prevailing party or on its own motion, may [award] order summary judgment against the party who brought such action or raised such defense, and award the amount of costs and attorneys' fees incurred by the prevailing party plus $1,000 to be paid to the prevailing party, provided such costs and fees are reasonable. The trial judge shall also report such conduct to the supreme Court Committee on Professional Conduct.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

SB 130, relative to the Uniform Trustees' Powers Act. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Nick Hart for the Majority of Judiciary and Family Law: This bill represents a consensus of the Bankers Association, trust attorneys and other interested parties. It establishes a statutory provision allowing the creation of spendthrift trusts and it establishes a study committee to study issues relative to adopting new laws pertaining to trusts. Vote 11-8.

Rep. David T. Mittelman for the Minority of Judiciary and Family Law: This bill makes a significant modification in the rights of creditors towards spendthrift trusts. This bill also establishes a study committee to review the status of trust law in this state. The minority does not believe any policy change should be made until that study committee has a chance to do its work.

Amendment (4035L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to allowing trust grantors to determine the disposition of trust assets and establishing a model trust law study committee.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The general court hereby adopts certain asset protection provisions pertaining to trusts and establishes a committee to study additional measures necessary and desirable for New Hampshire to be a model state for trusts. The general court recognizes that such action is necessary to help make New Hampshire a model state for trusts, to have and maintain a healthy and viable trust climate in New Hampshire, to allow individuals flexibility and freedom to leave property to the beneficiaries of their choice, to encourage individuals with trusts to continue to reside in New Hampshire, to encourage individuals to establish trusts in New Hampshire, and to increase the prosperity of New Hampshire communities and institutions.

2 New Section; Creditors and Assignees of Beneficiaries. Amend RSA 564 by inserting after section 22 the following new section:

564:23 Creditors and Assignees of Beneficiaries.

I. In the event the governing instrument so provides, a beneficiary of a trust shall not be able to transfer his or her right to future payments of income and principal, and a creditor of a beneficiary shall not be able to subject the beneficiary's interest to the payment of its claim.

II. The provisions of paragraph I shall not apply to a beneficiary's interest in a trust to the extent that the beneficiary is the settlor and the trust is not a special needs trust established for a person with disabilities. "Special needs trust" means a trust established for a disabled person as described in 42 U.S.C. section 1396p(d)(4) or similar federal law governing the transfer to such a trust.

III. Paragraph I shall not be construed to prevent the application of RSA 545-A or a similar law of another state having jurisdiction over a transfer of property to the trust.

3 Limitation. Amend RSA 498:9 to read as follows:

498:9 Limitation.

The provisions of RSA 498:8 shall not apply to property exempt from attachment[,] or to trust funds[, except in case of spendthrift trusts where the trust has been created by or the fund has proceeded from some person other than the debtor and such application may not be made consistently with the trust] covered under the provisions of RSA 564:23, I.

4 Committee Established.

I. There is established a committee to study issues relative to adopting new laws pertaining to trusts. The committee shall consist of the following members:

(a) Two senators appointed by the senate president.

(b) Three house members appointed by the speaker of the house.

II. The committee may request input from among others:

(a) Members of the N.H. Bar Association.

(b) Representatives of the N.H. Bankers Association;

(c) The administrative justice of the probate court; and

(d) The public.

5 The committee established in section 4 of this act shall include in its study the following:

I. The laws of other states and nations pertaining to trusts, including but not limited to the rule against perpetuities, community property elections, and additional trust asset protection rules.

II. All uniform acts pertaining to trusts.

III. Additional measures which are necessary and desirable for New Hampshire to be a model state for trusts.

6 Appointments; Meetings; Mileage. Appointments of members to the committee established in section 4 of this act shall be made within 15 days of the effective date of this act. The first-named senate member shall act as temporary chairperson and shall call the first meeting of the committee within 30 days of the effective date of this act. Members shall receive mileage at the legislative rate for attending to duties of the committee.

7 Report. The committee shall submit a report of its findings, including any recommendations for legislation, to the speaker of the house, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor and the state library on or before November 1, 1996.

8 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill protects trust assets by restricting the ability of certain beneficiaries to transfer trust assets.

The bill also establishes a committee to study trust laws.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 225-L, allowing local governing bodies to offer tax incentives to foster growth in new and existing business construction. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee applauds the intent of this bill. However, more clarification is necessary on defining those businesses/ industries eligible for the abatement and would like additional information to develop the appropriate legislation. Vote 11-5.

HB 552-FN, relative to the design and the display of the state flag. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY.

Rep. James J. Fenton for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: This bill to re-design our state flag deeply interested the committee. It generated participation from historians and school children. The research exposed some apparent inconsistencies between the original state seal and the seal currently in use. The committee feels that interim study would allow more public input and allow more school children to become involved in our historical research. The current flag design has existed since 1931. Any changes should be carefully considered. Vote 15-1.

Adopted.

HB 520-FN-L, relative to the regulation of rural electric cooperatives by the public utilities commission. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: Passage of this bill will give the members of the N.H. Electric Coop the opportunity to vote to designate the Cooperative primarily from rate setting by the Public Utilities Commission. The Commission will retain jurisdiction over some aspects of the Coop including least cost planning and winter shutoffs. The committee felt this level of designation is appropriate given the fact the coop is governed by membership and is a non-profit organization. Vote 11-0.

Amendment (4025L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 Rural Electric Cooperatives Removed from Jurisdiction of Public Utilities Commission. Amend RSA 301:57 to read as follows:

301:57 Jurisdiction of Public Utilities Commission. [Cooperative marketing associations organized for purposes of rural electrification shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the public utilities commission.]

I. A rural electric cooperative which has had a certificate of regulation on file with the public utilities commission for a period of not less than 5 consecutive years, or which has not at any previous time had a certificate of deregulation on file with the public utilities commission, may elect to become exempt from regulation by the commission and be removed from the definition of "public utility" as provided in RSA 362:2. Any election shall be approved by a majority of those members voting by mail ballot, initiated by petition of net less than 100 members of the cooperative and returnable to a regular meeting of the membership. The first election shall be made no less than 120 days after the effective date of this section. Subsequent elections may be held not less than one year after the most recent previous election conducted under this paragraph. The election shall be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the cooperative's bylaws. Within 10 days following the regular meeting of the membership to which the results of the election are returned, the cooperative shall, if the vote is in the affirmative, file a certificate of deregulation with the public utilities commission, and, if the vote is in the negative, file a certificate of regulation with the public utilities commission.

II. A rural electric cooperative which has had a certificate of deregulation on file with the public utilities commission for a period of not less than 5 consecutive years, may elect to become subject to regulation by the public utilities commission, and become a "public utility" as provided in RSA 362:2. The election shall be approved by a majority of those members voting by mail ballot initiated by petition of not less than 100 members of the cooperative and returnable to a regular meeting of the membership. The election shall be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the cooperative's bylaws and may be held not less than one year after the most recent previous election conducted under this paragraph. Within 10 days following the regular meeting of the membership to which the results of the election are returned, the cooperative shall, if the vote is in the affirmative, file a certificate of regulation with the public utilities commission, and, if the vote is in the negative, file a certificate of deregulation with the public utilities commission.

III. Every rural electric cooperative shall maintain on file with the public utilities commission either a certificate of regulation or a certificate of deregulation. Certificates of regulation and deregulation shall be certified by a duly authorized representative of the rural electric cooperative and shall contain the full text of the ballot question voted upon as provided in paragraph I or II, a certification of the vote results, and a certification that the ballot was initiated by a petition meeting the requirements set forth in paragraphs I-II. Certificates of regulation and deregulation shall remain on file with the public utilities commission unless and until replaced by a certificate of regulation or deregulation resulting from a subsequent election.

IV. Upon the effective date of this section, all rural electric cooperatives shall file a certificate of regulation with the public utilities commission.

3 New Sections; Jurisdiction of Public Utilities Commission. Amend RSA 301 by inserting after section 57 the following new sections:

301:58 Validity of Public Utilities Commission Orders.

I. The filing of a certificate of deregulation with the public utilities commission by a rural electric cooperative shall cause the commission to terminate the involvement of the cooperative in any proceeding to the extent that such involvement is no longer under the jurisdiction of the commission

II. Orders of the commission concerning rural electric cooperatives, issued prior to the effective date of this section or at times when a certificate of regulation is on file shall not be rendered invalid by the filing of a certificate of deregulation, provided, however, that such orders shall not be enforceable as against the cooperative while a certificate of deregulation is on file with the commission. Nothing in this section shall affect the validity or enforceability of orders of the commission concerning service territory, franchise boundaries, or any other matter over which the commission retains authority over a cooperative for which a certificate of deregulation is on file with the public utilities commission.

301:59 PURPA Jurisdiction. The public utilities commission shall retain jurisdiction over rural electric cooperatives, regardless of whether or not a certificate of regulation or deregulation is on file, for purpose of implementing and enforcing provisions of the Public Utilities Regulatory Policy Act of 1978, and any successor laws amending, replacing or repealing the same; and regulations of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission implementing the same.

301:60 Consent to Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any rural electric cooperative, without regard to whether or not a certificate of regulation or deregulation is on file with the public utilities commission, may voluntarily consent to jurisdiction by the commission for the purpose of participating in or initiating proceedings before the commission. The cooperative's voluntary consent shall be nonrevocable, and shall be in writing, signed by a duly authorized representative of the cooperative. The consent may be limited to specific issues, or requests for relief. Any voluntary consent under this section shall be strictly limited in scope to the issues or proceedings identified in the written consent, and shall not be construed as a more general consent to jurisdiction.

301:61 Member Access to Records and Meetings. A rural electric cooperative which has filed a certificate of deregulation with the public utilities commission shall provide its members with open access to the cooperative's membership meetings, board meetings, and business records to the same extent that citizens of New Hampshire are entitled to access to public records as provided in RSA 91-A. The cooperative shall provide notice of all regular board meetings in its newsletters or as part of the monthly billing statement.

4 Definition of Public Utility Changed. Amend RSA 362:2 to read as follows:

362:2 Public Utility.

I. The term "public utility" shall include every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court, except municipal corporations and county corporations operating within their corporate limits, owning, operating or managing any plant or equipment or any part of the same for the conveyance of telephone or telegraph messages or for the manufacture or furnishing of light, heat, sewage disposal, power or water for the public, or in the generation, transmission or sale of electricity ultimately sold to the public, or owning or operating any pipeline, including pumping stations, storage depots and other facilities, for the transportation, distribution or sale of gas, crude petroleum, refined petroleum products, or combinations of petroleum products, [cooperative marketing associations organized for purposes of rural electrification,] rural electric cooperatives organized pursuant to RSA 301, and any other business, except as hereinafter exempted, over which on September 1, 1951, the public utilities commission exercised jurisdiction.

II. For the purposes of this title only, rural electric cooperatives for which a certificate of deregulation is on file with the public utilities commission pursuant to RSA 301:57 shall not be considered public utilities; provided, however, that the provisions of RSA 362-A, 363-B, 364, 371, 374:26-a, 374-C and the provisions of RSA 378:37-39 shall be applicable to rural electric cooperatives, without regard to whether or not a certificate of regulation or deregulation is on file with the public utilities commission. The provisions of RSA 374-A shall apply to rural electric cooperatives for which a certificate of deregulation is on file with the public utilities commission to the same extent as municipal utilities. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall exempt rural electric cooperatives for which certificate of deregulation are on file with the public utilities commission from legislative or commission actions to promote retail wheeling or other forms of competition in the electric utility industry.

5 Public Utilities Commission Assessment Adjusted. RSA 363-A:2 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

363-A:2 Assessment. The expenses thus ascertained shall be assessed against the public utilities described in RSA 363-A:1 in the manner provided in this chapter. The assessment shall be calculated by using the gross utility revenue of all public utilities and 33 percent of the gross utility revenue of rural electric cooperatives for which a certificate of deregulation is on file with the commission and allocating the expenses of the commission to each utility in direct proportion as the revenues relate to the total utility revenues as a whole. Each such expense allocation shall be assessed against each public utility and rural electric cooperative with a certificate of deregulation on file with the commission in an amount equal to its proportionate share. The minimum fee shall be assessed to utilities having minimal revenues in such proportion as the public utility commission shall determine to be fair and equitable.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HCR 1, calling for a federal constitutional convention to propose an amendment to the United States Constitution prohibiting unfunded federal mandates. MAJORITY: REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. David M. Scanlan for the Majority of State-Federal Relations: The sponsor of this concurrent resolution asked the committee to keep this vehicle alive while we monitored activities of the U.S. Congress relative to the unfunded mandates issue. The committee is interested in finding a way to amend the Constitution to prohibit unfunded mandates so as to not open up the Constitution to other issues. Vote 10-1.

Rep. Robert K. Wollner for the Minority of State-Federal Relations: This resolution asks Congress to do what they have already done last winter when the Unfunded Mandates Act of 1995 was passed into law. The only difference being that we would be petitioning Congress for a Constitutional Convention to amend the Federal Constitution. By petitioning Congress for a convention, we would be opening the gates to any topic the delegates choose to discuss. If, as it has been suggested, the intent of this bill is to send a message to Congress. I would argue that the message has already been received by the Congress and petitioning for a convention would be inappropriate and dangerous to do so at this time.

Adopted.

HB 148-L, permitting the polling places in small towns to be open for fewer than 8 hours. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Carl S. Adams for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: While the idea of varied polling hours may be attractive to some small towns, the committee considered it important to try to maintain and encourage uniform hours throughout the state. Vote 14-0.

Adopted.

HB 228, prohibiting a person from working at a polling place as an election officer if a member of the officer's immediate family is on the ballot. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Charles W. Chandler for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The committee feels the bill could make it very difficult to secure the required number of election officers and would also be violative of the individual and civil rights of relatives of candidates. Vote 14-0.

Rep. Buckley spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Charles Chandler spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 280, establishing a study committee to examine the issue of defining "psychological abuse" as applied by the courts in cases involving children. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Lionel W. Johnson for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee felt that the current definition of "psychologically injured" under the Child Protection Act lacks clarity for purposes of forensic assessment and court determination, resulting in a lack of intervention and treatment. We support adoption of the 1995 APSAC (American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children) guidelines. Vote 18-1.

Amendment (3960L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

defining emotional maltreatment under the child protection act.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Intent.

I. Psychological or emotional maltreatment produces both acute and long-term negative effects. Such maltreatment is a repeated pattern or an extreme incident, or incidents, of caregiver behavior that convey the message that a child is worthless, flawed, unloved, unwanted, endangered, or only valuable in meeting someone else's needs. Virtually every caregiver, at some point, send such unfortunate messages. There are few perfect caregivers. Most maltreatment occurs when these negative messages pass from isolated incidents to a consistent caregiving style.

II. Research establishes a connection between psychological or emotional maltreatment and attachment disorders, limitations in cognitive ability and problem solving, poor academic achievement, depression, poor peer relationships, behavior problems, anxiety disorders (especially post-traumatic stress disorder), and anti-social behavior. Impairments may extend into adulthood affecting one's ability to function and maintain relationships in the home, workplace, and community. Professionals are concerned that cases involving psychological or emotional maltreatment receive less frequent intervention than do cases involving physical injury or sexual abuse, yet such maltreatment may actually result in more serious negative effects. Their concern appears well-founded. In 1993 and 1994, the division for children, youth and families of the department of health and human services recorded the following analysis of child maltreatment types:

Maltreatment Type	Count of Substantiated Maltreatment Types*		Percent of Substantiated Maltreatment Types
	1993	1994	1993	1994
Neglect	329	311	41.3	38.0
Sexual abuse	274	251	34.4	30.6
Physical abuse	180	245	22.6	29.9
Psychological abuse	13	12	1.6	1.5
Total	796	819	100%	100%

* Some substantiated cases count in more than one maltreatment type. For example, a child may be neglected and physically abused, and, therefore count double in the total. For this reason, "maltreatment type" should not be thought of as a non-duplicated count of cases of maltreatment.

III. The current definition of "psychologically injured" under the Child Protection Act lacks clarity for purposes of forensic assessment and court determination, resulting in a lack of intervention and treatment. Therefore, the general court finds it necessary that the legislature address this problem by a change in terminology from "psychological injury" to "emotional maltreatment" and by a clarification of the definition of emotional maltreatment. The definition concerns emotional maltreatment that occurs in isolation as well as emotional maltreatment that occurs in conjunction with, or embedded in, other forms of abuse and neglect. Much of the language of this statute is drawn from the 1995 American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children (APSAC) Practice Guidelines: Psychosocial Evaluation of Suspected Psychological Maltreatment in Children and Adolescents. The updated definition is intended to be construed broadly to effect the purposes of the Child Protection Act.

IV. Understanding in this critical area is emerging over time. It is essential to have ongoing education for child welfare and mental health professionals making forensic assessments of emotional maltreatment and for members of the judiciary and bar, as well as information available on the subject for parents and other caring individuals.

2 "Emotionally Maltreated" Substituted for "Psychologically Injured." RSA 169-C:3, II(c) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(c) Emotionally maltreated; or

3 New Paragraph; "Denial of Emotional Responsiveness" Defined. Amend RSA 169-C:3 by inserting after paragraph X the following new paragraph:

X-a. "Denial of emotional responsiveness" means acts that ignore the child's attempts and needs to interact, such as failing to express affection, caring, and love for the child and showing little or no emotion in interactions with the child.

4 New Paragraphs; "Emotional Maltreatment" and "Exploiting or Corrupting" Defined. Amend RSA 169-C:3 by inserting after paragraph XII the following new paragraphs:

XII-a.(a) "Emotional maltreatment" means harm to a child's psychological or intellectual functioning which may be exhibited by manifestation of an attachment disorder, limitations in cognitive ability and problem solving, poor academic achievement, depression, poor peer relationships, behavior problems, anxiety disorder, or anti-social behavior. Harm to a child's psychological or intellectual functioning may be caused by a single traumatizing event, or events, or by recurrent behaviors engaged in by a caregiver. Such maltreatment is a repeated pattern or an extreme incident, or incidents, of caregiver behavior that coneys the message that a child is worthless, flawed, unloved, unwanted, endangered, or only valuable in meeting someone else's needs. These events or behaviors may include, but are not limited to, exposing a child to domestic violence, acts of spurning, terrorizing, isolating, exploiting or corrupting, or denial of emotional responsiveness.

(b) Causation shall be rebuttably presumed when:

(1) Such events or behaviors exist; and

(2) There is harm to a child's psychological or intellectual functioning.

(c) The presumption may be defeated by a showing that there is another source that is the primary cause of the harm to the child's psychological or intellectual functioning, such as:

(1) Psychological trauma unrelated to maltreatment; or

(2) Inherited or congenital vulnerabilities.

(d) While sexual abuse or physical abuse or physical injury by other than accidental means are not requisite to a finding of emotional maltreatment, where there is a finding of sexual or physical abuse there shall be a rebuttable presumption of emotional maltreatment.

XII-b. "Exploiting or corrupting" means acts that encourage the child to develop self-destructive, anti-social, criminal, deviant or other maladaptive behaviors.

5 New Paragraph; "Isolating" Defined. Amend RSA 169-C:3 by inserting after paragraph XVI the following new paragraph:

XVI-a. "Isolating" means acts that consistently deny the child opportunities to meet the child's needs for interacting or communicating with peers or adults inside or outside the home.

6 New Paragraphs; "Spurning" and "Terrorizing" Defined. Amend RSA 169-C:3 by inserting after paragraph XXVII-a the following new paragraph:

XXVII-b. "Spurning" means verbal and non-verbal acts that reject, degrade, or belittle a child.

XXVII-c. "Terrorizing" means behavior that threatens or is likely to hurt, kill, abandon, or place the child or child's loved ones or objects in recognizably dangerous situations.

7 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held in valid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

8 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

Reps. Mirski and Donald White spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Hallyburton and Carol Moore spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Francour requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the amendment.

HB 345-L, allowing municipalities to vote to request payments in lieu of taxes from charitable organizations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James R. MacKay for Municipal and County Government: The subcommittee on HB 345-L recommended that the bill be amended. The Committee agreed that attempts at voluntary payments in lieu of property taxes for charitable organizations had not been sufficiently pursued by cities and towns to merit mandatory payments at this time. In addition, the Committee was concerned about plans regarding the reorganizing of the Department of Health and Human Services which could result in significant financial losses for hospitals and nursing homes. Many of those facilities are non-profit charitable corporations. The bill, as amended, provides language to allow communities to accept voluntary payments in lieu of taxes. In addition, a committee is formed to facilitate communication between communities and non-profit corporations, to study the definition of charitable non-profit corporations and to make suggestions for legislative changes relating to payments in lieu of taxes. Vote 16-2.

Amendment (3944L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

HB 610-L, integrating changes in the municipal budget act into the laws relating to towns and school districts. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: This bill addresses the procedure of "special meetings" called due to the failure of a collective bargaining agreement being reached in time for posting the warrant for the annual town or school district in conjunction with HB 501. In this situation the governing board had to petition the court to rule this as an "emergency." Historically, the courts have ruled in the affirmative and a special meeting was scheduled. Recently there have been some inconsistent rulings - so that the lack of a collective bargaining agreement was not automatically considered an emergency and "judge shopping" occurred. This bill would allow the governing body to by-pass the courts with the possibility of having two special meetings prior to the "drop dead" date of December 15 as stated in HB 501. Vote 15-3.

Amendment (3937L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Definitions; Purpose. Amend RSA 32:3, V to read as follows:

V. "Purpose" means a goal or aim to be accomplished through the expenditure of public funds. In addition[:

(a)] As used in RSA 32:8 and RSA 32:10, [V,] I(e), concerning the limitation on expenditures, a line on the budget form posted with the warrant, or form submitted to the department of revenue administration, or an appropriation contained in a special warrant article, shall be considered a single "purpose."

[(b) As used in RSA 32:10, I-IV, concerning transfers of appropriations and records thereof, "purpose" refers, in addition, to individual line items in whatever detailed budget or chart of accounts is regularly used by the municipality. The general wording of a vote adopting a budget or portion thereof shall not be considered a "purpose" to which an amount may be transferred.]

2 New Section; Presentation of Negotiated Cost Items at the Annual Meeting. Amend RSA 32 by inserting after section 5 the following new section:

32:5-a Presentation of Negotiated Cost Items at the Annual Meeting. Cost items, as defined under RSA 273-A:1, IV, shall be presented to the annual town or district meeting in accordance with the procedures established under RSA 32:5. Cost items not negotiated in time to meet the public hearing requirement of RSA 32:5, I shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 32:5, I and II, and shall be included in the warrant for the annual meeting in accordance with the time prescribed by RSA 39:5 and RSA 197:7. Cost items not negotiated in time to meet the posting requirements of RSA 39:5 and RSA 197:7 shall be submitted to a special meeting of the legislative body in accordance with the provisions of RSA 273-A:3, II(b).

3 Budget Preparation. Amend RSA 32:5, I to read as follows:

I. The governing body, or the budget committee if there is one, shall hold at least one public hearing on each budget, not later than 25 days before each annual or special meeting, public notice of which shall be given at least 7 days in advance, and after the conclusion of public testimony shall finalize the budget to be submitted to the legislative body. Public hearings on bonds and notes in excess of $100,000 shall be held in accordance with RSA 33:8-a, I. Days shall be counted in accordance with RSA 21:35.

4 Definition; Purpose. Amend RSA 32:10 to read as follows:

32:10 Transfer of Appropriations.

I. If changes arise during the year following the annual meeting that make it necessary to expend more than the amount appropriated for a specific purpose, the governing body may transfer to that appropriation an unexpended balance remaining in some other appropriation, provided, however, that:

I. The total amount spent shall not exceed the total amount appropriated at the town or district meeting.

II. Records shall be kept by the governing body, such that the budget committee, if any, or any citizen requesting such records pursuant to RSA 91-A:4, may ascertain the purposes of appropriations to which, and from which, amounts have been transferred; provided, however, that neither the budget committee nor other citizens shall have any authority to dispute or challenge the discretion of the governing body in making such transfers.

III. A statement comparing all legislative body appropriations against all expenditures shall be deemed adequate for purposes of the records required by [paragraph II] subparagraph (b), so long as every expenditure has been properly authorized and properly classified and entered and any expenditures exceeding the original legislative appropriations are offset by unexpended balances remaining in other appropriations, in which case the governing body shall not be required to designate the specific source of each transfer.

IV. Any amount appropriated at the meeting under a special warrant article may be used only for the purpose specified in that article and shall not be transferred.

V. The town or district meeting may vote separately on individual purposes of appropriation contained within any warrant article or budget, but such a separate vote shall not affect the governing body's legal authority to transfer appropriations, provided, however, that if the meeting deletes a purpose, or reduces the amount appropriated for that purpose to zero, that purpose shall be deemed one for which no appropriation is made, and no amount shall be transferred to or expended for such purpose.

II. As used in RSA 32:10, I(a)-(d), concerning transfers of appropriations and records thereof, "purpose" refers, in addition to its meaning in RSA 32:3, V, to individual line items in whatever detailed budget or chart of accounts is regularly used by the municipality. The general wording of a vote adopting a budget or portion of a budget shall not be considered a "purpose" to which an amount may be transferred. The definition of "purpose" as used in RSA 32:10, I(e) shall be the definition of "purpose" under RSA 32:3, V.

5 Emergency Expenditures and Overexpenditures. Amend the section heading of RSA 32:11 to read as follows:

32:11 [Emergencies] Emergency Expenditures and Overexpenditures.

6 Collective Bargaining Agreements. Amend RSA 32:19 to read as follows:

32:19 Collective Bargaining Agreements.

I. Whenever items or portions of items in a proposed budget constitute appropriations, the purpose of which is to implement cost items of a collective bargaining agreement negotiated pursuant to RSA 273-A, either previously ratified or concurrently being submitted for ratification by the legislative body, or the purpose of which is to implement the recommendations of a neutral party in the case of a dispute, as provided in RSA 273-A:12, such items shall be submitted to the budget committee and considered in its budget preparation. Such appropriations shall be submitted to the legislative body and shall include a statement of the governing body's recommendation and a separate statement of the budget committee's recommendation.

II. Cost items not negotiated in time to meet the public hearing requirement of RSA 32:5, I shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 32:5, I and II, and shall be included in the warrant for the annual meeting in accordance with the time prescribed by RSA 39:5 and RSA 197:7. The budget committee may present its recommendation at the annual town or school district meeting.

III. [Such] Appropriations made pursuant to paragraph I or II shall be exempt from the 10 percent limitation set forth in RSA 32:18. The failure of the budget committee to recommend any portion of such appropriations shall not be deemed an unfair labor practice under RSA 273-A.

7 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 60

condemning the Nationalist Movement and its message of white supremacy, racism, homophobia, anti-Semitism, and hatred.

Whereas the constitution of the state of New Hampshire recognizes that all people are born equally free and independent and have certain natural essential and inherent rights, among which are the enjoyment of life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; and, in a word, seeking and obtaining happiness; and

Whereas, the constitution of the state of New Hampshire guarantees that the equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by this state on account of race, creed, color, sex, or national origin; and

Whereas, the people of the state of New Hampshire embrace tolerance and respect for all people and reject hatred and bigotry; and

Whereas, The Nationalist Movement, a Mississippi-based white supremacist organization has come to New Hampshire at the time of the First in the Nation Presidential Primary seeking a public platform to spread a racist, anti-semitic, homophobic doctrine and message; and

Whereas, The Nationalist Movement has obtained a permit to hold a rally in front of the New Hampshire state house on Monday, January 15, which is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day and Civil Rights Day, to promote its politics of hate and intolerance; and

Whereas, common decency and the lessons of history require that the message of bigotry not be met with silence by people of good will and their elected officials, lest the objects of hate feel further victimized and the purveyors of hatred presume silence to be unspoken support; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the house of representatives explicitly condemns the Nationalist Movement and its message of white supremacy, racism, homophobia, anti-Semitism, and hatred; and

That the house of representatives reaffirms the sacred principles of tolerance, equality, freedom, and justice for all in our beloved Granite State; and

That copies of this resolution, signed by the speaker of the house, shall be posted by the house clerk in the state house and distributed to the governor and the press.

REMARKS

Rep. Kurk moved that the remarks of Reps. Trombly and Scanlan be printed in the Journal. Adopted.

Rep. Trombly: Thank you Mr. Speaker, members of the House. Over the past couple of days, much to my horror, in reading the local newspapers and some out-of-state newspapers, I learned that a white racist supremacy group would be coming up from the sovereign state of Mississippi to exercise their freedom of speech on our State House steps. While I don't support their message, I certainly support their right to do that. I think it is very important that before they get here we lay out a welcome mat for them. This is, come, exercise your rights, go home. We don't like what you've got to say. We don't support what you've got to say. We don't believe in what you believe. But if you have got to do it here, do it and go home.

There are approximately 1.1 million people in the state of New Hampshire and only 400, the 400 of us in this room, have the ability to send a message to these white supremicists, only 400, and Mr. Speaker I consider that to be a privilege. I think we need to tell them before they get here that we choose to exercise our Constitutional right and to exercise our duties as representatives of the people of New Hampshire to say "while we may disagree on who we will recognize as to who led the fight for Civil Rights, that the state of New Hampshire does not waiver, does not suspend, does not cede to anyone or to any other state its recognition of Civil Rights for everybody." And that we believe that when the Constitution says that everyone is created equally, we will disagree on the who but we will not disagree on the why. What makes it even more imperative that we do this today in a loud, clear and unanimous voice, is that the eyes of the nation are upon us in New Hampshire. We must not be the exception when it comes to condemning their message. We must not be the exception. So let's do it. While CBS and NBC and the LA Times and the New York Times are here reporting on the New Hampshire primary, the message must be clear. Let it go forth from this room that we, the duly-elected representatives in the state of New Hampshire do not support racism, anti-Semitism, homophobia or anything else that says these people in the United State and the state of New Hampshire are not created equal and deserve equal justice. Mr. Speaker I'm certain I will be joined by everybody in the room, but so we can be proud, so our constituents will know that we spoke for them, I ask that you join me in asking for a roll call. Let them know where we stand. Let them talk out there but let us talk from in here. Thank you Mr. Speaker.

Rep. Scanlan: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Rep. Trombly, as all of us know, is sometimes a tough act to follow, especially on an issue like this. Our Constitution very clearly guarantees freedom of speech in this state and we respect that right. We are tolerant of those who want to come here and convey their message. But this state is also very tolerant of the people who live here and want to come here and visit. Everybody is treated equally. There is no question about that. I think it is very important that we support this resolution and send that strong message not only to the people that are coming here but to the rest of the people that live in this country. Thank you.

Scanlan offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time, that the reading of bills be by title only and resolutions by caption only and that all bills ordered to third reading be read a third time by this resolution, and that all titles of bills be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time, and when the House adjourns today it be to meet Thursday, January 18, 1996 at 10:00 a.m.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Cole, Welch, Channing Brown, Trombly and Splaine addressed the House.

Rep. Willis moved that the remarks of Rep. Splaine be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Splaine: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Members of the House, we hesitate at doing this at this hour but the comments I am about to make really need to be made today. They are on behalf of Rep. Flanagan and myself, under advice of others so that it can be clear what the legislative intent is, at least from 1975, concerning the first-in-the-nation Presidential primary. This needs to be part of the record in order to make sure that New Hampshire's status will be guaranteed and preserved this year. As many of you may know, yesterday, in a quick session, the legislature of Delaware, they passed and sent on to the Governor for his signature their House Bill 274 which sets up a Presidential primary in Delaware, which is quite unlike ours, the Saturday after the New Hampshire primary. Their's requires that all candidates be listed even if they did not file. Their deadline for filing had been December 27th. They essentially changed the rules of the game in midstream. Now the question is, is their's a similar primary that the Secretary of State in New Hampshire would have to naturally respond to? It is my feeling, and I sponsored the legislation back in 1975 which initially created the one-week window for the Presidential primary, that from that time on we have therefore preserved the primary. It is my feeling that the one-week intent that deals with a similar election, and Nat Flanagan and myself co-sponsored an amendment which was passed by this House last year, that clarified one week and says seven days. Now we have had the dilemma of making sure that no other state would pre-date New Hampshire since we started the primaries back in 1920. Nineteen hundred and twenty was our first-in-the-nation primary. It has been preserved all this time because no other state has been able to go first. Since we passed House Bill 73 in 1975, we have been able to preserve the primary because the first state that said that its primary would be one week ahead of any other would guarantee forever that it, at least by law, would have the first-in-the-nation Presidential preference primary. Party rules are party rules. But parties do not decide when a primary is going to be held. Parties can only decide whether the delegates elected or selected at the primary or a caucus will be seated in the conventions which they hold. Therefor, New Hampshire has been able to preserve the primary. The question is, and this is what I want to specifically address in the next two minutes, is whether or not the Delaware primary is a similar election. It is my feeling and judgment that there are four major reasons why the Delaware presidential primary is not similar to the New Hampshire first-in-the-nation Presidential preference primary.

1. The New Hampshire primary is inclusive and impartial. We have three parties on the ballot - Republican, Democratic and Libertarians. They only have two. Their door is closed. That makes their primary a counterfeit election.

2. The New Hampshire first-in-the-nation Presidential preference primary is honest and ethical. Candidates running for President in our primary are doing so of their own will, and are making the commitment to campaign here of their own will. Delaware has drafted their candidates, and that's no way to run an honest election. That, again, makes their primary a counterfeit election.

3. The New Hampshire first-in-the-nation Presidential preference primary is recognized and respected and has been since 1920. All the delegates who will represent the candidates chosen in our primary on February 20th will be officially seated in their respective party conventions. The Delaware Democratic primary has already been disapproved by the Democratic National Committee, their primary has been, and they are being penalized by the numbers of delegates who will be seated in August at the Democratic Convention. The Republican party will probably enact similar measures. That, again, makes the Delaware primary a counterfeit election.

4. Our primary is free and fair. The Delaware primary is not. Ours is free and fair in that candidates have the freedom to decide whether to participate in our primary. Our primary is fair because we are playing by the rules that have governed our primary for more than 20 years, dating back to 1975. Delaware changed their rules midway. They initially had a filing period that was open until December 27th, and when they did not have enough candidates running, enough of the major candidates running, they decided to change their law, which they did yesterday.

Therefore, their primary is counterfeit. It is not even democratic, free and fair. Considering the tradition of our New Hampshire first-in-the-nation Presidential primary since 1920 and the intent of the legislation that guarantees our first-in-the-nation status passed by House Bill 73 in 1975 and reaffirmed by legislation sponsored by Nat Flanagan and myself and passed by this House last year, I believe the interpretation of the words "similar election" made by the Secretary of State is correct, honest and accurate. The New Hampshire Presidential primary is traditional and genuine and the Delaware is simply counterfeit which means once more, I believe, that New Hampshire has again won in its race to be first-in-the-nation with its Presidential primary. Thank you.

Almighty God, we call upon Your presence to be here with us this day to bless these men and women in their service to our state of New Hampshire. In all their activities and work, grant them eyes to see clearly Your vision of justice for all people, ears to hear Your voice in the ocean of voices confronting them, and hearts that feel Your compassion for those whose faces they may never see. May Your mighty hand uphold them today and every day, giving them the strength and courage to continue to act with integrity and honesty. HR 50, relative to Paul J. Eastman. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sharleene P. Hurst for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The sponsor of the bill has decided to withdraw this legislation and requested the committee recommend it as inexpedient. Vote 14-0.

HB 1383-FN-L, allowing high school students to graduate early upon completion of all graduation prerequisites and making scholarship moneys available to early graduates from resulting local educational cost reductions. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. O. Allan Thulander for Education: The difficulty in defining a clear, concise method to determine the amount of savings, the mandating of scholarship aid, the possible loss of social growth, and the potential pressures on the student to achieve early graduation convinced the committee not to support this initiative at this time. Vote 17-0.

HB 1619-A, authorizing a capital appropriation for the cost of construction for the dredging of the Portsmouth Harbor and the Piscataqua River. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joseph E. Stone for Finance: The Treasury Department has determined that this bill will save $2 million over the next 28 years by prepaying the obligation to the Army Corps of Engineers through refinancing. Vote 21-0.

HB 1158-L, clarifying the financial duties of selectmen. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee received information that the practices contained in this bill are already being carried out and this bill could lead to confusion in the communities. Vote 13-0.

HB 1425-L, relative to rabies innoculation and licensing of dogs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: The sponsor of this legislation requested that it be voted inexpedient. After filing HB 1425, problems with the bill arose which were unsolvable. Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 1160, establishing a committee to study college tuition savings plans for New Hampshire colleges. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Barbara L. Spear for Education: The high cost of college education has encouraged many states to develop college savings plans for families. This bill establishes a study committee to investigate various plans for the benefit of New Hampshire youth. Vote 13-2.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1190-L, relative to municipal fines for false fire alarms on university system of New Hampshire campuses. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William S. Belvin for Education: This bill would enable municipalities to assess fines against the schools of the university system for false fire alarms. Negotiations are currently underway to resolve a dispute between the state college and the city of Keene. The college has taken action against those individuals who turn in false alarms. The majority of the committee feels "Town/Gown" relations are better resolved between the parties directly without legislative intervention. Vote 12-3.

Rep. Wollner spoke against.

Rep. Larson spoke in favor.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. Kingsbury moved that HB 1190-L, relative to municipal fines for false fire alarms on university system of New Hampshire campuses, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 159 members having voted in the affirmative and 135 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

REGULAR CALENDAR (Cont'd.)

HB 1450-FN, relative to postsecondary educational assistance for members of the New Hampshire national guard. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Richard L. Champagne for Education: This bill will provide members of the New Hampshire national guard the opportunity to take courses, tuition free, on a space available basis in state-supported post secondary institutions. This practice parallels law in most states in the country. Vote 12-2.

Amendment (4276L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Postsecondary Educational Assistance. Amend RSA 110-B by inserting after section 63 the following new subdivision:

Postsecondary Educational Assistance

110-B:63-a Title. This subdivision shall be known as the New Hampshire national guard education assistance act.

110-B:63-b Definitions. In this subdivision:

I. "Active member" means a member of a federally-recognized unit of the New Hampshire national guard who meets the minimum requirements for satisfactory membership as defined in Department of the Army and Department of the Air Force regulations.

II. "Degree-enhancing curriculum" means a series of courses programmed to culminate in a specific degree when successfully completed.

III. "Educational assistance" means the waiver of the tuition cost of a course at a state-supported postsecondary institution, provided that there is space available in that course.

IV. "New Hampshire national guard" means federally-recognized units of the New Hampshire national guard.

V. "Space available" means any allocated seating in a course not filled by paying students.

VI. "Tuition" means the total semester, quarter, or classroom hour cost of instruction and fees to the student as stated in the institution's catalog.

110-B:63-c Minimum Requirements. In order to be eligible to receive educational assistance under this act, a member of the New Hampshire national guard shall:

I. Be an active member of the New Hampshire national guard residing either in-state or out-of-state who has completed advanced individual training or commissioning.

II. Be enrolled in a degree-enhancing curriculum in any vocational or technical school that is under the authority of the commissioner of regional community-technical colleges, or enrolled in any degree-enhancing curriculum in any public college or university within the state.

III. Have first utilized any federal educational entitlements and national guard scholarship grants.

110-B:63-d Eligibility Determinations. Eligibility for educational assistance provided by this subdivision shall be determined and monitored by the adjutant general, who shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, and procedures deemed by the adjutant general to be necessary to carry out and monitor the educational assistance provided by this subdivision.

110-B:63-e Termination of Educational Assistance.

I. Educational assistance may be terminated for the following reasons:

(a) Failure to complete the New Hampshire national guard military obligation.

(b) Failure to maintain a 90 percent rate of attendance at annual training and drill assemblies as required by the New Hampshire national guard.

(c) Nine unsatisfactory drill period performances in a calendar year while enrolled in the educational assistance program.

II. In the event the individual's service in the New Hampshire National Guard is terminated or service becomes unsatisfactory while receiving educational assistance, the individual shall be required to pay for the remainder of the tuition for the course on a pro rata basis. Once terminated for the above causes, an individual shall be ineligible for any further educational assistance under this subdivision.

III. If for any reason an individual is dismissed from any school for academic or disciplinary reasons, the individual shall be ineligible for further educational assistance under this subdivision.

110-B:63-f In-State Tuition for New Hampshire National Guard Nonresidents. Any member of the New Hampshire national guard who is an otherwise eligible out-of-state resident who cannot qualify for educational assistance under this subdivision, due to unavailability of space for members attending tuition free, may take such course at the in-state tuition rate.

2 Applicability. Section 1 of this act shall take effect beginning in the spring 1997 semester, quarter, or term at all state-supported postsecondary institutions. The provisions of section 1 of this act shall be supplemental to any other laws providing educational assistance to active members of the New Hampshire national guard.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

Rep. Richard Champagne yielded to questions.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1242-FN-A, relative to the minimum income on which the interest and dividends tax is levied. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: This bill increases the interest and dividends tax exemption from $2400 to $3600 at an approximate savings of $60 to the taxpayer and a loss of state revenue of $1.9 million in FY'96 and $4.6 million in FY'97 and future years. The committee believes the small benefit to the taxpayer is outweighed by the loss of revenue to the state in view of our prospective shortfall. Vote 16-5.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Kurk spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Jacobson requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

and the report was adopted.

Rep. Mittelman wished to be recorded in favor.

HB 1195, requiring the commissioner of the department of environmental services to make a biennial report to the legislature on the status and balances of all funds in the department. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merle W. Schotanus for Finance: This bill is not required to obtain timely financial information from the Department of Environmental Services. However, the bill did serve to get the department's attention, and an informal system for providing timely information to the House Environment and Agriculture Committee has been established by DES. Vote 22-0.

Rep. Schotanus yielded to questions.

Adopted.

HB 1200-FN-A-L, increasing the business enterprise tax and returning 1/2 of the revenue to the cities and towns and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David J. Alukonis for Finance: The committee cannot endorse this legislation given that the bill proposes to quadruple the current rate of the Business Enterprise Tax. Additionally, although the increase in revenues would return additional funds to every city and town, the net effect of the proposal would be an increase in state expenditures of more than $10 million — an increase which the state of New Hampshire cannot afford at this time. Vote 21-0.

Rep. Robertson spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Alukonis spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Adopted.

HB 1578-FN, requiring the department of administrative services to perform annual audits of all funds paid to, from, or by the judicial branch. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Franklin G. Torr for Finance: The Office of the Legislative Budget Assistant performs audits of the judicial branch; therefore there is no need for this legislation. Vote 22-0.

Rep. Franklin Torr yielded to questions.

Adopted.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Jacobson, Rogers and Gage addressed the House.

Rep. Teschner moved that the remarks of Rep. Jacobson be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Jacobson: Thank you Mr. Speaker. I've always had a feeling that when a distinguished member of this House, who has served a long time, passes, that there ought to be something more said than simply the usual memorial statement. I want to say a few words about Roland Sallada.

Roland Sallada was a friend of mine, even though we voted opposite most of the time. One time he came over to me and he said, "You know, Alf, I had to vote with you twice today. It is making me very nervous." The very last day he was here he came over to me and said to me, "I understand you are going to speak to the Kiwanis Club in Manchester." I said, "Yes". [He said], "Do you know that last week I introduced a resolution to keep politicians from speaking at Kiwanis Club and it lost 72 to one." But, Roland was my kind of guy. He was a renaissance person. He had a tremendous interest not only in legislative matters but in the history of New Hampshire. I remember how hard he worked to get money to go to the Josiah Bartlett auction and buy for the state the highboy that is now over in the council chamber. I remember also, how hard he worked to get money to get the brass plates that were being offered in Southeby's in London, the New Hampshire brass plates of the 18th century, so that they could come and become part of our archival collection. That was real work and in the interest of the people of New Hampshire. He and I used to meet often at auctions. He was an expert in antiques, particularly in glass. He was consulted many times by people who were interested in glass. He was a devoted member of this House. He gave of his best. I think it is interesting that he died when he was pursuing his historical interest. I'd like to honor him today and honor the name of Roland Sallada, long-time legislator. Thank you.

HB 1116, increasing the liquidated damages charge for nonpayment of rent, utilities, or other service charges. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Beverly Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The sponsor requested the committee find HB 1116 Inexpedient to Legislate because of problems in drafting. Vote 14-0.

HB 1117, relative to rules regarding pets in manufactured housing parks. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The sponsor requested the committee find HB 1117 Inexpedient to Legislate because of problems in drafting. Vote 14-0.

HB 1439, relative to the off-site sale of motor vehicles. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. George Hurt for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The committee felt, in as much the sponsor had no interest in the bill and withdrew from testifying concerning the bill, the most expedient process was to move inexpedient to legislate. Vote 16-0.

HB 1503-FN-L, relative to pawnbrokers and secondhand dealers, and relative to license fees for secondhand dealers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Martha Fuller Clark for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The committee heard extensive testimony in opposition to this bill. Clearly, HB 1503 would result in an unreasonable restraint of trade by the ten day holding requirement for any article obtained by pawnbrokers and antique dealers. Additionally, it would impose unfair and burdensome record keeping requirements on such dealers. Further testimony validated the impracticality of licensing such dealers. Vote 16-0.

HB 1561-FN-L, relative to funding employer contributions by cities and towns for firefighters. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Gregory G. Carson for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: At the sponsor's request and after extensive study by the sponsor, he respectfully withdraws his support of this legislation. Vote 16-0.

Rep. Thomas Arnold for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The committee voted Inexpedient to Legislate in response to the prime sponsor's request to withdraw the bill in favor of HB 1147 which deals with similar subject matter. Vote 14-0.

HB 1297, relative to the form of the citizenship affidavit and changing party registration at a primary. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Carol H. Holden for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: HB 1297 as amended is a housekeeping bill to correct and add language to the citizen affidavit section of RSA 654:12. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4294L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to the form of the citizenship affidavit.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

(a) Citizenship. The supervisors of the checklist, or the town or city clerk, shall accept from the applicant any one of the following as proof of citizenship: the applicant's birth certificate, passport, naturalization papers if the applicant is a naturalized citizen, a citizenship affidavit, or any other reasonable documentation which indicates the applicant is a United States citizen. (Signature of applicant)

This bill amends the election laws relative to the form of citizenship affidavits.

HB 1148, requiring homeless shelters to keep registers and allow law enforcement officers to inspect the registers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Dolan for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee finds that most of the facilities are governed by federal confidentiality laws that limit exchange of the information sought. We also feel there is a chance the safety of domestic violence victims may be compromised. Vote 16-0.

HB 1370, relative to discharge of bail. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Andrew Christie, Jr. for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee heard testimony that not all courts handle bail forfeiture in the same manner. Our feeling was that a private person or a professional bondsman should be treated equally and if this is not the case, we recommend that it be corrected by court rule and not by statute. Vote 17-0.

HB 1391, allowing the court to order persons convicted of violations or crimes to reimburse the victims' assistance fund and the county for the costs of the office of victim/witness assistance and county victim advocates. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Dolan for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee is of the opinion the victim witness assistance program is a very important and necessary part of our criminal justice system. It should not be put into a position of assessing fees that most likely will not be forthcoming from the perpetrators of crimes. The professionalism and conduct of the witness advocates would be diminished by placing a value on their services that would accommodate the criminal elements' pocketbook. Additionally, the committee will consider a comprehensive restitution bill later in this session. Vote 17-0.

HB 1615-FN-L, establishing 5 regional school administrative units according to executive council districts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. O. Alan Thulander for Education: The Education Committee has submitted for consideration HB 1610 which deals with the structure of the present school administrative units and specifically addresses the perceived need for flexibility and greater control by the local electorate. This bill, HB 1615, reduces the existing sixty-nine S.A.U.'s to 5. Vote 14-0.

HB 530-FN, transferring the functions and duties of the director of state ski operations. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merle W. Schotanus for Finance: This bill returns the funding system for state-owned ski areas to the system utilized prior to 1990. The amendment corrects the title of the new ski areas account within the existing park fund and requires all ski revenue collected since July 1, 1995 to be deposited in the ski area account. Vote 24-0.

Amendment (4374L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 8 with the following:

8 Reference. Amend RSA 227:11 to read as follows:

227:11 Revenue. The department of resources and economic development shall collect such fares, tolls and charges for carriage and other services made available in connection with the tramways as the department deems reasonable. Such sums collected shall be deposited into the [general fund] state park fund, ski area account, established in RSA 216-A:3-i. The commissioner of the department of resources and economic development shall make quarterly reports on revenue collected under this section to the fiscal committee, the senate president, the speaker of the house, and governor and council.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 9 with the following:

10 Repeal. RSA 12-A:26, relative to the duties of the director of state ski operations is repealed.

11 Ski Operations; Revenue; Expenditures for 1996. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1996, any general fund unrestricted revenue generated from ski area operations in excess of actual expenditures for the division of ski operations shall be deposited into the state park fund, ski area account, established pursuant to RSA 216-A:3-i.

12 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

(1) Abolishes the position of the director of state ski operations.

(2) Transfers the duties of the director of state ski operations to the director of parks and recreation.

(3) Establishes a park account and a ski area account in the state park fund.

(4) Requires any general fund unrestricted revenue generated from ski area operations that are in excess of actual expenditures for the division of ski operations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1996 to be deposited into the ski area account.

HB 533-FN, relative to retirement benefits for the state treasurer. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: The committee felt that an exception should be made to allow the treasurer to enter the retirement plan which she is eligible for. However the buy back includes both the employee's contribution and interest thereon. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (4358L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Retirement Benefits; State Treasurer. Notwithstanding any provision of RSA 14:27-c to the contrary, the state treasurer who is in service on the effective date of this act may exercise the option to buy back service credit under RSA 14:27-c at the currently prevailing rate under RSA 14:27-c plus interest calculated at 4.5 percent of the total buyback amount, at any time prior to but no later than January 1, 1997.

HB 547-FN-L, establishing a deferred compensation plan for volunteer firefighters. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Margaret A. Lynch for Finance: This bill is enabling legislation that provides, on a voluntary basis, the opportunity for local legislative bodies to establish a length-of-service awards program for volunteer and call firefighters and emergency medical personnel in volunteer municipal groups. There is no fiscal impact on the state. Vote 25-0.

The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35. The notice shall be accompanied by a certificate of legal existence or good standing, authenticated within 60 days prior to the filing of the notice, issued by the proper officer of the jurisdiction in which the foreign registered limited liability partnership is registered as such. The notice becomes effective at the time of filing with the secretary of state or at any later date not later than the ninetieth day after the date the notice is filed.

VI. A foreign registered limited liability partnership may register under paragraph IV under its name, provided, however, that the name must contain the words "limited liability partnership," "registered limited liability partnership" or "professional limited liability partnership," or the abbreviation "L.L.P.," "LLP," "R.L.L.P.," "P.L.L.P.," "PLLP," "P.L.L." or "PLL," as the last words or letters of its name. VIII.(a) A notice of registration under RSA 304-A:48, V remains effective until:

(1) It is voluntarily withdrawn by filing with the secretary of state a written withdrawal notice; or

(2) Sixty days after receipt by the foreign registered limited liability partnership of a notice from the secretary of state that the partnership has failed to make timely payment of the annual fee specified in RSA 304-A:48, X, unless such fee is paid within such 60-day period.

(b) A withdrawal notice under subparagraph (a)(1) shall contain the name of the foreign registered limited liability partnership, the date on which it originally registered with the secretary of state as a foreign registered limited liability partnership, and the date upon which the withdrawal becomes effective. The notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal notice. If the partner executing the withdrawal notice is other than a natural person, the notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a general partner of a limited partnership, an officer of a corporation, a member or manager of a limited liability company, or a person authorized by law to execute on behalf of the partner. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of $35.

IX. A foreign registered limited liability partnership is not subject to chapter 305-A.

X. A foreign registered limited liability partnership registered under this section shall file, in each year following the year in which the notice of registration is filed under RSA 304-A:48, V, on a date specified by the secretary of state, an annual notice, on such forms as the secretary shall provide, stating any material changes in the information contained in the notice of registration or that there are no material changes. Such annual notice shall be executed by one or more partners authorized to execute the annual notice. If the partner executing the annual notice is other than a natural person, the annual notice shall be executed on the partner's behalf by a

The copy shall be stamped with the word "FILED" and the date and returned to the partnership, if the partnership so requests.

II. The secretary of state may:

(a) Certify copies of any paper on file as provided for by this chapter, for a fee of $1 per page and $5 for the certificate.

(b) Issue any certificate, including but not limited to a certificate of good standing, other than a certification of a copy under subparagraph II(a), for a fee of $5, except that for issuing any certificate of the secretary of state that recites all of the filings of a registered limited liability partnership or foreign limited liability partnership, the fee shall be $10.

(c) Receive, file or index any statement, notice, certificate, affidavit, agreement or other paper provided for by this chapter, for which no different fee is specifically prescribed, for a fee of $15.

III. The secretary of state shall establish, and may from time to time amend, a schedule of specific fees payable under this chapter.

304-A:50 Administration.

I. The secretary of state shall collect all fees required under this chapter and shall pay them to the state treasurer to be deposited in the general fund as unrestricted revenue, except as provided in paragraph II.

II. The state treasurer shall pay the expenses of administering this chapter out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated until the fees collected pursuant to this chapter have been received by the treasurer. Thereafter, the treasurer shall pay the expenses of administering this chapter out of the fees collected under this chapter and shall reimburse the treasury for previous expenses paid by the treasurer. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for the sums authorized by this section out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

304-A:51 Rulemaking. The secretary of state may adopt rules, under RSA 541-A, necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter.

304-A:52 Reserved Power of State of New Hampshire to Amend or Repeal Chapter. All provisions of this chapter may be amended from time to time or repealed, and all rights of members and managers are subject to this reservation.

(a) The laws and rules governing the rendering of professional services by partnerships; and

(b) Such other terms and conditions imposed by its governing licensing authority.

10 Registration Not Required. RSA 349:1 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

IV. The secretary of state shall decline to register any trade name the same as, or deceptively similar to an agency or instrumentality of the United States or this state or subdivision thereof or of any political party recognized under RSA 652:11, unless written consent is obtained from the authorized representative of such party.

"Security" does not include any insurance or endowment policy or annuity contract under which an insurance company promises to pay money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or for some other specified period.

(b) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), a membership interest in a limited liability company or a partnership interest in a registered limited liability partnership is not a security if:

(1) The secretary of state, by rule or order, determines that it is not a security;

(2) The limited liability company is a professional limited liability company or foreign professional limited liability company under Chapter 304-D;

(3) The registered limited liability partnership or foreign registered limited liability partnership:

(B) At least a majority of partners in each partnership also hold interests or are members in another person, and each partnership renders services pursuant to an agreement with such other person, or

(C) The partnerships are affiliates within the meaning of RSA 421-B:2, I.

(D) In connection with the issuance of a cease and desist order issued by the secretary of state, and any hearings conducted, under RSA 421-B:23, I(a), the secretary may presume that a membership interest in a limited liability company or a partnership interest in a registered limited liability partnership is a security, and the person relying on subparagraph (b) of this paragraph has the burden of proving that the interest is not a security under the provisions of subparagraph (b).

12 Registration Requirement. Amend RSA 421-B:11, II to read as follows:

The secretary of state may by rule or order increase the number of persons to whom sales may be made under this exemption.

14 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

SB 95-FN-A, relative to associate justices of the Manchester District Court and Nashua District Court. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Arthur P. Klemm, Jr. for Finance: Division I of the Finance Committee had a very lengthy discussion on this bill but in the end was unable to determine where the monies to fund these positions would come from. The committee decided that the court system could ask for these positions during the next budget process. Vote 22-1.

SB 133-FN-A, establishing a pollution prevention program in the department of environmental services and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Merle W. Schotanus for Finance: The funding mechanism for establishing the pollution prevention program proposed by this bill provides start-up funds drawn for FY 1997 from the existing Hazardous Waste Cleanup Fund. It is anticipated that funding for the program after July 1, 1997 will be included in the Department of Environmental Services biennial budget request for the FY 97-98 biennium. Vote 23-1.

HB 1377, relative to cosmetic tattooing. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Marion L. Copenhaver for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The committee felt that the present RSA and the rules developed under RSA 541-A adequately protect the consumer. Vote 13-0.

HB 1520-FN-A, increasing the personal needs allowance of nursing home residents and making an appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Joseph P. Manning for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: At the request of the sponsor, this bill has been voted Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 14-0.

HB 1165-FN, requiring district courts to hold evening sessions. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. David T. Mittelman for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill is an attempt to make the court system more "consumer friendly". The committee would like more time to fully explore this issue, particularly on a court-by-court basis. Vote 11-2.

HB 1227-FN, transferring the town of Litchfield from the Nashua District Court to the Merrimack District Court. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Margaret D. Hallyburton for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill will help relieve the workload of the Nashua District Court and provide better service to the residents of Litchfield, with cases heard in a more timely fashion. Vote 14-0.

HB 1243-FN, authorizing the judicial council to supervise the hiring of paralegals for the public defender program. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Barbara Hull Richardson for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill would have extended, with Governor and Council approval, the Judicial Council's role from oversight to one that supervises the hiring of paralegal staff to perform functions that are now handled by either investigators or lawyers. This bill would place the Judicial Council in a supervisory position over a non-governmental agency. The committee considered such action would increase costs while reducing accountability, flexibility and lines of authority for the Public Defender Program. Vote 13-2.

HB 1334-A, making a bonded appropriation to the department of justice to be used to fully reimburse Judge Fairbanks' victims or their heirs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Alf E. Jacobson for Judiciary and Family Law: The $7.2 million tab on this bill makes it impossible to consider. Other legislation dealing with the same subject is under consideration. Vote 12-0.

HB 1500-FN, relative to appointment and payment for guardians ad litem and instituting a process for handling complaints regarding the guardian ad litem system. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Kennedy for Judiciary and Family Law: While the bill would provide guardian ad litem services at state expenses as the sponsor envisions, the purpose of the bill is defeated as the Office of Cost Containment is required by law to recoup those expenditures from the recipient. Vote 14-0.

HB 1502-FN, relative to the child protection act and providing protection from informers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David C. Allison for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill denies the members of a community the opportunity and the obligation to participate in a basic civic obligation, i.e., to report an alleged case of child abuse; this denial is in violation of the U.S. Constitution in its requirement that a $100,000 surety bond must be purchased by the reporter of child abuse before the alleged abuse can even be reported. Moreover, if passed, this bill would cause New Hampshire to lose $8,000,000 in federal funding. Vote 14-0.

HB 1563-FN, requiring all orders and opinions of the courts of the state to be made available to the public through the office of legislative services. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Margaret D. Hallyburton for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee felt the bill could not be supported at this time due to the cost, more than $2 million in the first year of operation alone. Vote 12-1.

HB 1172, relative to bridge regulations. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Terence R. Pfaff for Public Works and Highways: This bill repeals certain antiquated statutes relative to bridges. It also allows towns to establish speed limits on town maintained bridges and had widespread support including the Department of Transportation and the New Hampshire Municipal Association. Vote 16-0.

HB 1197-L, reclassifying Depot Street in the town of Boscawen. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Gene G. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: This bill as amended is a request of the Department of Transportation and the towns of Boscawen and Hampstead. Passage of this measure ensures that certain Class II highways will be reconstructed or improved at state expense and then revert to Class V roads to then become town maintained. The benefit to the towns are better roads and increased income under the Highway Block Grant Program. In the meanwhile, the state relieves itself of the burden of maintaining short sections of local roads. The Committee on Public Works & Highways unanimously supports these types of state/community partnerships. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (4268L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

Rep. Terence R. Pfaff for Public Works and Highways: This bill allows the Hillsborough Historical Society to sell furnishings from the Franklin Pierce homestead only after consultation with the Division of Historical Resources and the Department of Cultural Affairs. The proceeds from auction sale of same furnishings would be used to purchase proper time period furnishings for the Pierce homestead. The amendment ensures that said ownership of said purchases would rest with the state of New Hampshire. Vote 15-1.

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Hillsborough Historical Society. Notwithstanding any authority of the department of administrative services to control or dispose of state property and any other relevant provision of law, the Hillsborough Historical Society, in consultation with the division of historical resources, department of cultural affairs, may sell furnishings at the Franklin Pierce homestead which are owned and have been placed there by the state. The proceeds of such sales shall be for the use of the Hillsborough Historical Society in conjunction with restoration activities at the homestead, however, title to any property purchased with or received as part of the proceeds of such sales shall be in the state of New Hampshire.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1505-A, making an appropriation to acquire privately-owned airports offered for sale. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Leon Calawa, Jr. for Public Works and Highways: The Public Works and Highways Committee heard the Division of Aeronautics request for a $3,000,000 landing authority to purchase any privately owned airports that become available for sale. The committee felt that the same authority used by the state to purchase railroad right-of-ways could be expanded to allow for the purchase of airports, without any additional expenditure or increase in the bonding authorization, and has amended the bill appropriately. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (4331L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

Rep. Gene Chandler moved that SB 11-L, relative to the application of local land use regulations to governmental units, be made a Special Order for Wednesday, January 31, 1996 and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

SB 157-FN-L, placing probation-parole officers in group II in the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: The majority of the committee felt that with the demographics of the groups involved the state should realize the savings in costs involved in this shift. Many felt, in addition, that this was the most appropriate in light of the job demands. Vote 22-3.

Rep. Robert Wheeler offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (4463L)

Amend the bill by replacing sections 10 and 11 with the following:

10 Certification. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 541-A, the police standards and training council may certify all probation-parole officers presently certified by the commissioner of corrections and employed by the department of corrections as of July 1, 1996, who meet the qualifications established by the council.

11 Application. Every state probation-parole officer who is employed as such on July 1, 1996, and who is qualified for membership in group II of the New Hampshire retirement system under the provisions of law as amended by this act, shall be transferred to group II as of the first day of the month following certification by the police standards and training council, and upon retirement shall be eligible for split benefits under RSA 100-A:19-a - RSA 100-A:19-h.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Reps. Mock, Perkins and Turner declared conflicts of interest and did not participate.

HB 1366, requiring the commissioner of the department of corrections to prepare a monthly report on prison overcrowding. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Herbert R. Hansen for Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill was brought forward originally as a means of keeping the responsible people in the Lakes Region area apprised of any activity regarding the Laconia prison inmate population. The committee felt that this idea should be expanded to include the entire state corrections system until such time as the prison population situation has been addressed satisfactorily. The committee also felt that such reports should be statutorily required in order to insure that all those concerned with the problem were constantly up-to-date. This bill will "sunset" June 30, 1999. Vote 13-2.

Amendment (4370L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT
requiring the commissioner of the department of corrections to prepare a quarterly report on department of corrections population management.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Duty to Prepare Report on Department of Corrections Population Management Added. Amend RSA 21-H:8 by inserting after paragraph XII the following new paragraph:

XIII. The commissioner shall report quarterly to the governor and council, speaker of the house, president of the senate, and governing bodies of municipalities where state corrections facilities are located relative to department of corrections population management. The report shall contain information on any substantial modification of existing facilities, the progress on construction of new facilities, and whether such construction or modification is being undertaken by public or private entities.

2 First Quarterly Report. The commissioner shall submit the first quarterly report required by section 1 of this act by October 1, 1996.

3 Repeal. RSA 21-H:8, XIII, relative to quarterly reports on department of corrections population management, is repealed.

4 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1-2 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. Section 3 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1999.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the commissioner of the department of corrections to prepare a quarterly report on department of corrections population management.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1406-FN-A, making an appropriation of funds to the department of corrections for the pathways program for fiscal year 1997. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Donnalee M. Lozeau for Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill appropriates $1.08 M to continue funding for an innovative and nationally recognized corrections program when our federal grant runs out in FY 1997. The pathways program is a collaborative effort between the department of corrections, postsecondary education and the office of alcohol and drug abuse prevention to provide education, treatment and career guidance to inmates. The primary goal of the program is to provide job skills and drug treatment that will promote the success of the offender when he returns to the community, thereby reducing recidivism. An added benefit is that judges frequently reduce the sentence of those who complete the program, resulting in lower costs. The actual savings from April to December 1995 was over $800,000. We believe that this bill makes good fiscal sense as well as good corrections policy. Vote 13-3.

Rep. Lozeau yielded to questions.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1384-FN-L, establishing a division of school purchasing and procurement in the department of education. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Susan B. Durham for Education: The committee felt that the concept in this bill is not workable in its present form. The Department of Education and State Purchasing Department have offered to work with the committee on a study to see what savings could be achieved through central purchasing. Vote 11-3.

Adopted.

HB 1586-FN, relative to minimum bonding requirements for postsecondary institutions, and the state share of default costs on certain federal student loans, and nursing service required for cancellation of nursing scholarship loan obligations. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. William S. Belvin for Education: This bill addresses three administrative issues as requested by the Postsecondary Education Commission: increasing minimum bonding levels from $5,000 to $10,000 for postsecondary schools, authorizing part-time nursing employment to allow nursing education loan paybacks, and a charge-back plan from the state to postsecondary institutions where high student loan default rates exist. The committee is concerned that defaulting students pay back their own loans without exposing the state to excess federal liabilities for bad debts. This legislation minimizes state liability in these circumstances. Vote 9-5.

Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 357, relative to mental health practice. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Lawrence A. Emerton, Sr. for Executive Departments and Administration: This major bill seeks to re-organize, up-date and make major changes in the Mental Health Practice Act. This re-referred bill first went to the Health and Human Services committee where six well attended public hearings were held during the summer and fall. That committee made changes within their purview. After passage this month in the house, it was referred to ED&A. Our committee received several amendments prior to hearing the bill and due to the number of people, businesses and agencies affected by the bill, many more licensure type changes are needed. Therefore, because of its licensure, certification and registration complexities; the lack of time to print and notice of public hearings on the proposed amendments; the constraints imposed by house and senate rules, and respecting the numerous hour of work on this bill, our committee feels this bill is well worth the additional study required and recommends interim study. Vote 16-1.

Adopted.

HB 378-FN-L, relative to school employee background investigations. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Patricia A. Dowling for Finance: This bill, as printed, mandates the school district to complete background investigations on every selected applicant for employment in any position in the school administrative unit or school district with the cost being borne by the school district or unit. HB 1136, which is very similar to this bill, is currently going through the proper committees so the issue will be revisited during this session. Vote 24-1.

Rep. Channing Brown spoke against.

The report failed.

Rep. Larson moved Ought to Pass.

Rep. Channing Brown offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (4466L)

Amend RSA 189:13-a, IV-VI as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing them with the following:

IV. The school administrative unit or school district may require the selected applicant for employment to pay the actual costs of the background investigation, including a criminal history records check.

V. Any person who has been convicted of murder, child pornography, aggravated felonious sexual assault, felonious sexual assault, or kidnapping in this state, or under any statute prohibiting the same conduct in another state, territory or possession of the United States, shall not be hired by a school administrative unit or school district.

VI. This section applies to any employee or selected applicant for employment with private businesses and agencies which contract with school administrative units or school districts to provide services, including but not limited to cafeteria workers, school bus drivers, custodial personnel or, any other service where the contractor or employees of the contractor provide services directly to students of the district. The cost for background investigations, including criminal history records checks, for employees or selected applicants for employment with such contractors shall be borne by the contractor.

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Application.

I. A school employee background investigation, including a criminal history records check, shall be performed under RSA 189:13-a for an employee working under a contract existing on the effective date of this act, only if the employee was hired after the effective date of this act.

II. A school employee background investigation, including a criminal history records check, shall be performed under RSA 189:13-a for each employee working under a contract entered into after the effective date of this act.

Rep. Larson spoke in favor.

Adopted.

Rep. Larson spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Substitute report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1574-FN, relative to open access to judicial records. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sandra Balomenos Keans for Judiciary and Family Law: Currently, the access to court records is hindered in some counties by a time delay, but they are available. Because of the contract that the courts have with court recorders, they are paid by the page and are the only people authorized to release copies of court records when payment has taken place. If one wants to look at the records before requesting an official copy, it is possible. Vote 10-2.

Rep. Cobbin spoke against.

Rep. Keans spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Hart spoke in favor.

Rep. Cobbin requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

INTRODUCTION OF SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

First and second reading

RESOLUTION

SCR 22, memorializing S. Christa McAuliffe.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 22

memorializing S. Christa McAuliffe.

Whereas, Christa McAuliffe, neighbor, daughter, wife, mother, citizen and friend, was chosen from more than 11,000 American teachers to be the first teacher in space; and

Whereas, Christa McAuliffe accepted this challenge with enthusiasm, dedication, and pride and brought to it both her sense of wonder and of joy; and

Whereas, Christa McAuliffe intended always that the lessons of this journey be shared with us and many others; and

Whereas, on January 28, 1986, "Challenger" was lost with all those aboard: Francis Scobee, Michael Smith, Judith Resnick, Ellison Onizuka, Gregory Jarvis, Ronald McNair, and Christa McAuliffe, the first teacher in space and a citizen of the State of New Hampshire; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

That in New Hampshire's proud space tradition that began with Alan Shepard and has continued, we honor the crew of "Challenger" and take pride in the memory of Christa McAuliffe for whom space was not a profession, but a dream; and

That despite the grief we share with Americans and, indeed, with people everywhere, we remember the family of Christa McAuliffe who supported her, believed in her, and shared her willingly with us all; and

That the New Hampshire Senate and House of Representatives pays special tribute to the memory of Christa McAuliffe who was many things, but was, above all, a teacher; and

That we, still students all, pledge to learn what Christa McAuliffe taught so that we, in turn, can teach her lesson of grace, intelligence, and courage to the children of New Hampshire and everywhere.

Adopted by a rising vote of silent prayer.

Rep. Ann Torr offered the following: RESOLVED, that the House now adjourn from the early session, that the business of the late session be in order at the present time, that the reading of bills be by title only and resolutions by caption only and that all bills ordered to third reading be read a third time by this resolution, and that all titles of bills be the same as adopted, and that they be passed at the present time, and when the House adjourns today it be to meet Wednesday, January 31, 1996 at 10:00 a.m..

Adopted.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT

Reps. Lovett, Weyler, Hurst and Trombly addressed the House.

Rep. Guest moved that the remarks made by Rep. Lovett be printed in the Journal.

Adopted.

Rep. Lovett: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Mr. Speaker, this is somewhat of a housekeeping detail that I would like to bring before the House. As you know, I sit in seat 95 which means I am in the back bench of this House. There are those wags who say it takes a long time for the real news to get to the back bench. But, I discovered this week that a letter had been sent from the Chairman of the State Board of Education to the Chairman of our House of Representatives Committee on Education that I wanted to call to your attention because I find it unseemly and disrespectful of the entire House. In a letter dated January 5, the Chairman of the State Board writes the Chairman of our House Education Committee about the issue, namely who is most responsible for New Hampshire's public school assessment policy. "Isn't it the Board of Education?" says the Chair, or should the legislature have any credit at all for both codifying and funding such a program. Now, we can take issue with various parts of how that assessment is made, but what I find very difficult is that the tenor of this letter is disrespectful to the Chairman of our House Committee. I shall read you certain terms: "Only a petty politician would launch the criticisms you have, but only a demagogue would do so in blatant disregard of the facts. Your criticism appears to be motivated by adolescent jealousy prompted by the Governor's crediting the State Board of Education with the Assessment initiative, ... Why you would choose to be divisive and to distort history over the issues....", and it continues then to lay out the point of view that he wishes to present. I might add to all of you, [the letter also states] "All the legislature did enacting RSA 193-C was to codify the State Board's Assessment Program. While I am grateful that the Legislature saw fit to codify the State Board's initiative and fund it...". A bill which the Governor failed to sign but has proceeded into law. I find those terms to be unacceptable as a back bencher, to treat our distinguished Chair of the Education Committee in that fashion and to, of course, release this to the wider public. This letter was sent to the Hon. Stephen Merrill, Elizabeth Twomey, House Speaker Harold Burns, Hon. George Lovejoy, members of the House Education Committee, members of the Senate Education Committee, members of the State Board of Education, Donn Tibbetts and Kent Fischer. So this was not a private colloquy, this is not a let's-sit-down-together-and-talk-as-educated-people. This is an "in your face". Mr. Speaker, as a new member of the back bench of this House I find this unacceptable and I hope that everybody who got a copy of this letter, Rep. Larson, has already spoken to you about their discomfort. But I would like to say that at least one back bencher wants to say it right now. I am discomforted and I respect your leadership enormously. Thank you.

RECESS MOTION

The House recessed at 12:15 p.m.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 6

Wednesday, January 31, 1996

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned and was called to order by the Speaker.

His Excellency, Governor Stephen Merrill, and Executive Councilors, Burton, Griffin, Spaulding and Streeter, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Reverend Stephen E. Bascom, Sr. of the Contoocook United Methodist Church.

Creator God, remember when we once met in the woods? At first, I entered without thought of purpose or destination. The sticks and pine needles cracked beneath my feet and the fresh scent of rain-washed moss filled the air. I came to a grove of birches and watched the lingering rays of sunset peek through their leafy canopy. A cool breeze lifted a leaf from its anchored branch and carried it down to me. Dark was coming, and I knew I should be getting home.

I heard the sound of a whippoorwill and peepers off in the distance. And further still, the tumbling rush of flowing water in a forest stream. I saw a burdened chipmunk darting here and there, gathering provisions for an unseen winter. I smiled at what I saw and felt a part of it.

Too often, my work is filled with the chipmunk busyness and the burden of personal trial. I know the night is coming and I become anxious. But then I hear the song of a whippoorwill, and in the sanctuary of my heart, I am with You again.

Eternal God, creator of the human spirit, mentor of all truth and guardian of civil compassion, we join together in requesting Your presence at this assembly of servant leadership. Link arms with us, for the responsibility of governing is a trust that requires greater wisdom than our experience affords.

Thank You for preserving grace and integrity in our lives. Thank You for the privilege of contributing to the lives of New Hampshire citizens and neighbors. Celebrate with us the joy of visible growth and challenge us to reach for the stars as we develop the gifts You have given.

Season our minds with understanding and establish justice in our midst. May our words and proposals honor You in presentation and in deliberation. Help us to set aside self-interest in order to champion the public good. Remind us of our need to respect and appreciate those whose views differ from our own.

Send Your blessing into the lives and families of all who are public servants. Protect and preserve us. Grant us clarity of vision so that our leadership may flow from the integrity of our hearts. Help us to remember that our world is a hurting world that desperately needs the gifts You have invested in each of us. May Your name be praised in every generation. Amen.

Rep. Ziegra led the Pledge of Allegiance.

EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

The Speaker announced that the employee of the month for January was Amy Ireland, administrative assistant to the majority leader.

Amy transferred from the Governor's office to the Legislative Branch in August 1988. She was legislative assistant to the House Majority Office until November of 1990 when she was promoted to her current position.

Majority Leader Ann Torr says Amy is a very dedicated and loyal employee.

Amy was chosen employee of the month especially for her calm and clear direction on January 15th when the State House Plaza was the scene of an unruly demonstration. She was acting chief of staff at the time and handled the volatile situation very admirably.

Morry Taylor, Jr., Republican candidate for President, addressed the House.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Rep. Ann Torr moved that the Consent Calendar with the relevant amendments as printed in the day's House Record be adopted.

HB 391, increasing the penalty for a person convicted of being an armed career criminal, was removed at the request of Rep. Pepino.

HB 1260, requiring local elected and appointed officials to file a financial disclosure report with the secretary of state, was removed at the request of Rep. Buckley.

HB 1131-FN-A, relative to the Women's War Memorial in Arlington, Virginia, and making an appropriation therefor, was removed at the request of Rep. Loren Jean.

HB 1273, relative to redemption of levies on real estate. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The committee feels the solution to this constituents' problem, properly belongs in the courts. The committee was not willing to address this matter because of this. Vote 14-0.

HB 1292, requiring a waiting period before the retail price of gas and oil is increased in certain circumstances. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard H. Krueger for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill would cause small oil dealers and independent service station owners impossible administrative burdens and likely cause many to go out of business. Also, it clearly imposes restraint of trade conditions. Vote 14-0.

HB 1414, relative to unit pricing at grocery stores. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Keith R. Herman for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: Despite some concern over the size of print, testimony overwhelmingly showed that unit prices are often printed larger than the actual retail price. In addition, the committee was concerned about potential confusion and costs associated with mandating a change in print size. Vote 14-0.

HB 1115, requiring the numerical grading of land surveyor examinations by the board of licensure for land surveyors. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The prime sponsor appeared before the committee and asked that the bill be found inexpedient to legislate. The Board of Licensure for land surveyors had changed their procedures and were meeting the objectives of this bill. A member of the board acknowledged that the changes called for have been made and agreed that the bill was not necessary. Vote 16-0.

HB 1127-FN, requiring the New Hampshire retirement system actuary to study the rate structure as it applies to firefighter members of the retirement system. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The sponsor appeared before the committee and requested that the bill be inexpedient to legislate. The subject matter was being addressed at another time, therefore, the bill is unnecessary. Vote 16-0.

HB 1140-FN, repealing the health insurance coverage survey. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Franklin G. Torr for Finance: The health insurance group coverage survey conducted by Administrative Services is no longer necessary. The information formerly gathered by the survey is now obtained by enrollment in the health insurance program within each agency. Vote 22-0.

HB 1150, authorizing the department of health and human services to seek funds and requiring prompt payment to child day care providers for services paid for by the state. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Joseph E. Stone for Finance: HB 1150 and HB 1257 are very similar. The committee feels both bills should be studied at the same time. Vote 23-0.

HB 1257, requiring the state of New Hampshire to make timely payments on its contracts. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Joseph E. Stone for Finance: There are many areas of this bill that require additional information and clarification. The committee feels this can be best accomplished by studying this bill along with HB 1150. Vote 23-0.

HB 1330-FN-A, lowering the rate of the business enterprise tax. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

*Rep. Fredrik Peyron for Finance: The original business enterprise tax rate was set so as to give some meaningful revenue, but yet not be a heavy burden. Many small businesses were exempt by the $100,000 limit. This bill, proposing a reduction from .25% to .20% would make a token savings for a typical small business. Further, lowering the tax would negatively impact the state when the revenue is badly needed. Vote 23-0.

HB 1443-FN-A, relative to the applicability of the meals and rooms tax. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Charles L. Vaughn for Finance: This bill clarifies that gratuities included in a restaurant bill subject to the meals and rooms tax shall not be taxed. The bill puts into statute what is currently in rules. The amendment is clarifying language to the original bill from the department of revenue administration. Vote 23-0.

Amendment (4447L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Paragraph; Definition; Gratuity. Amend RSA 78-A:3 by inserting after paragraph XI the following new paragraph:

XII. "Gratuity" means a voluntarily given gift of money in return for a service.

2 Gratuities; Exception to Tax. Amend RSA 78-A:6-a to read as follows:

78-A:6-a Exception to Tax.

I. Advance deposits which are forfeited by a prospective occupant shall not be taxed under this chapter. However, if such advance deposit is a payment in full for a room rent, including tax, and is retained by the operator, the operator shall remit that portion of the payment which represents the meals and rooms tax to the state.

II. Gratuity charges added to the charge for a taxable meal or taxable room shall not be taxed under this chapter if:

(a) The gratuity is not used by the operator as a supplement to or in lieu of wages;

(b) The gratuity is paid to the service personnel providing the service for which the gratuity is charged;

(c) The purchaser or occupant's contract or receipt separately states the amount of the gratuity charged; and

(d) The gratuity is voluntary, usual, and customary, and is added to the charge for a taxable meal or taxable room solely for the convenience of the purchaser or occupant. Gratuity charges shall be considered voluntary if the purchaser or occupant has the option to purchase the taxable meal room without the gratuity charge.

III. Gratuity charges arranged by written contract between operators and motorcoach service providers or other businesses making group purchases on behalf of purchasers or occupants shall not be taxed under this chapter if:

(a) The requirements of RSA 78-A:6-a, II(a), (b), and (c) are met;

(b) The amount of the gratuity was negotiable; and

(c) The gratuity charge was added solely for the convenience of the purchaser or occupant.

IV. The amount of any gratuity charge excepted from tax by RSA 78-A:6-a, II or III shall be limited to that amount actually received by the service personnel providing the service for which such gratuity is charged.

V. Any auxiliary charges, not including gratuity charges, such as, but not limited to, service charges, house charges, management fees, or housekeeping charges, added to the charge for a taxable meal or taxable room, shall not be taxed under this chapter if:

(a) The taxable meal or taxable room rental may be purchased without such auxiliary charges at the option of the purchaser or occupant; and

(b) The amount of the auxiliary charge is separately stated on the contract or receipt.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill distinguishes which types of gratuity charges and fees are nontaxable under the meals and rooms tax.

HB 1258, relative to the practice of pharmacy. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Alice S. Ziegra for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The amended version provides for a study to assess the need for this legislation. Currently some other states allow pharmacists to prescribe on a limited basis under careful scrutiny. Because of conflicting information from those in support and those who oppose, it was decided wise to study the issue further. Vote 16-1.

Rep. Rep. Sandra Balomenos Keans for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill asks for owners of roller-skating rinks to be exempt from liability in cases of injury by skaters. allowing an option for reconsideration of votes at village district meetings and relative to the powers of the town of Conway concerning governance of its fire precincts.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 5 with the following:

6 Purpose. The purpose of section 7 of this act is to correct certain property tax inequities within the town of Conway. The North Conway water precinct, Conway village fire district, Center Conway fire precinct, East Conway fire precinct, and Redstone fire district, all of which have been providing fire protection services for property within their respective precincts and districts, are all located in the town of Conway. The town of Conway, however, supports fire protection services to approximately 50 percent of the geographical area of the town from taxes assessed on all property within the town including the property within the 5 precincts and districts within the town. Taxpayers within the 5 precincts and districts provide the entire support of the fire protection within their own precincts and districts and further provide substantial support for the fire protection services for the 1/2 of the geographical area located outside these precincts and districts; yet the precincts and districts receive no town fire protection services.

7 North Conway Water Precinct, Conway Village Fire District, Center Conway Fire Precinct, East Conway Fire Precinct, Redstone Fire District. The selectmen of the town of Conway may exempt property within the North Conway water precinct, Conway Village fire district, Center Conway fire precinct, East Conway fire precinct and Redstone fire district from that portion of town tax attributable to the fire protection services provided by the town.

8 Effective Date.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

This bill also allows the town of Conway to exempt property within 5 fire districts or precincts within the town from that portion of the town tax attributable to fire protection services provided by the town.

HB 1120, allowing towns to adopt a warrant article to accept personal property donated to libraries. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Norma A. Sabella for Municipal and County Government: This bill allows towns to adopt a warrant article to accept personal property donated to libraries. The amendment to the bill establishes a sensible threshold of value to be attained before the necessity of a public hearing. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4460L)

Amend RSA 202-A:4-d, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The warrant article may require that, prior to the acceptance of any such gift, valued at over $500, the public library trustees shall hold a public hearing on the proposed acceptance.

HB 1124, relative to the Merrimack county treasurer. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James R. MacKay for Municipal and County Government: This bill brings the Merrimack County Treasurer under the same law as every other County. The amendment simply changes the effective date to be January 1, 1997. The committee vote was 14-0. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4443L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 1997.

HB 1139-L, relative to the powers of the town of Sunapee concerning governance of the Sunapee water and sewer system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Kathryn H. Metzger for Municipal and County Government: The committee carefully considered the testimony from the citizens of Sunapee and others and felt the question of supervision of the water and sewer department could best be solved by allowing the town to vote at annual meeting. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4390L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 New Section; Powers of the Town. Amend 1901, 197 as amended by 1973, 465 by inserting after section 4-a the following new section:

197:4-b Restructuring Governance of the Water and Sewer System. The town of Sunapee is authorized, by vote at an annual meeting, to revise provisions for the governance of the town water and sewer system as the town may see fit. Any article proposing such revision may be submitted by the selectmen or in accordance with RSA 39:2. The selectmen shall hold a public hearing on such proposal more than 10 days prior to the meeting at which it is to be presented. The vote shall be decided by a simple majority of those present and voting. Upon adoption, such provisions shall not be subject to further revision until at least the second annual meeting following their adoption.

HB 1157-L, allowing a municipality to place a lien on property for the amount of property tax dollars lost due to elderly exemptions. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: This bill would have changed an existing elderly exemption into a tax deferral. A municipality already has the option of voting for a "deferral" in RSA 72:38-a. Vote 17-0.

HB 1217-FN-L, relative to preparation of municipal budgets. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Elizabeth A. Cepaitis for Municipal and County Government: The committee finds that much of this bill is unnecessary and not tightly drawn. It also can be construed as a mandate as it places certain financial requirements on the municipality. Communities vary greatly in their ability to produce this budget 10 days in advance of the public hearing. Vote 16-0.

HB 1231-L, relative to tax liens imposed by municipalities for delinquent property taxes. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: All testimony indicated that adequate notification procedures are already in place and that enacting this legislation would not only encourage delinquency but also be unfair to those taxpayers who pay their taxes on time. Vote 17-0.

HB 1263-L, relative to elderly exemptions to the property tax. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: The committee worked to recodify the elderly exemptions in HB 331 which was re-referred and will deal with this issue. The way the bill was drafted would have mandated the exemptions be expanded to 60 year olds. Vote 16-0.

HB 1272-L, changing the basis on which single family homeowners pay property taxes from property value to income. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Thomas E.P. Rice, Jr. for Municipal and County Government: This bill would in effect create a graduated Income Tax and is therefore unconstitutional in New Hampshire. To do this would cause a major upheaval in every community in the state. (Reference Part 2, Article 5, New Hampshire Constitution) Vote 17-0.

HB 1376-L, relative to the time period for municipalities to decide on property tax abatements. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: This bill addresses time delays in the tax abatement process which were addressed by SB 116. Since SB 116 took effect at the beginning of this year, the committee prefers to allow it to work before once again addressing the problem. Vote 16-0.

HB 1432, allowing cities to vote on bond issues by referendum. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee believes this bill duplicates procedures already in the city charter process, therefore this bill is not necessary. Vote 16-1.

HB 1470, prohibiting town and school district employees from holding the office of town or school district moderator. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: The committee recognizes that some towns and cities may have a hard time finding volunteers to serve. They did not want to exclude town or school employees from holding the office of moderator. Vote 15-0.

HB 1198-FN-A, requiring the state to maintain the veterans' portion of the Park Cemetery in Tilton and making a continuing appropriation therefor. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Bruce F. Hunter for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: The state does not maintain any cemeteries now and the committee does not want to set a precedent. There are over 243 cemeteries throughout the state that have already set aside a special area for veterans. The fiscal impact would be overwhelming. Vote 13-0.

HB 1125, relative to roads to private recreational areas. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Terence R. Pfaff for Public Works and Highways: This bill repeals a never used Revised Statute Annotated as was recommended by the Legislative Budget Assistant's audit of the Department of Transportation, and was requested by the Department of Transportation. Vote 19-0.

HB 1224-FN, authorizing the state to acquire certain property adjacent to Black Mountain State Forest. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. John P. Gleason for Public Works and Highways: The committee recognized the historic value and significance to the state by acquiring the land containing the old lime kilns adjacent to the Black Mountain State Forest in East Haverhill. At no appreciable cost the state can reasonably maintain and perpetuate this important piece of industrial heritage. Vote 16-1.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1465-FN, relative to the animal protection act. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Paul J. Dwyer, Sr. for Public Works and Highways: The bill required that roadsides of Class I and Class II highways in the state be cleared at least forty feet or to the abutting property to enable motorists to avoid colliding with animals, with an estimated cost of $5,140,000 increase to the Department of Transportation budget for Fiscal Year 1997, and each year thereafter. The committee felt that based on the Department of Transportation's testimony, it would be cost prohibitive and would not really solve the problem. Vote 19-0.

HB 1506-FN-A, relative to a shower facility at Lake Francis state park and making an appropriation therefor. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Thomas J. Kirby for Resources, Recreation and Development: The committee testimony showed that the proposed project costs were uncertain and the project needed to be clarified. The committee proposes to define the project parameters in interim study and, if justified, move it forward in the budget year. Vote 20-0.

HB 1156, relative to aircraft landings. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: This bill adds aircraft landings on private land by the landowner as a valid and permitted accessory use which cannot be unreasonably restricted by a land use control regulation. Vote 16-0.

HB 1229-FN-A, allowing owners of privately owned airports to receive partial state reimbursement grants for local property taxes paid on certain areas of such airports and continually appropriating a portion of airways tolls for such grants. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: This bill establishes a property tax reimbursement account and would allow the owner of a privately owned airport which is part of the statewide airport system to apply to the Director of the Division of Aeronautics for a reimbursement in the amount of the portion of property taxes paid only on the movement areas and apron of the airport used by General Aviation. Because a reimbursement claim must be made within six months of the due date for the taxes, this will encourage on-time payment of the local property tax. Also, as this money is coming from the fuel tax paid per gallon, general aviation in New Hampshire will directly benefit from the taxes it pays. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (4433L)

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 72:38, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. The owner of a privately owned airport, which is part of the statewide airport system and use of which is approved by the department of transportation, division of aeronautics, may after paying all local property taxes owed, apply to the director of the division of aeronautics for a state reimbursement grant in the amount of the portion of property taxes paid on the movement area and apron of the airport. Reimbursement grants shall be paid from funds in the property tax reimbursement account established under RSA 422:39-b, to the extent that funds are available. Any claim for a reimbursement grant shall be made within 6 months of the date on which the taxes were due. The director of the division of aeronautics shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to forms and procedures for claiming reimbursement grants under this paragraph, and relative to calculating the amount of reimbursement grants to be paid under this paragraph. In this paragraph:

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 New Section; Special Account; Property Tax Reimbursements. Amend RSA 422 by inserting after section 39-a the following new section:

422:39-b Property Tax Reimbursement Account. There is established a property tax reimbursement account. The state treasurer shall deposit 1/2 of the airways tolls collected by the director of motor vehicles under RSA 422:39 and RSA 422:39-a into this account. The director of the division of aeronautics shall draw on such funds to pay property tax reimbursements to owners of privately owned airports under RSA 72:38, II.

3 Reference Change; Disposition of Revenue. Amend RSA 422:41 to read as follows:

422:41 Disposition of Revenue. Except as provided under RSA 422:39-b, all fees, fines or other income received under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid by the department to the state treasurer and be credited to the aeronautical fund.

4 Reference Change; Disposition of Revenue. Amend RSA 422:41 to read as follows:

422:41 Disposition of Revenue. Except as provided under RSA 422:39-b, all fees, fines or other income received under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid by the department to the state treasurer [and be credited to the aeronautical fund] to be deposited into the general fund.

5 New Subparagraph; Special Account. Amend RSA 6:12, I by inserting after subparagraph (lll) the following new subparagraph:

(mmm) One-half of the moneys collected by the director of motor vehicles under RSA 422:39 and RSA 422:39-a, which shall be credited to the property tax reimbursement account established in RSA 422:39-b.

6 Contingency. If HB 1244-FN of the 1996 legislative session becomes law, then section 4 of this act shall take effect at 12:01 a.m. on the effective date of HB 1244-FN and section 3 of this act shall not take effect. If HB 1244 does not become law, then section 3 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage and section 4 of this act shall not take effect.

7 Effective Date.

I. Sections 3 and 4 of this act shall take effect as provided in section 6 of this act.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1244-FN, relative to aeronautical carriers. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: The Department of Transportation requested this bill to amend current legislation to match current practice. The aeronautical fund was established by Revised Statute Annotated 422:42 as a mechanism for appropriating airway toll revenue for maintenance and debt service expended on air navigation facilities. Since that time, however, this revenue source has been pre-empted by federal legislation and the New Hampshire Division of Aeronautics has become part of the Department of Transportation. As a result, the aeronautical fund has become obsolete and fallen into disuse. Currently, the aeronautical fund does not have a balance. Vote 15-0.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1372, relative to liability for allowing a person to drive without a license. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Fred A. Kruse for Transportation: Testimony confirmed that current law provides for identical civil penalties prescribed under this bill. Therefore, the committee determined this bill not to be necessary but served the sponsors' purpose of publicizing the issue of allowing unlicensed persons to operate a vehicle. Vote 14-0.

SPECIAL ORDER

SB 11-L, relative to the application of local land use regulations to governmental units. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Fredrik Peyron for Finance: The committee felt that the costs to governmental units of delayed capital projects, although not possible to estimate precisely, were too substantial to justify passing this bill. In addition, the costs of the required presentation of projects for consideration by local planning boards appear to constitute unfunded mandates in violation of Article 28-a of our Constitution. Vote 14-8.

Reps. Gene Chandler, Channing Brown and Behrens spoke against.

The report failed.

Rep. Behrens moved Ought to Pass and spoke in favor.

Reps. Behrens, Gene Chandler and Peyron offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (4496L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT
relative to notification to municipalities of governmental use of property.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; Notification to Municipalities of Governmental Use of Property. Amend RSA 674 by inserting after section 53 the following new subdivision:

Notification to Municipalities of Governmental Use of Property

674:54 Governmental Land Uses.

I. In this section, "governmental use" means a use, construction, or development of land owned or occupied, or proposed to be owned or occupied, by the state, university system, or by a county, town, city, school district, or village district, or any of their agents, for any public purpose which is statutorily or traditionally governmental in nature.

II. The state, university system, county, town, city, school district, or village district shall give written notification to a municipality of any proposed governmental use of property within its jurisdiction, which constitutes a substantial change in use or a substantial new use. Written notification shall contain any plans, specifications, and explanations of proposed changes available at the time of issuance of the notice. A municipality or its designated land use board may conduct a public hearing relative to the proposed governmental use. If the municipality chooses to hold a hearing, the hearing shall be held within 30 days after receipt of notice by the municipality. A representative of the governmental entity which provided notice shall be available to present the plans, specifications, or explanations. The municipality shall provide written comments to the sponsor of the governmental use within 30 days after the hearing.

III. This section shall not apply to the layout or construction of public highways of any class, or to the distribution lines or transmission apparatus of governmental utilities, provided that the erection of a highway or utility easement across a parcel of land, shall not, in and of itself, be deemed to subdivide the remaining land into 2 or more lots or sites for conveyance for development purposes in the absence of subdivision approval under this title.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides a mechanism for notifying municipalities in the event of a planned substantial change in use or a substantial new use of property in the municipality for governmental purposes.

Adopted.

Substitute report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1205-FN, clarifying the term "generator" of hazardous waste. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard O. Wasson for Environment and Agriculture: The committee felt that any departure from the current definition of "generator" of hazardous waste or the provision for definition of "custodian" as required in this bill would bring about inconsistencies with the federal EPA and problems relative thereto. Vote 18-0.

Rep. Lamach spoke against.

Rep. Wasson spoke in favor.

HB 1191-FN-A-L, assessing taxes on gambling winnings to fund state aid to education. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David J. Alukonis for Finance: This proposal would impose an 8% tax on all gambling winnings in the state and would apply to all such winnings derived from sweepstakes tickets, bingo, lucky seven games, and pari-mutuel activities. The committee concurs with testimony offered that indicates that the imposition of such a tax would have a detrimental impact on the purveyors of legal gambling in this state as well as on sweepstakes' revenues which would be negatively impacted by the proposal. Vote 17-6.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against.

Rep. Wendelboe requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 1522-FN, relative to medicaid rates for home health care services. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Eleanor H. Amidon for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The original intent of this bill's filing was to address the rising costs of home care, asking the commissioner of Health & Human Services to develop a means of determining Medicaid rates and review and revise such rates. The initial fiscal note asking for a 30% rate increase was seen as a vehicle to apply a like increase to other services. The ballooning fiscal note guaranteed failure of this bill. The substitution by amendment of a study committee to find such a method keeps alive the original intent. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (4385L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT
establishing a committee to review the medicaid rate setting methodology.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established; Purpose.

I. Members. There is established a committee to review the rate setting methodology used by the department of health and human services for establishment of medicaid reimbursement rates for home health care services, and to make suggestions for legislative requirements relating to such rate-setting process. For purposes of this bill, home health care services shall be defined as those services which are delivered by home health agencies licensed pursuant to RSA 151, but shall not include services delivered under the home and community based care-developmental disability (HCBC-DD) program.

II. The committee shall be composed of the following:

(a) Two senators, one of whom shall be a member of the public institutions, health and human services committee, and one of whom shall be a member of the finance committee, appointed by the senate president.

(b) Five representatives, 3 of whom shall be members of the health, human services and elderly affairs committee and 2 of whom shall be members of the finance committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

2 Appointments; Meetings; Mileage. Appointments of members under section 1 of this act shall be made within 20 days of the effective date of this act. The first-named house health, human services and elderly affairs committee member shall call the first meeting of the committee within 45 days of the effective date of this act. The committee shall meet as often as it deems necessary. Members of the committee shall receive legislative mileage for attending to the duties of the committee.

3 Duties; Report.

I. The committee shall:

(a) Review the current rate setting methodology and process used by the department of health and human services to establish medicaid reimbursement rates for home health services.

(b) Review the actual costs of providers to deliver home health services to medicaid clients, and compare those costs to current reimbursement rates.

(c) Evaluate the present and potential effect of reimbursement rates on the availability of home health care services to state residents.

(d) Determine whether legislation or other measures are needed to address identified problems in the area of reimbursement for home health care services.

II. The committee shall submit a report with recommendations, including recommended drafts of legislation, to the speaker of the house, the senate president, the house clerk, the senate clerk, and the state library on or before November 1, 1996.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a study committee to examine the issue of reimbursement rates for certain home health care services and to recommend legislative action as needed to resolve any problems that may be identified.

HB 1628, relative to methadone maintenance therapy. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Marion L. Copenhaver for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: New Hampshire is the only state that does not allow the use of methadone for the treatment of drug addiction. Adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1218-L, requiring local welfare departments to notify a landlord whose welfare recipient tenant has requested that the welfare department stop sending rent checks to the landlord. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Thomas E. P. Rice, Jr. for Municipal and County Government: The committee feels that this would be a mandate on the communities, and that the community should in no way be involved in any form as guarantee or assurance of income to private business, and that this subject is best addressed by rule-making at Health and Human Services, if it should be addressed at all. Vote 10-5.

HB 1305-FN-A, relative to the state historic marker program and making an appropriation therefor. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Gene G. Chandler for the Majority of Public Works and Highways: This bill would appropriate $15,000 from the Highway Fund for historical markers, an appropriation which the committee felt would be inappropriate given the constraints of Article 6-a of the New Hampshire Constitution. Some members of the committee felt an amendment would be appropriate to change funding to the Department of Resources and Economic Development, but the majority of the committee was not so inclined. The NH Department of Transportation has pledged to erect any of the markers purchased by private donations, communities or historical groups, and the majority of the committee feels this is the best way to approach the historical marker issue, and it is hoped that DRED would become involved in this program since there is some tourism benefit. Vote 12-6.

Rep. Katherine D. Rogers for the Minority of Public Works and Highways: The Minority believes that this bill should have been amended to provide for funding, not out of the highway fund, but out of the Department of Resources and Economic Development, and by so doing clearly put this legislature on record in support of the recognition of New Hampshire's vast historically significant sites. This legislature has a record of working in partnership with the private sector to identify, preserve and promote NH's history. We did so with the Museum of NH's history, and this bill would have allowed us to make contributions toward the erection of historic markers throughout NH. The minority believes that this bill could have been a vehicle to coordinate the resources of DRED, the Department of Transportation and the private sector to reduce the backlog of outstanding requests on file with the state.

Rep. Fuller Clark spoke against.

Rep. Gene Chandler spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 223 members having voted in the affirmative and 112 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Rep. Donnalee M. Lozeau for Corrections and Criminal Justice: Current law provides a 10-year minimum mandatory sentence with a maximum of 40 years for three-time felons who subsequently possess a firearm. The committee does not believe that increasing this already tough mandatory sentence will serve as an additional deterrent. Further, we see merit in maintaining the court's discretion to provide a continuum of severe sanctions beyond the minimum instead of a one-size-fits-all solution. Vote 17-0.

HB 1260, requiring local elected and appointed officials to file a financial disclosure report with the secretary of state. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee feels this bill would discourage individuals from volunteering to serve their communities in an elected or appointed capacity. We believe it would cause difficulties to municipalities trying to encourage qualified residents to serve their communities. Presently, cities and towns may adopt, by ordinance, ethics guidelines. Vote 15-0.

Rep. Buckley spoke against.

Rep. Behrens spoke in favor

Rep. Buckley requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

1131-FN-A, relative to the Women's War Memorial in Arlington, Virginia, and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. George R. Rubin for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: In 1986, Congress approved and the President signed a bill authorizing a memorial to women who have served their country. This memorial has been long overdue and their deserved contribution to our nation should be fully recognized. The Women's War Memorial at the entrance to Arlington National Cemetery will give a new purpose and meaning to those dedicated women. This Legislature finds and declares that the people of New Hampshire recognize the contributions to our nation by women who serve or have served in our nation's armed forces. The cost of $7,200 represents one dollar for each New Hampshire female veteran. Vote 12-0.

Thursday, February 1, 1996

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Edward G. Horstmann.

O God of vision and compassion, help us to be leaders who make the best possible use of our gifts and experience; for though we have power, we do not always know how to use it for the good of others; though we are members of a large community, we do not always work with a single heart; and though we are consistently embraced by Your mercy, we are sometimes selective with our affections. So challenge us with Your compassion, illuminate our paths with Your wisdom, and help us to feel the pulse of Your life in all that we do and say. Amen.

HB 1203-L, excluding pupils in home education programs from average daily membership in apportionment formulas. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William S. Belvin for Education: Sponsored on behalf of the Department of Education, this bill brings education law into agreement with the department's actual flexible practices for the date on which parents may begin a home schooling program for their children. It also excludes home school pupils from the calculation of cooperative school cost apportionments. All persons offering testimony were in support of the bill and the committee unanimously agreed. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (4382L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

excluding pupils in home education programs from average daily membership in cooperative school district apportionment formulas, and deleting the date for notification for home education.

Amend the bill by inserting before section 1 the following and renumbering sections 1-13 to read as 2-14, respectively:

1 Home Education; Notification to Commissioner by August 1 Deleted. Amend RSA 193-A:5, I to read as follows:

I. The parent shall notify[, by August 1 of each year,] the commissioner of education, resident district superintendent, or principal of a nonpublic school of [his] the parent's intention to provide home education. [Said] The superintendent or principal shall the provide notification of such intention to the department of education. Any parent desiring to provide home education who moves into a school district [after August 1] shall immediately notify the commissioner of education of [his] the parent's intent to educate a child at home and shall comply with the requirements of this section within 30 days of such notice. Subject to the provisions of RSA 193-A:7, I, the commissioner of education shall acknowledge in writing that the parent shall be permitted to initiate a home education program for a child enrolled in a public or nonpublic school if the program meets the minimum definitional and educational requirements as provided in RSA 193-A:4, I and paragraph II of this section.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

Section 1 of this bill deletes the August 1st deadline by which parents choosing to educate their children at home shall make notification.

Sections 5, 6, and 13 of this bill provide that home educated pupils in cooperative school districts shall not be included in the average daily membership relative to apportionment formulas.

The remainder of this bill amends certain RSA provisions making them gender neutral and consistent with other sections amended by the bill in accordance with RSA 17-A:6 relative to gender neutral drafting.

HB 1385-FN-A-L, relative to the designation and appropriation of excess sweepstakes funds for special education until July 1, 1998. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Charles B. Yeaton for Education: While the committee is sympathetic to the many needs such as special education and kindergarten, the lack of adequate funding for foundation aid is so great that taking moneys from sweepstakes for other purposes is unwise. Vote 17-0.

HB 1622-L, requiring the assessment of fines against parents who send their children to schools which they have no right to attend. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Charles B. Yeaton for Education: While the committee recognizes that this bill addresses a problem which needs to be considered, it is closely related to HB 1179-L. The committee is recommending HB 1179-L for interim study with the intent that the subject of this bill be considered by the study committee. Vote 18-0.

HJR 20, dissolving the joint committee on implementation of reorganization. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: When this resolution was studied by the committee it was found that it would not accomplish what the sponsor wanted. The subject matter in this resolution will be included in an amendment to an existing bill as a repeal of RSA 17-L. This will dissolve the committee but not affect continuing reorganization of state government under RSA 21 by policy committees of the house and senate. Vote 16-0.

HB 1271-FN, relative to exposure to infectious disease. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Maxwell D. Sargent for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill adds employees of prisons, jails, corrections institutions and any detention facility to RSA 141 requiring testing for certain infectious diseases when an unprotected exposure occurs. The original legislation inadvertently left these employees out and this bill corrects that. Vote 13-0.

HB 1408, establishing a committee to study the law regarding AIDS. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Alphonse A. Haettenschwiller for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: RSA 141-F was first established in 1981. Since then, there have been numerous changes in the handling of the human immunodeficiency virus which causes AIDS and reporting requirements associated with AIDS. The committee felt unanimously that the time was right to review these requirements. Vote 13-0.

HB 1413, relative to the release of or transfer of a body from any residence, hospital, or other facility. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard G. Warner for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill would have allowed release of "a dead body of a human being" to "next of kin or designee or other individual responsible for disposal of the body or designee or to a funeral director or designee". The majority of the committee felt that to allow anyone to handle and transport a body without any regulation would not be in the best interest of the state. The many complications of handling dead bodies, a public health issue, as well as the definition and identification of next of kin were not addressed in this bill. Vote 11-2.

HB 1149-L, relative to permits issued prior to burning materials. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. David M. Lawton for Resources, Recreation and Development: The sponsor's intent was to allow local fire wardens to issue fire permits utilizing new forms of technology (such as faxes). The committee amendment does not allow the option of oral permits, which was a concern of the Division of Forests and Lands, but does allow the use of technology that is verifiable and retrievable. Vote 19-0.

Amendment (4465L)

Amend RSA 227-L:17, II as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. No person, firm, or corporation shall kindle or cause to be kindled any fire or shall burn or cause to be burned any material, and no city or town shall kindle or maintain a fire on a public dump, in or near woodlands or where fire may be communicated to such land, except when the ground is covered with snow, without first obtaining [a written permit from] verifiable and retrievable permission, as specified by the forest fire warden of the town where the burning is to be done, unless it is in the presence of the warden or the warden's agent.

HB 1199, relative to the New Hampshire statewide trail system advisory committee. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Paula E. Bradley for Resources, Recreation and Development: The Department of Resources and Economic Development requested this bill to better coordinate the work of two statutory committees — the New Hampshire Statewide Trail System Advisory Committee and the New Hampshire Heritage Trail Advisory Committee. The Heritage Trail Committee will become a standing committee of the Statewide Trail Committee. The amendment makes two minor changes to clarify the intent. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4468L)

Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 216-F:5, V as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

V. The subcommittee shall consist of the following:

Amend RSA 216-F:5, V(b)(5) as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(5) New Hampshire Association of Conservation Commissions.

HB 1412, enhancing the penalty for operating a vessel or a vehicle with a suspended or revoked license. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: The subcommittee which studied this bill discovered that both sections and subject matter are addressed in other bills existing in the legislative mill. Increasing the penalty for driving a vehicle after revocation is addressed in House Bill 1524 assigned to the Committee on Corrections and Criminal Justice. Operating a vessel after revocation and appropriate penalty will be looked at in HB 1581 scheduled for a committee hearing on February 7, 1996. Vote 14-0.

HB 1492, authorizing a city, town, or the state to allow the operation of OHRVs on certain sidewalks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: This bill extends to towns and cities the authority to allow the operation of Off Highway Recreational Vehicles on certain sidewalks adjacent to Class I, II, III and III-a highways after consultation with and approved by the Department of Transportation. Towns and cities presently have that authority on sidewalks adjacent to Class IV, V, and VI highways. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (4336L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Operation Allowed. Amend RSA 215-A:6, IX to read as follows:

IX. Pursuant to RSA 215-A:15, towns and cities may authorize the use of sidewalks and class IV, class V or class VI highways and bridges, or portions thereof, for use by OHRVs. The operation of OHRVs may also be allowed on sidewalks adjacent to class I, II, III or III-a highways pursuant to RSA 236:56, II(e). Operators of OHRVs using said roads, or portions thereof, shall keep to the extreme right and shall yield to all conventional motor vehicle traffic. The bureau, or its designee, shall so post such highways where authorized.

2 Operation Allowed. Amend RSA 215-A:10, I to read as follows:

I. A person shall not operate an OHRV on the traveled portions[, sidewalks adjacent to a class I, class II, class III, or class III-a highway] or the plowed snowbanks adjacent to [said] class I, class II, class III, or class III-a highways.

3 New Subparagraph; Sidewalks. Amend RSA 236:56, II by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) Sidewalks. The operation of OHRVs may be allowed on sidewalks adjacent to Class I, II, III, and III-a highways upon the request of a town or city after consultation with and approval by the department of transportation.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 1179-L, defining "resident" for purposes of school attendance. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Karen K. Hutchinson for Education: The majority of the committee believes this subject area deserves in-depth study due to the complexity of the issue. Vote 17-1.

Adopted.

HB 1255-FN-L, providing that the state shall reimburse school districts for shortfalls in certain categories of state aid to education. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Karen K. Hutchinson for Education: The majority of the committee believes that existing state statutes are a commitment to catastrophic and other education aid. The state should meet these obligations by paying these bills. Vote 18-4.

Rep. Larson yielded to questions.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1326, requiring 40 hours of community service as a prerequisite to receiving a high school diploma. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Karen K. Hutchinson for Education: The committee did not believe that this should be a mandate. We did offer to join with the sponsors of this bill in a resolution endorsing the benefits of voluntary community service. The committee's offer was not accepted. Vote 15-2.

Rep. Hilliard spoke against.

(Rep. Scanlan in the Chair)

Reps. Donna Soucy and Sabella spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Richard Champagne spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 287 members having voted in the affirmative and 41 in the negative, the report was adopted.

HB 1118-FN, reclassifying the salary of the director of the police standards and training council. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Myron S. Steere, III for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill as amended in title and purpose to study letter group and salary ranges of unclassified employees was originally one of several bills moving a job to a new unclassified letter group. The committee determined that it would be unfair to change one job without reviewing all unclassified positions. To ensure fairness and conformity within the unclassified system is the purpose of this study bill. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (4523L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

establishing a committee to study issues relative to groups and salary ranges which reflect the responsibilities of unclassified employees, excepting the constitutional officers.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. A committee is established to review and make recommendations concerning groups and salary ranges of unclassified employees which reflect their responsibilities. The constitutional officers shall be excluded from the review. The Final Report to the Legislature on the Unclassified Service Positions, submitted by the Unclassified Service Study Committee, dated November, 1988, and the State of New Hampshire Unclassified Service Allocation Methodology Administrative Guidelines, dated March 15, 1989, shall be included in the committee's review.

2 Membership. The committee shall consist of 3 members of the house, appointed by the speaker of the house and 3 members of the senate, appointed by the senate president.

3 Compensation. Members of the committee shall receive mileage at the legislative rate when attending to the duties of the committee.

4 Report. The committee shall submit a report of its findings, including any recommendations for legislation to the speaker of the house, president of the senate, house clerk, senate clerk, the state library, and to the governor on or before November 1, 1996.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 30 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study issues relative to groups and salary ranges which reflect the responsibilities of unclassified employees, excepting the constitutional officers.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

Rep. Howard Williams declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

HB 1365, relative to unclassified employees. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Myron S. Steere, III for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill would change the method of handling unclassified employee salary. Changes of salary level for unclassified employees within letter group is now the responsibility of the governor. Changes in letter group for unclassified jobs is now the responsibility of the legislature and it should remain so. Vote 13-2.

Adopted.

HB 1560-FN, requiring persons who receive unemployment and public assistance and do not possess a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma to study for a general equivalency diploma or attend high school or a trade school. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Joseph P. Manning for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: As written, this bill would cut off assistance to those who, because of their home situations or mental or physical capacities are incapable of additional education or training. It would also preempt the programs now addressing the education and training of the unemployed. Vote 14-0.

Adopted.

HB 1392, establishing a legislative oversight committee on electric utility restructuring, requiring all electric utilities to submit rate restructuring plans, and establishing restructuring principles to be used by the public utilities commission in assessing and approving utility restructuring plans. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Reps. Clifton C. Below, Jeb E. Bradley and Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Science, Technology & Energy: This important legislation to restructure the New Hampshire electric utility industry will allow all customers to choose their supplier of electricity generation. This bill establishes the legislative framework for a process that should move N.H. to retail customer choice and near term rate relief as quickly as is reasonably possible. It is the work product of a year-long effort that started with a PUC initiated roundtable last January. Last June, SB 168 created a legislative study committee and authorized a pilot program for customer choice. The study committee and its four subcommittees met numerous times from July through December and unanimously approved the restructuring principles that are contained in section 374-F:3 of the amendment. The Science, Technology and Energy Committee held three full committee work sessions and further refined the principles and their implementation. This bill calls for electric utilities to submit restructuring plans to the PUC by June 30, 1996. Utilities will then have one year in which to negotiate a restructuring plan acceptable to the PUC and substantially consistent with the principles. If a utility fails to do so by July 1, 1997, then the PUC is to impose a plan for customer choice and limit stranded cost recovery as the PUC determines. Utilities will be able to recover costs that were mandated by state or federal law, such as pollution controls and required purchases from independent power producers. Negotiated restructuring plans must include near term rate relief approaching competitive regional rates to the greatest extent possible, and will allow only a reasonable opportunity for utilities to recover other net stranded costs that can't be mitigated, and only to a balanced and appropriate extent as determined by the PUC. This bill does not in any way guarantee or provide for full recovery of all stranded or uneconomic costs to any utility. The interests of ratepayers and utilities in this matter must be equitably balanced and the committee added language in the amendment to make this intent clear. Other restructuring principles direct the PUC to ensure that: reliable and safe electricity services be maintained, residential customers have the same opportunities to benefit as large customers, competition be open and fair, environmental protections be continued, and safeguards for low income residential customers be provided. The bill also sets up a legislative oversight committee. The committee believes that this bill as amended creates the best possible opportunity for all parties to avoid expensive and protracted litigation, to achieve rate relief and customer choice in the most expeditious manner possible, and to proceed with restructuring and minimize delay in spite of possible litigation because this legislation is reasonable and legally defensible. Vote 21-0.

Amendment (4539L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Findings. The general court finds that:

I. New Hampshire has the highest average electric rates in the nation and such rates are unreasonably high. The general court also finds that electric rates for most citizens may further increase during the remaining years of the Public Service Company of New Hampshire rate agreement. The general court finds that this combination of facts has a particularly adverse impact on New Hampshire citizens.

II. New Hampshire's extraordinarily high electric rates disadvantage all classes of customers: industries, small businesses, and captive residential and institutional ratepayers and do not reflect an efficient industry structure. The general court further finds that these high rates are causing businesses to consider relocating or expanding out of state and are a significant impediment to economic growth and new job creation in this state.

III. Restructuring of electric utilities to provide greater competition and more efficient regulation is a nationwide phenomenon and New Hampshire must aggressively pursue restructuring and increased customer choice in order to provide electric service at lower and more competitive rates.

IV. Monopoly utility regulation has historically substituted as a proxy for competition in the supply of electricity but recent changes in economic, market and technological forces and national energy policy have increased competition in the electric generation industry and with the introduction of retail customer choice of electricity suppliers as provided by this chapter, market forces can now play the principal role in organizing electricity supply for all customers instead of monopoly regulation.

V. It is in the best interests of all the citizens of New Hampshire for the general court, the executive branch, and the public utilities commission to work together to provide legislative and regulatory initiatives to create a more competitive and efficient restructured electric utility industry in New Hampshire.

2 New Chapter; Restructuring of the New Hampshire Electric Utility Industry. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 374-E the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 374-F
ELECTRIC UTILITY RESTRUCTURING

374-F:1 Purpose.

I. The most compelling reason to restructure the New Hampshire electric utility industry is to reduce costs for all consumers of electricity by harnessing the power of competitive markets. The overall public policy goal of restructuring is to develop a more efficient industry structure and regulatory framework that results in a more productive economy by reducing costs to consumers while maintaining safe and reliable electric service with minimum adverse impacts on the environment. Increased customer choice and the development of competitive markets for wholesale and retail electricity services are key elements in a restructured industry that will require unbundling of prices and services and at least functional separation of centralized generation services from transmission and distribution services.

II. A transition to competitive markets for electricity is consistent with the directives of part II, article 83 of the New Hampshire constitution which reads in part: "Free and fair competition in the trades and industries is an inherent and essential right of the people and should be protected against all monopolies and conspiracies which tend to hinder or destroy it." Competitive markets should provide electricity suppliers with incentives to operate efficiently and cleanly, open markets for new and improved technologies, provide electricity buyers and sellers with appropriate price signals, and improve public confidence in the electric utility industry.

III. The following interdependent policy principles are intended to guide the New Hampshire public utilities commission in assessing and approving each public utility's restructuring plan, in streamlining administrative processes to make regulation more efficient, and in regulating a restructured electric utility industry. In addition, these interdependent principles are intended to guide the New Hampshire general court and the department of environmental services and other state agencies in promoting and regulating a restructured electric utility industry.

374-F:2 Definitions. In this chapter:

I. "Commission" means the public utilities commission.

II. "Electricity suppliers" means suppliers of electricity generation services and includes actual electricity generators and brokers, aggregators, and pools that arrange for the supply of electricity generation to meet retail customer demand, which may be municipal or county entities.

III. "FERC" means the federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

IV. "Stranded costs" means costs, liabilities and investments, such as uneconomic assets, that electric utilities would reasonably expect to recover if the existing regulatory structure with retail rates for the bundled provision of electric service continued and that will not be recovered as a result of restructured industry regulation that allows retail choice of electricity suppliers, unless a specific mechanism for such cost recovery is provided. Stranded costs may only include costs of:

(a) Existing commitments or obligations incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter;

(b) Renegotiated commitments approved by the commission; and

(c) New mandated commitments approved by the commission.

374-F:3 Restructuring Policy Principles.

I. System Reliability. Reliable electricity service must be maintained while ensuring public health, safety, and quality of life.

II. Customer Choice. Allowing customers to choose among electricity suppliers will help ensure fully competitive and innovative markets. Customers should be able to choose among options such as levels of service reliability, real time pricing, and generation sources, including reasonable and fair opportunities to self generate and interconnect. Customers should expect to be responsible for the consequences of their choices. The commission should ensure that customer confusion will be minimized and customers will be well informed about changes resulting from restructuring and increased customer choice.

III. Regulation and Unbundling of Services and Rates. When customer choice is introduced, services and rates should be unbundled to provide customers clear price information on the cost components of generation, transmission, distribution, and any other ancillary charges. Generation services should be subject to market competition and minimal economic regulation and at least functionally separated from transmission and distribution, which, as natural monopoly services for the foreseeable future, should remain regulated. However, distribution service companies should not be precluded from deploying small scale distributed generation resources as part of a strategy for minimizing transmission and distribution costs but should in some cases avoid owning such generation. Performance based or incentive regulation should be considered for transmission and distribution services. Upward revaluation of transmission and distribution assets is not a preferred mechanism as part of restructuring. Retail electricity suppliers who do not own transmission and distribution facilities, should, at a minimum, be registered with the commission.

IV. Access to Transmission and Distribution Facilities. Non-discriminatory open access to the electric system for wholesale and retail transactions should be promoted. Comparability should be assured for generators competing with affiliates of groups supplying transmission and distribution services. Companies providing transmission services should file at the FERC or with the commission, as appropriate, comparable service tariffs that provide open access for all competitors. The commission should monitor companies providing transmission or distribution services and take necessary measures to ensure that no supplier has an unfair advantage in offering and pricing such services.

V. Universal Service. Electric service is essential and should be available to all customers. A utility providing distribution services must have an obligation to connect all customers in its service territory to the distribution system. A restructured electric utility industry should include an electricity supplier of last resort. Existing residential customer service safeguards and protections should be maintained. Programs and mechanisms that enable residential customers with low incomes to manage and afford essential electricity requirements should be included as a part of industry restructuring.

VI. Benefits for All Consumers. Restructuring of the electric utility industry should be implemented in a manner that benefits all consumers equitably and does not benefit one customer class to the detriment of another. Costs should not be shifted unfairly among customers. A nonbypassable and competitively neutral system benefits charge applied to the use of the distribution system may be used to fund public benefits related to the provision of electricity. Such benefits, as approved by regulators, may include, but not necessarily be limited to, programs for low-income customers, energy efficiency programs, funding for the electric utility industry's share of PUC expenses pursuant to RSA 363-A, support for research and development, and investments in commercialization strategies for new and beneficial technologies.

VII. Full and Fair Competition. Choice for retail customers cannot exist without a range of viable suppliers. The rules that govern market activity should apply to all buyers and sellers in a fair and consistent manner in order to ensure a fully competitive market.

VIII. Environmental Improvement. Continued environmental protection and long term environmental sustainability should be encouraged. Increased competition in the electric industry should be implemented in a manner that supports and furthers the goals of environmental improvement. Over time, there should be more equitable treatment of old and new generation sources with regard to air pollution controls and costs. New Hampshire should encourage equitable and appropriate environmental regulation, based on comparable criteria, for all electricity generators, in and out of state, to reduce air pollution transported across state lines and to promote full, free, and fair competition. As generation becomes deregulated, innovative market driven approaches are preferred to regulatory controls to reduce adverse environmental impacts. Such market approaches may include valuing the costs of pollution and using pollution offset credits.

IX. Renewable Energy Resources. Increased future commitments to renewable energy resources should be consistent with the New Hampshire energy policy as set forth in RSA 378:37 and should be balanced against the impact on generation prices. Over the long term, increased use of cost-effective renewable energy technologies can have significant environmental, economic and security benefits. To encourage emerging technologies, restructuring should allow customers the possibility of choosing to pay a premium for electricity from renewable resources and reasonable opportunities to directly invest in and interconnect decentralized renewable electricity generating resources.

X. Energy Efficiency. Restructuring should be designed to reduce market barriers to investments in energy efficiency and provide incentives for appropriate demand side management and not reduce cost-effective customer conservation. Utility sponsored energy efficiency programs should target cost-effective opportunities that may otherwise be lost due to market barriers.

XI. Near Term Rate Relief. The goal of restructuring is to create competitive markets that are expected to produce lower prices for all customers than would have been paid under the current regulatory system. Given New Hampshire's higher than average regional prices for electricity, utilities, in the near term, should work to produce rates for all customers that, to the greatest extent possible, approach competitive regional electric rates. The state should recognize when state policies impose costs that conflict with this principle and should take efforts to mitigate those costs. The unique New Hampshire issues contributing to the highest prices in New England should be addressed during the transition, wherever possible.

XII. Recovery of Stranded Costs.

(a) For purposes of assessing, negotiating, and approving a plan for recovery of stranded costs with each electric utility, the commission should be guided by the following:

(1) While recognizing that the rights and obligations of existing contracts are enforceable by their terms and that there are legal questions concerning the recoverability of stranded costs, a structured transition that allows an appropriate and balanced measure of stranded cost recovery, as determined by the commission, is in the public interest.

(2) Utilities should be allowed to recover the net nonmitigatable stranded costs associated with required environmental mandates currently approved for cost recovery and power acquisitions mandated by federal statutes or RSA 362-A, except for stranded costs associated with contracts and orders, pertaining to the 13 small power producers referenced in Section 12 of the Rate Agreement between Northeast Utilities and the state, that have not been modified as provided in 1994, 362 into mutually acceptable agreements approved by the commission, which should be considered for recovery in accordance with subparagraph XII(a)(3).

(3) Electric utilities that submit restructuring plans that include timely commitments to customer choice and the promotion of fully competitive markets and equitable recovery of costs consistent with these interdependent principles, including the near term rate relief principle, and that exhibit a good faith intent to implement and adhere to such restructuring plans as approved by the commission, should have a reasonable opportunity to recover other net nonmitigatable, verifiable and prudently incurred stranded costs not recovered under subparagraph XII(a)(2) to an appropriate and balanced extent, all as determined by the commission. The commission shall utilize this subparagraph to better facilitate a timely transition to customer choice consistent with these interdependent principles, particularly the near term rate relief principle. When considering a reasonable opportunity to recover stranded costs, the commission shall consider the public interest. When determining the public interest regarding a reasonable opportunity to recover stranded costs, the commission shall determine what is equitable, appropriate, and balanced to the interests of the retail customers and utilities.

(4) If an electric utility fails to submit a restructuring plan in accordance with procedures adopted by the commission, or fails to obtain commission approval of the plan by June 30, 1997, then the commission should adopt and apply to such a utility a restructuring plan that allows customer choice of electricity suppliers consistent with these interdependent principles including the near term rate relief principle and with stranded cost recovery as determined by the commission.

(b) In addition, utilities have had and continue to have an obligation to take all reasonable measures to mitigate stranded costs during the transition. Mitigation measures may include, but shall not be limited to:

(1) Reduction of expenses.

(2) Renegotiation of existing contracts.

(3) Refinancing of existing debt.

(4) A reasonable amount of retirement, sale, or write-off of uneconomic or surplus assets, including regulatory assets not directly related to the provision of electricity service.

(c) The amount of stranded costs should be determined on a net basis, that does not include transmission and distribution assets, and is reconciled to actual electricity market conditions from time to time. Recovery of stranded costs should be through a nonbypassable, nondiscriminatory, appropriately structured charge that is fair to all customer classes, lawful, constitutional and limited in duration. Entry and exit fees are not preferred recovery mechanisms. Charges to recover stranded costs should only apply to customers within a utility's retail service territory, except for such costs that have resulted from the provision of wholesale power to another utility. The charges should not apply to wheeling-through transactions. This principle is not intended to provide any greater opportunity for stranded cost recovery than is available under applicable regulation or law on the effective date of this chapter.

XIII. Regionalism. New England Power Pool (NEPOOL) should be reformed and efforts to enhance competition and to complement industry restructuring on a regional basis should be encouraged. New Hampshire should work with other New England and northeastern states to accomplish the goals of restructuring. Working with other regional states, New Hampshire should assert maximum state authority over the entire electric industry restructuring process. While it is both necessary and desirable to design and implement a restructured industry in concert with the other New England and northeastern states, New Hampshire should not unnecessarily delay its timetable. Any pool structure adopted for the restructured industry should not preclude bilateral contracts and should not preclude ancillary pool services from being obtained from nonpool sources.

XIV. Administrative Processes. The commission shall more clearly define its administrative processes in order to make regulation more efficient and enable competitors to adapt to changes in the market in a timely manner. The market framework for competitive electric service should, to the extent possible, reduce reliance on administrative process. New Hampshire should move deliberately to replace traditional planning mechanisms with market driven choice as the means of supplying resource needs.

XV. Timetable. The commission should seek to implement full customer choice among electricity suppliers in the most expeditious manner possible. The pilot program established in 1995, 272 should be consistent with this pace and not delay implementation of statewide customer choice. The utilities should unbundle rates and services as soon as possible.

XVI. Reliance on Voluntary Agreement. Consensus and settlements are more likely than litigation to move restructuring forward, given numerous potential interstate, state-federal, state-utility, and inter-party substantive and jurisdictional conflicts. For purposes of creating such consensus and settlements, the PUC is encouraged to convene a timely collaborative negotiating process that includes all stakeholders. An initial collaborative negotiating process should be concluded by May 31, 1996.

374-F:4 Restructuring Plans.

I. In order to provide retail choice of electricity suppliers to all classes of customers, the commission by June 30, 1996, shall require all utilities providing retail electric service under its jurisdiction to submit restructuring plans substantially consistent with the principles established in this chapter which shall include such information as the commission may request. The commission may sponsor such collaborative negotiations as it deems appropriate to develop, review and amend such plans. The commission shall approve such plans, subject to modification if necessary, after public hearing in accordance with the adjudicative proceeding provisions of RSA 541-A and finding that the plans are substantially consistent with the principles established in this chapter.

II. If the commission does not approve the plan submitted by a utility, then the utility shall submit revised plans at such times as the commission may require until the commission approves such a plan.

III. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, in the event that a utility fails to obtain commission approval for a restructuring plan by June 30, 1997, the commission shall impose a plan on such a utility to provide retail choice of electricity suppliers substantially consistent with the principles established in this chapter and with stranded cost recovery as determined by the commission in accordance with the adjudicative proceeding provisions of RSA 541-A.

374-F:5 Implementation.

I. The commission is authorized to require the implementation of retail choice of electric suppliers for all customer classes of utilities providing retail electric service under its jurisdiction and shall require such implementation between July 1, 1997 and June 30, 1998, or at the earliest date determined to be in the public interest by the commission.

II. The commission may authorize or order such charges and other service provisions and take such other actions that are necessary to implement restructuring plans and that are substantially consistent with the principles established in this chapter.

III. A utility shall be eligible to compete for open access customers only if it files comparable open access transmission and distribution rates with the FERC and the commission, as appropriate, for all of its transmission and distribution facilities.

IV. After public hearing in accordance with the adjudicative proceeding provisions of RSA 541-A and pursuant to RSA 365:28, the commission may, in its reasonable discretion, modify its determination of allowable stranded cost recovery for an electric utility that does not implement or adhere to a restructuring plan approved by the commission under this chapter.

374-F:6 Oversight Committee; Establishment; Report; Meetings.

I. There is established a legislative oversight committee on electric utility restructuring consisting of 14 members as follows:

(a) Seven members of the house, at least 5 of whom shall be members of the science, technology and energy committee, or its successor, and at least 2 of whom shall be members of a minority party, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Seven members of the senate, at least 2 of whom shall be members of the executive departments and administration committee, or its successor, and at least one of whom shall be a member of the minority party, appointed by the president of the senate.

II.(a) Committee members shall be appointed to an initial term expiring on December 4, 1996. Subsequent terms shall be for up to 2 years expiring on the first Wednesday of even numbered years. Members may succeed themselves.

(b) A chairperson shall be selected by a majority of the committee members.

III. The committee shall provide an annual report on or before November 1 to the governor, the speaker of the house, the senate president, the state library, and the public utilities commission on the status of electric utility restructuring.

IV. The committee shall meet quarterly or as often as is necessary to conduct its business.

V. Members shall receive mileage when attending to the duties of the committee.

374-F:7 Duties. The committee shall be responsible for the following:

I. Following up the work of the retail wheeling and restructuring study committee established in 1995, 272.

II. Working with the commission to assess the results of the pilot program allowing for the competitive retail purchase of electricity established in 1995, 272.

III. Working with the commission to develop any new legislation necessary to promote electric utility restructuring and retail choice of electricity suppliers and to propose changes to or recodification of existing statutes to be more consistent with the restructuring principles established in this chapter.

IV. Working with the commission and other agencies, where necessary, to implement this chapter and its restructuring principles.

3 Adjudication. If any party challenges any provision of RSA 374-F as inserted by section 2 of this act or any application thereof in court, then the general court urges the court of jurisdiction to give priority to and expeditiously adjudicate any such challenge.

4 Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Rep. Below: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Colleagues, I am very pleased to present to you today, the Science, Technology and Energy Committee's unanimous vote of 21-0 to report House Bill 1392, Ought to Pass with Amendment, as found on page 517 of today's Calendar. This is the bill to restructure the New Hampshire electric utility industry to provide retail competition for electricity generation and streamlined regulation of the remaining monopoly functions of distribution and transmission. This is something of a momentous occasion. We are the first legislative body in the United States to vote on a comprehensive set of principles and policies to restructure the electric utility industry and implement full customer choice of electricity generation suppliers. This industry is the last major remaining highly-regulated monopoly industry in the nation to undergo a transition to a more competitive market-based structure. While we are pioneering state legislation on this issue, we are not, I emphasize not, going where no man or woman has gone before. This process of restructuring the electric utility industry has become a national and worldwide phenomenon. At the Federal level there has been legislative impetus, particularly the Energy Policy Act of 1992, to create effective wholesale markets for electricity generation. The Federal Energy Regulatory Commission is in the process of adopting rules to open access nationally to the transmission grid and promote competition. This is a foundation for effective retail competition that is well on its way to being built. The New England Power Pool (NEPOOL) that coordinates the New England transmission grid and generation system announced last month its plan, NEPOOL PLUS, to restructure and evolve in a manner that promotes competition and economic efficiency while assuring continued high standards of reliability and responsibility. While geared primarily to wholesale competition, NEPOOL PLUS places New England in the vanguard for an evolving marketplace for electricity generation, another building block for retail customer choice here in New Hampshire. The utility commissions of Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island, among other states, have begun the process of moving to retail choice by ordering utilities to submit restructuring plans in the first half of this year. Numerous other state legislatures are also working on this issue.

Perhaps even more significant is the experience of other nations that have moved to retail competition in recent years. Great Britain privatized its central government system and introduced limited retail competition but with rather mixed results to date. We have incorporated policies in our principles for restructuring that will avoid Great Britain's mistakes. A better model for us is the Scandinavian nations of Finland, Sweden and Norway that have a similar industry structure to ours and are now implementing retail customer choice in a manner similar to what we are proposing. In Norway, with a mixture of private and publicly-owned utilities, all customer classes have benefited from retail competition with a 20 percent decrease in residential prices over the past two years and a healthy utility industry. Finland voted just a year ago to open its electricity markets to retail customers starting last November with free markets open to all customers by next January 1. Sweden has moved even faster, piggy-backing on the Norwegian model and power exchange, voting just this past October to open their markets this past January 1. So my point is that our year of study and work on this issue has been a deliberate and carefully considered process with reams and reams of reading material and hours and hours of discussion involving stakeholders from all perspectives; more work than I care to think about. The policy principles in this bill have been through more than ten public drafts, including more refined amendments to this bill. I am sure you are all eager to get to lunch and end early today, but because this is such an important issue to the state, please bear with me as I walk you through key points in this bill so that you may be as fully informed as possible when constituents have questions, as I am sure they will.

The amendment, which is a complete substitution, so it is the whole bill, starts on page 517 of today's Calendar. There should also be an outline summary of the bill in your seatpockets. Rep. Jeb Bradley, who so ably serves as the Chair of Science, Technology and Energy and as Vice Chair of the Study Committee that worked on this issue over the past six months, and has played a key role in building the consensus on this bill, will address the issue of stranded costs after I am done, so I am going to skip that part for now. Starting on page 517, the findings are pretty self-explanatory. The fifth finding is important - which is that it is in the best interests of all branches of government to work together to achieve a more competitive and efficient restructured electric utility industry. On page 518, the Purpose, again it is pretty self-explanatory, there is just one sentence I'll point out, the second sentence of number I: "The overall public policy goal of restructuring is to develop a more efficient industry structure and regulatory framework that results in a more productive economy by reducing costs to consumers while maintaining safe and reliable electric service with minimum adverse impacts on the environment." Right there it sounds like we want everything and that is kind of true. We want to build on what is now a good system and make it a better system, more efficient and productive. Then there is a set of definitions. You might want to look at the "Electricity suppliers" definition in particular. We don't use the term "retail wheeling" in this bill because it is something of a misnomer. You can't really direct the flow of alternating current from one generator to one customer. But, what you can do is you can match the electricity generation against your demand and consumption. You can have a choice of who provides that generation service for you.

Then the bill flows into the Restructuring Policy Principles. I should point out that these are a set of principles not everyone agrees with every word in these and I'm sure you won't either. They are a set of interdependent principles that have been developed by a collaborative consensus building process that balances a variety of interests and concerns. They are also intended to guide not only the PUC but other state agencies as well as this body in implementing this ambitious process. I will just highlight a few of the key principles. First and foremost, System Reliability: that must be maintained and public health and safety ensured. The second point is customer choice: that all customers must be able to participate in their choice of suppliers. The third point is Unbundling of Services and Rates. It means you will see a lot more components on your electric bill and that the transmission and distribution functions will be separated from generation and they will continue as natural monopolies for the foreseeable future, regulated, although we are looking at more efficient ways of doing that. I'll skip the fourth point, it's sort of a minor one. The fifth is Universal Service: that electric service is essential to today's way of living, that there is an obligation for the distribution companies to connect, and that existing customer service safeguards must be maintained, and mechanisims that enable low-income customers to afford their essential requirements should also be part of restructuring. The sixth point is Benefits for All Customers: we make a point here that there is a possibility of nonbypassable systems benefit charge to fund public benefits related to the provision of electricity and there are some examples of what that might include, but not necessarily. It just depends. Full and Fair Competition: choice of a variety of viable suppliers. Environmental Improvement: a point that increased competition should be implemented in a manner that supports and furthers the goals of environmental improvement. There is no reason why we can't do this. In fact, a lot of indications are that competition will give us opportunities to much more cost-effectively meet our environmental goals. Renewable Energy Resources: we recognize that increased commitments have to be balanced against their costs and that it can be more of a market function by allowing retail customers to choose their supplier and even pay a premium for generators that are less polluting and more renewable. People should have an opportunity to interconnect their decentralized renewable generating sources, a reasonable opportunity. Item number eleven is near and dear to all of our hearts. It is a call for Near-Term Rate Relief given New Hampshire's higher than average regional prices - in fact the highest average in the entire nation. We call for utilities to work to produce lower rates that to the greatest extent possible approach competitive regional rates. We also recognize that some state policies contribute to our high costs and that we should look to ourselves for ways to mitigate those costs. Skipping the section on Recovery of Stranded Costs for Jeb and turning to page 520, Roman numeral XIII, it is a principle on Regionalisim. It calls for continued reform of NEPOOL and notes that working with other regional states, New Hampshire should assert maximum state authority over the entire electric industry restructuring process. That is sort of a jurisdictional issue between us and the Federal government. Also, there is a note that any restructuring should not preclude bilateral contracts. Administrative Processes emphasize a market framework for electric service that reduces reliance on administrative processes and streamlines regulation. The Timetable calls for introducing customer choice in the most expeditious manner possible. The last principle, number XVI, I think is very important. It recognizes that consensus and settlements are more likely than litigation to move restructuring forward. This is a key point. Where we want to get to is markets, competitive markets. Where we are now, we have regulation, we have a rate agreement with PSNH. The best way to get there, the quickest way to get there is negotiated settlement if we can achieve it. Litigation, going to the courts, has the risk of delaying the process. We've tried to structure this bill so that even if there are legal challenges there is the possibility to move ahead while minimizing delay. The goal is to try to build a negotiated settlement. That is our best bet for lowering rates in the near term.

Going into the implementation section, 374-F:4, Restructuring Plans, calls for submission of plans by the end of this June substantially consistent with the principles. It provides a process for revision of those plans over the course of the year following that and provides that notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, meaning anything in the current laws that may indicate an exclusive franchise, any statutes that stand in the way, the Commission will have the authority to impose a plan to provide for retail customer choice on any utility if they haven't negotiated a settlement by June 30, 1997. The implementation section, 374-F:5, gives the Commission the authority to implement. It calls for them to implement customer choice between July 1, 1997 and June 30, 1998 or at the earliest date to be determined in the public interest by the Commission. We haven't set an arbitrary "drop dead" date because we feel that there may be public interest requirements such as technical problems that are being worked out that may require some adjustment.

Turning to page 521, we're getting near the end here. Roman number II makes it clear that the Commission can implement the charges and changes in service. Roman numeral IV provides that if a utility does not adhere to a restructuring plan the Commission can come back and modify the determination of allowable stranded cost recovery. Finally, there is a legislative oversight committee established that can oversee this process and work for any legislative changes that are necessary to implement it. Thank you.

Rep. Below yielded to questions.

Rep. Fields: In this chapter that you have here on 518, can you explain what it means when it says "renegotiate commitments approved by the commission and new mandated commitments..." What would be the difference between renegotiated and a mandated commitment?

Rep. Below: That refers to the idea that costs and investments that might be stranded are cut off as of the effective date of this legislation, except for the fact that some commitments such as purchased power contracts, which we call for utilities to try to mitigate, to reduce and renegotiate those above-market costs, if they are renegotiated they could still be approved by the Commission for recovery as a stranded cost. It has been mitigated. A new mandated commitment might be something like a pollution control requirement that is mandated by government that comes after the effective date of this but that is something that should be recovered.

Rep. John Chandler: On your section on Universal Service at the top of page 519, you indicate that a utility providing distribution service must have an obligation to connect all customers in their service territory. My question is, it is my understanding, I am in the electric cooperative area, that when extending distribution lines to properties that the property owner is asked to pay at least a portion of the cost of that extension. Will that continue under these guidelines or are you proposing that the entire cost be borne by the utility servicing that area?

Rep. Below: No. We are not proposing that kind of change. The obligation of connecting the customer, similar to the current policies, if they are too far away from the powerlines, yes the Commission can say you have to share a portion of that cost. But if they are willing to share it and they service that area then they should be willing to connect them.

Rep. John Chandler: A second question on this paragraph. I notice that you say a restructured electric utility industry should include an electricity supplier of last resort. Is there any possibility that that would become the government? A government responsibility?

Rep. Below: No. I can't imagine that would happen. The utilities usually feel that they are happy to be the supplier of last resort, the existing incumbent utility. But the notion is that if somebody is out there under some procedure that there is somebody that they can get their supply from. Of course it doesn't mean that you can avoid credit problems. If you don't pay your bills there will still be the mechanisms for cutting you off as there are now.

Rep. Abbott: Could you discuss any significant amendments that were proposed to your Committee that the Committee rejected.

Rep. Below: There were no amendments moved in the Committee other than the one that is before you today. There were some suggested changes that came from the public hearing process and in our work sessions. Just an example of one or two of those, there was a suggestion that in the one-year period that utilities have to negotiate a settlement, that that negotiation not be effective unless every party to the negotiation, including all stakeholders who are interested in the issue, approve of that settlement. And that furthermore, if not everyone signs off on that settlement, that utilities then only be allowed the minimum stranded cost recovery allowed by law. We think that is a setup for failure and I believe that is why the Committee rejected that proposal. It would result in an impasse in all likelihood and certainly Rep. Bradley and I are as strong believers as anyone in a collaborative consensus building process, but mandating that everyone agree on the plan is not the way to have productive negotiations. Furthermore, trying to require the minimum stranded costs recovery allowed by law is something that nobody knows what it is. The law points in a lot of different directions on that issue. The only way to find it out is extensive protracted litigation to the New Hampshire Supreme Court, probably through Federal Bankruptcy Court and certainly to the U.S. Supreme Court. That is not something we want. The Supreme Court has found that for any regulatory scheme to pass Constitutional muster it must have an overall effect of being just and reasonable. That is why we see some of the language in here about balancing the interests of utilities and consumers. It was also suggested that we allow no stranded costs recovery. Such a position would ensure protracted litigation and keep us from getting to our goal of open markets.

Rep. Martin: I know that one of the questions that I am going to be facing is once we open the market to competition, some are concerned that the companies will come in and grab off the largest commercial contracts and that that will accrue to higher rates for the residential customers. Where in here or how am I to answer to the people that represent my constituency that the benefits will accrue, first equally to residential and to commercial as well as they will accrue in a timely manner, equitable to when the commercial benefits come forward, they will be equally available to the residential customer?

Rep. Below: That is found in particular in principle number six, Benefits for all Customers, that restructuring should be implemented in a manner that benefits all customers equitably, does not benefit one customer class to the detriment of another and that costs should be not be shifted unfairly among customers. That is a principle, a policy principle, that we don't want that to happen. The Commission is charged with the duty of reviewing the proposed plans and being sure that they are consistent with that goal, that that is what will, in fact, result. That has been the experience in Norway where residential customers have seen rates drop by 20 percent in just two years. There probably have been somewhat greater savings for some of the commercial and industrial customers but there have been savings for everyone. In fact the residential load sector is as big as the commercial and industrial sector so there will certainly be competition for residential load as well.

Rep. Martin: But there is no place in this document or anyplace else where we refer to residential and commercial, we refer to them only in a lump as consumers or customers. Is that correct?

Rep. Below: No. There is a number of places where residential customers are singled out. I'm not sure that I can point to them all quickly. In Universal Service, for instance, "existing residential customer service safeguards and protection should be maintained." I think in some of the findings and purpose language we point to the fact that residential customers are also being hurt by high rates and should benefit as well. I might add that the Consumer Advocate has been a strong supporter of this bill and this process and he firmly believes that residential customers can't be worse off than they are today and that this will result in significant benefits for all residential customers.

Rep. Jeb Bradley: Rest assured, I am as hungry as you are. We were asked today to, as briefly as possible, to describe what is a major piece of legislation and for that reason that is why myself and Rep. Below are up here. As I'm sure you have read this has been a year-long process and many people throughout the state have contributed not only their time but their energy and enthusiasm to this process and have brought this bill and the whole concept of restructuring in New Hampshire to the point we are today. It is my role to try, as briefly as possible, to discuss what stranded costs mean and how they affect our rates and our potential rates in the future. Stranded costs, in a nutshell, are the difference between market prices and what utilities can expect to recover in market prices versus what they recover today in regulated prices. That delta, that difference, is what may be seen as stranded costs. That has been the focal point of this discussion. Utilities expect to recover as much as is possible. We, on the other hand, the sponsors of this bill, hope to limit stranded cost recovery so that we can achieve near-term rate relief. Let me assure you there is no language in this bill that guarantees utilities will get all of their stranded costs. But what we have done is create a two-track approach, a carrot-and-a-stick approach. The incentive, if you will, for the utility to come forward is that they will be able to recover those costs that were mandated upon them and they will have a reasonable opportunity and only a reasonable opportunity to recover other stranded costs if they do three things that the state asks them to do. Mitigate their exposure to those stranded costs which may include, among other things, a reasonable amount of asset write-off. Number two, make the timely move to customer choice and competition, and number three, in so doing provide what I consider to be a significant amount of near term rate relief, which would mean New Hampshire's highest average rates in the nation must approach those rates of states neighboring us which are significantly lower. If the utility cannot show that they can accomplish all three of those, the PUC should not accept or approve a restructuring plan. That is the incentive. In my opinion we've given nothing away because the Public Utilities Commission will determine what the opportunity is for stranded costs recovery, what the extent of it will be, what is going to be mitigated and what constitutes near-term rate relief. The disincentive is that if the utilities and the PUC and all the stakeholders cannot negotiate a plan that the PUC eventually approves, the PUC is authorized to write and impose, impose, a plan upon the utilities. We hope that the former works, the incentive approach works. If it doesn't the authorization is there to impose a plan.

Why are we trying to go with an incentive approach? We believe it is fair, it is balanced and it is equitable both to ratepayers and to utilities. There is language in this bill that talks about stranded cost recovery in terms of the public interest both being fair, appropriate and balanced. We hope to avoid, as Rep. Below said, protracted litigation because we have seen what's happened when we've been in bankruptcy court where ratepayers came last and secured creditors, bond holders, stockholders came first. We don't need, in my opinion at least, $500 per hour lawyers trying to solve the problems that we as elected officials should be attempting to solve or appointed officials at the Public Utilities Commission should be trying to solve. If we have litigation, and we do have litigation right now, it will probably be a three, four, five year process. No one really knows. The case that is being litigated right now is almost a year old and it is now a New Hampshire Supreme Court decision. It will have to go to Washington and come back to New Hampshire before finally being resolved. If litigation occurs I believe we have lost our best opportunity to provide for near-term rate relief in the shortest possible time frame. So yes, we have worked with the Commission. They are very comfortable with this process. They support the flexibility that is in this bill and they believe that they will have at least an opportunity to attempt to resolve the problems.

Is everyone else happy? Not really. I'm sure you've seen utility spokespeople in the media saying the process in moving fast and that they should recover all of their stranded costs. Consumer groups - let me just read, since Rep. Martin brought up the issue of residential ratepayers myself and Rep. Below received a letter from the Campaign for Ratepayers' Rights who have had a long history in New Hampshire of fighting for ratepayer interests. I'm quoting when I read this. "While we do not agree with every phrase in the 12-page bill, we certainly support the overall goals and the approach the bill takes to deregulating the generation side of the electric industry in New Hampshire. We feel that House Bill 1392, as amended, sets up an appropriate process whereby it tries to both harness economic incentives to move the industry toward competition faster, yet, at the same time, protects residential ratepayer rights." It is signed by Bob Backus of the Campaign for Ratepayers Rights. So this bill sets up a process we hope can succeed. If it doesn't there are the necessary authorizations for the PUC to go ahead. We're hoping that by adopting a balanced approach, one that is just and reasonable, if we do end up in court, which is possible, that our position, the state's position, the position representing ratepayers, will be legally defensible. As I've said before some of the key language commands the Public Utilities Commission to determine what is in the public interest when allowing stranded costs recovery. There is nothing in the legislation that guarantees full recovery, but what we do say is that recovery must be equitable, balanced and appropriate to both utilities and ratepayers. Now I would admit to staying up many nights later than I should have and thinking, as I lay in bed, about how gratifying it might be to adopt a very extreme position. I thought about that more times than I can imagine. But I have come in my heart of hearts to believe that adopting that extreme position is much more prone to lead us into failure. Failure being courts, a five-year potential delay in implementing lower rates. But what we have done by not adopting an extreme position is still adopt what I would consider a very aggressive position, one that will be leading the nation in trying to implement this by mid 1998. Because it is more just and reasonable, I believe it is much more achievable and we are better representing those people that we are sent here to represent by adopting that type of position. Thank you.

Rep. Jeb Bradley yielded to questions.

Rep. Herman: I do support this amendment and the bill and I applaud you and your committee for the effort you have put in over the past year. My question is when will my constituents in Milford experience lower electric rates as a result of this amendment.

Rep. Jeb. Bradley: Rep. Herman, an excellent question. As I'm sure you are aware as anybody who has followed this, this problem did not happen overnight. It will not be solved overnight. We are hoping to have implementation between June of 1997 and June of 1998. We hope at that point in time we start to see reduction in rates.

Rep. Jacobson: One thing I have learned in the legislature is not to be an expert on everything and I know nothing about electric rates, except that I have been reading about being out seven years on the bill that was adopted on December 14, 1989 and also some provisions that are out as far as ten years. Do they have any impact on this legislation?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: Thank you Rep. Jacobson, another good question. The 1989 rate agreement called for seven, 5 and one-half percent rate increases. The last one is slated to go into effect in June of this year. It is no coincidence that the June 30, 1997 implementation date is coincidental with the end of the fixed-rate period. There are other provisions of the rate agreement, but having worked through with the Commissioners of the Public Utilities Commission, we feel that it is possible to work within that structure without abrogating that rate agreement because we guaranteed rates through 1997 and not beyond that.

Rep. Kurk: I have two questions. First, can you give us any idea of who is going to bear the burden of these stranded costs? Is it likely to be bond holders or are we not in a position to know at this time?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: I can't speak as to whether bond holders would bear the burden of stranded costs but if stranded costs are recovered in a manner that is equitable, balanced and appropriate to utilities and ratepayers, ratepayers will bear some of the burden as will the utilities. So there is, in my opinion, a likelihood that utility stockholders will bear some of that burden if we are able to successfully negotiate under the incentive portion of this plan.

Rep. Kurk: In 1989, when we entered into the original agreement our sort of assumption was that rates generally, in the market, were going to go up. Disagreement, while it would have cost us more money, wouldn't be too horrific. It turns out that we are frustrated today because rates have just done the opposite of what we had anticipated. I'd like to ask you to look five, ten, 15 years in the future after this program is implemented. What happens, if in fact there is a shortage of oil and other kinds of generating materials and the free market price is $.15, $.20, $.25 a kilowatt hour. Will that mean that our people in this state are subject to greatly fluctuating electricity costs because presumably we will be in the free market at that point? In fact, higher costs than we might have if we continued the present system. In other words, I am really concerned, are we making the assumption that these current low rates will continue and planning for that when , in fact, we may be very surprised by what happens in the future?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: You bring up several good points Rep. Kurk. First of all I would say that most experts have said that there is likely to be a glut of energy in the Northeast for about ten years. I have great faith in competitive markets assuring the lowest prices as opposed to regulatory markets and I think if we look around at all the essential commodities that we buy in our lives, be it telecommunications services, the food that we eat, the automobiles that we purchase, whatever it is, that competitive markets will meet and mesh the demand and the supply and in that way can best assure, rather than government regulation, what the lowest prices will be. I believe that if you look at the driving force behind the telecommunications deregulation effort, as that has become deregulated and prices have dropped, people have used services more, it has also spurred technological innovation. Technological innovation over the long run I think will best ensure competitive prices.

Rep. Kurk: That's a very rosy view of the future and I would like to share it. However we had Desert Storm in 1990, the Mid-East can explode at any time and who knows this time if the new Sadam Hussein would not in fact be successful in destroying oil fields. That could have a major impact on prices of energy. In that case, wouldn't our rates go up?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: It is a possibility but I would remind you, Representative, that when the natural gas industry was formally regulated, prices were kept artificially high. When those price controls were taken off it unleashed a flurry of explorative activity that brought new, unexpected sources of natural gas to the market and reduced prices in that way. Obviously, I remember the gas lines. I'm sure you remember the gas lines. Our economy is subject to disruptions - that was one of the reasons why the state of New Hampshire encouraged the independent power producers, why in the late 1970s and 1980s the nuclear power plants were built in New England. It is why we have so many coal plants in this nation. I think we have a diversified-enough source of power in this nation that while your concern cannot be dismissed, it is a minimal concern, I believe, at this point in time and I hope that I am right and you are wrong. I've learned that predicting the future as the 1989 rate agreement did does not lead to competitive markets and that in and of itself should allow us to have lower prices.

Rep. Kurk: I will vote to support your bill, sir, but I will take off my rosy-colored glasses.

Rep. Dube: At the present time the Public Utilities Commission gives a franchise to a utility in a certain area and they are charged with serving the people with dependable power and continuity of power. If this wheeling is going to happen on present lines of Public Service of New Hampshire and the electricity is coming from New Jersey, who is going to be responsible for continuity of service and who is going to have to take care of that?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: Obviously we expect the New England Power Pool organization to continue to operate with expected reforms to bring in competition not only to New Hampshire but New England. The transmission of electricity, the wires running through the woods, and the distribution of electricity, the wires running up and down our streets, will continue to be a regulated monopoly. I believe, and most experts who have testified in front of any of the committees that I've served on believe, that reliable power is not only essential but will occur.

Rep. Dube: Are you telling me that a person or a public utility from New Jersey who is furnishing to Cabletron in Rochester or Dover and they have an outage on the lines that the present utility will have to take care of that outage.

Rep. Jeb Bradley: As I think Rep. Below stated, there will be a supplier of last resort. Companies such as the one you mentioned will be able to purchase power in the type of arrangement that you said. But, we expect that they will have the business savvy, as well as the understanding of the market structure, to be able to make rational decisions that best suit their need, and to accept, as a consequence of their decisions, the responsibility for them.

Rep. Dube: I don't understand your answer on the last question. How are they going to continue to have service unless they have their own power?

Rep. Jeb Bradley: That would be a responsibility that they would have to accept in the event that there was an outage. There would be backup generation of power that could be purchased although at a higher price.

Rep. Below: You may pay a premium if you have chosen a supplier that is not reliable for the backup service. You may want to choose a supplier that has a balanced portfolio so that you are not going to get into that situation.

HB 1237-FN, imposing a motor vehicle registration fee surcharge. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: The majority of the committee believes that the imposition of an annual five dollar surcharge on vehicle registrations is an unwarranted additional burden on vehicle owners. Proponents of this bill argue the desirability of having this extra money available for bridge repair, but agree that once deposited into the Highway Fund, no guarantee exists that this money would be used for this purpose. The Highway Fund already has a multi-million dollar surplus. Vote 13-3.

Rep. Mock yielded to questions.

Tuesday, February 13, 1996

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned and was called to order by the Speaker.

Prayer was offered by House Chaplain, Reverend Edward G. Horstmann.

O God, our ways are not always Your ways and Your desires are not always clear to us. So on this day we pray most of all for humility: the kind of humility which can inspire us to respect ourselves, honor one another, and seek Your truth. Lift us above narrow interest or thought of superficial gain; strengthen us to speak what our hearts feel, enable us to imagine the consequences of our decisions upon those whom we serve. And as we strive to work with and for one another, and the people of New Hampshire, help us to achieve together what none of us could accomplish alone. Amen.

Rep. Julie Brown led the Pledge of Allegiance.

HB 1147, requiring certain questions pertaining to casino gambling to be included on the official ballot for the 1996 state general election. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Carol H. Holden for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: This bill provided that certain questions pertaining to casino gambling be included on the official ballot for the 1996 state general election. When the sweepstakes law was adopted in 1963, a local option to be on the ballot in 1966 was included. If the Legislature adopts a law permitting casino gambling, then a provision to put a local option on the ballot should be included. Putting the question on the ballot in 1996 is like putting the cart before the horse. Vote 12-0.

HB 1151, relative to penalties for persons convicted of class B misdemeanors. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William V. Knowles for Corrections and Criminal Justice: Probation is a sentence imposed for commission of crime whereby a convicted criminal offender is released into the community under the supervision of a probation officer in lieu of incarceration. Since a person convicted of a class B misdemeanor or violation cannot be incarcerated, there is no reason to place such person on probation. The bill as amended allows the court to direct the department of corrections to monitor any sanctions imposed. Class A misdemeanors may not be reduced to class B if an element of the offense involves an act of violence or threat of violence. Additionally, the time period within which a parolee arrested for a parole violation is entitled to a parole revocation hearing is changed from 30 days to 45 days. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4697L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to penalties for persons convicted of class B misdemeanors and violations and relative to parole revocation hearings.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Classification of Crimes. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 625:9, VII to read as follows:

VII. The state may change any offense designated or defined as a class A misdemeanor as defined by paragraph IV to a class B misdemeanor, so long as no element of the offense involves an act of violence or threat of violence, if such change is in the interest of public safety and welfare and is not inconsistent with the societal goals of deterrence and prevention of recidivism, as follows:

2 Class B Misdemeanors; Probation Prohibited. RSA 651:2, III is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

III. A person convicted of a class B misdemeanor may be sentenced to conditional or unconditional discharge, a fine, or other sanctions, which shall not include incarceration or probation but may include monitoring by the department of corrections if deemed necessary and appropriate.

3 New Paragraph; Violations; Probation Prohibited. Amend RSA 651:2 by inserting after paragraph III the following new paragraph:

III-a. A person convicted of a violation may be sentenced to conditional or unconditional discharge, or a fine.

4 Class B Misdemeanors and Violations; Probation Prohibited. Amend RSA 651:2, V(a) and (b) to read as follows:

V.(a) A person may be placed on probation if the court finds [he] that such person is in need of the supervision and guidance that the probation service can provide under such conditions as the court may impose. The period of probation shall be for a period to be fixed by the court not to exceed 5 years for a felony[,] and 2 years for a class A misdemeanor [and one year for a violation]. AMENDED ANALYSIS

Section 1 of this bill prohibits the reclassification of a class A misdemeanor to a class B misdemeanor if an element of the offense involves an act of violence or threat of violence.

Sections 2 and 3 of this bill prohibit a person convicted of a class B misdemeanor or violation from being placed on probation. Section 10 of the bill changes the time period within which a parolee arrested for a parole violation is entitled to a parole revocation hearing from 30 days to 45 days.

HB 1587-FN, relative to collection of outstanding default money owed to the state. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Andrew Christie, Jr. for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee felt that Interim Study was the appropriate place for this bill. There was confusion as to whether the collection of this default money was a function of the court or the legislature. Due to the time constraints, our subcommittee was not able to meet with the court to clear up this confusion. We would like to continue working to solve this problem. Vote 14-1.

HB 1532-FN-L, requiring school districts to file a district-wide plan for the evaluation and remediation of teachers with the department of education. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. William A. Riley for Education: This bill will help school districts in the process of evaluation and remediation of staff. It will utilize a locally developed plan which can form the basis of the school district's position in any staff non-renewal of contract hearing which is appealed. Vote 12-0.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1595, relative to payments in lieu of tax agreements for certain university system properties and operations which function as businesses open to the public. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. William S. Belvin for Education: The committee wishes to encourage the University of New Hampshire and the municipalities in which university campuses are located to engage in good-faith negotiations to resolve equitably the shared financial costs for services provided by the municipalities to the university. Consequently, the committee wishes to have the bill referred to interim study so that future appropriate legislative action may take place in the next session should the parties not come to a mutually agreeable solution. Vote 17-0.

HB 1135-L, creating a penalty for the unauthorized posting of property. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William R. Phinney for Environment and Agriculture: This piece of legislation creates a penalty for an individual who posts land which he or she does not own and has no authority to post. Vote 18-0.

HB 1539-FN-L, relative to fees for group dog licenses. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Mary Ellen A. Pitman for Environment and Agriculture: This bill allows owners of five or more dogs to pay a set fee of $20.00 per group license. This constitutes a savings for dog owners as well as making the work of the licensing agent more efficient. Vote 18-0.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 1603-FN, relative to the budget for the animal population control program. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

HB 1491, transferring the public boat access program from the fish and game department to the department of resources and economic development. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The committee heard of the conflicts among boat owners, land owners and sportsmen in the boat access program. Many of the problems arise because of poor communication between the various groups involved. Sportsmen and the Fish and Game Department have indicated that this program has only been in existence for a short time but things are beginning to fall into place. Fish and Game plans to have additional personnel on board to help rehabilitate more of the existing sites and to better communicate with those affected by these programs. The committee felt that there was no compelling reason to change the program at this time. Vote 13-0.

HB 1518-FN, relative to funding retirement benefits for certain legislative and constitutional officers. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The bill as amended by the committee sets up a method to fund the special account for retirement benefits with the funds necessary to meet the actuarial liabilities of the special nonlapsing account. As a policy committee that oversees the various retirement programs of the state, the committee felt that it was prudent to change the funding methodology to bring the funding in line with good financial practices even though the group is very small. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (4694L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 3 with the following:

3 Special Account for Retirement Benefits. Amend RSA 14:27-c, VII to read as follows:

VII.(a) [A sum sufficient to pay] Any and all benefits pursuant to this section [is hereby continually appropriated therefor. Rep. Myron S. Steere, III for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill asks the legislature to make changes in the letter group and salary ranges of a select group of unclassified positions. The committee believes that in fairness to all employees, no changes in letter groups for any unclassified positions should be made until the study of all unclassified positions as contained in amended HB 1118-FN is completed. Vote 15-0.

HB 1573-FN, relative to the definition of "adult-in-home care." INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Eleanor H. 4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

HB 1402, creating a state ethics agency. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Amanda A. Merrill for Legislative Administration: This bill is a complex bill deserving of serious study. Given that time does not allow such scrutiny at this time, the committee recommends interim study. Vote 12-0.

HB 1193-FN-L, relative to department of revenue administration reporting requirements and overdue yield taxes on timber. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: This bill addresses certain "housekeeping" measures requested by the Department of Revenue Administration. The amendment removed the section dealing with a property lien regarding timber taxes, which needs clarification. Vote 12-0.

Amendment (4785L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to department of revenue administration reporting requirements.

Amend the bill by deleting section 4 and renumbering the original section 5 to read as 4.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill changes a reporting requirement for the department of revenue administration regarding the revolving fund established for municipal officers and employees education and training. The bill removes a requirement that governing bodies of local governmental units report on estimated revenues in their reports certifying appropriations voted. The bill clarifies that the penalty provisions for failure to file certifications and reports with the department apply to all local governmental units.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1216-FN-L, allowing municipalities to adopt an exemption from property taxes for low income homeowners, and repealing the authority to use local property tax revenue to fund education. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: The exemption for low income homeowners of $35,000 would take away the local governing body's ability to determine if any other means of relief would be better suited to an individual homeowner. This bill also proposes to repeal the municipality's authority to use local property tax revenue for education. Not only does this take away local control, it would cost the State 1.23 billion dollars in FY 1999 and 1.3 billion dollars in FY 2000. The sponsor did not provide any funding mechanism for this expenditure. Vote 16-0.

HB 1101, prohibiting the carrying of firearms and certain other weapons into state-owned buildings by persons other than law enforcement personnel. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Leo P. Pepino for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: This bill would prohibit the carrying of firearms into any state owned building by any person, whether licensed or unlicensed, except for Law Enforcement Personnel. The extent of state ownership of buildings of all descriptions includes such buildings as: Liquor Stores, Ski Areas, Rest Areas, and of course the State House and associated office buildings. Certain of our citizens have elected to qualify for and obtain permits to carry handguns concealed on their person. The licensing authority has granted such requests thus verifying the permit holder is a law abiding citizen of our state. Passage of this bill would create more problems than it solves and, in fact, no problem was identified during the public hearing. The committee felt that current laws are sufficient to protect us from law abiding citizens and enactment of HB 1101 would do nothing to protect us from those who would defy the law. Vote 11-0.

HB 1236-L, establishing a study committee on police details at construction sites. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Katherine D. Rogers for Public Works and Highways: The majority of the committee believes the system works as it is and a study by the state will accomplish little. The sponsors spoke of problems in states other than New Hampshire and the New Hampshire Department of Transportation clearly stated that the system worked as it is now. Vote 18-1.

HB 1339-FN-A, to study the feasibility of an alternative highway for Route 3 in Franklin and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James A. Whittemore for Public Works and Highways: The Route 3-11 study arrived at the following conclusion: Based upon modeled results, a large scale bypass from Exit 19 to Route 3 and 11 in West Franklin, north or south of Route 3-11, would provide sufficient traffic relief to minimize the extent of improvements needed along the existing Route 3-11 corridor west of I-93. This bill as amended establishes a legislative committee to review, study and make recommendations to the Lakes Region Planning Commission regarding an alternative route to Routes 3 and 11. This amendment is the result of collaboration between the committee, the sponsors and the Department of Transportation. Vote 19-1.

Amendment (4747L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

to study the feasibility of an alternative highway for Route 3 in Franklin.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established.

I. There is hereby established a committee to conduct a feasibility study relative to the construction of an alternate highway for Route 3 south in Franklin to exit 19, making exit 19 a 4-way interchange, and continuing east to Route 140. The members of the committee shall be as follows:

(a) Three members of the house who shall represent Franklin, Northfield and Belmont, appointed by the speaker of the house.

(b) Two members of the senate, appointed by the senate president.

II. The committee shall have its first meeting, which shall be called by the first-named house member, within 30 days of the effective date of this act. The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its membership at its first meeting.

III. The committee shall request input from the commissioner of the department of transportation, or designee and shall seek technical and administrative support from the Lakes Region Planning Commission.

2 Study Submitted to the General Court and the Lakes Region Planning Commission. The committee shall submit the findings and recommendations made as a result of the study conducted pursuant to section 1 of this act to the president of the senate, the speaker of the house of representatives, the house clerk, the senate clerk, the governor, the state library, and the Lakes Region Planning Commission on or before June 1, 1997. The Lakes Region Planning Commission shall consider including the recommendations from the report in its priority list to the department of transportation for inclusion in the 10-year highway plan.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee of legislators to study an alternate highway for Route 3 in Franklin. The bill requires that the committee report be submitted to the general court and the Lakes Region Planning Commission for possible inclusion in the 10-year highway plan.

HB 1341-FN-A-L, relative to a corridor study of Route 101 and making an appropriation therefor. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Edwin O. Smith for Public Works and Highways: This bill establishes the makeup of a committee to study the current corridor of Route 101 between Keene and Milford. The funding is part of the current ten year plan and is similar to several other studies that have been completed in other areas of the state. Involvement on the committee from each town affected will hopefully create a consensus for improvement, to be made in a systematic way on the existing corridor. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4488L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to a corridor study of Route 101.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The purpose of this bill is to establish the purpose, study area, participants, process, scope, and time-frame of a study of the NH Route 101 corridor extending from Optical Avenue in Keene to the terminus of NH Route 101A in Milford, and to establish a committee to direct the study, review research and documentation generated by the study, and submit to the governor's advisory commission on intermodal transportation (GACIT) and the legislature a final report of the findings and commission recommendations based on the study.

2 Study Committee Established.

I. The NH Route 101 study committee is hereby established. The voting membership shall be as follows:

(a) The commissioner of the department of transportation, or designee.

(b) One representative and one alternate from each study area municipality, as set forth in section 3 of this act, appointed by the board of selectmen in towns and the mayor in cities.

(c) One member, one alternate member, and one staff member from the Southwest Region Planning Commission Transportation Advisory Committee, appointed by the chairperson of the board of directors of such commission.

II. The commissioner of the department, or designee, shall call the first meeting at which the committee shall elect a chairperson from its membership.

III. The committee shall request input from the public and from other parties as the committee deems necessary.

3 Scope. The study area shall be along the existing Route 101 corridor within the boundaries of the following New Hampshire municipalities: Keene, Roxbury, Marlborough, Harrisville, Dublin, Jaffrey, Peterborough, Sharon, Temple, Wilton, and Milford.

4 Report. The committee shall submit a report together with its recommendation for legislation to the Governor's Advisory Commission on Intermodal Transportation and to the speaker of the house and the president of the senate no later than November 1, 1999.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill authorizes a study committee to perform a corridor study of Route 101 from Keene to Route 101-A in Milford, New Hampshire.

Rep. John P. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: The committee amendment corrects an important oversight in the original bill; namely to replace the federal and state highway funds used for the original purchase by the state. Nevertheless, the transfer will not be subject to the real estate transfer tax. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (4573L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 1 with the following:

1 Transfer of Ownership from State to Rockingham County.

I. Notwithstanding the provisions of RSA 4:40 or any other provision of law, the state shall transfer to Rockingham county, for the consideration of $35,000, ownership of the property in the town of Exeter currently under lease as a parking lot, and described in the lease agreement dated July 3, 1973, and filed in the Rockingham county registry of deeds on July 12, 1973, as "that land owned by the lessor lying southerly and westerly of a line that is eighty (80') feet southerly and westerly of the existing centerline of Route 101-C, and abutting land of the lessee."

II. Within 30 days of the sale of the parcel, 75 percent of the $35,000 received from Rockingham County shall be remitted to the Federal Highway Administration as reimbursement for federal highway administration funds originally used by the state to purchase the property described in paragraph I. The remaining 25 percent shall be deposited in the highway fund.

III. The sale of this parcel of land shall be finalized on or before January 1, 1997. Notwithstanding any provisions of RSA 78:B to the contrary, this sale shall not be subject to the real estate transfer tax.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the state to transfer ownership of land currently leased by Rockingham county for use as a parking lot for the Rockingham county courthouse from the state to Rockingham county for consideration of $35,000.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1202-FN, relative to liquor licenses for off-site caterers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

The committee feels it is time to take a thorough look at all sweepstakes operations and will do so before the next biennium. Vote 16-0.

HB 1177-FN, relative to the state board of licensing for foresters. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Howard C. Dickinson, Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: HB 1177 as amended reauthorizes the program to license foresters which was originally established in 1990 (RSA 310-A:98-114) and adds a provision whereby a person without a formal education as a forester can qualify for a license so long as the applicant has at least eight years of experience within the last ten years and can pass an exam. Furthermore, the committee unanimously agreed that the program should be reexamined again in 2000, thereby insuring its continuing success. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4770L)

Amend RSA 310-A:104, V as inserted by section 2 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

V. There shall be no minimum educational requirement for licensure as a forester for applicants who have 8 years of experience within the last 10 years of a nature satisfactory to the board. The applicant shall be required to pass an oral or written exam, or otherwise meet the approval of the board.

Any person who practices or offers to practice forestry in this state for others for compensation without a license in accordance with this subdivision, or any person presenting or attempting to use the license or seal of another, or any person who gives any false or forged evidence of any kind to the board or to any board member in obtaining or attempting to obtain a license, or any person who falsely impersonates any other licensed forester, or any person who attempts to use an expired or nonexistent or revoked license, or any person who violates any of the provisions of this subdivision, shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor if a natural person, or guilty of a felony if any other person. The board may also impose administrative fines for violations of this subdivision in accordance with rules adopted under RSA 310-A:102, VIII.

HB 1293, relative to the qualifications of members of the wetlands board and making changes in the rehearings and appeals process. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William E. Williams, Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: There is another bill, HB 1597, which addresses the same concerns as this bill and is more comprehensive. There is no need for this duplication. Vote 15-0.

HB 1461, reorganizing the membership and functions of the wetlands board. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William E. Williams, Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: While this bill contained many good ideas, HB 1597 addresses the issue in a more detailed fashion. The committee did, however, use many of the points in this bill to amend HB 1597. Vote 15-0.

HB 1462, transferring powers and rulemaking authority from the wetlands board to the wetlands bureau and redirecting fees paid to the wetlands board to the general fund. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William E. Williams, Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: Although a very comprehensive bill, all of its germane points have been incorporated in HB 1597 and HB 1582 which will be supported by the committee. Vote 15-0.

HB 1629, exempting certain drainage facilities from the requirement of obtaining an excavating and dredging permit. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William E. Williams, Jr. for Resources, Recreation and Development: The sponsor has agreed to allow the committee to use the basic concepts of this bill in HB 1582 which addresses the issue in greater detail. Vote 15-0.

HB 1534-FN, requiring the commissioner of administrative services to negotiate a contract with PSNH for the purchase of electricity by the state at a reduced rate. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Lawrence J. Guay for Science, Technology and Energy: HB 1534 is being addressed in HB 1498. Vote 13-0.

HB 1487, prohibiting water skiing on certain parts of the Piscataquog river and establishing a no wake zone. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: The committee believes this is a local issue best handled at the local level. Residents and interested parties should use the current system of petitioning the Department of Safety, which would hold a public hearing to decide the merits of the issue. In addition, the pending adoption in 1997 of a Corridor Management Plan (pursuant to Revised Statutes Annotated 483) will give the local communities along the Piscataquog River the authority to decide issues such as this without involving the legislature. Vote 15-0.

HB 1104, relative to illegal night hunting. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joseph N. Feuer for Wildlife and Marine Resources: Aside from neutering all of Chapter 208, this agency requested bill strengthens the enforcement (capability) of the night hunting prohibition in RSA 208:8 by including the mere possession of particular sizes of shotgun shells as sufficient evidence for the presumption of guilt in this illegal activity. Vote 14-0.

HB 1183-FN, relative to scientific licenses and increasing the fee for scientific licenses. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Dennis F. Abbott for Wildlife and Marine Resources: The intent of this bill has been incorporated into a comprehensive funding bill being offered as an amendment to HB 1184-FN. Vote 12-0.

HB 1185-FN, relative to the taking of lobsters and crabs. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Allen K. MacNeil for Wildlife and Marine Resources: The intent of this bill has been incorporated into a comprehensive funding bill being offered as an amendment to HB 1184-FN. Vote 12-0.

HB 1186-FN, requiring the executive director of the department of fish and game to adopt rules regulating commercial fishing tournaments, including tournament operator fees. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. William P. Boucher for Wildlife and Marine Resources: This bill was requested by Fish and Game to eliminate the disbursement of funds and allow the Director of Fish and Game the latitude of setting fees and allow more flexibility in the area of fishing tournaments. The bill further softens the mandated requirements of clubs offering community tournaments. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4152L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

requiring the executive director of the department of fish and game to adopt rules regulating fishing tournaments, including tournament fees.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Reference to Commercial Deleted; Rulemaking Added. Amend RSA 211:16-b to read as follows:

211:16-b [Commercial] Fishing Tournaments.

I. No person shall promote or operate any [commercial] fishing tournament [or contest] in the waters under the jurisdiction of this state without first procuring a special permit from the executive director [so] to do so. [The fee for a permit issued under this section is $25. The executive director may adopt regulations for such tournaments or contests pursuant to the authority of RSA 206:10.]

II. The executive director shall adopt rules, pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to fees for such tournaments and relative to definitions, conditions, requirements for waivers, qualifications, and all other criteria relating to the operation of a fishing tournament on any waters of the state.

2 Repeal. RSA 206:35-d, relative to fishing derbies conducted by an organization, is repealed.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires the executive director of the department of fish and game to adopt rules regulating fishing tournaments. The rules shall include rules relating to tournament fees.

The bill also repeals a provision allowing an organization conducting a fishing derby to contribute 20 percent of derby proceeds to the department of fish and game for replenishing the fish stock.

This bill is a request of the department of fish and game.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1187-FN, increasing the super sportsman license fee and certain special scientific license fees. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. William P. Boucher for Wildlife and Marine Resources: This bill is contained in the amended HB 1184 along with the other license increase bills. Vote 12-0.

HB 1228-FN, requiring the executive director of the department of fish and game to provide copies of fish and game statutes to the members of the house wildlife and marine resources committee and the senate fish and game/recreation committee. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joseph N. Feuer for Wildlife and Marine Resources: In view of the fact that this committee is charged with reviewing and considering all proposed legislation affecting the wildlife and aquatic resources of the state that is managed by the department, it seems only reasonable to require the department to supply each member with the latest edition of the law book containing all current statutes for our ready reference. Vote 12-0.

HB 1317, prohibiting the shooting of captive animals. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Joseph N. Feuer for Wildlife and Marine Resources: While the intentions of the sponsors of this bill are undoubtedly motivated by the noblest of sentiments, the committee heard extensive testimony on both the original and the amended versions, offered by both the Department and affected private citizens, which made it abundantly clear that this is an inappropriate idea. Hunting preserves and wildlife propagation are adequately regulated by the department already, and the utilization of farm land for these purposes is an acceptable alternative to unprofitable dairy operations. The problems and abuses envisioned by the proponents do not exist in New Hampshire and this legislation is unnecessary and counter productive. Vote 13-0.

HB 1530-FN, authorizing the executive director of the department of fish and game to regulate the taking of deer and moose and permitting the director to adopt rules relative to a registration agent's fees. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joseph N. Feuer for Wildlife and Marine Resources: This omnibus bill corrects a host of ambiguities, contradictions and discrepancies in license fees, penalties and outdated statutes. It grants the director authority and flexibility in setting seasons through the department's rule making process. Finally, all personal pronouns indicating gender have been replaced. Vote 18-0.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1598-FN, establishing a hunting dog training license and fee for nonhunters to train bird dogs and trail or tree hounds. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert J. L'Heureux for Wildlife and Marine Resources: The sponsor of the bill indicated after the public hearing that his constituents concerns had been addressed and that the bill was not needed. A determination was made to honor the sponsor's request. Vote 12-0.

HB 1621, authorizing the executive director of the fish and game department to conduct wildlife population reductions. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Allen K. MacNeil for Wildlife and Marine Resources: This bill authorizes the Executive Director of the Fish and Game Department, with approval of the Fish and Game Commission, to conduct wildlife reductions for health and safety reasons for people and wildlife. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (4720L)

Amend RSA 206:23-b, I as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

I. The executive director, with the approval of the commission, may conduct wildlife population reductions and initiate management actions necessary to protect against disease, genetic, ecological, environmental, health, safety, or welfare risks to persons or wildlife. The executive director may exercise such authority in the state as a whole or for any specified county or part thereof; and to the species, sex, age, number and timing of the population reduction or management action.

2 New Hampshire Main Street Center and Local Main Street Programs.

I. Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, municipalities may participate in local Main Street programs, pursuant to RSA 31:120 through RSA 31:125.

The amendment deals with the change in use of land which is now being used as a manufactured housing park. The amendment specifies what increases are permitted during the 18 month notification period. Vote 14-0.

AN ACT

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Restricting Rent Increases. Amend RSA 205-A-3, III to read as follows:

III. 18 months, for an action based on RSA 205-A:4, VI. Subsequent to the issuance of the notice required by this paragraph, no owner or operator shall charge, and no tenant shall be liable for, any rent increase other than increases which are based on the unit's pro rata share of increases in insurance, water costs, sewer costs, and real property taxes.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

HB 1220-FN-L, providing that the state shall apply for and utilize moneys from the Goals 2000 - Educate America Act. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Reps. Charles B. Yeaton, Nils H. Larson, Jr., Barbara L. Spear, Stanley N. Searles, Sr., Susan B. Durham, Suzan L. R. Franks, Jane E. O'Hearn, William S. Belvin, Robert H. Guest, William A. Riley, Richard L. Champagne, John M. White and Clair A. Snyder for the Majority of Education: After a lengthy hearing, the majority of the committee felt that it is inconsistent with our tradition of local control to deny local districts from applying for funds under Goals 2000. While the few who were opposed warned of strings attached, they were unable to provide evidence of such strings. The testimony of the N.H. Commissioner of Education was clear that strings and paper work are minimal compared to other federal programs. The funds available to New Hampshire will be valuable in furthering the acquisition of technology for our schools and the advancement of school improvement under the state's assessment and improvement program. Vote 13-8.

Reps. Karen K. Hutchinson, George W. Wright, Robert E. McKinley, O. Alan Thulander, Michael F. Marcinkowski, John J. Laurent and James E. Ross for Minority of Education: The minority of the committee believes that New Hampshire's continued opposition to a national curriculum "strings"/mandates associated with the Goals 2000 legislation will encourage a continuation of current dialogue in Washington facilitating change in the Goals 2000 legislation.

Reps. Hutchinson, Thulander and Goddard spoke against.

Rep. Larson spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Goddard requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 1252-FN-A-L, appropriating funds to the school improvement program within the department of education. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Susan B. Durham for Education: The School Improvement Program was eliminated in the last budget. This bill will move the assistance and support of the Department of Education under the N.H. Educational Improvement and Assessment law and offer assistance to schools in developing their own improvement plans. Vote 12-1.

Amendment (4699L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

establishing a local education improvement assistance program and making an appropriation therefor.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Section Heading Revised. Amend the section heading of RSA 193-C:9 to read as follows:

193-C:9 Local Education Improvement and Assessment Plan*; Assistance Program.

2 Local Education Improvement Assistance Program Established. RSA 193-C:9, II is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

II.(a) There is established within the department of education a local education improvement assistance program. The department shall use funds appropriated for this program to provide technical assistance and training to school districts in developing and implementing local education improvement and assessment plans based on assessment results.

(b) Funds shall be utilized to support school districts in the use of local and statewide assessment results to improve instruction and enhance student learning, and to identify and implement methods and models of instruction that have proven to be effective in helping students reach the educational standards identified in the New Hampshire curricular framework.

(c) A strong emphasis shall be placed on identifying model teachers in the areas included in the statewide education improvement and assessment program and providing them with opportunities to share their expertise and enthusiasm with local educators and community members in developing local education improvement and assessment plans.

(d) In implementing this program, the department may enter into grants or contracts with institutions of higher education, regional consortia, and private businesses. Grant recipients and contractors shall work in coordination with, and under the broad supervision of, the department of education.

3 Supplemental Appropriations; Local Education Improvement Assistance Program. The sums of $100,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1996, and $427,500 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1997, are hereby appropriated to the department of education for the local education improvement assistance program established in RSA 193-C:9, II. These appropriations shall not lapse until june 30, 1997. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated. These sums shall be in addition to any other sums appropriated to the department.

4 Repeal. RSA 186:69, relative to the school improvement program, is repealed.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a local education improvement assistance program and makes appropriations to the department of education for such program.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1449-FN-A, revising the school building aid system and continually appropriating a certain portion of real estate transfer tax revenues for such purpose. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John J. Laurent for Education: At this time school districts receive building aid each year as they pay off their bond. Under this bill, state building aid will be given at the time of construction. The district will only bond its part of the cost. The amendment allows school districts to raise private money without losing building aid. Vote 14-2.

Amendment (4418L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 14 with the following:

14 School Building Aid Percentage Set; Incentive Increases. Amend RSA 198:15-b, I and II to read as follows:

I. The amount of the annual grant to any school district duly organized, any city maintaining a school department within its corporate organization, any cooperative school district as defined in RSA 195:1, or any receiving district operating an area school as defined in RSA 195-

A:1, shall be a sum equal to [30] 35 percent of the [amount of the annual payment of principal on all outstanding borrowings of the school district, city, cooperative school district or receiving district, heretofore or hereafter incurred, for the] cost of construction or purchase of school buildings and school administrative unit facilities of a school district, city, cooperative school district or receiving district, to the extent approved by the state board of education, provided that any school district may receive an annual grant in the amount of 40 percent for the construction of an educational administration building for school administrative unit, and provided that the amount of the annual grant in the case of a cooperative school district, or a receiving district operating an area school, shall be 40 percent plus [5 percent for each preexisting district in excess of 2 and each sending district in excess of one, and provided further that no cooperative school district, or receiving district operating an area school, shall receive an annual grant in excess of 55 percent.], in the case of a cooperative school district, 2 percent for each school district in the cooperative, not to exceed 10 percent, and plus, in the case of a receiving district operating an area school, 1.5 percent for each school district in the AREA agreement, not to exceed 7.5 percent.

II. For the purposes of computing grants hereunder, the amount of the annual payment of principal shall be increased by an amount equal to the amount of capital reserve or the amount raised by taxation which was actually expended for the project at any time, divided by the number of years for which bonds or notes were issued to provide funds for such school building or school administrative unit facilities; provided, however that funds transferred to capital reserve from [trusts, bequests and gifts or money received from] insurance policies shall not be eligible for computing grants hereunder. When bonds and notes are issued for a period of less than 5 years, the amount of aid for which the district is eligible shall be paid in no fewer than 5 equal installments.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

Sections 1, 7, 9, 11, and 13-16 of this bill change laws relative to the school building aid system, including authorizing the school building authority to issue bonds and notes in order to pay the state's share of school building aid. Beginning July 1, 1996, the state's share is to be a lump sum payment of 35 percent of the construction cost, with certain exceptions. It also requires that the real estate transfer tax be increased, with revenues from the increase continually appropriated to the authority for its costs associated with the issuance of the bonds, and exempts gifts, capitol reserves, and fundraising revenue from being included in determining the amount of grants.

The remainder of this bill amends certain RSA provisions making them gender neutral and consistent with other sections amended by the bill in accordance with RSA 17-A:6 relative to gender neutral drafting.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1508-FN, requiring the department of safety to keep drivers' records confidential except for certain reasons. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: In considering this bill, each committee member had to weigh the value of open and public access to motor vehicle records against the benefits of keeping those records restricted. While there may be actual benefits to certain individuals in certain cases, the majority of the committee came to the conclusion that such restriction violates the traditional principles of a free and open society whose elected officials and government must at all times be open, accessible and responsive to the public as a whole. (Refer New Hampshire Constitution Part One, Article Eight.) The amended version of this bill sought to address this by providing an extensive list of agencies and occupations exempted from its provisions. Among the latter were "journalists for appropriate journalistic purposes." This assumes that the government has authority to define and to limit the traditional freedom of the press to inform the public (Refer United States Constitution, Amendment One and New Hampshire Constitution, Part One, Article Twenty-Two). Also, insofar as these exempted groups realize some degree of financial gain as a consequence of having access to this information, it violates Part One, Article Ten (NH Constitution). Finally, the committee believes that this legislation is being pushed forward under pressure from impending federal legislation that is unconstitutional in its scope, violating the Ninth and Tenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Part One, Article Seven of the New Hampshire Constitution regarding state sovereignty. The authority to issue New Hampshire driver's licenses and the appropriate handling of that information does not reside with the United States Congress in Washington, DC. Vote 12-3.

Rep. George Katsakiores moved Recommit to Committee.

HOUSE JOURNAL No. 9

Thursday, February 15, 1996

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m., the hour to which it stood adjourned and was called to order by the Speaker.

His Excellency, Governor Stephen Merrill, joined the Speaker on the rostrum for the day's opening ceremonies.

Prayer was offered by Guest Chaplain, Rabbi Ned Soltz from Temple Beth Jacob in Concord.

In the Jewish tradition, this upcoming Sabbath is known as Shabbat Shekalim, the Shabbat of the Shekel. It is the first of a series of special Sabbaths preceding Passover, the festival of the liberation from Egypt. Shabbat Shekalim recalls that according to the Bible, each and every Israelite, whether rich or poor, was to be assessed the minimal sum of one half a shekel per year for the maintenance of the Tabernacle.

As we remember this first Biblical reference to communal responsibility, so we pray to You, O God, that our elected officials, our citizens and those who would aspire to leadership ever be mindful of the common responsibilities we share. We ask Your blessing as we also ask of You vision, wisdom and strength. Amen.

Rep. Sullivan led the Pledge of Allegiance.

SPECIAL ORDERS

HB 1576-FN, relative to extended detoxification of pregnant heroin addicts utilizing the controlled drug methadone. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Doris R. MacIntyre for Majority of Corrections and Criminal Justice: The bill makes an exception to current law prohibiting methadone maintenance programs by permitting methadone treatment for pregnant heroin addicts in certain controlled circumstances. The amendment removes the 2-year pilot program and rewrites the original bill, adding provisions for rules to tighten eligibility for the program, limit the length of time for participation in treatment, and to prevent diversion of methadone. Vote 10-3.

Reps. Richard E. Dolan and Donald W. Gorman for the Minority of Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill is passive in nature and lacks sufficient control to comply with the strict federal regulations for this highly addictive opiate drug. It fails to insure that only pregnant women that attain a specific threshold during pregnancy and lactation are served. We also feel the rulemaking authority granted will delegate spending authority to the Health and Human Services similar to that of House Bill 32 in the 1995 session.

Amendment (4639L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to extended detoxification of pregnant and postpartum heroin addicts utilizing the controlled drug methadone.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Exception Added. Amend RSA 318-B:10, VII to read as follows:

VII. Except as provided in paragraph VIII, no person shall operate a methadone maintenance program in this state. "Methadone maintenance program" means a program designed to substitute the administration of methadone for the illegal use of heroin over a period of time beyond the minimum necessary to resolve physiological addiction to heroin. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit a practitioner from administering, prescribing, or dispensing a controlled drug under paragraph I.

2 New Paragraph; Methadone Therapy. Amend RSA 318-B:10 by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph:

VIII.(a) Notwithstanding paragraph VIII or any other law to the contrary, methadone may be administered, prescribed, and dispensed to pregnant and postpartum heroin addicts and administered as part of an alcohol and drug abuse treatment program, which may include extended detoxification and which is approved by the commissioner of health and human services.

(b) The commissioner of health and human services shall adopt rules pursuant to RSA 541-A, relative to:

(1) Eligibility for the program.

(2) Length of time in the program.

(3) Requirements for participation in prenatal and postnatal care.

(4) Security measures to prevent diversion of methadone to illegal use.

(5) Any other provisions necessary to implement the purposes of this paragraph.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

HB 1584-FN-L, relative to DNA testing of convicted sexual offenders, establishing a sexually oriented business license and fee, and continually appropriating such fees. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for the Majority of Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee's amendment to this bill restricts it only to the establishment of a state DNA data bank containing identification information on convicted serious sexual offenders. The state will then have access to a nationwide offender identification system sponsored by the FBI. Participation in this program should aid in the investigation of sexual offenses, increase the identification of offenders, more speedily exclude innocent suspects, and aid in the deterrence of future offenses. Passage of this bill makes New Hampshire eligible for a federal grant to establish a DNA database, and a section of the bill says that the testing will not be done until adequate funds have been appropriated. Vote 13-1.

Rep. Donald W. Gorman for the Minority of Corrections and Criminal Justice: The minority believes this is the tip of the federal camel under the tent. It would appear under this bill that DNA samples would be under the control of the FBI and subject to federal regulations with the state acting only as the agent. There appear to be serious constitutional considerations with this legislation.

Amendment (4781L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to the establishment of a DNA databank and to the DNA testing of convicted sexual offenders.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Subdivision; DNA Testing of Sexual Offenders. Amend RSA 632-A by inserting after section 19 the following new subdivision:

DNA Testing of Sexual Offenders

632-A:20 Definitions. In this subdivision:

I. "Department" means the department of safety.

II. "Division" means the division of state police, department of safety.

III. "DNA" means deoxyribonucleic acid.

IV. "DNA sample" means a blood, tissue, or hair follicle sample provided by any person or submitted to the division pursuant to this subdivision for analysis or storage or both.

V. "DNA profile" means the characteristics of a DNA sample which are of value in establishing the identity of individuals.

VI. "FBI" means the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

VII. "CODIS" means the Combined DNA Index System, the FBI's national DNA identification index system.

VIII. "Sexual offender" means a person who has been convicted of any violation of:

(a) RSA 632-A:2, RSA 632-A:3, or RSA 632-A:4; or

(b) A law of another state or the federal government reasonably equivalent to a violation listed in subparagraph (a).

IX. "Juvenile sexual offender" means a person who has been found delinquent because of actions which, if the person were an adult, would be crimes under subparagraph VIII(a).

632-A:21 DNA Analysis Required.

I. Before the release of any sexual offender after conviction, or of any juvenile sexual offender after finding of delinquency, whether on probation, conditional or unconditional release, completion of sentence, or release for any other reason, such person shall have a blood sample taken by the department of corrections for DNA analysis to determine identification characteristics specific to the person.

II. The analysis shall be performed under the direction of the division, following procedures in conformance with the federal "DNA Identification Act of 1991". Identifying characteristics of the resulting DNA profile shall be stored and maintained by the division in a DNA data bank compatible with the CODIS system. Information in the data bank shall be made available only as provided in RSA 632-A:22.

III. The division shall prescribe procedures compatible with the Federal Bureau of Investigation's requirements for the CODIS program, to be used in the collection, submission, identification, analysis, storage and disposition of DNA samples and DNA profiles obtained pursuant to this subdivision.

IV. The division may contract with third parties for the purposes of this subdivision. Any DNA sample sent to third parties for analysis shall be coded to maintain confidentiality concerning the donor of the sample.

V. A certificate and the results of the analysis shall be admissible in any court as evidence of the facts stated in the analysis.

632-A:22 Dissemination of Information in DNA Data Bank.

I. It shall be the duty of the division to receive blood samples and to analyze, classify, and store the DNA profiles of blood samples submitted pursuant to this subdivision, and to make such information available to federal, state, and local law enforcement officers upon request made in furtherance of an official investigation of any criminal offense. A request may be made by personal contact, mail, or electronic means. The name of the person making the request and the purpose for which the information is requested shall be maintained on file with the division.

II. The commissioner of the department of safety shall adopt rules under RSA 541-A to govern the methods of obtaining information from the state DNA data base and CODIS and procedures for verification of the identity and authority of the requester.

III. Upon request, a copy of the request for a search shall be furnished to any person identified and charged with an offense as the result of a search of information in the data bank. Only when a sample or DNA profile supplied by the person making the request satisfactorily matches a profile in the data bank shall the existence of data in the data bank be confirmed or identifying information from the data bank be disseminated.

IV. The division shall create a separate statistical data base comprised of DNA profiles of persons whose identities are unknown. Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit the department from sharing or otherwise disseminating the information in the statistical data base with law enforcement or criminal justice agencies within or without the state.

632-A:23 Unauthorized Dissemination or Use of DNA Data Bank Information; Obtaining Blood Samples Without Authority; Penalties. Any person who, without authority, disseminates information contained in the DNA data bank shall be guilty of a class B misdemeanor. Any person who disseminates, receives or otherwise uses or attempts to use information in the data bank, knowing that such dissemination, receipt or use is for a purpose other than as authorized by law, shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor. Except as authorized by law, any person who, for purposes of having a DNA analysis performed, obtains or attempts to obtain any sample submitted to the forensic science laboratory for analysis shall be guilty of a class B felony.

632-A:24 Expungement of DNA Data Bank Records Upon Reversal or Dismissal of Conviction.

I. A person whose DNA profile has been included in the data bank pursuant to this subdivision may request expungement on the grounds that the criminal conviction on which the authority for including such person's DNA profile was based has been reversed and the case dismissed. The department shall purge all records and identifiable information in the data bank pertaining to the person and destroy all samples from the person upon receipt of a written request for expungement pursuant to this section and a certified copy of the court order reversing and dismissing the conviction.

II. The DNA profile of any juvenile sexual offender shall be maintained in the data base and shall not be automatically expunged from the data base upon that individual reaching the age of adulthood.

2 Funding. The division shall not be required to collect, evaluate or enter data from DNA samples unless adequate funding has been appropriated.

3 Applicability. The provisions of this act shall apply to crimes committed after the effective date of this act and to persons incarcerated in state or county corrections facilities as of the effective date of this act.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 1537-FN-A-L, relative to unapproved schools and appropriating a certain portion of real estate transfer tax revenues for emergency funding. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Barbara L. Spear for Education: This bill addresses a serious situation for 55 school districts which stand to lose their state aid because they have been unable to meet minimum standards established by the state. Loss of those dollars will make it even more difficult to meet those standards. Also, tuitioned students will not be allowed to attend an unapproved school. This bill will give the districts breathing time to come up with alternatives without losing their state aid. The bill has a built-in sunset clause. Vote 11-5.

Amendment (4498L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Real Estate Transfer Tax Increased. Amend RSA 78-B:1, I to read as follows:

I.(a) A tax is imposed upon the sale, granting and transfer of real estate and any interest therein including transfers by operation of law. Each sale, grant and transfer of real estate, and each sale, grant and transfer of an interest in real estate shall be presumed taxable unless it is specifically exempt from taxation under RSA 78-B:2.

(b) The rate of the tax is [$.35] $.45 per $100, or fractional part thereof, of the price or consideration for such sale, grant or transfer; except that where the price or consideration is $4,000 or less there shall be a minimum tax of [$14] $18. The tax imposed shall be computed to the nearest whole dollar.

2 Real Estate Transfer Tax Decreased. Amend RSA 78-B:1, I to read as follows:

I.(a) A tax is imposed upon the sale, granting and transfer of real estate and any interest therein including transfers by operation of law. Each sale, grant and transfer of real estate, and each sale, grant and transfer of an interest in real estate shall be presumed taxable unless it is specifically exempt from taxation under RSA 78-B:2.

(b) The rate of the tax is [$.45] $.35 per $100, or fractional part thereof, of the price or consideration for such sale, grant or transfer; except that where the price or consideration is $4,000 or less there shall be a minimum tax of [$18] $14. The tax imposed shall be computed to the nearest whole dollar.

3 Expiration of Board's 3-year Conditional Approval for Certain Schools to Receive State Financial Aid; Emergency Funding.

I. Any school for which the board has granted conditional approval for 3 years in which to meet the minimum standards necessary for the district in which such school is located to receive state financial aid pursuant to RSA 194:23-d, and for which such period of conditional approval has expired and resulted in the unapproved status of the district, such district shall be eligible to apply for emergency funds to be used to enable the unapproved school to meet the minimum standards required under RSA 194:23-d. Such funds shall not be used to make bond payments for physical facility construction, but may be used to provide temporary facilities to meet approval.

II.(a) Except where a bond issue has been passed, during the interim period from the expiration of a school's conditional approval to the date on which such school becomes qualified to receive state financial aid, RSA 194:23-d shall not apply; provided that such period shall not exceed one year after receipt of the emergency funds, or 3 years after the bond issue addressing the non-compliance for that portion requiring construction.

(b) Upon qualification of a school which has received emergency funding, RSA 194:23-d shall apply if such school subsequently fails to meet minimum standards and the district becomes ineligible for funding.

4 Application of Real Estate Transfer Tax Increase. The increase of $.10 per $100 in the real estate transfer tax under section 1 of this act to be continually appropriated to the department of education pursuant to section 5 shall also apply to any temporary rate for the real estate transfer tax established pursuant to law.

5 Appropriation. An amount equal to $.10 per $100 of the sale price or consideration for which the real estate transfer tax is required to be paid under RSA 78-B:1, I shall be continually appropriated to the department of education for emergency funding to schools under this section until such time as all schools in the state have acquired qualified status under RSA 194:23-d.

6 Qualification of All Schools. Upon qualification of all schools under RSA 194:23-d, the commissioner of education shall certify such to the secretary of state, commissioner of revenue administration, and the state treasurer at which time the emergency funding under section 5 shall cease.

7 Prospective Decrease in Real Estate Transfer Tax; Emergency Funding. Upon certification by the commissioner pursuant to section 6 of this act, sections 2 and 8 relative to a decrease in the real estate transfer tax and repeal of emergency fu7nding shall take effect.

8 Repeal. Section 5 of this act, relative to the appropriation for emergency funding to schools, is repealed.

9 Effective Date.

I. Sections 2 and 8 of this act shall take effect as provided in section 7.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

Adopted.

Rep. Putnam spoke against.

Rep. Jacobson spoke in favor.

Rep. Larson spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Cobbin requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 1540-FN-L, changing the school foundation aid distribution formula. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Jane E. O'Hearn for Education: This bill will reduce wide yearly swings in foundation aid by using a three-year moving average in the calculation. This result will allow for more accurate planning of foundation aid receipts and more accurate budget development for local school districts. Vote 10-2.

On a division vote, 277 members having voted in the affirmative and 38 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

Rep. Chagnon wished to be recorded against.

HB 1554-FN-A, establishing a school supplies and equipment program and making an appropriation therefor. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Robert E. McKinley for Education: This bill's primary purpose is to establish a 20-year $100,000,000 bond to permit the upgrade of "state of the art" technology in the state's school systems. The committee feels this warrants a more complete study and thus recommends interim study. Vote 11-5.

Adopted.

HB 1288, relative to pesticide product registration. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Donald R. Philbrick for Environment and Agriculture: All pesticides will continue to be registered at an annual fee of $50 as established last year. What this bill will do is eliminate the separate categories i.e., registered, general use, specialty household. The Department of Agriculture felt that it was much too difficult to differentiate between general use and specialty household pesticides and impossible to enforce without additional personnel. Vote 15-1.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1516-FN-A, establishing a program for the redevelopment of properties contaminated with hazardous waste and continually appropriating funds for the program. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard O. Wasson for Environment and Agriculture: It was agreed by the sponsor of this bill to have it incorporated into HB 1536-FN covering the same general subject. Vote 17-1.

Adopted.

HB 1536-FN-A-L, encouraging private purchase, clean up, and restoration of contaminated sites. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Harold P. Melcher for Environment and Agriculture: This bill, as amended, provides a formal process for cleaning up contaminated "brownfields" sites. A covenant not to sue may be provided to participants who are not, and were not, responsible for the pre-existing contamination. This legislation should return property to tax rolls, increase economic activity and productivity, and most important, clean up sites which have been contaminated for years. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4775L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to encouraging private purchase, clean up, and restoration of environmentally contaminated sites and making a supplemental appropriation to the department of environmental services.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Legislative Findings. The general court of the state of New Hampshire hereby finds that it is in the public interest to encourage the redevelopment of industrial, commercial, residential and other properties that have been subject to environmental contamination. The "Brownfields Program" is designed to provide certain incentives and remove obstacles to the redevelopment of such properties which exist under current law.

2 New Chapter; Brownfields Program. Amend RSA by inserting after chapter 147-D the following new chapter:

CHAPTER 147-E
BROWNFIELDS PROGRAM

147-E:1 Findings and Purpose.

I. The general court finds that it is in the public interest to encourage the redevelopment of industrial, commercial, residential and other properties that have been subject to environmental contamination. The strict liability imposed on owners and operators of contaminated property under existing environmental statutes has had the unintended result of discouraging the repurchase and reuse of some contaminated properties. These properties, often referred to as brownfields, are therefore frequently abandoned or underused. The general court also finds that it is appropriate to consider the risk posed by the contamination to human health and the environment in light of enforceable restrictions on the future use of the property when establishing cleanup goals for a contaminated property.

II. The purpose of this act is to give incentives to parties interested in the redevelopment of contaminated properties by facilitating the remedial process and by providing comprehensive liability protection to parties who assume responsibility for property remediation without preexisting liability for cleanup or whose existing liability is premised solely upon their status as an owner under strict liability statutes.

III. It is the further intent of this chapter to expedite the voluntary cleanup of all contaminated properties by application of the remedial process and approach provided herein where the contaminated property or party conducting the remediation does not qualify for comprehensive liability protection.

147-E:2 Establishment of Program. An environmental cleanup program is hereby established to further the redevelopment of contaminated properties. The cleanup program shall be administered by the department. The division of public health services, department of health and human services, shall assist the department as necessary by the review of risk assessments for properties for which the department determines that risk assessments shall be conducted. (4) Fails to comply with program requirements under RSA 147-E:16.

(b) The holder of the covenant shall be given a reasonable opportunity to cure the noncompliance after notice by the department, except that any knowing violation of any use restriction shall void the covenant. Notwithstanding cure, the holder of the covenant shall be liable for the increased harm to human health and the environment caused by the noncompliance.

IV. The covenant shall be void if the holder of the covenant obtained a determination of eligibility under RSA 147-E:4 or any approval under this chapter by fraud or material misrepresentation, by knowingly failing to disclose material information, or by providing a false certification to the department.

147-E:7 Liability Protection Before Covenant Issues.

I. Site investigation and pre-remedial activities conducted at the property during participation in the program shall not trigger liability for remediation of pre-existing contamination at the property solely because of the eligible person's status as owner or operator of the property under the strict liability provisions of RSA 146-A, RSA 146-C, RSA 147-A or RSA 147-B, as applicable.

II. An eligible person participating in the program shall not be liable for the remediation of additional contamination or increased environmental harm caused during site investigation or pre-remedial activities unless attributable to the eligible person's negligent or reckless conduct, except as provided in RSA 147-E:8, I(b).

III. An eligible person who withdraws from the program after site stabilization as provided in RSA 147-E:8 shall not be strictly liable as an owner under RSA 147-B:10 for pre-existing contamination at the property that is known or foreseeable based upon information submitted to the department before withdrawal from the program unless the eligible person:

(b) Stabilize the site in accordance with a site stabilization plan approved by the department. Site stabilization is limited to those actions necessary to ensure that work conducted at the property has not caused greater risk to human health and the environment than existed before the remedial work was commenced, and to ensure that the property will not pose an imminent hazard to human health or the environment.

(c) Pay all outstanding fees accrued by the department in connection with the property's participation in the program, including fees associated with site stabilization.

II. Withdrawal from the program as provided in this section before completion of the approved remedial action plan shall not be considered inconsistent or interference with the approved remedial action plan and will not void the covenant.

147-E:9 Application for Participation in Covenant Not to Sue Program.

I. Any person may submit an application to the department for a determination of that person's eligibility to obtain a covenant not to sue as part of that party's participation in the program administered under this chapter. The application for eligibility for a covenant not to sue shall be in the form and shall include all information the department requires in accordance with rules adopted under RSA 147-E:18.

II. A complete application for an eligibility determination for a covenant not to sue shall in substance consist of:

(c) A description of the proposed redevelopment and future use of the property.

(d) Any information necessary for the department to make a determination of eligibility in accordance with RSA 147-E:4.

(e) A non-refundable application fee of $500.

(3) The information in the application and environmental assessment is accurate and complete to the best of the applicant's knowledge.

(4) The concurrence of the property owner has been obtained, or the property owner's implied consent has been obtained by virtue of a mortgage or other written agreement signed by the owner, or, after a diligent search, the current owner or legal representative thereof could not be located.

(5) The applicant understands and acknowledges that the liability protection under this chapter, including a covenant not to sue, shall be forfeited if the applicant decides not to complete an approved remedial action plan and does not complete site stabilization measures pursuant to RSA 147-E:8; and acknowledges that it may be appropriate accordingly to establish a contingency or escrow fund to cover the costs of site stabilization measures.

III. The applicant shall provide the governing body of the municipality in which the property is located and adjacent property owners with notice of the application when submitted to the department, and shall provide the municipality with a complete copy of the application.

IV. The department shall review the application for completeness within 10 working days of receipt. The department shall promptly notify the applicant in writing if the application is incomplete. If the applicant fails to provide the necessary supplemental information within 30 days of such notification, the department may return the application to the applicant. Any subsequent reapplication shall require an additional application fee.

147-E:10 Eligibility Determination with Respect to Covenant Not to Sue.

I. Within 30 days of receiving a complete application, the department shall make a determination of eligibility in accordance with RSA 147-E:4 after review and approval by the department of justice. III. The applicant may request in writing that the commissioner of the department, in conjunction with the department of justice, review an eligibility denial. The commissioner shall issue a final decision, after review and approval by the department of justice. No appeal of the commissioner's final decision shall be available.

147-E:11 Site Investigation and Remedial Action Plan.

I. Any person who is deemed eligible by the department for a covenant not to sue pursuant to RSA 147-E:4, and any other person who wishes to voluntarily undertake the investigation or remediation of a property and who obtains the concurrence of the department to do so, shall submit a work plan for a comprehensive site investigation to the department. The site investigation work plan shall be in the form and shall contain all information required by the department in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to RSA 147-E:18. The purpose of the site investigation is to gather sufficient information about the property and contamination to identify and justify a preliminary recommendation for remediation. The participant shall submit any additional information required by the department during its evaluation of the work plan, or the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter.

II. An initial program participation fee shall accompany the site investigation work plan in accordance with RSA 147-E:14, II. Upon submittal of a site investigation work plan and payment of the initial program participation fee, a person shall be considered a program participant.

III. In addition to the application and program participation fees, the program participant shall be responsible for all reasonable notice and hearing costs associated with property redevelopment under this chapter. The program participant shall reimburse the department for such costs upon written request.

IV. The department shall evaluate the site investigation work plan and shall either approve, approve with conditions or disapprove the work plan. If the department approves with conditions or disapproves, the program participant shall resubmit a revised work plan, or the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter.

V. Upon completion of the site investigation, the program participant shall submit a site investigation report, or the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter. The site investigation report shall be in the form and shall contain all information required by the department in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to RSA 147-E:18. The site investigation report shall at a minimum:

(a) Define the source, nature, concentration and extent, including geologic and hydrologic extent, of each contaminant present on or in the property.

(b) Define all known and possible pathways for contaminant migration.

(c) Identify all relevant sensitive receptors.

(d) Evaluate the current and long-term risk from contamination to human health and the environment.

(e) Provide a preliminary recommendation, with justification and consideration of alternative approaches where appropriate, for abatement, removal, remediation and monitoring activities at the property.

(f) Recommend a risk assessment to be conducted in a manner satisfactory to the department of health and human services and the department of environmental services if the proposed remedial approach does not require complete source removal.

VI. The department may approve the site investigation report, or may require revisions to the report, additional investigation under an amended work plan, or both, before approving the report. The participant shall conduct such additional site investigation work and make such revisions as are required by the department after the department's review of the report, or the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter.

VII. After approval of the site investigation report by the department, the program participant shall prepare a remedial action plan, unless the department determines that no further activity is required at the property. If the participant decides not to submit a remedial action plan in response to a department request for such a plan, the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter. A remedial action plan shall describe in detail a remedial strategy for the property that shall ensure protection of human health and the environment and shall:

(a) Address all elements required by department rules adopted pursuant to RSA 147-E:18.

(b) Address all sources of contamination, either by removal, containment or treatment.

(c) Ensure protection of the groundwater off-site, providing for off-site remediation, or at a minimum, a plan for continued monitoring of the groundwater while contamination remains.

(d) Describe the cleanup approach for each known contaminant during the active phase of remediation and at completion of the remedy by which performance standards will be met.

(e) Include a risk assessment, which is satisfactory to the department of health and human services and an environmental risk assessment satisfactory to the department of environmental services, that define the risk to human health and the environment where contaminant concentrations are to remain higher than established performance standards.

(f) Recommend use restrictions on the proposed and future uses of the property where necessary to protect human health and the environment and describe in detail how such restrictions will be imposed and maintained, including an analysis of the long-term feasibility of maintaining such use restrictions.

(g) Describe anticipated site stabilization measures for each phase of the remedial action, including cost estimates for achieving site stabilization if remedial work were to be stopped at the property before accomplishing all of the tasks specified in the approved remedial action plan.

VIII. After evaluation and consideration of public comments, if any, the department shall approve, approve with conditions or disapprove the remedial action plan. If the department approves with conditions or disapproves, the program participant shall submit a revised remedial action plan, or the participant may withdraw from the program as provided in this chapter.

IX. A program participant may elect to condense the submittal and review process described in this section after receiving a determination of eligibility or department approval to participate in the program. A program participant shall obtain the approval of the department for an alternative schedule of submissions. The department may require after-the-fact development of work plans, additional investigation, report supplementation, or resubmittal as necessary to obtain an approvable remedial action plan.

147-E:12 Approval of Remedial Action Plan.

I. Upon receipt of a remedial action plan, the department shall provide public notice of the proposed remedial action. The notice shall provide a date for a public information meeting where there is significant environmental impact.

II. An approved remedial action plan shall provide for all removal, remedial, monitoring and other activities required to protect human health and the environment and to meet all applicable cleanup standards. The department's approval shall include a designation of the activities that must be completed before a certificate of completion will be issued in accordance with RSA 147-E:13, III.

III. The department may accept alternative risk-based cleanup standards based upon risk assessments developed pursuant to RSA 147-E:11, VII(e).

IV. The department may approve a remedial action plan for all, or a portion of, contamination at the property. The department shall impose such conditions on the redevelopment and use of the property as it finds necessary or proper to assure that the contamination on the site does not pose an unacceptable risk to human health and the environment during and after completion of the remedial action plan.

V. Upon approval of a remedial action plan:

(a) The department shall issue to the program participant a notice of approved remedial action plan that identifies the property, provides a general description of the contamination and summarizes the main components of the remedial action plan, including all specific restrictions on future use of the property.

(b) The department of justice shall issue a covenant not to sue to a program participant determined to be an eligible person pursuant to RSA 147-E:4. The covenant not to sue shall be in a form and subject to the conditions set forth in RSA 147-E:6.

VI. The program participant shall immediately record the notice of approved remedial action plan in the registry of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

147-E:13 Performance and Completion of Remedial Action.

I. The program participant shall perform all activities required by the approved remedial action plan and shall provide the department with regular progress reports regarding the work.

II. The department may require amendment of the remedial action plan at any time during its performance as necessary to attain the cleanup levels established in the remedial action plan in light of the approved risk assessments.

III. Upon completion of the activities specified in the approved remedial action plan, a program participant shall file with the department a completion report in form and content satisfactory to the department. Once the department determines that the required activities have been completed according to the requirements of the approved remedial action plan, that monitoring requirements are being met, that any necessary use restrictions have been implemented, and that all fees and costs due under this chapter have been paid, the department shall issue to the program participant a certificate of completion, which shall certify that the work is completed and shall include a description of any use restrictions, monitoring requirements and any other conditions that remain in effect with respect to the property.

IV. Upon receipt of a notice of a certificate of completion, a program participant shall file the document with the related covenant not to sue in the registry of deeds for the county in which the property is located.

V. If at any time the department determines, including upon petition or request by a program participant, that no further investigation, remediation, or other activities are required, the department shall issue a certificate of no further action in a form suitable for recordation, which shall so state, and which shall include a description of any remaining required use restrictions or monitoring requirements, or a statement that there are no remaining use restrictions or monitoring requirements.

VI. Upon a determination by the department, in consultation with the department of health and human services where appropriate, that property use restrictions may be terminated or shall otherwise be modified pursuant to RSA 147-E:15, the department shall issue to the program participant, in a form suitable for recordation, a notice of such determination. The department shall ensure that all such notices are recorded promptly in the registry of deeds for the county in which the property is located, either by undertaking the recordation itself, or by requiring the program participant to do so.

147-E:14 Fee Schedule.

I. Any person, except for the state and local governments, including school districts, who requests an eligibility determination under RSA 147-E:4 shall pay a nonrefundable application fee of $500 for program eligibility which shall be deposited in the hazardous waste cleanup fund. Any resubmittal of an incomplete application shall require an additional $500 for each resubmission.

IV. The department may remove or modify use restrictions independently of the property owner by filing a release or modification of the restrictions in chain of title for the property. Before removing or modifying such use restrictions, the department shall consult with the department of health and human services. The department shall comply with the public participation requirements of RSA 147-E:12, I. 147-E:17 Sale or Transfer of Property in Program.

I. Property in the brownfields program may be transferred to a successor owner at any time during the remedial process. A successor owner may participate in the brownfields program as provided in this section after receiving an eligibility determination under RSA 147-E:10 and paying the program fee under RSA 147-E:14.

II. If transfer of the property is made before approval of a remedial action plan, the successor owner, upon receipt of an eligibility determination and payment of the program fee, shall:

HB 1225-FN, requiring the temporary salary reduction of certain unclassified state employees. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The bill would discriminate among those in the classified system by decreasing the salary level of many in their letter group and above. Any complaint which fails to state a cause of action may summarily be denied in whole or in part. Some or all of the allegations in the complaint may be consolidated with another complaint or with issues which the board decides to investigate or hear on its own motion. If an investigation of a complaint results in an offer of settlement by the licensee, the board may settle the allegations against the licensee without the consent of a complainant, provided that material facts are not in dispute and the complainant is given an opportunity to comment upon the terms of the proposed settlement.

IX. At the commencement of an adjudicatory proceeding, or at the commencement of a formal or informal investigation, and without issuing a subpoena, the board shall mail a statement of the issues being investigated or heard to any licensee or other person who is a proper subject of inquiry and require the licensee or other person to provide a detailed and good faith written response to the allegations identified by the board. The licensee or other person shall provide complete copies of the licensee's office records concerning any patient whose treatment is relevant to the matters at issue. The licensee shall respond to such request within a time specified by the board, provided that such time shall not be less than 15 days.

137-F:22 Hearings, Decisions, and Appeals.

I. An adjudicatory hearing shall be an open public proceeding. Any member of the board may reside at such a hearing and may issue oaths or affirmations to witnesses.

II. The board shall furnish the licensee or any other respondent at least 15 days' written notice of the date, time, and place of a hearing, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Such notice shall include an itemization of the issues to be heard, and, in the case of a disciplinary hearing, a statement as to whether the action has been initiated by a written complaint or upon the board's own motion, or both. If a written complaint is involved, the complainant shall also receive a written copy of the hearing notice and shall be provided with a reasonable opportunity to intervene as a party.

III. Any person appearing at a board hearing or investigation may be represented by legal counsel, but the board shall have no obligation or authority to appoint or provide an attorney to any person appearing at a board hearing or investigation.

IV. The board may at any time dispose of issues or allegations at an adjudicatory hearing, or investigation, by default, settlement agreement, or consent order by issuing an order of dismissal for failing to state a proper basis for disciplinary action or by summary judgment order based upon undisputed material facts. In disciplinary hearings, the board may hold pre-hearing conferences which shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 91-A, but all final disciplinary actions, including those which occur without holding a public hearing, shall be available to the public.

V. Adjudicatory decisions and final disciplinary actions of the board shall be by the majority of the board members participating in the decision. Such decisions shall not be public until they have been reduced to writing, signed by a representative of the board, and served upon the parties.

VI. Decisions of the board may be appealed to the supreme court pursuant to RSA 541. The court shall not stay any disciplinary sanction imposed by the board pending appeal, if the board has determined that the sanction is required for the public safety and welfare. Any person whose license has been revoked shall comply with the licensure requirements of this chapter relative to license reinstatement.

137-F:23 Temporary Suspension. The board may order suspension of a license or privilege granted under this chapter pending hearing for no more than 60 days if the board believes thee is an imminent danger to life or health. In such cases, the basis for the board's findings of imminent danger to life or health shall be in writing and combined with the notice requirements in RSA 541-A:30. The board's hearing may commence no later than 30 days after the order suspending the license. If the board does not commence the hearing within 30 days, the suspension order shall be automatically vacated. A licensee shall be allowed additional time to prepare for or complete a hearing under this section only by agreeing to further suspension commensurate with the additional time extended.

137-F:24 Disclosure to Customers.

I. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist shall sell a hearing aid without presenting the purchaser an itemized receipt, which shall include the following:

(a) The name and address and signature of the purchaser.

(b) The date of consummation of the sale.

(c) The name and the regular place of business of the hearing aid dealer or dealer's registration number or of the audiologist or audiologist's license number, and signature of the registrant or licensee.

(d) The make, model, serial number, and purchase price of the hearing aid and the terms of the warranty.

(e) An itemization of the total purchase price, including but no limited to the cost of the aid, ear mold, and batteries and other accessories and any other services;

(f) A statement as to whether the hearing aid is "new", "used" or "reconditioned";

(g) The complete terms of the sale, including a clear and precise statement of the 30-day money back guarantee required under RSA 137-F:27:

(h) The name, address and telephone number of the consumer protection and antitrust bureau, division of public protection, department of justice, with a statement that complaints which arise with respect to the transaction may be submitted in writing to the consumer protection and antitrust bureau; and

(i) The following statements in 10 point type or larger: 1) "This hearing aid will not restore normal hearing nor will it prevent further hearing loss;" 2) "You have the right to cancel this purchase or rental for any reason within 30 days after receiving the hearing aid."

II. Each registrant or licensee shall keep records of every customer to whom such person renders services or sells hearing aids, including a copy of the receipt as specified under paragraph I, a record of services provided, any correspondence to or from a customer and any records required under the rules for the hearing aid industry as promulgated by the United States Federal Trade Commission on July 20, 1965, or as amended, or any rules for the hearing aid industry promulgated by the United States Food and Drug Administration. These records shall be preserved for at least 3 years after the date of transaction.

137-F:25 Unsolicited Home Sales Prohibited. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, employee or agent thereof, shall canvass either in person or by telephone from house to house for the purpose of selling or renting a hearing aid without prior request from the prospective customer, a relative or friend of the prospective customer.

137-F:26 Return of Hearing Aid; Cancellation Fee. No hearing aid shall be sold to any person unless accompanied by a 30-day written money back guarantee that if the person returns the hearing aid in the same condition, ordinary wear and tear excluded, as when purchased within 30 days from the date of delivery, the hearing aid dealer or audiologist may be entitled to a cancellation fee of 5 percent of the purchase price. In computing the actual purchase price, all rebates, discounts, and other similar allowances provided to the seller must be considered. For the purpose of this section, any consumer who initiates the return of a hearing aid within said 30-day period shall have complied with this section. The addressing of any claimed deficiency or return shall be resolved within 90 days from date of delivery.

137-F:27 Deceptive Advertising Prohibited.

I. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, or employee or agent thereof, shall use or cause to be used or promote the use of any advertising matter, promotional literature, testimonial, guarantee, warranty, label, brand, insignia, or other representation, however disseminate or published, which is misleading, deceptive, or untruthful. All advertising by mail which offers free hearing testing or other services by a hearing aid dealer or audiologist shall clearly state in such advertising that the offers are made by a hearing aid dealer or audiologist.

II. No hearing aid dealer, or employee or agent thereof, shall represent that the services or advice of an individual licensed to practice medicine or of an individual certified as an audiologist will be used or made available in the selection, fitting, adjustment, maintenance, or repair of hearing aids where that is not true; or use or incorporate in any title or designation the words, "doctor," "otologist," "clinic," "clinical audiologist," "audiologist," "state licensed clinic," "state certified," "state approved," "state registered," "certified hearing aid audiologist," or any term, abbreviation, or symbol which would give the false impression that one is being treated medically or audiologically or that the registrant's services have been recommended by the state.

III. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, or employee or agent thereof, shall use any advertisement or any other representation which has the effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in the belief that any hearing aid or device, or part of accessory thereof, is a new invention or involves a new mechanical or scientific principle when such is not the fact.

IV. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, or employee or agent thereof, shall state or imply that the use of any hearing aid will restore hearing to normal, or preserve hearing, or prevent or retard the progression of a hearing impairment or make any false or misleading or medically or audiologically unsupportable claims regarding the efficacy or benefits of hearing aids.

V. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, or employee or agent thereof, shall advertise a particular model, type, or kind of hearing aid when the offer is not a bonafide effort to sell the product so offered as advertised.

VI. No hearing aid dealer or audiologist, or employee or agent thereof, shall advertise that a hearing aid will be beneficial to persons with hearing loss, regardless of the type of loss. No such dealer, employee, or agent shall advertise that a hearing aid will enable persons with hearing loss to consistently distinguish and understand speech sounds in noisy situations.

VII. No hearing aid shall be sold to any person unless the packaging containing the hearing aid carries the following disclaimer in 10 point type or larger: "This hearing aid will not restore normal hearing nor will it prevent further hearing loss."

137-F:28 Display of Certificate. Any person who has been issued a license or certificate of registration under this chapter shall conspicuously display such certificate in the principal place of business for which such registration is issued.

I. No person shall conduct or operate a business outside of the state for the sale at retail of hearing aids to individuals within the state unless such business is registered with a permit issued by the board.

II. The board shall issue a permit to such out-of-state business if the business discloses and provides proof:

(a) That the business is in compliance with all applicable laws and rules in the state in which the business is located;

(b) Of the operating locations and the names and titles of all principal corporate officers;

Rehearings and appeals from a decision of the board shall be in accordance with RSA 541. Any administrative fine imposed under this section shall not preclude the imposition of further penalties or administrative actions under this chapter. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with RSA 541-A relative to administrative fines which shall be scaled to reflect the scope and severity of the violation. The sums obtained from the levying of administrative fines under this chapter shall be forwarded to the state treasurer to be deposited into the general fund.

HB 1454-FN, establishing a board of ophthalmic dispensing, and relative to the board's fees and making an appropriation therefor. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Lawrence A. Emerton, Sr. for Executive Departments and Administration: The subcommittee worked diligently to obtain an agreement, accord or compromise on the need for regulation of opticians. The need for licensure or certification was never demonstrated. There was no testimony that there was a developing pattern of complaints or abuse by those presently practicing opticianry. There was also no demonstrated need for establishing a new board to regulate this group. The committee is in the process of developing an administrative reorganization plan for occupational and professional boards and establishing criteria for licensure, certification and registration. The committee determined that this legislation could better be dealt with after further study and incorporated into the new guidelines. The differences of opinion within the optician community need to be resolved and the committee felt interim study would be the best recommendation at this time. The present registration is the best possible scenerio while the matter is studied further. Vote 8-7.

Rep. Dunn spoke against.
Rep. Taylor spoke in favor.

HB 1514-FN, relative to the regulation of the profession of physical therapy. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Robert K. Dodge for Executive Departments and Administration: In as much as there seems to be no pressing need at the moment to change the administrative attachment of the physical therapists from the Board of Medicine, the committee voted to put the bill in interim study. This will allow the committee time to find the best way to handle the regulation of physical therapists. Vote 8-6.

Adopted.

HB 1531-FN, transferring the duties of the division of historical resources to the office of state planning. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Maurice E. Goulet for Executive Departments and Administration: It was apparent from the testimony that the Department of Cultural Affairs did not wish to lose the Division of Historical Resources, and the Office of State Planning was not in favor of accepting this division. It became clear, after a sub-committee work session, that nothing could be gained through this divisional transfer. Vote 12-3.

Adopted.

HB 1555-FN-A, authorizing the commissioner of the department of environmental services to impose administrative fines for certain environmental violations and continually appropriating certain fine revenues. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Sylvia A. Holley for Executive Departments and Administration: As they implement federal mandates, Air Resources Division of the Department of Environmental Services seeks administrative fine authority to be used with discretion to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of its environmental efforts (air pollution control, acid rain control, air toxic control, asbestos management and control). The committee felt it was essential that this enforcement was necessary in order to level the playing field. Vote 12-1.

HB 1559-FN, to redefine earnable compensation for the purpose of determining retirement benefits. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: This bill as written would have caused some problems for members of the New Hampshire Retirement System in planning their retirement program. In the latest calculation of the actuarial pension benefit obligation, the funding is only at a 90.1% level. This is of concern to the committee as we are looking at the long term vitality of the system for those near retirement as well as those just entering the system. The committee wants to study this subject under a study bill still in the possession of the committee. The members of the committee agreed that any future legislation should include a method of grandfathering present members of the system so they can continue with their plans for their retirement without disruption. Vote 14-0.

Adopted.

Reps. Beach and Howard Williams declared conflicts of interest and did not participate.

HB 1333-FN-L, relative to aid to the disabled. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Alphonse A. Haettenschwiller for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill has been completely amended. The amendment was drafted by the Department of Health and Human Services to restore a policy that existed prior to the passage of HB 32 of not including supplemental assistance to a permanently and totally disabled person when calculating assistance under the AFDC program. Since the department did not list the change in HB 32 as saving any money, there will be no fiscal impact as a result of this legislation. Vote 19-0.

Amendment (4716L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to public assistance for households containing persons with disabilities.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Employment Program; Eligibility. Amend RSA 167:79, II to read as follows:

II. The following persons shall be included in the assistance group, unless such person receives state supplemental assistance or supplemental security benefits under Title XVI of the Social Security Act, foster care or adoption assistance, if living in the same household or temporarily absent from the household: any dependent child and all minor blood-related, step, or adoptive brothers and sisters, [except children who are receiving foster care,] and all natural, step, or adoptive parents of such children. In the case of a minor parent, the assistance unit may also include all natural, step, or adoptive parents of the minor parent and all minor blood-related, step or adoptive brothers and sisters[, except children receiving foster care]. If the parents are not residing together a child shall be considered residing with the parent who has physical custody of the child the majority of the time.

2 Eligibility; Income. Amend RSA 167:80, IV(h) to read as follows:

(h) Federal, state, and local means-tested assistance other than [SSA retirement, SSA survivors, SSA disability insurance, supplemental security income, veterans' benefits, and state supplemental benefits, or any other type of income] means-tested assistance that is defined as included by the department by rules adopted pursuant to RSA 541-A.

3 Repeal. The following are repealed:

I. RSA 167:79, V(a)(2), relative to eligibility for assistance for certain benefit recipients.

II. RSA 167:82, VIII(a)(5) relative to medical needs deduction as disregards and deductions for determining net income.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies eligibility for public assistance for households containing persons with disabilities.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1445-FN-A-L, funding the developmental disabilities waitlist from the health care transition fund and making an appropriation therefor. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Carol Moore for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill aids the developmentally disabled who are in the two most urgent categories of need and are on the waiting list for services. The majority of the committee felt that the legislature made a commitment to serve these people when closing the institutions that served them and we wish to honor that commitment. The committee supported a similar bill last year which the senate also passed and the house barely missed overriding the governor's veto by only five votes. Vote 10-9.

Rep. Maxwell D. Sargent for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The sub-committee on HB 1445 reported 2-1 inexpedient to legislate to the full committee. HB 32 gives the commissioner the authority to transfer "among any and all accounts and appropriation units". Last year, the legislature indicated that funding the "wait list" was a priority by overwhelmingly passing a similar bill which was subsequently vetoed. The governor has indicated also his sense of priority by exempting the wait list from the across the board cuts demanded of the department. Thus, because the priority has been stated again and again, and because there is virtually no possibility of a surplus, the minority could see no purpose in passing this legislation this year.

Amendment (4730L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

providing for certain services for the developmentally disabled and making an appropriation therefor.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Intent. The general court recognizes that the state of New Hampshire has made a commitment under RSA 171-A to implement a statewide system of services for persons with developmental disabilities. The general court is cognizant of and concerned that each year so many of the state's developmentally disabled persons are deprived of essential services. Therefore, the general court makes it a policy of the state of New Hampshire that services for these persons shall be the number one priority for any surplus state or federal dollars or interest from any specialized accounts not designated in prior legislation.

2 Appropriation.

I. The general court hereby authorizes the appropriation from any surplus federal or state funds or from any surplus interest from any specialized account not previously designated by the legislature, to the department of health and human services, division of mental health and developmental services or its successor unit; an amount not to exceed $3.9 million for the purpose of addressing the needs of those persons on the waiting list for services from the developmental services system.

II. Federal funds received during fiscal years 1996 and 1997 for the purposes of paragraph I are hereby appropriated and shall be in addition to any other funds appropriated. The appropriation made in paragraph I shall come from 1996 surplus funds or interest from any specialized account not previously designated by the legislature and shall not become available unless the commissioner of administrative services determines, in accordance with RSA 21-I:8, I(h), prior to the official closing of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1996, that there are surplus funds not to exceed $3.9 million after all other general fund financial obligations for such fiscal year are met. This appropriation shall be made notwithstanding RSA 9:13-e. This shall be the first priority for funding if funds from state or federal sources become available for this purpose.

III. The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sums out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

3 Statement of Intent. The general court further recognizes that the parents of persons with disabilities and family support groups are most acutely aware of the problems associated with the unavailability of services. Therefore, the general court hereby establishes an advisory committee in section 4 of this act consisting of such persons who shall, among others, assist the commissioner of the department of health and human services to establish policies and procedures to address the waiting list issue.

4 New Section; Advisory Committee. Amend RSA 171-A by inserting after section 19 the following new section:

171-A:19-a Advisory Committee Established; Priorities.

I. There is hereby established a committee which shall serve in an advisory capacity to the commissioner of health and human services to assist the commission in establishing policies and procedures to address the wait list issue. The advisory committee shall consist of the following members:

(a) One representative from the office of public guardian, appointed by such office.

(b) One representative from the New Hampshire Association of Retarded Citizens, appointed by such association.

(c) One representative from the developmental disabilities council, appointed by such council.

(d) A provider of services appointed by the commissioner of health and human services.

(e) One representative from a state designated protection and advocacy program, appointed by the director of that program.

(f) The commissioner of health and human services, or designee.

(g) One representative from the Parent Information Center, appointed by such center.

(h) Three parents of persons with disabilities and 3 members of different family support groups to be appointed by the commissioner of health and human services, in consultation with the developmental disabilities council.

II. The members of the committee shall advise the commissioner of health and human services in determining flexible and innovative methods for the allocation of funds for the purpose of reducing waiting lists for services.

III. The commissioner of health and human services shall, within 30 days of the effective date of this section, call the first meeting of the advisory committee. The members of the committee shall elect a chairperson from its membership.

5 Prospective Repeal. RSA 171-A:19-a, relative to an advisory committee on wait list procedures, is repealed.

6 Effective Date.

I. Section 5 of this act shall take effect July 1, 2002.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes an appropriation for the developmentally disabled persons in this state who are wait listed for certain services. This bill also establishes an advisory committee to advise the commissioner of health and human services on establishing policies and procedures to address the wait list issue.

Adopted.

(Rep. Cole in the Chair)

Rep. Wendelboe spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Burnham, Manning and Kennedy spoke in favor.

Rep. Wendelboe requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

Rep. Stone did not vote and wished to be recorded in favor.

HB 1490, relative to the regulation of optometry. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Katharin Pratt for Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This is a complex bill with serious consequences for the residents of New Hampshire. There was a great deal of conflicting data submitted, all of a highly technical, medical nature. The committee believes the interim study process will give this bill the time and attention it deserves outside the constraints of the regular legislative season. Vote 11-8.

Adopted.

RECESS

(Speaker Burns in the Chair)

Rep. Katherine Wheeler requested a quorum count. The Speaker declared a quorum present.

HB 1493-FN, relative to COLAs for AFDC recipients. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Richard G. Warner for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill would require the Director of Human Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to establish payment to those on the aid to families with dependent children program "which shall annually be increased to equal the amount of the annual increase in the corresponding standard of need". The majority of the committee did not agree with automatic annual increases. Vote 10-7.

Rep. Katherine Wells Wheeler for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: In 1993, the Health, Human Services & Elderly Affairs committee voted 15-0 in favor of a cost of living increase for AFDC recipients. The house affirmed this by a vote of 240-110. This important policy to support the poorest of New Hampshire's children was cut from the budget at the end of the session in 1995. Since 1993, the state has become richer and the gap between the standard of need and the standard of payment has continued to increase so that now an AFDC grant is less than one-third of the standard of need. The minority feels that a small annual cost of living increase is the best way for the legislature to affirm its support for the poorest and most vulnerable part of the population, the children.

Rep. Katherine Wheeler spoke against.

Reps. Warner and Wendelboe spoke in favor.

Rep. Feng requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

and the report was adopted.

Rep. Wells voted nay and intended to vote yea.

Rep. Teschner did not vote and wished to be recorded in favor.

Rep. Wollner wished to be recorded against.

HB 1521-FN, relative to employment and training programs for families receiving aid to families with dependent children. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Maxwell D. Sargent for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: Both the majority of the full committee and the majority of the sub-committee felt that this bill contained specifics which will act as a constraint on the responsibilities and flexibility given to the commissioner in HB 32. HB 32 addresses post secondary education, the required work component and the earned income disregard. This bill was written before HB 32 was put before the legislature. The majority of the committee feels that we should let HB 32 move forward as we originally intended it to do and not tie the hands of the department. Also, the language in this bill concerning work limitations would not be in compliance with present proposed federal block grants which would result in loss of some federal funds if passed. Vote 11-7.

Reps. Katherine Wells Wheeler, Marion L. Copenhaver, Cecelia D. Kane, Carol Moore and H. Thayer Kingsbury for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: The minority feels that this bill would allow a program which is working well now to continue. Students on AFDC and enrolled in 4 year post-secondary programs who testified before the committee said that they are being enabled, by the current program, to get off welfare and become self-sufficient. The students also said that they would not have been able to do well in their studies if they had also had to have a 20 hour a week job and find daycare for a child under 3 years old. Families headed by women are often in poverty because of the gap in earning power between men and women. This bill would help close that gap.

On a division vote, 222 members having voted in the affirmative and 87 in the negative, the report was adopted.

HB 1553-FN-A, clarifying the requirements for participation in the New Hampshire JOBS program and making an appropriation therefor. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Joan C. Sullens for the Majority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill is in conflict with HB 32 which was adopted last year and has not yet had an opportunity to fully be put into effect. The Department of Health and Human Services needs the flexibility of HB 32 to explore many and various educational and training opportunities to better meet the individual needs of persons in the JOBS program. Vote 13-5.

Reps. Katherine Wells Wheeler, H. Thayer Kingsbury, Joseph P. Manning, Cecelia D. Kane and Carol F. Moore for the Minority of Health, Human Services and Elderly Affairs: This bill restores partial (and limited) funding to AFDC recipients in post-secondary education. With welfare reform, recipients will need a wide range of options. It is not possible to stay off AFDC on a $6 per hour job. This bill would restore the support (currently in place but removed by HB 32) for the 3rd and 4th year of an undergraduate degree and would prepare some people to lead a life of self-sufficiency - the goal of all welfare reform proposals. This program is currently working successfully. Why should we eliminate it?

Adopted.

HB 1294, amending the law against discrimination to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation. MAJORITY: REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Margaret D. Hallyburton for the Majority of Judiciary and Family Law: The committee was asked by the sponsors of the bill to refer the bill to interim study. There is a case currently pending before the Real Estate Commission that will definitively demonstrate the need for this bill. Vote 9-7.

Reps. Benjamin J. DePecol, Barbara Hull Richardson, Josephine Mayhew, David C. Allison, Sandra Balomenos Keans and Lionel W. Johnson for the Minority of Judiciary and Family Law: The minority of the committee believes this bill ought to pass. We have studied this for years. We have held many public hearings, and a similar bill passed this house just two years ago. This is not an exclusive group rights bill, nor is it a "gay rights bill". Everyone has a sexual orientation, and this bill protects everyone. The committee heard, in public testimony, specific instances of discrimination against both heterosexuals and homosexuals. This bill would outlaw that discrimination.

Rep. Goddard spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. McCann, Fuller Clark and Hallyburton spoke in favor.

Rep. Sabella spoke against.

MOTION TO LAY ON THE TABLE

Rep. Gibson moved that HB 1294, amending the law against discrimination to prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, be laid on the table.

Rep. Gibson requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the motion to lay on the table.

HB 1309-FN-L, requiring the state to reimburse county sheriff departments for all costs of providing bailiff and security services to courts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Donald F. McMahon for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill calls for deputy sheriffs employed as court bailiffs to be paid $65 per day, up 30 percent from the $50 in effect today. One problem, in addition to the added cost, each county has a different policy and the cost is uniform, creating an uneven balance between services and funding in each county. We need a more balanced policy among counties. Vote 13-1.

Adopted.

HB 1318, relative to the confidentiality of information and attendance at proceedings under the child protection act. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Margaret D. Hallyburton for Judiciary and Family Law: The bill provides that a parent who is alleged to have abused or neglected their child may bring an advocate, in addition to a lawyer, to any hearing in the matter. The committee supports the concept but needs additional time to draft a final bill which will address the role of the advocate and confidentiality issues. We are concerned that the law be explicit so that procedures are consistent court to court. Vote 10-6.

Adopted.

HB 1577-FN, relative to expenses for voluntary or court dispositional service plans and the appointment of attorneys. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Julie M. Brown for Judiciary and Family Law: Chapter 308, 1995 laws is new policy language added to the HB 2 trailer bill without having had any public hearing or opportunity for floor amendments. The intent of this bill is to relieve families adversely affected by present law, and to provide reasonable reimbursement to the state. The committee heard day-long testimony from families describing the financial hardships caused by this policy change. No one spoke in opposition to the bill. Vote 15-2.

Amendment (4810L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT
relative to expenses for voluntary or court dispositional service plans.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Statement of Intent. The legislature intends for this act to apply to all cases open for reimbursement on or after the effective date of this act.

2 Delinquent Children; Parental Liability for Services Recoverable for One Year. RSA 169-B:40, I(c) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(c) The state shall have a right of action over for such expenses against the parents or the people chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities and the right to require parents or other people chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities to assign to the state any insurance coverage that may be available to pay for all or a portion of the services provided. The division shall request reimbursement for such expenses from parents or other people chargeable by law for the minor's support and shall request assignment to the state of any insurance coverage that may be available to pay for all or a portion of the services provided. The court shall require the individual chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities to submit a financial statement to the court upon which the court shall make an order as to reimbursement to the state as may be reasonable and just, based on the person's ability to pay. Such financial statement shall include, but not be limited to, any benefits received from the Social Security Administration or insurance coverage available to the individual. The court shall include disposition of these benefits in its order as to reimbursement. Such reimbursement shall be established on a per month or per week basis and shall continue for one year beyond the time such services are rendered. The court's jurisdiction to order reimbursement shall continue until the obligation to reimburse has been fulfilled. If the court does not issue a reimbursement order, the court shall issue written findings explaining why such reimbursement is not ordered.

3 Abused or Neglected Children; Parental Liability for Services Recoverable for One Year. RSA 169-C:27, I(c) is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

(c) The state shall have a right of action over for such expenses against the parents or the people chargeable by law for the child's support and necessities and the right to require parents or other people chargeable by law for the minor's support and necessities to assign to the state any insurance coverage that may be available to pay for all or a portion of the services provided. AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that parental liability for the expenses for voluntary or court dispositional service plans shall be recoverable for a period of one year after such service is rendered.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1590-FN, relative to the workers' compensation administration fund. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Robert H. Turner for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This bill changes the amount of total assessments paid by insurance carriers and self-insurers to the workers' compensation administration fund. This bill increases the total assessment so that it does not exceed 2 percent of the total compensation, including medical benefits, paid by all insurance carriers and self-insurers during the previous calendar year. The majority of the committee voted ought to pass because the fund is decreasing due to the less dollar volume of claims paid out because the latest workers' compensation reform bills are decreasing the number of claims and the dollars paid out. Vote 15-2.

Adopted and referred to Finance.

Rep. Baroody declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

HB 1504-FN, requiring that testimony in public hearings and executive sessions of legislative committees be taped. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. David M. Scanlan for the Majority of Legislative Administration: The stated need for this bill was to improve minutes and documentation in files relative to committee hearings. While recording legislative proceedings on an electronic format might improve the record, the quality and storage of the record is still dependant upon the system that currently exists. To the extent that current records are poorly kept or mishandled, this bill does nothing to correct that situation. The majority of the committee also felt the fiscal note is understated. Vote 9-5.

Reps. William H. McCann, Raymond C. Buckley II, Amanda A. Merrill, David E. Cote and Katherine Wells Wheeler for the Minority of Legislative Administration: This bill would facilitate the determination of legislative intent and constitutional history by requiring that legislative committee meetings be recorded electronically. This procedure would obviate the current situation where legislative intent and constitutional history of a bill is too often a matter of speculation due to inadequate, incomplete or missing records.

Reps. Copenhaver and Cobbin spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Scanlan spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 189 members having voted in the affirmative and 128 in the negative, the report was adopted.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Cobbin requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

By way of protest, I submit the following testimony which by accident, mistake or misfortune was lost in the records of the Judiciary and Family Law Committee during the course of considering House Bill 612.

Testimony in support of HB 612, by Representative Philip Cobbin, Grafton 11.

Title XI of the crime bill attacked the rights of states and citizens to keep and bear arms by terminating production of a broad class of semi-automatic firearms and ammunition magazines. The crime bill is one in a series of steps whereby arms are to be restricted under a "sporting purpose" test and large capacity, militia quality firearms are banned from future manufacture for possession by citizens.

The crime bill impinges on the rights of states by further allocating to the federal government power to regulate how a state can utilize arms. Under the guise of limiting individual citizens to "recreational" or "sporting arms", the crime bill impinges on the rights of the State to maintain the militia. Accordingly, the firearm provisions of the crime bill deserve attack on second, ninth, and tenth amendment grounds under the Federal Constitution. Further the law deserves attack under New Hampshire State Constitution, as many provisions of the State's constitution pre-date the federal constitution, and thus can be argued as being a statement of state's rights reserved under the 10th amendment of the United States Constitution.

The crime-bill is a culmination of efforts by those in our society who are hostile to the second amendment. The crime bill was drafted consistent with the views of some who refuse to recognize that under our federalism the police power is reserved to the states, not the Federal Government.

The Congress and Federal courts in particular are widely known to hold the second amendment in contempt, and the tenth amendment as a nullity. Under supreme court jurisprudence the constitution means what the court says it means. But do they have the authority, or merely the power to make such pronouncements. And do we not have our own obligations under our oaths to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of New Hampshire?

There is a growing body of evidence which suggest the courts and the congress have gained title to our civil liberties from the intellectual equivalent of thieves: The second amendment, and the tenth amendment have been particularly victimized. On the second amendment front, the amendment has been ridiculed as a quaint nullity, or it's meaning cast in solely militia terms, with the militia being defined as being the national guard [EN1].

An increasing body of legal scholarship is showing that the second amendment was and is a core vision of America[EN2]. The second amendment is not a "collective right" nor purely an "individual right", but rather an integrated right whereby one has the individual right to keep and bear arms to provide the grist of a well regulated militia to the states. The right to bear arms is being viewed also through the constitutional lens of the ninth amendment, and if the courts continue to ignore the right, then such precedents lay the ground work for future cases to strip away free speech and freedom of association et al. Turning to the tenth amendment, the time is long past due to restore the vigor of the tenth amendment: it is not a nullity, and report's of its demise are premature.

Senator Hatch of Utah observed in 1982 that he was:
"constantly amazed by the indifference or even hostility shown the Second amendment by courts, legislatures, and commentators. James Madison would be startled to hear that his recognition of a right to keep and bear arms, which passed the House by a voice vote without objection and hardly a debate, has since been construed in but a single, and most ambiguous Supreme Court Decision."[EN3]

Senator Hatch went on to "repudiate the approach of those who believe to solve American problems you simply become something other than american . . . When our ancestors forged a land 'conceived in liberty' they did so with musket and rifle."[EN4]

The rationale against a vigorous second amendment interpretation is that (a) "the federal courts no longer recognize the need for military balance between the population and its government", or (b) after three centuries the right to keep and bear arms is anachronistic. Levin [EN5] finished the second amendment off with this homily:

As the policing of society becomes more efficient, the need for arms for personal self-defense becomes more irrelevant; and as the society itself becomes more complex, the military power in the hands of the government more powerful, and the government itself more responsive, the right to bear arms becomes more futile, meaningless and dangerous [EN6].

The second amendment is cast in terms of a state vs federal tension over standing armies by Levin in-spite of the desire of ratifying states such as New Hampshire for a "provision that 'Congress shall never disarm any citizen unless such as are or have been in Actual Rebellion'".

Levin's view of history is charitably myopic when compared against federalist/anti-federalist propaganda associated with ratification of the constitution. Under Hallbrook's [EN7] analysis of historical materials, George Mason's view of the right to keep and bear arms is typical: That the people have a right to keep and bear arms; that a well regulated militia, composed of the body of the people trained to arms, is the proper, natural, and safe defense of a free state; that standing armies in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, and therefore ought to be avoided. [EN8]"

Thus the second amendment has an integrated meaning: the right of the people to keep and bear arms for their own defense, and said right of the people providing the grist of a well regulated militia to provide for the security of a free state. This view of the constitution is consistent with republicanism of the late eighteenth-century America, including the views of New Hampshire men at the time the republic was founded. [EN9]

As pointed out by a growing legion of commentators, the "collective" view of the second amendment is a fabrication of this century. The commentator Halbrook concluded that: "[i]n recent years it has been suggested that the second amendment protects the "collective" right of states to maintain militias, but not the right of "the people' to keep and bear arms. If anyone entertained this notion in the period in which the Constitution and Bill of Rights were debated and ratified, it remains one of the most closely guarded secrets of the eighteenth century, for no known surviving writing of the 1787-1791 period states that thesis.

The "collective" rights view has been called into question by the observation "that the fact the right to keep and bear arms is joined with language expressing one of its purposes [militia] in no way permits a construction which limits or confines the exercise of that right ... the right to keep and bear arms cannot be interpreted into nonexistence by limiting it to one of it's purposes. To hold otherwise is to violate the principle that 'constitutional provision for the security of a person and property should be liberally construed. A close and literal construction deprive them of half their efficacy, and leads to gradual depreciation of the right, as if it consisted more in sound than in substance. [EN10]

Kates is the more quoted authority in pro-gun control legal scholarship with his qualified second amendment theory whereby the amendment provides a "guarantee an individual right to possess certain kinds of weapons in the home [under] certain kinds of circumstances." [EN11] Kates view of the constitution with "certain kinds of weapons" is an interpretation which invites piecemeal erosion of the right into a nullity ala the tenth amendment. Kates has seen some of his work invalidated by subsequent scholars, and remains under scholarly attack as inconsistent with history and the overall framework of the constitution.[EN12]

Kates's qualified second amendment approach is tailored to the mind-set of the bureaucratic administrative state. Under this view, regulatory restrictions can progressively move forward to strip the right down to a nullity. His most recent work viewed the amendment from a self-defense perspective, having come to admit that had the founders known of modern police agencies, they would not have "repudiated their belief in the right of self-defense-and of individuals to be armed for self-defense." [EN13] His view of the amendment not extending to military class firearms is severely undercut by his own observation of the quality of the police state in that: Many readers in well-policed modern America may find it difficult to see riot either as a socio-political phenomenon or as something to which personal self-protection is relevant. Yet over many years riot and nightrider attacks-perpetrated while police stand by-have served to undercut or destroy civil rights gains ... It has been suggested that the availability of firearms for protection against private, retaliatory violence as a key to the Civil Rights Movement's survival in the southern United States of the 1950s and 1960s. [EN14]

The predilections of judges has been suggested as a basis for a warping of the second amendment into a creature the founders would not recognize. [EN15] Here, the devil is in the footnotes of Dowlut's work [EN16]. The logic of the Morton Grove handgun ban in Quilici v. Village of Morton Grove, 695, F.2d 261 (7th Cir. 1982) is shown to be a "disingenuous maneuver to turn constitutional guarantee into an intangible abstraction." The Morton Grove court's disingenuous maneuver being an example of "twistification" by the judiciary envisioned by Thomas Jefferson.[EN17] Likewise the plasticity of legislative power as problematic "to restrain lawmakers who knew how to exploit the suppleness of legislative power itself" was a concept known to Madison as related to drafting bills of rights.[EN18]

Beyond the Second Amendment

Recent scholarship has focused on the ninth amendment as a vehicle for analyzing the right to bear arms. Johnson's [EN19] Rutgers Law Journal article illustrates how ninth amendment Supreme Court case law supports the right to keep and bear arms.[EN20] It now has become quite evident that "guns were not considered the embodiment of evil with 'little, if any compensating social advantage'. Johnson reminds us that "[o]our political history shows that placing blind trust in government may be dangerous." And that it is vital to give meaning to the ninth amendment which respects the framer's fear and mistrust of power sited in the federal government.[EN21]

1. Even under current statute, 10 U.S.C. Section 311(a)(1982) defines the militia as:
 The militia of the United States consists of all able-bodied males at least 17 years of age and . . . under 45 years of age who are or who have made declaration of intention to become citizens of the United States and of female citizens who are commissioned officers of the National Guard.

HB 1569-FN, relative to house bills and constitutional authority. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Katherine Wells Wheeler for Legislative Administration: HB 1569 would require every house sponsor of a bill to cite the constitutional authority under the state and federal constitution for every proposed bill or amendment. Although the committee recognizes the importance of proposing bills which are not in conflict with the constitution, we did not think that the citations in the bill would provide much meaningful information and would sidetrack discussions. Also, the cost of implementation could be almost $100,000 per year or 10% of the budget of Legislative Services. Vote 12-0.

Rep. Mirski spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Katherine Wheeler spoke in favor.

Rep. Cobbin spoke against.

Rep. Mirski requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 1626-FN, relative to the procedure for microfilming records in the state archives. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Terence R. Pfaff for the Majority of Legislative Administration: The majority of the committee believes that there were questions left on the table relative to the integrity and security of the records. The majority agrees that the speed of retrieval and preservation of legislative documents is vital, but HB 1626-FN as written is not the vehicle to accomplish the task. Vote 8-6.

Reps. William H. McCann, Jr., Raymond C. Buckley II, Katherine Wells Wheeler, David E. Cote and Amanda A. Merrill for the Minority of Legislative Administration: HB 1626 would require all legislative committee records to be indexed and microfilmed in order to facilitate their retrieval and preservation. The means of access and reference would be limited to the microfilmed version, except in special circumstances. A complete micrographic laboratory has been in place at the Archives since 1990, which would make microfilming feasible and cost-effective in view of the frequent use of legislative records by legislative researchers, and the availability of interns and employees for the actual microfilming.

LAID ON THE TABLE

Rep. McCann moved that HB 1626, relative to the procedure for microfilming records in the state archives, be laid on the table.

On a division vote, 173 members having voted in the affirmative and 139 in the negative, the motion was adopted.

HB 1562-FN-L, relative to preventing downshifting of welfare costs to cities and towns. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Thomas A. Behrens for Municipal and County Government: The committee unanimously endorses this legislation which addresses potential downshifting of welfare costs to towns and cities by HB 32. Three months of negotiations with the department, legal assistance, and the Municipal Association produced these modifications to the statutes which achieve the following: 1) Requires state notification to city and town welfare administrators as to any benefit reductions which have occurred; 2) Notifies recipients of their potential loss of local benefits if state reductions are made; 3) Allows local welfare administrators to consider as income any amount of reduction to assistance in their calculation of local benefits, 4) Requires a reporting program be instituted which will yield hard data as to what actual cost shifting has occurred; 5) Finally, this legislation reiterates the welfare administrators' responsibility to determine that the health and safety of children is not in immediate danger prior to any benefit adjustment. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4758L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Purpose. The purpose of this act is to ensure that cities and towns can take into consideration certain reductions in state assistance when determining the amount of assistance a person requires under RSA 165 to prevent a shifting of the costs from the state onto cities and towns.

2 New Subparagraph; State Assistance Reductions as Income. Amend RSA 165:1, II by inserting after subparagraph (d) the following new subparagraph:

(e) A statement that qualified state assistance reductions under RSA 167:82, VIII may be deemed as income, if the local governing body has permitted the welfare administrator to treat a qualified state assistance reduction as deemed income under RSA 165:1-e.

3 New Section; Option to Treat a Qualified State Assistance Reduction as Deemed Income. Amend RSA 165 by inserting after section 1-d the following new section:

165:1-e Option to Treat a Qualified State Assistance Reduction as Deemed Income. The local governing body of a town or city may permit the welfare administrator to deem as income all or any portion of any qualified state assistance reduction pursuant to RSA 167:82, VIII. The following criteria shall apply to any action to deem income under this section:

I. The authority to deem income under this section shall terminate when the qualified state assistance reduction no longer is in effect.

II. Applicants for general assistance may be required to cooperate in obtaining information from the department of health and human services as to the existence and amount of any qualified state assistance reduction. No applicant for general assistance may be considered to be subject to a qualified state assistance reduction unless the existence and amount of the reduction has been confirmed by the department of health and human services.

III. The welfare administrator shall provide the applicant with a written decision which sets forth the amount of any deemed income used to determine eligibility for general assistance.

IV. In order to prevent immediate threat to the health and safety of children in the household, the welfare administrator shall waive what portion, if any, of the qualified state assistance reduction is necessary.

4 New Paragraph; Qualified State Assistance Reductions. Amend RSA 167:82 by inserting after paragraph VII the following new paragraph.

VIII. When the department has made a final determination that a parent or caretaker relative, without good cause, has failed to comply with employment program work requirements under RSA 167:85, and assistance to the household has been reduced pursuant to RSA 167:82, III (c)-(e) or IV(a), the amount of reduction shall be a qualified state assistance reduction. The reduction shall remain a qualified state assistance reduction for so long as the parent or caretaker relative is a New Hampshire employment program recipient and maintains the present ability to cure the reduction by complying with employment program work requirements. The department shall provide advance notice to the parent or caretaker relative of the amount and effective date of the qualified state assistance reduction and that a city or town may consider the amount as deemed income for purposes of calculating eligibility for and the amount of general assistance. Upon request, the department, in a timely manner, shall make available to the welfare administrator of any city or town information as to the existence and amount of any qualified state assistance reduction that has been imposed on any person applying for assistance from that municipality.

5 Evaluation and Review. The department of health and human services, in consultation with the New Hampshire Municipal Association and New Hampshire Legal Assistance, shall review and evaluate qualified state assistance reductions and consequent actions to deem income under RSA 165:1-e. The department and the New Hampshire Municipal Association shall agree on what information towns and cities shall provide to the department. Towns and cities shall provide information to the department upon request as reasonably necessary for the purposes of this section. The department shall report no later than November 1, 1998, on the results of its review and evaluation together with any recommendations for legislation to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house.

6 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill allows towns and cities to deem as income all or any portion of any qualified state assistance reduction resulting from the failure of an applicant for general assistance to comply with employment program work requirements.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1589-FN-L, allowing municipalities to file motions to transfer abatement petitions filed in superior court to the board of tax and land appeals. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Thomas E.P.Rice, Jr. for Municipal and County Government: This bill would allow the Board of Selectmen to deny an aggrieved property tax payer's access to the Superior Court, thus closing the door to a presently-available source of justice. This seemed to the committee as a profound injustice. Vote 9-4.

Adopted.

HB 1529-FN-L, relative to the procedures for vacating uninhabitable or unsafe buildings. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Leo P. Pepino for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: This bill would clarify the legal procedures concerning the vacating of a building when such building presents an imminent danger to the occupants relative to health and/or safety issues. This bill also addressed the rights of the occupants. The committee was unable to agree on the details of how this procedure would protect both individuals and municipalities when its provisions were used. Interim Study seemed a logical approach given the several split votes on amendments. Vote 9-4.

Adopted.

HB 1320-A, making a supplemental appropriation for capital improvements to the university system of New Hampshire for the Young Building at Keene state college. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Edwin O. Smith for Public Works and Highways: This project will, by this legislation, be done in one phase saving money. Last year's Capital Budget included only four million dollars for the entire University System. We have the opportunity to direct some additional, needed funds, to help the academic process function more effectively. Adding more class room space and consolidation of faculty offices from four or more different buildings to one will be a very positive step. The last academic addition was around 1980. Student enrollment has grown just under fifty percent since that time. Vote 11-9.

Rep. Wasson spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Edwin Smith spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 186 members having voted in the affirmative and 125 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1336-FN-A, making a capital appropriation to the department of health and human services for the construction of a parking garage and purchase of furnishings for the Brown building. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Leon Calawa, Jr. for the Majority of the Committee on Public Works and Highways: The Brown Building will be ready for occupancy in August of 1997, and if the parking garage is delayed, surface parking will have to be utilized at a cost of $500,000 to $700,000. This would be placed in areas that have been planned for further utilization as outlined in the Master Plan, and are 2,000 (+/-) feet from the Brown Building. This bill also carries a much needed appropriation for the furnishings for the completed Brown Building. The construction of a parking garage to serve the Brown Building has been a House position, and since utilization of the Brown Building would save the state an estimated $800,000 per year in rental costs, it would seem to make sense to provide adequate parking and follow the procedures outlined in the Master Plan. Vote 14-6.

Rep. Katherine D. Rogers for the Minority of the Committee on Public Works and Highways: The minority believes that a capital appropriation of this magnitude for a parking garage should not be a priority for this legislature. Surface parking can be used on the State Hospital campus, as it is now used at the current Health and Human Services facility on Hazen Drive. If built, this parking facility will supply parking for only as many employees as will be housed in the Brown Building, and no area will be available for future employees that may be moved onto the State Hospital campus. This item has been rejected in the past two Capital Budgets, and the minority believes it should be rejected one more time.

Amendment (4449L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

making a capital appropriation to the department of health and human services for the construction of a parking garage and purchase of furnishings for the Brown building and correcting technical errors made in calculating the amount of a bonding authorization for funds for capital projects appropriated in 1994 and 1995.

6 Effective Date.

I. Sections 1-4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

II. Section 5 of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes a capital appropriation to the department of health and human services for the construction of a parking garage and purchase of furnishings for the Brown building. The bill also corrects technical errors made in calculating the amount off a bonding authorization for funds for capital projects appropriated in 1994 and 1995.

HB 1338-FN, establishing a business profits tax credit for businesses establishing alternative fuel facilities or converting motor vehicles to alternative fuel motor vehicles and exempting certain alternative fuel vehicles from the gas tax. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Winston H. McCarty for the Majority of Public Works and Highways: Although the committee saw advantages of promoting clean air and reducing our dependency on foreign fuels the majority of the committee felt that tax incentives should not be used to promote this change, since the yearly impact on the general fund could be two hundred thousand dollars per year for ten years if even one hundred vehicles per year participated in the program. In addition, there would be a one time cost to the Department of Revenue Administration of fifteen thousand dollars for set up costs to administer the program. Vote 12-6.

Rep. Katherine D. Rogers for the Minority of Public Works and Highways: The subcommittee's proposed amendment received a tie vote (nine to nine) in the full Public Works and Highways Committee. The proposed amendment would have established a business profits tax credit for businesses establishing alternative fuel facilities converting motor vehicles to alternative fuel motor vehicles, or purchasing manufactured alternative fuel vehicles. The amended bill would have limited the number of vehicles eligible for the credit at one hundred per year until 2005. While the minority recognizes that the fiscal impact in any year of the ten year period covered in the amendment could be as high as $325,000, we believe that the incentives would assist in the ongoing effort to assure clean air in New Hampshire. This bill would have also worked to start to wean us off of our dependence on foreign oil and helped us to begin further development of the use of alternative fuel sources. The proposed amendment was supported by the Department of Transportation.

Adopted.

HB 1451-FN, authorizing electronic games of chance at pari-mutuel licensee locations. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Regulated Revenues: We have visited this subject on numerous occasions, and we found very little support for this version of video gambling. Three of the race tracks affected by this legislation showed little or no support for this bill. This is essentially the same bill that was defeated last month. Vote 14-2.

Adopted.

HB 1444-FN-L, relative to the classification of the surface waters of the state. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Mary Ellen Martin for Resources, Recreation and Development: While the classification of the surface waters of New Hampshire is appropriate and meets the federal requirements, several related issues require further information and clarification. The intent is to forestall the need for legislative action. Vote 9-5.

Adopted.

HB 1596-FN, requiring all fines and penalties collected by the wetlands board to be deposited into the general fund. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Reps. William E. Williams, Jr. and Howard C. Dickinson, Jr. for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: The majority of the committee feels this legislation will help restore public confidence in the application of wetlands fines and will not, as amended, place any undo financial hardship on the department. Vote 14-3.

Reps. Deborah F. Merritt, Robert J. Laflam, and Mary Ellen Martin for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: The minority of the committee believes the transfer of fines and penalties to the general fund will result in an eventual decrease in funding for the Department of Environmental Services. Given the continued decline in general funds appropriated to the department as a percent of their total budget, we can only surmise these funds will not be passed through in their entirety resulting in increased hardship to the department.

Amendment (4692L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 3 with the following:

4 Transfer of Positions and Funding. The administrative fine and civil penalty moneys deposited in the general fund in fiscal year 1997 due to sections 2 and 3 of this bill shall be used to fund the transfer of $83,772 of class 10 moneys and $25,131 of class 60 moneys from PAU 03, 04, 02, 03, 03 (Wetland Fees) to PAU 03, 04, 02, 03, 01 (Wetlands Administration) for 3 current labor grade 18 wetlands bureau positions.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1996.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill requires all fines and penalties collected by the wetlands board to be deposited into the general fund.

This bill is a request of the study committee on the functions and responsibilities of the wetlands board established by 1995, 184.

This bill transfers money within the department of environmental services to fund 3 existing positions.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1597, changing the wetlands board to the wetlands council. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Reps. William E. Williams, Jr. and Howard C. Dickinson, Jr. for the Majority of Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill is a culmination of the wetlands study committee which met last summer. It replaces the duties of the wetlands board and splits its duties to the wetlands division while all appeals will be heard by the newly created wetlands council. In addition, the bill changes the make-up of the council from the original wetlands board, to include a greater number of members from the private sector. Vote 13-4.

Reps. Deborah F. Merritt, Robert J. Laflam, Paula E. Bradley, and Philip M. Ackerman for the Minority of Resources, Recreation and Development: The minority of the committee believes the change to a wetlands council is a positive development in reform of our wetlands process. However, the new composition of the council raises grave concerns of too much change too soon and possible jeopardization of our federal general permit.

On appeal from a council decision, no ground not set forth in the application for rehearing shall be given any consideration by a court unless the court for good cause shown shall allow the appellant to specify additional grounds.

V. Any hearing by the superior court upon appeal under this section shall be given priority on the court calendar.

VI. Appeal to the superior court, the burden of proof shall be upon the party seeking to set aside the decision of the council to show that the decision is unlawful or unreasonable. The council's decision shall not be set aside or vacated, except for errors of law, unless the court is persuaded by the balance of probabilities, on the evidence before it, that said decision is unreasonable.

VII. Any person whose rights may be directly affected by the outcome of the appeal may appear and become a party, or the court may order such persons to be joined as parties as justice may require.

VIII. Upon the filing of an appeal, the clerk of court shall issue an order requiring a certified copy of the record of the appeal to be filed with the court by the council. The record shall consist of the council's decision, the division's record of decision as submitted to the council, the record of the hearing before the council and its findings of facts and rulings of law.

IX. All evidence transferred by the council shall be considered by the court regardless of any technical rule which might have rendered the evidence inadmissible if originally offered in the trial of an action at law. The court may receive and consider such additional evidence as would be permissible under RSA 677:10.

X. The final judgment upon every appeal shall be a decree dismissing the appeal, or vacating the decision complained of in whole or in part, as the case may be; but, in case such or decision is wholly or partly vacated, the court may also, in its discretion, remand the matter to the council for such further proceedings, not inconsistent with the decree, as justice may require.

XI. An order of court to send up the record may be complied with by filing either the original papers or duly certified copies thereof, or of such portions thereof as the order may specify, together with a certified statement of such other facts as show the grounds of the action appealed from.

XII. The court may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same with the referee's findings of fact and conclusions of law.

HB 1556-FN, eliminating the Pease development authority and the Pease development authority board and transferring its duties and authority to a new international tradeport division. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Warren C. Henderson for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: While there was no support on the committee for the original purpose of this legislation, the committee felt that there are a number of ongoing issues related to the development of Pease which merit further examination. Interim study of this legislation will provide an opportunity for a review of those issues. Vote 11-2.

Adopted.

HB 1511, requiring administrative rules to be codified in the Revised Statutes Annotated. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Carol H. Holden for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: This bill would require that beginning on January 1, 1997, the Director of Legislative Services provide for the revision and recodification of the RSAs so that the statutes would include the N.H. Code of Administrative Rules Annotated. Testimony brought out the implications of the proposal and the problems associated with implementation. The number of rules is at least as great as the number of laws. The rules are constantly changing. Any codification of rules would be continually out of date. Currently the rules are updated regularly and are available to the public. Codification and maintenance would require a legal and support staff. In addition the bill had no fiscal note. Vote 11-0.

HB 1281, restricting the courts' penalties for civil and criminal contempt. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Marjorie H. Battles for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill prohibits the courts from incarcerating any person for civil or criminal contempt, instead restricting the punishment to: a fine for civil contempt in the amount of $50, and a fine for criminal contempt of $100. The Supreme Court has addressed procedures for civil and criminal contempt in its decisions which is where this responsibility should be addressed. Vote 15-0.

Rep. Hart yielded to questions.

HB 1301, limiting adoption expenses. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Margaret D. Hallyburton for Judiciary and Family Law: The bill, as amended, limits payments which may be made by adoptive parents to the birth parents, to those associated with pregnancy and childbirth, and lost income due to childbirth and recovery. The bill also modifies certain notice provisions to a person who claims paternity. Vote 13-1.

Amendment (4811L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to adoption procedures.

Amend the bill by replacing section 4 with the following:

4 Right to Notice and Hearing; Prior to Relinquishment or Termination of Mother's Rights. Amend RSA 170-B:5-a, I(b) to read as follows:

(b) [When the natural mother has relinquished her parental rights under RSA 170-B:8, or her rights have been terminated under RSA 170-C, or if she has executed a consent under RSA 170-B:9,] The natural or legal father, if his identity is known by the court[;], the adoption agency which is legal guardian of the child[;], or the proposed adoptive parents or their attorney, prior to the mother voluntarily relinquishing her rights pursuant to RSA 170-B:8, the mother consenting to an adoption pursuant to RSA 170-B:9, or the mother's parental rights being involuntarily terminated;

Amend the bill by inserting after section 6 the following and renumbering the original sections 7-16 to read as 8-17, respectively:

7 Exception Added; Persons Not Required to Consent. Amend the introductory paragraph of RSA 170-B:9 to read as follows:

170-B:9 How Consent is Executed. Consents shall be executed in all adoptions as follows, except as provided in RSA 170-B:6:

Amend the bill by replacing section 11 with the following:

11 New Section; Limitations on Payment of Adoption Expenses. Amend RSA 170-B by inserting after section 10 the following new section:

170-B:10-a Payment of Natural Parent Expenses; Penalty.

I. In any adoption of an unrelated child under this chapter, a prospective adoptive parent or anyone acting in concert with, at the direction of, or on behalf of a prospective adoptive parent shall pay only the following expenses of the natural parent:

(a) Reasonable counseling, medical, and legal fees, which shall be paid by the party responsible for payment to the provider of the service.

(b) Reasonable expenses for transportation, meals, clothing, and lodging incurred for placement of the child.

(c) Reasonable expenses for adoption services provided by an agency at the request of the natural parent, which shall be paid directly to the agency.

(d) Reasonable living expenses of the natural mother which are necessary to maintain an adequate standard of living which the natural mother is unable to otherwise maintain because of loss of income or other support resulting from the pregnancy and lost wages resulting from the pregnancy or delivery. Payments may cover expenses incurred during the pregnancy-related incapacity, but not for a period longer than 6 weeks following delivery. Reasonable living expenses shall not include gifts in excess of $50, educational expenses, or other payments for the monetary gain of the natural parent.

II. A contract purporting to require a natural parent to reimburse a prospective adoptive parent for such payments under any circumstances, including circumstances in which a natural parent refuses to consent to adoption or withdraws consent to adoption, is void as against public policy.

III. Except as authorized under paragraph I, it is a misdemeanor for an individual to give, or for a natural parent to accept, money or anything of value, or compensation for the placement of a child for adoption.

IV. Violations of this section shall not affect the force or effect of an adoption decree issued pursuant to this chapter; specifically, it shall not be grounds for the finding of fraud or duress affecting the validity of a consent or relinquishment that an adoptive parent paid or refused to pay expenses or other money or things of value not allowed by this section.

V. The court may issue appropriate orders to enforce this section, including orders for reimbursement.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

The bill specifies when proposed adoptive parents may receive notice of and request a hearing on paternity of a child in the adoption process, and makes technical changes to the adoption provisions.

This bill also limits the payment of adoption expenses to legal, medical, counseling, and adoption services costs. The court may authorize payment for certain other reasonable services and expenses if they are directly related to the pregnancy, birth, or adoption. It also provides that it shall be a misdemeanor to otherwise offer to pay or to solicit money or anything of value to achieve an adoption.

The bill also amends the Uniform Act on Paternity by requiring notice to proposed adoptive parents and their attorney of a paternity hearing.

The remainder of this bill amends certain RSA provisions making them gender neutral and consistent with other sections amended by the bill in accordance with RSA 17-A:6 relative to gender neutral drafting.

HB 1373, limiting the contempt powers of the New Hampshire judiciary. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Donald F. McMahon for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee felt that limiting judicial contempt powers, as proposed in this bill, would create an unacceptable, or even unmanageable atmosphere in our courtrooms. Such change could make it even more difficult to administer justice for our citizens. The committee agreed that contempt powers should be studied as a part of any judicial reform effort, but that testimony presented did not make a good case for passage of this bill at this time. This bill was also opposed by the New Hampshire Bar Association. Vote 14-0.

Rep. McMahon spoke in favor.

Adopted.

PROTEST

Pursuant to Part 2, Article 24 of the New Hampshire Constitution, Rep. Cobbin requested that his protest be entered on the Journal.

INTRODUCTION

HB-1373 is patterned on the Pennsylvania statute regulating contempt power of the Pennsylvania courts. Why Pennsylvania? The foundation for contempt power in New Hampshire is that of a Pennsylvania Case arising from events associated with, coincidentally, New Hampshire's ratification of our federal constitution. The foundation case cited by the New Hampshire Supreme Court is: Respublica v. Oswald. Respublica is the first reported contempt case after ratification of the constitution. The case portended the mischief of the federalist which would soon follow with the infamous alien and sedition act. The Contempt power of Pennsylvania courts was restrained following heated controversies in that state shortly after ratification. The contempt power of states was for over a century left untouched by the United States Supreme Court. However, with the application of the First Amendment of the United States Constitution applied to the states by the Fourteenth Amendment since 1925, state contempt power is restrained in the area of free speech. HB-1373 recognizes the limits on state contempt power. What follows is a summary of the contempt power claims of the New Hampshire Supreme Court's line of cases and their shortcomings when viewed against controlling United States Supreme Court precedents and interpretive cases from the First Circuit. See Bridges v. California, 314 U.S. 252 (1941).

RE: HB-1281; judicial immunity does not shield judicial officers from prospective relief in actions brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or from paying attorney's fees under § 1988. Pulliam v. Allen, 104 S.Ct. 1970 (1984); see JUDICIAL IMMUNITY -STATE JUDICIAL OFFICIALS ARE NOT IMMUNE FROM PROSPECTIVE RELIEF IN AN ACTION UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983 OR FROM PAYING ATTORNEY'S FEES TO PREVAILING PARTIES PURSUANT TO 42 U.S.C. § 1988, Baltimore Law Review, Vol 14 at 346. Counsel fees to prevailing parties necessary if Federal civil and constitutional rights are to be adequately protected. House Committee Report: 122 Cong. Rec. 31,472 (1976). In addition, judicial immunity is not an impermeable clothes. Lopez v. Vanderwater, 620 F.2d 1229(1980)(judicial officer liability for prosecutorial acts) citing Stump v. Sparkman, 435 U.S. 349, at 360. Accordingly, regarding Rep. Hemon's bill I would suggest considering providing a mechanism to allow piercing of the immunity shield of judges when they act in violation of a citizen's rights in a contempt proceeding.

CONTEMPT POWER IN NH VS FEDERAL PRECEDENTS

The breadth of the power to punish contempt claimed by New Hampshire courts is laid out in Tenney's Case, 23 NH 162, 166 (1851), to wit:

> It is said by Blackstone, that the process of an attachment for contempt, must necessarily be as ancient as the laws themselves. [Id at 166.]
> Among the matters considered as contempt, Blackstone enumerates printing false accounts, or even true ones, without proper permission, of causes then depending in judgment. Abusing parties concerned in causes before the court of chancery, and prejudicing mankind before the cause is heard, is a contempt; thus printing a brief before the cause was heard, was deemed a contempt in Captain Parry's case, as prejudicing the world with regard to the merits. [Id at 166 (Emphasis added).]
>
> Read was ordered to be committed and Huggonson, already a prisoner, to be taken in close custody, for printing reflections on the parties, in the case of Roach v. Hall.
> Printing a paragraph in a newspaper, tending to prepossess the minds of people, as to the proceedings in this court, is a contempt. In the case of Respublica v. Oswald, it was held that a publication, having a tendency to prejudice the public, with respect to the merits of a cause depending in court, was a contempt. Anything done, either for the purpose of obstructing justice, or which may have that effect, may be punished as a contempt of the court before whom the proceedings are had."

Thus, the contempt power of New Hampshire Court's has as an American foundation: Respublica v. Oswald (1, Dall., 319; Sheppard's citation: United States v. Oswald, 1 U.S. 319 (1788)). (See also Civil and Criminal Contempt in New Hampshire, N.H.B.J. V 17:1, 13 (1975)).

In Respublica v. Oswald, The printer Oswald published an address to the public containing the following passages:

When violent attacks are made upon a person under pretext of justice, and legal steps are taken on the occasion, not perhaps to redress the supposed injury, but to feed and gratify partisaning and temporising resentments, it is not unwarrantable in such person to represent the real statement of his case, and appeal to the world for their sentiments and countenance.

Upon these considerations, principally, I am now emboldened to trespass on the public patience, and must solicit the indulgence of my friends and customers, while I present to their notice, an account of the steps lately exercised with me; from which it will appear that my situation as a printer, and the rights of the press and of freeman, are fundamentally struck at; and an earnest endeavor is on the carpet to involve me in difficulties to please the malicious dispositions of old and permanent enemies.

But until the news had arrived last Thursday, that the ninth state had acceded to the new federal government, I was not called upon; and Mr. Page in the afternoon of that day visited me in due form of law with a writ. Had Mr. Browne pursued me in this line, without loss of time, agreeably to his lawyer's letter, I should not have supposed it extraordinary-but to arrest me the moment the federal intelligence came to hand, indicated that the commencement of this suit was not so much the child of his own fancy, as it has been probably dictated to and urged on him by others, whose sentiments upon the new constitution have not in every respect coincided with mine. In fact, it was my idea in the first progress of the business, that Mr. Browne was merely the handmaid of some of my enemies among the federalists; and in this class I must rank his great patron, Doctor Rush (whose brother is a judge of the Supreme Court) I think Mr. Browne's conduct has since confirmed the idea beyond a doubt.

Enemies I have had in the legal profession, and it may perhaps add to the hopes of malignity, that this action is instituted in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. However, if former prejudices should be found to operate against me on the bench, it with a jury of my country, properly elected and empaneled, a jury of freemen and independent citizens, I must rest the suit. I have escaped the jaws of persecution through this channel on certain memorable occasions, and hope I shall never be a sufferer, let the blast of faction blow with all its furies!

The doctrine of libels being a doctrine incompatible with law and liberty, and at once destructive of the privileges of a free country in the communication of our thoughts, has not hitherto gained any footing in Pennsylvania; and the vile measures formerly taken to lay me by the heels on this subject only brought down obloquy upon the conductors themselves. I may well suppose the same love of liberty yet pervades my fellow citizens, and that they will not allow the freedom of the press to be violated upon any refined pretense, which oppressive ingenuity or courtly study can invent.

Upon trial of the cause, the public will decide for themselves, whether Mr. Browne's motives have been laudable and dignified; whether his conduct in declining an acquittal of his character in the paper, and suing me in the manner he did, was decent and consistent; and in a word; whether he is not actuated by some of my inveterate foes and opponents, to lend his name in their service for the purpose of harassing and injuring me." Id at 312.

The court in Respublica v. Oswald utilized the contempt power to punish speech complaining of the officials and their motives in the underlying libel case. The case concerned events before ratification of the constitution, decided, as it turns out, upon an event triggered in part by the final state ratification of the federal constitution, and decided shortly after ratification. Thus Respublica v. Oswald is the first reported case of a contempt after ratification of the United States Constitution. Under Respublica v. Oswald

The true liberty of the press is amply secured by permitting every man to publish his opinion; but it is due to the peace and dignity of society to inquire into the motives of such publications, and to distinguish between those which are meant for use and reformation, and with an eye solely to the public good, and those which are intended merely to delude and defame. To the latter description, it is impossible that any good government should afford protection and immunity.

Id at 325, (Cited in: Dunn & Bradstreet, Inc. v. Greenmos Builders, 472 U.S. 749, 776, (1985, Brennan, dissenting). Furthermore,

[i]f, then, the liberty of the press is regulated by any just principle, there can be little doubt that he, who attempts to raise a prejudice against his antagonist, in the minds of those that must ultimately determine the dispute between them; who, for that purpose, represents himself as a persecuted man, and asserts that his judges are influenced by passion and prejudice,- willfully seeks to corrupt the source, and to dishonor the administration of justice.

Id at 325. However, it should be noted that the history leading up to the Pennsylvania legislation [includes] Respublica v. Oswald,1 Dall. 319 (1788), particularly note beginning at p. 329; ...; Hamilton Report of the Trial and Acquittal of Justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania (1805).

[a]s early as 1809, Pennsylvania restricted the power to inflict summary punishment for contempt to a closely defined class of misconduct, and provided the ordinary criminal procedure for other forms of interferences with a pending case.

Id. The note at 329 of Respublica v. Oswald reported the events following deciding the case in September 1788 where the General Assembly took up as a committee of the whole to consider "whether the judges ... made themselves proper objects of impeachment", (Id at 330 (footnote)), a resolution characterizing the proceedings as "an alarming precedent, of the most dangerous consequence, to the citizens of the commonwealth" and further "recommended the ensuing General Assembly, to define the nature and extent of contempt, and direct their punishment", "lost by a considerable majority". Id at 336 (footnote). Respublica v. Oswald portended the mischief which would result from the infamous alien and sedition act. Accordingly, Madison's view on the Sedition Act ... are relevant here, now that the First Amendment is applicable to the states. ... 'What is today the common-law doctrine of seditious libel is in fact the creation of the Court of Star Chamber, the most iniquitous tribunal in English History. It has been injected into the common law solely by the fiat of Coke and by subsequent decisions and opinions of English judges who perpetrated the vicious procedures by with the Star Chamber stifled criticism of the government and freedom of political opinion. If seditious libel has any genuine common-law affiliation, it is by illegitimate descent from constructive treason and heresy, both of which are totally repugnant to the Constitution of the United states'.

Garrison v. State of Louisiana, 85 S.Ct. 209 (1964) quoting 39 N.Y.U.L.Rev 1, 11.). The Garrison court pointing out that

It is disquieting to know that one of its instruments of destruction is abroad in the land today." Id. "[I]t is urged that every Government possesses an inherent power of self-preservation, entitling it to do whatever it shall judge necessary for that purpose. Id at 221.

According to the Garrison court

[t]his is a repetition of the doctrine of implication and expediency in different language, and admits of a similar and decisive answer, namely that as the powers of [the legislature] are defined, powers inherent, implied, or expedient, are obviously the creatures of ambition; because the care expended in defining powers would otherwise have been superfluous. Powers extracted from such sources will be indefinitely multiplied by the aid of armies and patronage, which, with the impossibility of controlling them by any demarcation, would presently terminate reasoning, and ultimately swallow up the State sovereignties.

Id at 221. The Garrison court warning that [t]he distinction between liberty and licentiousness is still a repetition of the Protean doctrine of implication, which is ever ready to work its ends by varying its shape. By its help, the judge as to what is licentious may escape through any constitutional restriction.

Id at 221-222.

Respublica v. Oswald is an example of the view prevalent in the seventeenth century regarding how courts responded to attacks on government officials. The case is consistent with the first viewpoint of the law postulated by Holdensworth in his history of english law:

[T]he view which the law takes of publishing ... or uttering seditious words, [depends] upon the view held as to the relation of rulers to subjects. ... If the ruler is regarded as the superior of the subject, as being by the nature of his position presumably wise and good it must necessarily follow that it is wrong to censure him openly, that even if he is mistaken his mistakes should be pointed out with the utmost respect, and that whether mistaken or not, no censure should be cast upon him likely or designed to diminish his authority. If, on the other hand, > the ruler is regarded as the agent and servant, and the subject as the wise and good master, who is obliged to delegate his power to the so-called ruler it is obvious that this sentiment must be reversed. Every member of the public who censures the ruler for the time being exercises in his own person the right which belongs to the whole of which he forms part. He is finding fault with a servant. ... [N]o imaginable censure of the government, short of a censure which has an immediate tendency to produce such a breach of the peace, ought to be regarded as criminal. The first of these views was the accepted view in the seventeenth century. The second was gathering strength during the latter party of the eighteenth century, and is now the accepted view. Id at 338. That this view of the criminality of seditious words was comparatively new law, derived from the practice of the Star Chamber. [Id at 340.]

> [M]ere publication of a writing without authority was illegal. ... 'they say nothing is a libel but what reflects upon some particular person. But this is a very strange doctrine to say it is not a libel reflecting on the government, endeavoring to possess the people that the government is maladministered by corrupt persons, that are employed in such or such stations either in the nave or army. To say that corrupt officers are appointed to administer affairs is certainly a reflection on the government. If people should not be called to account for possessing the people with an ill opinion of the government, no government can subsist. For it is very necessary for all governments that the people should have a good opinion of it. And nothing can be worse to any government than to endeavor to procure animosities as to the management of it; this has always been looked upon as a crime, and no government can be safe without it'. [Quoting Holt C.J. in R.V. Tuchin (1704) 14 S.T., 1128.]

A History of English Law, W.S. Holdsworth, K.C., D.C.L., VIII, 1926, at 341. New Hampshire has subscribed to an interpretation of the law regarding publications related to cases, or pending cases consistent with the former view, rather than the latter. Sturoc's case, 48 NH 428 (1869), illustrates the extent the New Hampshire Supreme court has applied the contempt power pedigreed through Respublica v. Oswald to sanction authors of article published by the press. In Sturoc, a member of the Sullivan County Bar wrote an article for the New Hampshire Argus and Spectator critical of enforcement practices under an act of the suppression of intemperance. According to the court:

> "The publishers of newspapers have the right, but no higher right than others, to bring to public notice the conduct of courts and parties after the decision has been made; and, provided the publications are true, and fair in spirit". Id at 432.

Truth has not been a defense in New Hampshire where the matter at hand was not published "upon a lawful occasion". State v. Burnham, 9 NH 34,41 (1837). The law as taught by the Burnham court being:

> [T]he matter, if in its nature defamatory, must have been published upon a lawful occasion; or come within the class termed privileged cases; and that if it did not, the defendant was liable to this prosecution, it being immaterial whether the allegations were true or false. [Id at 41.]
> If the end to be attained is justifiable; as, if the object is the removal of an incompetent officer, or to prevent the election of an unsuitable person to office, or, generally, to give useful information to the community, or to those who have a right and ought to know, in order that they may act upon such information, the occasion is lawful, and the party may justify or excuse the publication. [Id at 41-42.]
>
> If upon a lawful occasion for making a publication, he has published the truth, and no more, there is no sound principle which can make him liable, even if he was actuated by express malice. ... It has been said that it is lawful to publish truth for good motives, and for justifiable ends. But this rule is too narrow. If there is a lawful occasion-a legal right to make a publication-and the matter true, the end is justifiable, and that, in such case, must be sufficient.

Id at 42-43. (Cited by Garrison v. State of Louisiana).

Thus Burnham, by complaining about abuses in how temperance laws were being abused, was subject to being held in contempt because cases were then pending in the court, (and presumably taxpayers, as jurors would not be sympathetic to "temperance men" practices).

The United States Supreme Court's discussion of the evolution of contempt powers in Bridges v. California, 314 U.S. 252 (1941) serves to place Respublica v. Oswald in its proper perspective, and hence the New Hampshire line of contempt cases:

[T]he argument runs, the power of judges to punish by contempt out-of-court publications tending to obstruct the orderly and fair administration of justice in a pending case was deeply rooted in English common law at the time the Constitution was adopted. That this historical contention is dubious has been persuasively argued elsewhere. In any event it need not detain us, for to assume that English common law in this field became ours is to deny the generally accepted historical belief that one of the objects of the Revolution was to get rid of the English common law on liberty of speech and of the press. ... Ratified as it was while the memory of many oppressive English restrictions on the enumerated liberties was still fresh, the First Amendment cannot reasonably be taken as approving prevalent English Practices. On the contrary, the only conclusion supported by history is that the unqualified prohibitions laid down by the framers were intended to give liberty of the press, as to the other liberties, the broadest scope that could be countenanced in an orderly society. ...

In both state and federal courts, this power [contempt] has been universally recognized. But attempts to expand it in the post-Ratification years evoked popular reactions that bespeak a feeling of jealous solicitude for freedom of the press. In Pennsylvania and New York, for example, heated controversies arose over alleged abuses in the exercise of the contempt power, which in both places culminated in legislation practically forbidding summary punishment for publications. ... [The Pennsylvania statute] explicitly stated 'all publications out of court ... concerning any cause pending before any court of this commonwealth, shall not be construed into a contempt of the said court, so as to render the author, printer, publisher, or either of them liable to attachment and summary punishment for the same. Id at 266, footnote 11.

The history leading up to the Pennsylvania legislation inclusive of Respublica v. Oswald is referenced in footnote 2 at 287 of Frankfurter's dissent:

Congress proclaiming in a statute expressly captioned 'An act declaratory of the law concerning contempt of court,"that the power of federal courts to inflict summary punishment for contempt shall not be construed to extend to any cases except the misbehavior of persons in the presence of said courts or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice.....we do find in the enactment viewed in its historical context, a respect for the prohibitions of the First Amendment, not as mere guides to the formulation of policy, but a commands the breach of which cannot be tolerated. ... [S]tate power in this field was not tested in this Court for more than a century. Not until 1925 ... did this Court recognize in the Fourteenth Amendment the application to the states of the same standards of freedom of expression as, under the First Amendment, are applicable to the federal government...

History affords no support for the contention that the criteria applicable under the Constitution to other types of utterance are not applicable, in contempt proceedings, to out-of-court publications pertaining to a pending case. [Id at 268.]

No suggestion can be found in the Constitution that the freedom there guaranteed for speech and the press bears an inverse ration to the timeliness and importance of the ideas seeking expression. Yet, it would follow as a practical result of the decisions below that anyone who might wish to give public expression to his views on a pending case involving no matter what problem of public interest, just at the time his audience would be most receptive, would be as effectively discouraged as if a deliberate statutory scheme of censorship had been adopted. Indeed, perhaps more so, because under a legislative specification of the particular kinds of expression prohibited and the circumstances under which the prohibitions are to operate, the speaker or publisher might at least have an authoritative guide to the permissible scope of comment, instead of being compelled to act at the peril that judges might find in the utterance a 'reasonable tendency' to obstruct justice in a pending case. [Id at 269.]

[I]t is a prized American privilege to speak one's mind, although not always with good taste, on all public institutions. And an enforced silence, however limited, solely in the name of preserving the dignity of the bench, would probably engender resentment, suspicion, and contempt much more than it would enhance respect. [Id at 270-271.]

In accordance with what we have said on the 'clear and present danger' cases, neither 'inherent tendency' nor 'reasonable tendency' is enough to justify a restriction of free expression. Id at 273.

Thus,

Under current views of free speech and of freedom of the press, [i]t is no longer open to doubt that the liberty of the press, and of speech, is within the liberty safeguarded by the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment from invasion by state action. Near v. Minnesota, 283 U.S. 697,707 (1931) citing Whitney v. California, 274 U.S. 357.

As the Court in Near stated:

In the first place, the main purpose of such constitutional provisions is to prevent all such previous restraints upon publications as had been practiced by other governments, and they do not prevent the subsequent punishment of such as may be deemed contrary to the public welfare. [Id at 714 citing Respublica v. Oswald]. Immunity cannot be deemed to exhaust the conception of liberty... the mere exemption from previous constraints cannot be all that is secured by the constitutional provisions; and that the liberty of the press might be rendered a mockery and a delusion, and the phrase itself a by-word, if, while every man was at liberty to publish what he pleased, the public authorities might nevertheless punish him for harmless publications. Id at 714-715.

Accordingly, the United States Supreme Court in Landmark Communications, Inc. v. Virginia 98 S.Ct 1535 (1978) reiterated the First Amendment implications with regard to state contempt power:

[T]he question of whether the contempt power could be used to punish out-of-court comments concerning pending cases or grand jury investigations, This Court has consistently rejected the argument that such commentary constituted a clear and present danger to the administration of justice. What emerges from the[] cases is the working principle that the substantive evil must be extremely serious and the degree of imminence extremely high before utterances can be punished, and that a solidity of evidence is necessary to take the requisite showing of imminence. The danger must not be remote or even probable; it must immediately imperil. (Id at 1544, Citing inter alia Bridges v. California, 314 U.S. 252 (1941); and Wood v. Georgia, 370 U.S. 375 (1962)).

The "imminent danger standard" imposes a not insurmountable hurdle barring use of contempt powers to punish speech. In Patriarca v. F.B.I, 630 F.Supp. 993 (D.R.I. 1986) A federal district court was "concerned with the specter of a rule which permits the Government to intrude into everyone's most private thoughts and conversations, obtain them illegally and then publish them to a news organization for dissemination for profit to the public." Id at 1000. In Patriarca the Providence Journal Company was directed to show cause why they were not in contempt for publishing certain information obtained in violation of the subject's Fourth Amendment rights. On the other hand, "public discussion of the existence and substance of an ethics complaint formally filed under oath against a pubic official, is speech protected by the First Amendment of the Constitution. Supreme Court precedent has, of course, been unwavering in its adherence to the bedrock principles that expression on public issues rests on the highest run of the hierarchy of First Amendment values, and thus that debate on public issues should be uninhibited, robust, and wide-open. Providence Journal Co. v. Newton, 723 F.Supp. 846, 851 (D.R.I. 1989) citing Carey v. Brown, 447 U.S. 455 (1979); New York Times v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254 (1964); and Mills v. Alabama, 384 U.S. 214 (1966).

Providence Journal involved a successful challenge to the confidentiality provisions of Rhode Island's Government Ethics Law. According to the Rhode Island District Court in Providence Journal Co.:

"[T]here can be no doubt that the First Amendment protection of expression on public issues encompasses citizen's complaints that public officials be they elected, appointed or employed, have breached contemporary canons of ethics in government. Id.

[I]n the absence of a showing of "actual interference" with the fair administration of justice, an individual is empowered by the First Amendment to comment publicly on the precise matter that is the subject of a pending investigatory proceeding, and further that the right is in no way diminished by the fact that the speaker possesses a personal stake in the outcome of the proceeding or that his pronouncement are later found to be in error. Id at 856, Restating the relevant proposition of Wood v. Georgia, 370 U.S.375 (1962). See In re Perry 859 F.2d 1043 (1st Cir. 1988) regarding pending administrative law proceeding.

This is not a case of a litigant seeking to publicize information to which he had no right of access in the first place by utilizing a state created agency to ends not within the scope of the original mandate; this is a case of a citizen seeking to exercise his constitutional rights to criticize public officials, specifically and pointedly, and to petition his government for redress of his grievances, be they real or imagined. As such, [the] case falls squarely within the four corners of the First Amendment Id at 858.

Official speculation and anxiety about the dangers of protected speech can never serve to justify its censorship by the state. Id at 859.

Accordingly, under United States Supreme Court precedents, State contempt power is not sufficiently broad as restrained by the federal Constitution through the Fourteenth Amendment to sanction a person for:

Publication out of court respecting the conduct of judges, district justices, other judicial system or related personnel, jurors, or participants in connection with any matter pending before any tribunal on the part of the author, publisher or other person connected with such publication. This positioning of the interests of judges and other judicial system personnel relative to citizens free speech rights is consistent the New Hampshire State constitution, and early state case law teachings. Merrill v. Sherburne, 1 NH 199, 201 (1818), New Hampshire Constitution, Part I, article 8, article 22, article 35, and article 37.

CONCLUSION

The time is long overdue for New Hampshire to recognize and apply controlling federal precedents related to contempt powers of state courts as New Hampshire Courts are bound by the chains of dual constitutions forged by our revolutionary ancestors to respect free speech and the inherent contempt powers claimed by New Hampshire Courts have already been restrained and shackled in the republic since 1925 by the United States Supreme Court. The siren song of inherence is merely the serpent of seditious libel, tempting government officials to employ the practices of the star chamber under the guise that the official, wise and good, must be reproached with the utmost respect, as the servant has deemed himself the master, and in so doing breaks the chains that bind him, and violates his oath.

HB 1519-FN, repealing road toll refunds for retail dealers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard L. Haynes for Public Works and Highways: The sponsor of this bill was concerned that the mandated program to recapture evaporative fumes when purchasing motor fuels was in contradiction with the road toll refunds for retail dealers (Revised Statutes Annotated 260:48). Testimony before the committee revealed that the refund program was designed to offset "shrinkage" of motor fuels due to temperature differentials and that it is not related directly to evaporation. Therefore, the committee could not justify the repeal of RSA 260:48. Vote 19-1.

Rep. Michael D. Whalley for Resources, Recreation and Development: HB 1630 as amended by the committee establishes a new property leasing program for thirty-seven existing camp owners in the towns of Pittsburg and Clarksville. The committee felt it was in the best interests of the water resources council, which collects the lease fees, the two towns, who collect property taxes on the camps, and the individuals who have maintained these camps to continue the lease program rather than have the program end in the year 2015 as scheduled. It is the intention of the committee that the water resources council establish leasing fees that will recover the value of the individual properties over a twenty-five year period. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (4665L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

establishing a new property leasing program for land in the Lake Francis impoundment area and relative to the New Hampshire heritage trail.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 New Section; Water Resources Council; Lease Program for Lake Francis Property. Amend RSA 481 by inserting after section 3 the following new section:

481:3-a Lease Program for Lake Francis. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize a new property leasing program, to replace that program now administered by the water resources council upon those lands under its jurisdiction on the Lake Francis impoundment property. The goal of the property leasing program is to make a solid contribution to the economic vitality of the Pittsburg-Clarksville region. This policy is further designed to engender an appreciation for the appeal of northern New Hampshire for the people of New Hampshire. To accomplish these goals the water resources council shall establish and administer, upon the property of the Lake Francis impoundment area, a property leasing program as a responsibility secondary in priority to the ongoing water resource project of Lake Francis. The water resources council shall have the full authority, as is required, to organize a property leasing program which is compatible with its primary on-site water resource project. The administration of the property leasing program shall be accomplished subject to the following conditions:

I. The present lessees shall be given first priority in leasing their present property under the new program.

II. The term of the leases, subject to appropriate behavior as determined by the water resources council, shall be 25 years and shall be renewable. The rental payment shall be recalculated and adjusted no later than 5 years following its last determination.

2 New Hampshire Heritage Trail; Lake Francis. The council shall assist the director of parks and recreation of the department of resources and economic development, upon the director's request, by providing access to a route, mutually agreed upon by the council and the director of parks and recreation, for the development of a New Hampshire Heritage Trail segment across the Lake Francis property. The director of parks and recreation shall be responsible for the trail development.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect July 1, 1997.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill also requires the council to assist the director of parks and recreation of the department of resources and economic development to develop a segment of the New Hampshire heritage trail across Lake Francis property.

Adopted.

Report adopted and referred to Finance.

HB 1453-FN, relative to divisions and employees of the liquor commission. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. Charles D. Reynolds for Regulated Revenues: This legislation is an effort by the Liquor Commission to begin the implementation of recommendations contained in the audit of the Commission by the Legislative Budget Assistant's Office. It will replace the current management structure that has seven managers reporting directly to the Commission, with three functional divisions. Approval was obtained for the reclassification of two existing budgeted positions to accomplish this; therefore, no additional positions are being sought. This top line reorganization will improve communications, operational effectiveness, and overall management. The added expense will be more than balanced by improved efficiencies and the mission of the Commission to maximize revenues will be fulfilled once again. This bill should be a landmark in New Hampshire history of the Liquor Commission with the Commission itself taking a sophisticated, businesslike approach with its reorganization and careful evaluation of its operations that is going to be so important as competition from other New England States increases. The new businesslike approach of the Commission is recognized by the Business and Industry Association of New Hampshire in a letter to the Commission. Vote 8-7.

Reps. Francis C. Vincent, Ronald R. Chagnon, Jane A. Clemons, Raymond A. Lundborn, M. Virginia Burke and Betsy McKinney for the Minority of Regulated Revenues: At a time when other departments are being downsized and severe cuts made in the state budget, the bill recommended by the Majority of the committee creates a new level of bureaucracy in the Liquor Commission with no supplementary appropriation to cover the increased expense. The Minority of the Committee on Regulated Revenues agrees with Commissioner Luce that the Liquor Commission can handle its business with its present structure, opposes this unnecessary expansion of government, and believes the bill should be voted Inexpedient to Legislate.

Rep. Robert Kelley moved Recommit to Committee and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

HB 1132, reinstating the charter of Polar Graphics, Inc. OUGHT TO PASS

Vote 15-0.

HB 1129, relative to the Laconia airport authority. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Richard E. Dolan for Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill changes fines for violations of Laconia airport authority regulations. The amendment adds a member from the Town of Merrimack to the Manchester airport task force. Vote 13-0.

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

2 New Member Added to Manchester Airport Task Force. Amend 1991, 232:2, II by inserting after subparagraph (n) the following new subparagraph:

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1997.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

The bill also adds a member from the town of Merrimack to the task force studying access to the Manchester airport.

HB 1144, relative to criminal threatening. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill and HB 1209 were prompted by a cross-burning episode. The committee feels that the modification of RSA 631:4 contained in the amendment is more likely to result in state prosecution of such cases than would the one that the bill originally proposed. Vote 15-0.

Amendment (4651L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Criminal Threatening. Amend RSA 631:4, I and II to read as follows:

I. A person is guilty of [an offense] criminal threatening when:

(a) By physical conduct, [he] the person purposely places or attempts to place another in fear of imminent bodily injury or physical contact; or

(b) The person places any object or graffiti on the property of another with a purpose to coerce or terrorize any person; or

[(d) He] (c) The person threatens to commit any crime against the property of another with a purpose to coerce or terrorize any person[.] ; or

[(b) He] (d) The person threatens to commit any crime against the person of another with a purpose to terrorize any person; or

[(c) He] (e) The person threatens to commit any crime of violence with a purpose to cause evacuation of a building, place of assembly, facility of public transportation or otherwise to cause serious public inconvenience, or in reckless disregard of causing such fear, terror or inconvenience[; or].

II.(a) Criminal threatening is a class B felony if the person:

(1) Violates the provisions of subparagraph I(c); or

(2) Uses a deadly weapon as defined in RSA 625:11, V in the violation of the provisions of subparagraph I(a), I(b), I(c), or I(d).

(b) All other criminal threatening is a misdemeanor.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1, 1997.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill modifies the elements of criminal threatening by making any person who places any object or graffiti on the property of another with the purpose to coerce or terrorize any person, guilty of criminal threatening. It also clarifies which types of criminal threatening offenses are misdemeanors and which are class B felonies.

HB 1209, establishing the crime of malicious harassment. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee feels that the concerns of the sponsors of this bill have been better addressed in our amendment to House Bill 1144. Vote 15-0.

HB 1404, lowering the blood alcohol concentration for aggravated driving while intoxicated from 0.20 to 0.16. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Everett A. Weare for Corrections and Criminal Justice: This bill lowers the level of blood alcohol concentration from 0.20 to 0.16 (twice the legal limit) for aggravated D.W.I. Additionally, it clarifies language concerning causation of a collision with a motor vehicle or OHRV resulting in serious bodily injury for purposes of aggravated D.W.I. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4593L)

Amend the bill by replacing sections 1 and 2 with the following:

1 Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated; Blood Alcohol Concentration Lowered. Amend RSA 215-A:11, II to read as follows:

II. A person shall be guilty of aggravated driving while intoxicated if [he] such person drives, operates or attempts to operate an OHRV:

2 Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated; Blood Alcohol Concentration Lowered. Amend RSA 265:82-a to read as follows:

265:82-a Aggravated Driving While Intoxicated. A person shall be guilty of a violation of this section if [he] the person drives or attempts to drive a vehicle upon any way:

(c) Attempts to elude pursuit by a law enforcement officer by increasing speed, extinguishing headlamps while still in motion or abandoning a vehicle while being pursued; or

III. While [he has] having an alcohol concentration of [0.20] 0.16 or more.

HB 1437, permitting certain convicted felons to possess rifles, shotguns and archery equipment for hunting or target practice. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Vivian L. Dunham for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The committee did not oppose the concept of the bill but did feel that passage of the bill would seem to place New Hampshire law in conflict with federal law. As there is already in place an annulment procedure by which convicted felons may apply to have such rights restored, the sentiment was to let that process stand. The sponsor concurred. Vote 15-0.

HB 1583, relative to driving while under the influence of a controlled drug or a combination of intoxicating liquor and any detectable amount of a controlled drug. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Everett A. Weare for Corrections and Criminal Justice: The current law adequately covers the purpose and intent of this bill. Vote 15-0.

HB 1136-L, relative to criminal history checks for all school employees and applicants. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Barbara L. Spear for Education: The content of this bill was covered by re-referred HB 378 which was passed earlier this session. Vote 15-0.

HB 1112, establishing a committee to study the investment practices of the New Hampshire retirement system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Merton S. Dyer for Executive Departments and Administration: The amendment to the bill corrects the terminology to the prudent investor rule which is the present rule governing the investment policy of the New Hampshire Retirement System. This review of the investment results and practices of the New Hampshire Retirement System under the prudent investor rule will provide valuable information to the general court in assessing the continuation of the prudent investor rule to be considered in 1998. Vote 13-0.

Amendment (4606L)

Amend paragraph II of section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

II. Implementation of the prudent investor rule.

HB 1287, allowing federal income tax withholding from unemployment compensation. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Benjamin C. Baroody for Labor, Industrial and Rehabilitative Services: This will bring New Hampshire law in conformity with federal law and was requested by the Department of Employment Security. Vote 14-0.

HB 1166-L, expanding the veterans' tax credit. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee believes the law in its present form accurately expresses the intent of the legislature. This bill does not reflect that intent. Vote 15-0.

HB 1434-L, clarifying the definition of facility for the purposes of property tax exemptions for water and air pollution control facilities. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Linda T. Foster for Municipal and County Government: Our committee addresses many diverse issues. This legislative initiative, however, necessitates the assimilation of more information from scientific and technological experts. A study committee will allow a thorough examination of this issue from all perspectives. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4729L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

establishing a committee to study the issues surrounding the definition of "facility" for the purposes of eligibility for property tax exemptions for water and air pollution control facilities.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. There is established a committee to study all issues surrounding the definition of "facility" for the purposes of property tax exemptions, under RSA 72:12-a, for water and air pollution control facilities. The committee shall consist of the following members:

I. Two members of the house municipal and county government committee, appointed by the speaker of the house.

II. One member of the house resources, recreation and development committee, one member of the house environment and agriculture committee and one member of the house science, technology and energy committee; appointed by the speaker of the house.

III. Two senators, appointed by the senate president.

2 Meetings; Chairperson; Mileage. The first-named house member shall call the first meeting of the committee 30 days after the effective date of this act. The committee shall elect a chairperson at its first meeting. Members shall receive mileage at the legislative rate.

3 Report. The committee shall submit a report of its findings, including any recommendations for legislation, to the speaker of the house, the senate president, the governor, the senate clerk, the house clerk, and the state library on or before November 1, 1996.

4 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill creates a committee to study the issues surrounding the definition of "facility" for the purposes of eligibility for property tax exemptions for water and air pollution control facilities.

HB 1466, prohibiting full-time municipal employees from serving as elected members to local boards and commissions. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: RSA 669:7,I establishes those elected and appointed positions in the political subdivision that the legislature deems incompatible. This bill proposed to amend the RSA to prohibit fulltime town employees from serving on an elected board or commission. There was opposition to this bill and with no sponsor testimony, the committee voted to keep the decision at the local level and noted that a "Conflict of Interest" ordinance (RSA 31:39-a) could be enacted by the political subdivision. Vote 15-0.

Rep. Musler declared a conflict of interest and did not participate.

HB 1180, relative to the rulemaking authority of the commissioner of transportation relating to the turnpike system. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Edwin O. Smith for Public Works and Highways: A Legislative Budget Office audit revealed that the Bureau of Turnpikes had mandatory rulemaking authority. The recommendation was either implement rules or change the statute. This proposed change in statute makes rulemaking by the Turnpike Authority optional rather than mandatory. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4435L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 2 with the following:

2 New Paragraph; Optional Rulemaking. Amend RSA 21-L:12-a by inserting after paragraph XIII the following new paragraph:

XIV. The operation of the turnpike system as authorized by RSA 237:5.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill makes the rulemaking authority of the commissioner of transportation relating to the turnpike system optional rather than mandatory.

HB 1426, allowing a highway layout commission to acquire certain easements near newly-constructed limited access highways. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John P. Chandler for Public Works and Highways: The committee amendment achieves the sponsor's interest and has the support of the New Hampshire Department of Transportation. Current statute permits acquisition in fee simple only along limited access highways. The option to acquire easements can be expected to save considerable expense. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4556L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

allowing the acquisition of certain easements near newly-constructed limited access highways.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Acquisition of Certain Property Rights. Amend RSA 230:45 to read as follows:

230:45 Occasion for Layout; Layout. The governor, with the advice of the council, on [his] the governor's own motion or a special committee of 3 persons appointed by the governor and council for the purpose, may determine, upon hearing, whether there is occasion for the laying out or alteration of a limited access facility including service roads in a location proposed by the commissioner of transportation; and, if so, the governor, with the advice of the council, shall appoint a commission of 3 persons who may purchase land or other property in the proposed location and who shall lay out the remainder of such facility, service roads, or alteration thereof. The commission appointed by the governor and council to lay out any limited access facility may acquire private or public property and property rights for such facility and service roads, including rights of access, air, view, and light, by gift, devise, purchase or condemnation in the same manner as provided for acquiring property for class I highways. [All] Property rights acquired under the provisions of this section [shall] may be in fee simple or in the form of easements, including property acquired by condemnation proceedings. The commission, in its discretion, may acquire an entire lot, block, or tract of land if, by so doing, the interests of the public will be best served even though [said] the entire lot, block, or tract is not immediately needed for the right-of-way proper[; and]. The commissioner of transportation, with the approval of the governor and council, may sell, convey, transfer, or lease any surplus property, real or personal, at public or private sale.

2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

HB 1480, prohibiting a person under 21 years of age from entering New Hampshire liquor stores unless accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for Regulated Revenues: The committee felt that this was really over-regulation. It is already illegal for persons under the age of 21 to purchase liquor and it is already illegal for anyone to use a false I.D. card to purchase liquor. This could cause enforcement problems for store employees, some of whom are under 21 themselves. Vote 15-0.

HB 1420, relative to the billing practices of public utilities. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Jeb E. Bradley for Science, Technology and Energy: The sponsor asked by letter that this bill be found Inexpedient to Legislate as the PUC would deal with the issue in Rules. Vote 13-0.

HCR 25, urging the public utilities commission to eliminate surcharges on telephone service. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. John H. Thomas for Science, Technology and Energy: As the committee felt the Legislature would be dealing with issues of interstate commerce, it was decided that this resolution is Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

CACR 27, relating to amending the New Hampshire constitution to provide for the accountability of judges, magistrates, and other persons acting in a judiciary capacity. Providing that a person who has filed an appeal or other action with the New Hampshire supreme court may seek review by the legislature of the court's decision on such action. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Natalie S. Flanagan for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: Under this proposed CACR, any person who has filed an appeal with the Supreme Court may go to the Legislature for review of the court's decision. Hundreds of appeals could come before the Legislature each session. The Legislature should not be a party to unbalancing our three branches of government, as this bill would. Vote 15-1.

Adopted.

CACR 29, relating to the election of judges. Providing that judges be elected for specified terms. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. James Splaine for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: In balance, our judiciary excels in impartiality and honesty. Our system has worked well, particularly when evaluated against some other states. Our tradition of quality judgeships allows a thorough grievance process when necessary. To replace our historic excellence with what amounts to a bumper sticker, slogan-making political process would be an unwise step. Vote 15-0.

Adopted.

CACR 30, relating to the state judiciary. Providing that abolishing the current method for selecting state judges and establishing the New Hampshire Bar as a pool from which state judges are chosen by lot. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Jack B. Willis for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: This CACR would abolish the current method for selecting state judges and would establish the New Hampshire Bar as a pool from which judges are chosen by lot to preside over cases in state courts. Not all lawyers are qualified to be judges. The current system has adequate checks and balances with the judges being nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the Executive Council. Vote 14-1.

Adopted.

CACR 36, relating to the appointment of superior, probate, and district court judges. Providing that superior, probate, and district court judges be appointed for specified terms. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Douglass P. Teschner for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: Our constitution is constructed to ensure a balance of power among the three branches of government. The committee is concerned that this CACR, which would result in appointment of all judges to 7-year terms, could disrupt this delicate balance and result in politicizing of the judiciary. The committee recognizes that there are some legitimate concerns relative to the courts and intends to use other vehicles to improve judicial accountability. Vote 15-1.

Rep. Hawkins spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Teschner spoke in favor.

Rep. Cobbin requested a roll call; sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.

HB 1178, establishing a committee to study the cost and feasibility of televising house and senate sessions and house and senate committee hearings. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. David M. Scanlan for the Majority of Legislative Administration: The majority of the committee felt there was nothing to prevent televising legislative sessions and committee hearings at the present time. Additionally, there was a concern that expanded television coverage would lead to longer sessions and lengthen committee hearings. Vote 9-5.

Rep. William H. McCann, Jr., Rep. Raymond C. Buckley II, Katherine Wells Wheeler, Amanda A. Merrill, and David E. Cote for the Minority of Legislative Administration: This bill sets up a study committee to examine the cost and feasibility of televising the House and Senate sessions and committee hearings. It was estimated that televising could realize $10,000 in revenue for the State. We firmly believe that the public is entitled to know and see what we do in their name and televising our proceedings would be the best way to help them do so. A study committee would allow us to deal with how much televising could be done in a fiscally conservative manner.

Reps. McCann and DePecol spoke against.

Rep. Scanlan spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 183 members having voted in the affirmative and 123 in the negative, the report was adopted.

HB 1189-FN, changing the fee charged by towns and cities for uncollectable checks. MAJORITY: OUGHT TO PASS. MINORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE.

Rep. James R. MacKay for the Majority of the Municipal and County Government: This bill brings the fee charged by towns and cities for uncollectable checks in line with the $25 fee now being charged by the State of New Hampshire. Vote 11-5.

Rep. Thomas E.P. Rice, Jr. for the Minority of Municipal and County Government: The minority of the committee feels that this fee is uncalled for. The banks charge the communities far less than this! The person who wrote the check is already short of funds and this would worsen their condition and add insult to injury.

On a division vote, 194 members having voted in the affirmative and 106 in the negative, the report was adopted.

Ordered to third reading.

HB 1324, establishing the crime of vandalism and making it punishable by public spanking on the bare buttocks in certain cases. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Vivian R. Clark for Corrections and Criminal Justice: Testimony received on this bill indicated widespread doubt that the punishment prescribed in it would produce the desired result, but no doubt at all that the superior court jury trial also included as part of the process would add inappropriate delay and expense to the adjudication of vandalism cases. Vote 15-0.

Rep. Cobbin spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Hurst and Donna Sytek spoke in favor.

Rep. Kennedy spoke against.

Rep. Cobbin requested a roll call; not sufficiently seconded.

On a division vote, 265 members having voted in the affirmative and 35 in the negative, the report was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDERS

HB 1508-FN, requiring the department of safety to keep drivers' records confidential except for certain reasons. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Mark A. Krochmal for Transportation: In considering this bill, each committee member had to weigh the value of open and public access to motor vehicle records against the benefits of keeping those records restricted. While there may be actual benefits to certain individuals in certain cases, the majority of the committee came to the conclusion that such restriction violates the traditional principles of a free and open society whose elected officials and government must at all times be open, accessible and responsive to the public as a whole. (Refer New Hampshire Constitution Part One, Article Eight.) The amended version of this bill sought to address this by providing an extensive list of agencies and occupations exempted from its provisions. Among the latter were "journalists for appropriate journalistic purposes." This assumes that the government has authority to define and to limit the traditional freedom of the press to inform the public (Refer United States Constitution, Amendment One and New Hampshire Constitution, Part One, Article Twenty-Two). Also, insofar as these exempted groups realize some degree of financial gain as a consequence of having access to this information, it violates Part One, Article Ten (NH Constitution). Finally, the committee believes that this legislation is being pushed forward under pressure from impending federal legislation that is unconstitutional in its scope, violating the Ninth and Tenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and Part One, Article Seven of the New Hampshire Constitution regarding state sovereignty. The authority to issue New Hampshire driver's licenses and the appropriate handling of that information does not reside with the United States Congress in Washington, DC. Vote 12-3.

Reps. Donna Soucy and Donna Sytek spoke against.

Rep. Krochmal spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Kurk spoke against and yielded to questions.

Reps. Hurst and George Katsakiores spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 124 members having voted in the affirmative and 204 in the negative, the report failed.

Rep. Kurk moved Ought to Pass with Amendment and offered a floor amendment.

Floor Amendment (4830L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Availability of Records. RSA 260:14 is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

260:14 Records and Certification.

I. In this section:

(a) "Motor vehicle records" means all applications, reports required by law, registrations, histories, certificates and licenses issued or revoked by the department and the information, including personal information, contained in them.

(b) "Person" means an individual, organization or entity, but shall not include this state or an agency thereof.

(c) "Personal information" means information in motor vehicle records that identifies a person, including a person's photograph or computerized image, social security number, driver identification number, name, address (but not the 5-digit zip code), telephone number, and medical or disability information.

II.(a) Proper motor vehicle records shall be kept by the department at its office. Notwithstanding RSA 91-A or any other provision of law to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this section, such records shall not be public records or open to the inspection of any person.

(b) Copies of such records, duly attested and certified by the director, or designee, shall be as competent evidence in any court within this state as the original record or document would be if produced by such person as the legal custodian. A hearings examiner shall be considered a legal custodian of motor vehicle records for the purpose of testifying at a trial.

III. Motor vehicle records shall be made available in response to a request from a state, a political subdivision of a state, a court, the federal government, or a law enforcement agency for use in official business.

IV. Except for a person's photograph, computerized image and social security number, motor vehicle records shall be made available, upon proof of the identity of the person requesting the records and representation by such person on a form satisfactory to the department that the use of the records will be strictly limited to one of the following described uses:

(a) Motor vehicle manufacturers, or their authorized agents, for use in connection with matters of motor vehicle or driver safety and theft; motor vehicle emissions; motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories; performance monitoring of motor vehicles and dealers by motor vehicle manufacturers; and removal of non-owner records from the original owner records of motor vehicle manufacturers to carry out the purposes of the Automobile Information Disclosure Act, the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Saving Act, the National Traffic and Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1966, the Anti-Car Theft Act of 1992, and the Clean Air Act.

(b) Insurance companies authorized to write automobile insurance policies in this state, or by self-insured entities, or their authorized agents, for use in connection with claims investigation activities, anti-fraud activities, rating or underwriting.

V.(a) Except for a person's photograph, computerized image and social security number, motor vehicle records may be made available upon proof of the identity of the person requesting the records and representation by such person on a form satisfactory to the department that the use of the records will be strictly limited to one or more of the following described uses each, such use to be separately described:

(1) For use by a legitimate business in connection with matters of motor vehicle or driver safety and theft; motor vehicle emissions; motor vehicle product alterations, recalls, or advisories; performance monitoring of motor vehicles, motor vehicle parts and dealers; motor vehicle market research activities, including survey research; and removal of non-owner records from the original owner records of motor vehicle manufacturers.

(2) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records in connection with any civil, criminal, administrative or arbitral proceeding in any court or government agency, including the service of process and the execution or enforcement of judgments and orders, pursuant to an order of the court or agency.

(3) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records by an accredited journalist for appropriate journalistic purposes.

(4) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records by a banking or similar institution for appropriate banking purposes.

(5) For use by a legitimate business in research activities, and for use by a legitimate business in statistical reports, so long as any personal information is not published, redisclosed, or used to contact individuals.

(6) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records in providing notice to the owners of towed or impounded vehicles.

(7) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records by any private investigative agency or security service licensed by this state for any purpose permitted under subparagraph V(a) other than subparagraph V(a)(9).

(8) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records by an employer or its agent or insurer to obtain or verify information relating to a holder of a commercial driver's license that is required under the Commercial Motor Vehicle Safety Act of 1986.

(9) For bulk distribution for surveys, marketing or solicitations if the department has implemented methods and procedures to ensure that:

(i) persons are provided an opportunity, in a clear, simple and conspicuous manner, to prohibit such uses by means of an option to opt out.

(ii) the information will be used, rented, or sold solely for bulk distribution for surveys, marketing, and solicitations, and that surveys, marketing, and solicitations will not be directed at those persons who have requested in a timely fashion that they not be directed at them. Such opportunity shall be provided each time the department requests personal information and at any time on request. In addition, the department shall provide posted notice and the opportunity to make the selection at each of its offices at which it requests personal information.

(10) For use with respect to a request for a named person's motor vehicle records by a public utility, as defined in RSA 362:2 and over which the public utilities commission exercised jurisdiction on July 1, 1996, to perform its public service obligations.

(b)(1) A person who does not wish to have any personal information pertaining to such person made available as provided in subparagraphs V(a)(1)-(10) shall inform the department in writing; and request or have already requested a waiver, pursuant to RSA 263:40-a, I or II.

(2) Upon receipt of such request, the department shall not make the personal information available, nor shall the department make available a list of the persons who have made an election under subparagraph V(b). The department shall provide an opportunity, in a clear, simple and conspicuous manner, for a person to make the election permitted by subparagraph V(b) at any time on request. In addition, the division shall provide posted notice and the opportunity to make the selection at each of its offices at which it requests personal information.

VI.(a) An authorized recipient of personal information for a particular use under the provisions of subparagraph V(a) may not use the information, or make the information available, for any other use. The authorized recipient may sell or otherwise make the information available for the same use, provided that the information obtained for bulk distribution under subparagraph V(a)(9) may be sold or otherwise made available only in accordance with the terms of that subparagraph.

(b) An authorized recipient of personal information for a particular use under the provisions of subparagraph V(a) who sells or otherwise makes available the information shall be required by the department to:

(1) Maintain for a period of not less than 5 years records identifying each person who receives the information and the permitted purpose for which the information will be used; and

(2) Make such records available to the department upon request.

VII. A person shall have access to motor vehicle records relating to such person upon proof of identity. Motor vehicle records relating to a person may be made available to any other person upon proof, in such form and manner as the department prescribes, that the notarized, written consent of the person who is the subject of the record has been obtained; provided, however, that, except as otherwise provided by law, no person shall be required to provide such written consent as a condition of doing business with any person.

VIII. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the department in its discretion from releasing to the public any person's name, age or motor vehicle offenses only.

IX. A person is guilty of a class B misdemeanor if such person knowingly discloses information from a department record to a person known by such person to be an unauthorized person; knowingly makes a false representation to obtain information from a department record; or knowingly uses such information for any use other than the use authorized by the department. In addition, any professional or business license issued by this state and held by such person may, upon conviction and at the discretion of the court, be revoked permanently or suspended. Each such unauthorized disclosure, unauthorized use or false representation shall be considered a separate offense.

X. The department and any person aggrieved by a violation of this section may bring a civil action under this section and, if successful, shall be awarded the greater of actual damages or liquidated damages of $2,500 for each violation; punitive damages upon proof of willful disregard of the law; reasonable attorneys' fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred; and such other equitable relief as the court determines to be appropriate.

XI. The state shall not be liable for any improper use or release of motor vehicle records to any person obtaining such records as provided in this chapter.

XII. The commissioner of safety shall adopt rules to implement this section. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, such rules shall be exempt from the provisions of RSA 541-A.

2 Effective Date.

I. RSA 260:14, XII shall take effect upon its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect January 1, 1997.

HB 1265, relative to payment of utilities by tenants of manufactured housing parks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill originally addressed payment of utilities by tenants of manufactured housing parks that were included in the rent. It was brought to the Committee's attention that, without leases, this practice was legal and happens in all rental situations. The bill as amended, clarifies the responsibilities of manufactured housing park owners, operators, and tenants if the park owner operator shifts responsibility for payment to park tenants. Vote 16-1.

205-A:6 Fees, Charges, Assessments.

I. A manufactured housing park owner or operator shall fully disclose in writing all terms and conditions of the tenancy including rental, utility and service charges, prior to entering into a rental agreement with a prospective tenant. No charges so disclosed may be increased by the park owner or operator without an explanation for the increase and specifying the date of implementation of said increase, which date shall be no less than 60 days after written notice to the tenant. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed to permit a park owner or operator to vary the terms of a written or oral rental agreement without the express written consent of the tenant.

II. In the event that a park owner or operator shifts responsibility for payment of water, sewer, or any other utility service to the tenant, the park owner or operator shall be responsible for the cost incurred in the conversion, including the cost of installation of utility meters, if any, on each manufactured home in the park, except as permitted by the public utilities commission pursuant to RSA 374 and RSA 378. After such a conversion, manufactured housing park tenants shall be billed directly by the utility for the use of such services.

III. Any park owner or operator who is billed as a single entity for any utility service shall be prohibited, on and after the effective date of this paragraph, from charging manufactured housing park tenants an administrative fee in relation to such utility service, except as permitted by the public utilities commission pursuant to RSA 374 and RSA 378.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the responsibilities of manufactured housing park owners, operators, and tenants if the housing park owner or operator shifts responsibility for monthly utility payments to the park tenants.

(b) Electronically during the course of the transaction in a manner that permits the user to cancel the transaction without incurring the fee.

II. The owner or operator of an electronic customer service terminal shall not be required to include in a disclosure under paragraph I any fee that a financial institution or other company may charge the user under separate agreement with the user for engaging in such transaction.

III. For the purposes of this section, "electronic customer service terminal" means any terminal, machine or device, including but not limited to an automated teller machine, remote service unit, or point of sale device, which dispenses cash or its equivalent to a user or enables a user to engage in any electronic financial transaction involving an account of the user at any financial institution or other type of company.

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: New Hampshire's delivery of mental health care has been a model for the rest of the nation. HB 1290, relative to savings accounts for children. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Eric N. Lindblade for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: There was no need for this bill, as all but two banks offer children's savings accounts which are fee free. Vote 12-0.

Rep. Eric N. Lindblade for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: To enact this bill would place an undue burden on our financial institutions, inasmuch as fees are a necessary part of their income. Investigation revealed that about 80% of accounts in our banks have less than $7,500.00 in them. To exempt them from fees is unwarranted. Further, banks already have in place special accounts for the elderly and people with limited incomes. Vote 18-0.

HB 1435, recodifying certain health insurance statutes. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. William R. Phinney for Environment and Agriculture: This piece of legislation is to amend the pharmacy laws to allow veterinary medical doctors to have medications compounded in their presence, to comply with state law, but to allow dispensing at a time they may not be on the premises. This is necessitated by the fact that they need to be allowed to meet the needs of their clients. Vote 14-0.

HB 1601, extending the reporting date for the pet overpopulation committee. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Mary Ellen A. Pitman for Environment and Agriculture: This bill simply extends the reporting date for the pet overpopulation committee. There was no opposition to this extension. Vote 15-0.

The governor is authorized to draw a warrant for said sum out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

HB 1171-FN, relative to fees for number plates. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Robert L. Wheeler for Finance: The committee felt that if the cost of manufacturing three-color plates increases over two-color plates then the fee should increase. This bill, however, will not take effect until the governor authorizes a general issue of plates which have three or more colors. Vote 24-0.

Amendment (4669L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Fee Increased; Reflectorized Plate Inventory Fund Limited. Amend the section heading of RSA 228:25 and paragraph I to read as follows:

228:25 [Addition to Fund] Reflectorized Plate Inventory Fund.

2 Reflectorized Plate Inventory Fund Limited. RSA 228:25, II is repealed and reenacted to read as follows:

HB 1244-FN, relative to aeronautical carriers. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Kenneth L. Weyler for Finance: In a routine LBA audit the existence of this fund was questioned. Current policies have prevented any money from being deposited into it. The operations of the Division of Aeronautics will be unaffected by eliminating the fund. Good fiscal management supports eliminating this fund. Vote 17-0.

However, for any property purchased with or received as part of the proceeds of such sales, title shall be vested in the state of New Hampshire.

HB 1617-FN-A-L, imposing a flat tax to replace certain state and local taxes. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Neal M. Kurk for Finance: This bill, along with HB 1387, addresses in a specific way the general issue of funding education. The Committee believes that this matter must be examined seriously by the legislature, and the House in particular, given its constitutional role in tax matters. The Supreme Court decision in the Claremont law suit makes such a study most timely. We expect to introduce a formal House Resolution in this session that, if adopted, would put the House intent on record. It is anticipated that the study will occur during the interim and perhaps into the next session. To facilitate this study, the Committee recommends that HB 1617 be voted Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 24-1.

HB 1152, relative to periodic payments of judgments by criminal defendants. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Alf E. Jacobson for Judiciary and Family Law: The bill removes the requirement that probation officers may be empowered to investigate a defendant's ability to pay in civil matters. The amendment changes the word "criminal" to "civil" in the title. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4650L)

Amend RSA 358-A:3, IV-a as inserted by section 3 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

IV-a. Transactions entered into more than [2 years prior to the complaint] 3 years prior to the time the plaintiff knew, or reasonably should have known of the conduct alleged to be in violation of this chapter; provided, however, that this section shall not ban the introduction of evidence of unfair trade practices and deceptive acts prior to the [2] 3-year period in any action under this chapter;

HB 1304, requiring the supreme court to make certain documents accessible to the public. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Kennedy for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill would be better served by referring the subject matter to the electronic information study committee. Vote 15-0.

HB 1312, requiring the supreme court to order disclosure of all materials related to a secret study of the probate courts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Reps. David W. Hess and Janet G. Wall for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee unanimously voted this bill inexpedient because it is directed at an aspect of the Fairbanks affair which can be addressed under HB 1593-FN. Vote 15-0.

HB 1316, relative to the right-to-know law and the cost of certain materials to the public. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Kennedy for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill will be better handled by the electronic information study committee. Vote 16-0.

HB 1342, relative to charges for employee time to review public records. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard E. Kennedy for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill would be better served by referring it to the electronic information study committee. Vote 13-3.

HB 1348, requiring judicial officers and judicial employees to file financial disclosure reports. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Nick Hart for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee found this bill redundant to current policy. All judges now have to file reports on investments and cannot accept gifts. All judges are subject to a code of ethics, Supreme Court Rule #38. This bill also would include all judicial employees and requires such detailed documents that currently cost federal judges an average of $25.00 a person a year to file. The bill would also require increased personnel in the Judiciary Council to administer, resulting in increased costs to the state. Vote 13-1.

HB 1350, requiring probate judges to be chosen biennially in the general election. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David C. Allison for Judiciary and Family Law: This bill is in violation of the New Hampshire Constitution. Moreover, the Constitutional and Statutory Revision committee has already considered and rejected a proposed constitutional revision relative to this issue by a unanimous vote of that committee. Vote 13-0.

HB 1423, making all court records and proceedings open to the public. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sandra Balomenos Keans for Judiciary and Family Law: The committee has had several bills on this same subject matter, some of which are more sensible and specific in nature. Not all court proceedings, i.e., juvenile, domestic cases, should be open. There will be a bill to follow which will set up a study committee to study access to information in all state agencies and the court system. Electronic access will also be a part of the study. Vote 18-0.

HB 1469, relative to comparative fault and assumption of risk. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Sandra Balomenos Keans for Judiciary and Family Law: The sponsor agreed that at least 3/4's of this bill was not ready for discussion at this time. The remainder of the bill deals with "assumption" of risk defense. For instance, if you know that 40,000 people a year are killed in automobile accidents, you may very well be giving up your ability to collect damages. If your car was hit by a car running a red light, the court may refuse to hear a case because you knew driving was dangerous. Vote 15-0.

HB 1155, relative to the terms for alternate members of zoning boards of adjustment. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Katherine H. Metzger for Municipal and County Government: It seemed sensible to the committee that the elected planning boards and zoning boards have the same number of alternates, with the same term of office, and that the terms be staggered as the elected members' terms are staggered. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4925L)

Amend the bill by replacing section 6 with the following:

6 Number of Alternates Increased; Terms of Alternate Members of Zoning Boards of Adjustment and Planning Boards. Amend RSA 673:6, II and II-a to read as follows:

II. An elected planning board may appoint [3] 5 alternate members for a term of 3 years each[.], which shall be staggered in the same manner as elected members pursuant to RSA 673:5, II.

II-a. An elected zoning board of adjustment may appoint [3] 5 alternate members for a term of 3 years each[.], which shall be staggered in the same manner as elected members pursuant to RSA 673:5, II.

HB 1174-L, relative to the use of municipal capital reserve funds. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Betsey L. Patten for Municipal and County Government: The sponsor of the bill requested the use of Capital Reserve funds that had been authorized to be spent to be available for use to supplement cash flow problems in order to save money on Tax Anticipation Notes. The committee noted that technically it was inappropriate to co-mingle designated funds and general funds. Vote 13-0.

HB 1268, relative to the method for repealing a zoning ordinance. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Katherine H. Metzger for Municipal and County Government: The intent of the bill is to allow the repeal of a zoning ordinance, historic district ordinance, or building code by the same method as amending such ordinance or code. The bill also allows selectmen to be included as "person aggrieved" in an appeal from the decision on the motion for rehearing involving the zoning board of adjustment. Vote 17-0.

Amendment (4915L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to the method for repealing a zoning ordinance and defining a person aggrieved in an appeal from a decision on motion for rehearing.

Amend the bill by inserting after section 2 the following and renumbering the original section 3 to read as 4:

3 Definition of Person Aggrieved. Amend RSA 677:4 to read as follows:

677:4 Appeal from Decision on Motion for Rehearing. Any person aggrieved by any order or decision of the zoning board of adjustment or any decision of the local legislative body may apply, by petition, to the superior court within 30 days after the action complained of has been filed and first becomes available for public inspection in the office of the respective board or body or of its clerk or secretary, setting forth that such decision or order is illegal or unreasonable, in whole or in part, and specifying the grounds upon which the decision or order is claimed to be illegal or unreasonable. The date of filing shall be considered to be the next working day during which the office of the board is open to the public following the day on which the order or decision is rendered. For purposes of this section, "person aggrieved" includes any party entitled to request a rehearing under RSA 677:2.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill provides that the methods for adopting or amending a zoning ordinance, historic district ordinance, or building code may also be used to repeal the ordinance or code.

The bill also provides that the definition of a person aggrieved by an order or decision of the zoning board of adjustment or any decision of the local legislative body applies to an appeal from an order or decision.

HB 1381, establishing a study committee on housing authority payments in lieu of taxes. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Elizabeth A. Cepaitis for Municipal and County Government: The committee determined the bill was unnecessary for two reasons: First, testimony and research revealed that the federal government limits the amount that a housing authority pays in payment in lieu of taxes. At present, the authorities in this state are paying the maximum amount. Second, the senate is sending SB 643 to the House, which will study the same subject. Vote 15-1.

HB 1393-L, relative to providing medical and general assistance benefits. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Katherine H. Metzger for Municipal and County Government: The sponsor agreed that the "downshifting" concerns would be more adequately addressed in HB 1562. Vote 15-1.

HB 1481-FN-L, allowing the town of Londonderry to impose certain user fees on the Manchester airport. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee received information that current state and federal statutes prohibit municipalities from imposing the user fees requested by this bill. Vote 14-1.

HB 1486, allowing a municipality to adopt a plan to delay reassessments on businesses which expand in central business districts. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Paul A. McGuirk for Municipal and County Government: The committee is in the process of studying issues as relate to retail/industrial tax incentives (HB 225 of 1995.) This bill has merit and the idea of "delaying tax assessments" can be folded into that study. Vote 15-1.

HB 1497-FN, relative to disposition by counties of funds of deceased patients of county nursing homes. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Robert W. Brundige for Municipal and County Government: The committee received information that the current system needs to be revised. All interested parties agreed that this bill should go to interim study to allow for the crafting of a comprehensive solution. Vote 15-0.

HB 1455, repealing the permissible fireworks review committee. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. James J. Fenton for Public Protection and Veterans Affairs: This bill alters the membership of the Statutory Committee that reviews, approves and removes firework items from a list of allowed items. Such items are allowed to be sold to the public only if deemed safe by a committee made up of members from the State Police and Fire Marshal's Office, a member from the State Senate, and an alternate appointed by the Senate President, a member of the House Committee on Public Protection and an alternate, plus two members representing the fireworks industry who are associated with the retail sale of consumer fireworks, as well as a member representing the New Hampshire Association of Fire Chiefs. Certain items have been removed from a list of fireworks which include party poppers and "snakes" which are commonly sold in almost every grocery store in the state. This bill as amended requires a list of currently legal fireworks to be posted in every retail outlet that is licensed to sell consumer fireworks. The Fire Marshal's Office was a participant in the amendment process. Vote 10-0.

Amendment (4642L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

relative to the permissible fireworks review committee.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Reference Deletion. Amend RSA 160-B:8, III to read as follows:

III. Expanding the definition of fireworks to cover any other devices used for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, deflagration, or detonation which are not covered by the federal regulations governing class B and class C fireworks but which are deemed by the commissioner[, with the concurrence of a majority of the permissible fireworks review committee established in RSA 160-B:23,] to constitute a threat to public safety.

2 Posting of List Required. Amend RSA 160-B:20 to read as follows:

160-B:20 Sales of Permissible Fireworks Allowed. Notwithstanding RSA 160-B:2, a person who is licensed pursuant to RSA 160-B:6 may sell permissible fireworks to a person 21 years of age or older. Any person who sells permissible fireworks shall not mix permissible fireworks with any other fireworks when displaying them for sale. Any person who sells permissible fireworks shall post in a conspicuous place on the sales premises a list, prepared by the commissioner, of all municipalities in the state where the display or possession of permissible fireworks is prohibited and a list of current permissible fireworks provided by the department of safety.

3 Permissible Fireworks Review Committee. Amend RSA 160-B:23, I to read as follows:

I. There is hereby established a permissible fireworks review committee. The composition of this committee shall be as follows: one senator, and an alternate who shall also be a senator, appointed by the senate president; one representative, and an alternate who shall also be a representative, both of whom shall be [a member] members of the house public protection and veterans affairs committee, appointed by the speaker; the director of the division of state police, or designee; the [director of fire service] state fire marshal, or designee; 2 members representing the fireworks industry, who shall be exclusively associated with the retailing of consumer class fireworks, appointed by the governor; and one member representing the New Hampshire Association of Fire Chiefs, appointed by the governor. The term of office of each member appointed by the governor shall be 2 years and until a successor is appointed and qualified; provided that the first appointments of these 3 members shall be as follows: one for one year, one for 2 years and one for 3 years. The other members of the committee shall serve terms coterminous with their terms in office. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner for unexpired terms. Members shall serve without compensation, except that the legislative members shall receive mileage at the legislative rate.

4 Repeals. RSA 160-B:1, V-b(d), (e), and (f), relative to certain permissible fireworks, are repealed.

5 Effective Date. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the membership of the permissible fireworks review committee. The bill also repeals certain kinds of permissible fireworks.

Rep. Leon Calawa, Jr. for Public Works and Highways: The Master Plan for the New Hampshire Hospital campus gives a guide for all future development on the campus. It addresses traffic, parking, future expansion, use of empty buildings, and the direction the campus should take for orderly change for full use of a very valuable asset that New Hampshire has. (2) Review any changes in the master plan, monitor the effectiveness of the plan under subparagraph (b)(1), and continually review the management of the New Hampshire hospital campus.

Rep. Paula E. Bradley and Rep. Michael D. Whalley for Resources, Recreation and Development: This bill changes the name of the trails manual to be followed by persons constructing and maintaining recreational trails. It also lowers the filing fee accompanying the notice from $25 to $5.00 Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4560L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

(c) A [$25] $5 filing fee shall accompany the notice to the wetlands board. Such fees shall be held in accordance with paragraph III.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill changes the reference to be used by persons constructing and maintaining recreational trails from the Trail Administrators Manual to the Best Management Practices for Erosion Control During Trail Maintenance and Construction and reduces the filing fee for recreational trail permits.

This bill is a request of the study committee on the functions and responsibilities of the wetlands board established by 1995, 184.

SUSPENSION OF RULES

Reps. Ann Torr and Trombly moved that the Rules be so far suspended as to permit referral beyond the deadline of HB 1571, relative to the guidelines for the construction and maintenance of certain recreational trails and reducing the filing fee for permits for certain recreational trails.

Adopted by the necessary two-thirds.

Referred to Finance.

HB 1302, establishing a committee to study methods of improving telecommunication services to the North Country. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. John H. Thomas for Science, Technology and Energy: The committee feels that much of the rural area of the state is at a disadvantage in the availability and accessibility of telecommunication services and technology, and a study committee should be formed to find ways of enhancing these services. Vote 16-0.

Amendment (4804L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT
establishing a committee to study methods of improving telecommunication services to the North Country and other rural areas.

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 Committee Established. A committee is hereby established to study methods of improving telecommunication services to the North Country and other rural areas.

I. Methods for increasing access to statewide communications networks.

II. The feasibility of establishing a statewide toll-free number available to all New Hampshire residents for the purpose of communications network access.

III. The feasibility of improving telecommunications services by adjusting the balance between intrastate long distance rates and basic local service rates.

4 Chairperson; Meetings. The first meeting of the committee shall be called by the first-named representative. The chairperson of the committee shall be chosen by the members at the first meeting.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill establishes a committee to study methods of improving telecommunication services to the North Country and other rural areas.

The committee shall submit a report of its findings to the speaker of the house, the senate president, and the governor and council on or before November 1, 1996.

HB 1478-FN, changing how electric rates are calculated and making certain changes in the general regulation of public utilities. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Jeffrey C. MacGillivray for Science, Technology and Energy: The sponsor has stated that all of the issues raised in this bill have been better addressed in HB 1392, thus this bill was voted Inexpedient to Legislate. Vote 21-0.

HB 1501-FN, requiring the public utilities commission to study certain costs passed on to ratepayers. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Bernard D. Lamach for Science, Technology and Energy: This bill, which focuses on the investment grade of fund investments, particularly Orange County CA bonds, was found Inexpedient to Legislate, as the quality criteria was surpassed at the time of investment. Further, the fund is not endangered, as the total fund value now exceeds the target amount. Vote 15-0.

HCR 21, urging the United States Congress to pass a constitutional amendment to impose 10-year renewable terms on United States Supreme Court justices. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Stephen G. Avery for State-Federal Relations: The committee feels that since there is similar legislation already in Interim Study in the Constitutional & Statutory Revision Committee, the sponsors' concerns can be addressed through this study. Vote 12-0.

HCR 26, petitioning Congress to propose an amendment to the Constitution which establishes a mechanism for the states to nullify certain federal laws and regulations. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Mark I. Holt for State-Federal Relations: While the committee recognizes the concerns of the sponsors, we believe House Joint Resolution 1 of 1995, a Resolution Reaffirming State Sovereignty under the Tenth Amendment to the United States Constitution is the better vehicle to address the balance of powers. Vote 12-0.

HB 1107, relative to the operation of OHRVs. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: This bill repeals a provision of law which states that a person does not need to possess a driver's license while operating an Off Highway Recreational Vehicle on the ice. It makes the law for operation of OHRVs on the ice the same as operation on land. It, therefore, prohibits a person whose license is under suspension from operation, and at the same time allows children to operate while supervised or to operate with an OHRV safety certificate. Vote 14-0.

Amendment (4337L)

Amend the bill by replacing all after the enacting clause with the following:

1 OHRV Operation. Amend RSA 215-A:29 to read as follows:

215-A:29 OHRV Operation and License.

I. No person under 18 years of age shall operate an OHRV unless [he] such person is accompanied by a person at least 18 years of age who is licensed to operate an OHRV, and who has assumed the legal responsibility, and who shall be liable according to law for personal injury or property damage to others which may result from such operation. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to a person operating on land that is owned or leased by [his] such person's parent, grandparent or guardian, or as provided in paragraph II.

II.(a) A person at least 12 years of age who has successfully completed an approved OHRV safety training course, or is licensed to drive a vehicle in accordance with RSA 263, shall be allowed to operate an OHRV in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. A person [shall carry with him at all times while] operating an OHRV [his] shall carry such person's valid driver's license or evidence of the completion of an approved OHRV safety training course, and shall present such evidence to any law enforcement officer who is empowered to enforce this section, upon demand of such law enforcement officer. Any person who possesses a valid driver's license issued by authority of law of another state or a province of Canada or evidence of successful completion of an approved OHRV safety training course authorized by the New Hampshire fish and game department shall be allowed to operate an OHRV in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) A person under the age of 18 who has complied with the provisions of paragraph I or II(a) may operate an OHRV upon a frozen surface of a public body of water, as defined in RSA 215-A:1, XI.

2 Repeal. RSA 215-A:6, XI, relative to the operation of OHRVs upon the frozen surface of a public body of water, is repealed.

3 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill:

(1) Repeals the law that allows a person to operate an OHRV upon a frozen surface of a public body of water without a valid motor vehicle operator's license.

(2) Authorizes a person under the age of 18 to operate an OHRV upon a frozen surface of a public body of water if such person meets certain requirements.

HB 1226, to include uninspected motor vehicles in the definition of junkyard. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. David L. Richards for Transportation: The committee finds that the proposed legislation would have an adverse impact on private persons who restore and rebuild antique and classic automobiles. It could also impact the person who has vehicles that are used seasonally. Vote 16-0.

HB 1310-FN, relative to banning trucks on certain ways at certain times of the year. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Henry P. Mock for Transportation: The committee voted unanimously to find this bill inexpedient for several reasons: (1) It would create a nightmarish process for regulators to determine the amount of rebate of registration fee for each truck restricted on certain posted roads. For example, Trucker A may be restricted on five hundred miles of posted roads this week, but two hundred eighty six miles the following week. (2) Many of our roads and bridges were not constructed to withstand the great weights permitted to be hauled on today's highways resulting in excessive damage; (3) enforcement of the regulations would basically be based on the honor system, and; (4) this was another raid on the highway fund - how much? No one could even "guesstimate." Vote 12-0.

HB 1544, regulating the construction, placement, and removal of swim floats. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Henry M. Boermeester for Transportation: What seemed like a fairly easy bill to address turned out to be more complicated and complex than it appeared to be on the surface. The bill attempted to deal with the problems of privately owned swim floats coming loose and floating about our lakes with no methods in place to identify the owners. The bill requires registration of floats among many other requirements, rules and regulations, etc. The committee could see the growth of bureaucracy, but really wanted to address many safety issues, so settled on studying the many facets of the bill in Interim Study. Vote 14-0.

HB 1591-FN, requiring the department of safety to notify towns of certain persons whose licenses have been suspended. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Rudolph J. Kobel for Transportation: The committee went along with the thought of the sponsor that the intent of this legislation could probably have been met by a request to the Department of Safety. Further, a Sergeant of the Rye Police Department testified that the police department is already notified when a Rye resident loses his/her driver's license by receiving a copy of the letter. Consequently, the committee felt the police department could simply make its own list with the appropriate dates of expiration. Vote 12-0.

HB 1600, extending the reporting date of the paperless title system study committee. OUGHT TO PASS

Rep. Roland M. Turgeon for Transportation: This bill simply extends the reporting date of a study committee established by laws of 1995, 239:6 from November 1, 1995 to 1996. The committee is studying the feasibility of implementing a paperless (electronic) motor vehicle titling system. Vote 13-0.

REGULAR CALENDAR

HB 1194, clarifying the definition of tenancy to exclude campgrounds and camping parks. OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill has two separate amendments. The first one clarifies the definition of tenancy for the purpose of RSA.540, actions against tenants, by excluding campsites, on-site recreational vehicle rental units, cabins and other rental units rented for recreational and vacation use in recreational campgrounds and camping packs, unless the person occupying a unit or campsite has established residency in the campground or camping park. Secondly, the bill also exempts recreational vehicles used in conjunction with scheduled events at motorsport racing facilities from the laws regulating campgrounds and camping parks. Vote 18-0.

Amendment (4777L)

Amend the title of the bill by replacing it with the following:

AN ACT

clarifying the definition of tenancy to exclude campgrounds and camping parks recreational vehicles used at motorsport racing facilities and exempting from certain aspects of the laws regulating campgrounds and camping parks.

Amend RSA 540:1-a, IV(e) as inserted by section 1 of the bill by replacing it with the following:

(e) Campsites, on-site recreational vehicle rental units, cabins, and other rental units rented for recreational and vacation use in recreational campgrounds and camping parks, as defined in RSA 216-I:1, VII. Notwithstanding the exemption in this subparagraph, any person or persons who establish residency in a recreational campground or camping park, as defined in RSA 216-I:1, VII, shall be deemed a tenant under this chapter.

Amend the bill by replacing all after section 1 with the following:

2 New Section; Exception for Motorsport Events. Amend RSA 216-I by inserting after section 14 the following new section:

216-I:15 Exception for Motorsport Events. Except as provided in RSA 216-I:4, II, this chapter shall not apply to recreational vehicles used in conjunction with scheduled events held at motorsport racing facilities. However, the person responsible for the operation of the events shall file a statement of compliance with the governing body for the municipality in which the motorsport facility is located, stating the method of compliance with RSA 216-I:4, II within 7 days prior to the commencement of each event. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or modify authority of local municipalities to enforce local regulations and ordinances relative to zoning and health and safety.

3 Effective Date.

I. Section 1 of this act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.

II. The remainder of this act shall take effect upon its passage.

AMENDED ANALYSIS

This bill clarifies the definition of tenancy for the purposes of RSA 540, actions against tenants, by excluding campsites, on-site recreational vehicle rental units, cabins and other rental units rented for recreational and vacation use in recreational campground and camping parks.

The bill also exempts recreational vehicles used in conjunction with scheduled events at motorsport racing facilities from the laws regulating campgrounds and camping parks, except those provisions regulating the discharge of septage or waste water.

Adopted.

Report adopted and ordered to third reading.

HB 1262, prohibiting advertising of tobacco products on billboards. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Beverly A. Gage for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This bill deals with seven billboards in the state and is prompted by Federal Law. The bill also denies free speech in violation of the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article 22 of the New Hampshire Constitution. The Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act, called "FCLAA", preempts this bill. Congress provided in FCLAA that "no requirement or prohibition based on smoking and health shall be imposed under state law with respect to the advertising or promotion of cigarettes." Vote 11-6.

Rep. Rogers spoke against.

Rep. Gage spoke in favor.

On a division vote, 184 members having voted in the affirmative and 121 in the negative, the report was adopted.

HB 1276-FN, relative to mandatory automobile insurance. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard H. Krueger for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: New Hampshire has consistently remained among the top five states with the lowest number of uninsured motorists. We have achieved this record without the increased cost of a bureaucracy, which would be passed on to the consumer and not reduce the number of uninsured motorists on the road in any measurable way. A large percentage of uninsured motorists involved in accidents are from other states which have their own form of mandatory insurance. There is a small segment within the uninsured who are the working poor for whom mandatory insurance would severely impact their ability to survive in the job market until they can improve their lot. That the number of uninsured motorists would be reduced is statistically doubtful, but, that the cost of auto insurance will rise as it has in other states is a surety. Vote 10-5.

Adopted.

HB 1299, limiting the credit card interest rates which may be charged to New Hampshire residents. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Eric N. Lindblade for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: The credit card industry needs to be reined in. Hard sell promotions lure people into applying for cards although their financial status does not warrant extension of credit. Interest rates are kept high to make up for fraud and loss on the marginal accounts. The study is recommended to cover every facet of the credit card industry. Vote 11-7.

Adopted.

HB 1340-FN, relative to title insurers and title insurance agents. REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY

Rep. Anthony Syracusa for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: This excellent bill revises and updates the laws regulating title insurers and the insurance agents. This is a very complicated task. The bill uses NAIC Title Agent model legislation. However, the NAIC Title Insurer model has not been finalized. In addition, both model laws do not reflect unique New Hampshire laws on real estate transfers and recording systems. These concerns will be addressed during interim study. Vote 17-0.

Adopted.

HB 1347, relative to interest on arbitration awards and judgments. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Richard H. Krueger for Commerce, Small Business, Consumer Affairs and Economic Development: In 1968, interest on judgment was enacted in hopes of obtaining quicker court settlements. This bill would have interest apply at arbitration and even before the hearing begins and use compound interest instead of simple interest. This bill clearly is contrary to the very purpose and intent of interest on judgment. Vote 13-5.

Adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Newland moved that HB 1588-FN, requiring the registration of farmers who use the somatotropin bovine growth hormone and requiring sellers of the hormone to list their New Hampshire customers with the division of public health services, be made a Special Order for Wednesday, March 6, 1996 and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

CACR 20, relating to the distribution of revenue from taxes on earned and unearned income to municipalities to fund education. Providing that all revenue from taxes on earned and unearned income shall be distributed to municipalities to fund education. INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE

Rep. Robert A. Scott for Constitutional and Statutory Revision: Although the motivation of the bill is well-intended, the practicality and necessity of it at the present time renders it impossible for implementation. Vote 13-2.

Rep. Jacobson spoke against.

Rep. Scott spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

On a division vote, 189 members having voted in the affirmative and 117 in the negative, the report was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER

Rep. Holden moved that CACR 21, relating to requiring that the attorney general be elected by the legislature. Providing that the attorney general be chosen by joint ballot of the senators and representatives, be made a Special Order for Wednesday, March 6, 1996 and spoke in favor.

Adopted.

CACR 23, relating to compensation for members of the general court. Providing that members of the general court shall be reimbursed for actual and reasonable expenses incurred for legislative business with certain limitations. MAJORITY: REFER FOR INTERIM STUDY. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS WITH AMENDMENT.

Rep. Dana S. Hilliard for the Majority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The committee believes that the issue involving legislative compensation should be thoroughly studied before offering a proposal to the electorate in the form of a CACR. Vote 9-6.

Rep. Thomas I. Arnold for the Minority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: This CACR, as amended, should be presented to the people. It merely substitutes reimbursement for "actual and reasonable expenses incurred for legislative business," for the reimbursement for "mileage." This will permit fair reimbursement for all members of the General Court rather than the arcane formula which presently gives the least to those living 22.5 to 50 miles from Concord, more to those living within 22.5 miles of Concord, and a federal tax windfall to those living more than 50 miles from the Capitol. This change would treat all according to their actual expenses and would make the reimbursement non-taxable. Let's move toward a more honest, forthright system.

Rep. Arnold spoke against.

Rep. Hilliard spoke in favor.

Adopted.

CACR 24, relating to compensation for public taking of private property. Providing that a person shall be justly and fairly compensated for the public taking of any part of such person's property. MAJORITY: INEXPEDIENT TO LEGISLATE. MINORITY: OUGHT TO PASS.

Rep. Charles W. Chandler for the Majority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The committee feels this CACR poses a very real threat to a local community's ability to protect property values through rational zoning regulations. The implementation costs of this CACR could bankrupt state and local governments and cripple government's ability and responsibility to protect natural resources, public health and safety. The committee notes that any citizen currently possesses the right to seek damages in court if a public taking is perceived to have occurred. Vote 13-5.

Rep. Philip T. Cobbin for the Minority of Constitutional and Statutory Revision: The requirement of just and fair compensation for the taking of whatever part of one's property by unbridled state and local laws, ordinances and regulations must be addressed. This question would ask our citizens to vote whether to demand compensation for ever increasing restrictions on one's right of acquiring and possessing property and seeking happiness or accepting the status quo and experiencing ever increasing parts of their property being taken or applied to public uses, without their consent or compensation.

Rep. Camm spoke against and yielded to questions.

Rep. Sabella spoke in favor and yielded to questions.

Rep. Charles Chandler spoke against.

Rep. Camm requested a roll call: sufficiently seconded. The question being the adoption of the report.
